PI2025 #0012 – A Right To Health

Every government interference in the economy consists of giving an unearned benefit, extorted by force, to some men at the expense of others."

*"How come we don't start plagues anymore?
Are we one of those boring couples?"*

"Our, the American People's" President-to-be Donald J. Trump, if he has his way, will have Dr. Oz oversee America's MEDICAID program. Dr. Oz is sure to start a firestorm with his stand on health care. Dr. Oz, onetime Congressional Senate candidate for Pennsylvania, maintains people uninsured do not have a right to health. Why Dr. Oz would be controversial with such a stand is confusing.

"If ever a time should come, when vain and aspiring men shall possess the highest seats in Government, our country will stand in need of its experienced patriots to prevent its ruin."

~ Samuel Adams

When he asks what's wrong instead of reading your mind like he is supposed to

How Anyone, Insured Or Uninsured, has a right to health is inexplicable. Medical science is incapable of making someone unhealthy healthy if an afflicted person does not respond to treatment. It's not a political matter. A 'right,' in theory, can not be denied. People are born with afflictions medical science can remedy with limited or no success. No Constitution, no law can make someone healthy by decree.

"I didn't know I was a slave until I found out I couldn't do the things I wanted."

~ Frederick Douglass

Politicians And Legislators Can Make health a political football for sake of attracting votes. No elected politician-legislator can assure “Us, the American People” unhealthy people will become healthy because legislators-politicians succeed passing and enacting laws requiring society to come up with a healthcare system to provide unlimited access to healthcare, regardless cost or ability to pay.

"The two enemies of the people are criminals and government, so let us tie the second down with the chains of the Constitution so the second will not become the legalized version of the first."

~ Thomas Jefferson

“We, the American People,” regardless our sense of compassion or charity, are on a fool’s errand if we are persuaded to vote in office politicians-legislators because they promise a healthy nation by force of law. America’s Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act (PACA/ObamaCare) of 2010 has not been able to insure every American, much less deliver health to every American. Rights are limited.

"An armed society is a polite society."

~ R. Henlein

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to define or limit their 10th Amendment powers beyond Constitutional constraint. They exercise self-government to preserve their liberty.

"Every child in America entering school at the age of five is mentally ill because he comes to school with certain allegiances ... It's up to you as teachers to make all these sick children well - by creating the international child of the future."

A Media Writer Has A Curious Take on President-to-be Donald J. Trump's pick to co-chair pending Department Of Government Efficiency (DOGE). Writer claims Trump DOGE co-chair, Elon Musk, given DOGE materializes and Musk is co-chair, looks at Congress as employees. How DOGE principals happen to see Congressional legislators doesn't change Congressional legislator obligation.

"Every month that we do not have an economic recovery package 500 million Americans lose their jobs."

~ Nancy Pelosi

“We, the American People” would be savvy to make sure they who make up Trump MAGA-mania don’t get too caught up in MAGA-mania. President Donald J. Trump and GOP Election 2024 legislative office winners won an election. Election 2024 winners have no more mandate to institute their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) than election winners since our elections began.

"Place before the eyes of men and position of POWER, that shall at the same time be a place of PROFIT, and they will remove heaven and earth to RETAIN it."

~ Ben Franklin (Courtesy an AAH reader.)

Those Of “Us, the American People” who see President-to-be Donald J. Trump and Election 2024 GOP winners as some sort of revolutionary reformers would be smart to sit back, think about it, and come to grips with how America runs at legislature levels. America’s legislators are an egotistical bunch. They sit in lawful authority. Their lawful authority, though, is subject to America’s public OK.

"Resolve to serve no more, and you are at once freed. I do not ask that you place hands upon the tyrant to topple him over, but simply that you support him no longer; then you will behold him, like a great Colossus whose pedestal has been pulled away, fall of his own weight and break into pieces."

"Our, the American People" will always be impacted by America's legislators' proclivity for individual interpretation on just how America's Constitutional precepts and protections shall be applied in law. No legislator defers to legislative chief executives beyond how chief executive action might complement an individual legislator's aim of making his/her/multi-gender PAVB lawfully coercive.

"Liberty is not a means to a higher political end. It is itself the highest political end."

~ President Harry Truman

Despots, Tyrants, Autocrats, Dictators. They can be counted on to change rules when they think they might run into roadblocks against getting their way. “Our, the American People’s” media report Congressional House Speaker Mike Johnson, supposedly at risk of losing his speakership, wants to change Congressional House rules so only GOP legislators can vote to take away his coveted gavel.

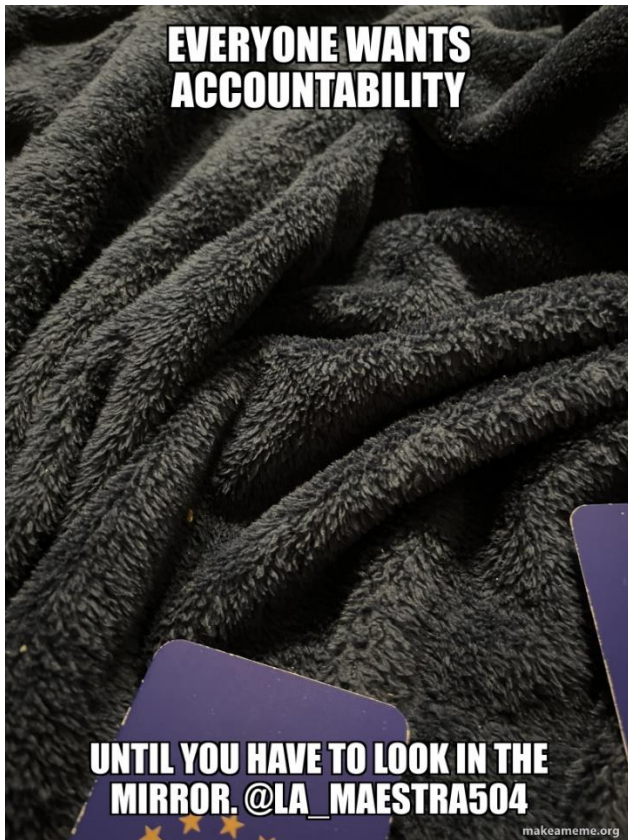

“Covenants without the sword are but words and of no power to bind a man”
 ~ Thomas Hobbs, Leviathan

If Congressional House Legislators Merit remaining in Congress, they will not allow Speaker Johnson to change rules to create any sort of partisan legislative advantage. Wouldn't hurt for Speaker Johnson's constituents to tell Speaker Johnson to stop acting like a spoiled schoolyard adolescent mad about not being picked for a dodgeball team. Worse, Speaker Johnson would be thwarting public electorate will.

“To read too many books is harmful.”

~ Mao Zedong

“We, the American People,” if we have a modicum of gumption for self-government, don’t send people to legislatures so other legislature members can boss our representatives around. Legislature members answer to their voting constituents. No one else. If there are arbitrary rules hampering legislature members from voting equality, we would be well-advised to scrap those rules and authors.

“There is no art which one government sooner learns of another than that of draining money from the pockets of the people.”

~ Adam Smith

Our Dissatisfaction With America's Government – at any level – has an antidote. An antidote to government tendency for growth and ever-greater lawful power over “Us, the American People.” We but need only band together and grace government offices with our sovereign citizenry presence. Our very presence might be cause for titivation and a renewed effort to assure us our money is well spent.

"When you see that trading is done, not by consent, but by compulsion — when you see that in order to produce, you need to obtain permission from men who produce nothing — when you see corruption being rewarded and honesty becoming a self-sacrifice — you may know that your society is doomed."

People Expecting To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to enact, impose, or increase taxes without securing a majority vote approval in all jurisdictions affected. They protect against property confiscation.

~ Winston Churchill

2025 Neared As “Our, the American People’s” Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) Chief Justice John Roberts warned Americans at large, and incoming President-to-be Donald J. Trump’s Administration, not to stray from fabled rule-of law. SCOTUS Chief Justice Roberts cautioned against intimidating judges and ignoring court rulings. Our neck hair would be justifiably raised and wary.

"The power of the Executive to cast a man into prison without formulating any charge known to the law and particularly to deny him the judgement of his peers is in the highest degree odious and is the foundation of all totalitarian government whether Nazi or Communist."

~ Winston Churchill

Law articles on Google telling you to consult a lawyer to learn more
but you are the lawyer:

“We, the American People,” contrary to how some might see judicial authority as judicial authority rests in law, are final arbiters of legislative and judicial goings-on. It is by our pleasure legislator and magistrate are allowed to consider their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) lawfully compulsory. In free societies, sovereign citizenry PAVB supersede legislative-judicial PAVB decree.

"Socialism assails the preeminence of the individual; Liberalism seeks ... to build up a minimum standard for the mass. Socialism exalts the rule; Liberalism exalts the man. Socialism attacks capitalism; Liberalism attacks monopoly."

~ Winston Churchill

Lawyers when people call them
'argumentative'

It Would Be An Invitation To Tyranny for "Us, the American People" to look on SCOTUS Chief Justice Robert's implied assertion America's courts have sacrosanct authority and lawful power over our, citizen sovereignty, will in all legislative-judicial matters. America's federal (U.S./National) Constitution preamble makes it clear 'We, the People,' not law, not court, are masters of our choice.

"We contend that for a nation to try to tax itself into prosperity is like a man standing in a bucket and trying to lift himself up by the handle."

~ Winston Churchill

SCOTUS Chief Justice Robert's Lawful Supremacy affirmation reflects, inadvertently or by intent, how errant legislator and errant magistrate might misconstrue their authority and lawful power over us. Our sovereign citizenry makes legislators and magistrate subordinate to our will. It is by our electorate will they are authorized (and bound) to uphold our will. They are not at Liberty to define or limit it.

"It is a socialist idea that making profits is a vice; I consider the real vice is making losses."

~ Winston Churchill

People Determined To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to enter into defined-benefit contracts with collective bargaining units to confiscate American's property. They exercise citizen sovereignty to protect their property.

"Promised elections are cancelled, the loved leader becomes a tyrant and his people lose all rights, including freedom of speech and press, becoming a totalitarian state for the next 35 years. For those Americans currently willing to agree to have some of their rights curtailed for temporary security, I'd urge them to look south -- to Cuba."
