"Anarchy is all around us all the time. This fact can be discovered via two rather pedestrian methods of investigation: 1 – being awake; and, 2 – looking around."

~ Wilton Alston

Interest rates Are Far Too High. Saith President-to-be Donald J. Trump. "We are inheriting a difficult situation from the outgoing administration, and they're trying everything they can to make it more difficult." Saith President-to-be Donald J. Trump. So,"We, the American People" know why we're in for troubled socio-economic times. Biden-Harris Administration bumbling. Saith Donald J. Trump.

"So, widely disparate worldviews, sharing only a distrust of centralized power, are being drawn together, being shown that they really aren't all that different because they agree on the primary, most central issue for any political theory – just who will get to shoot whom, and why?"

~ Joshua Katz

There Is Every Reason For “Us, the American People” to expect America’s Congressional opposition-party legislators will do everything they can to keep President-to-be Donald J. Trump and his Administration-to-be from advancing Trump/MAGA socio-economic agenda. Less than two years’ hence, Election 2026 voters will pass judgement on how well Donald J. Trump Administration fared.

"Almost all of your daily behavior is an anarchistic expression. How you deal with your neighbors, coworkers, fellow customers in shopping malls or grocery stores, is often determined by subtle processes of negotiation and cooperation."

Two Years Is Scant Time for America's government to do much of anything by way of reform. It should come as no surprise when, come election 2026 campaign season, "Our, the American People's Trump Administration will lay blame for their slow-moving socio-economic agenda advance, if it advances at all, squarely at Congressional opposition party legislators' feet. Who'll share small fault.

"I call it hostage taking when after you have paid off your house you still have to pay the government rent in perpetuity just to able to stay there--they call it property taxes. Worse yet, you have no power to be able to negotiate with your abductor. You are truly powerless." \

~ Sandra Hamilton

It Is All Too Easy To Blame legislators – and courts and chief executives and government officials at large – when government action or inaction does not meet with public expectations. America's government works for America's sovereign citizenry. Bad government in America grows out of an inept or passive sovereign citizenry. Neither Election 2024, Election 2026, no election can fix such.

"The dissolution of the dollar-oil empire will have a world wide impact. Economic law and moral truth cannot be repealed; and they will not remain on the sidelines indefinitely. "

~ Wes Alexander

People Committed To Living In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to overrule Commonwealth/State (10th Amendment) Sovereignty as determined and defined by citizens of those respective Commonwealths and States. They uphold limited government without equivocation.

"As the U.S. emits dollars, the rest of the world's nations emit their own paper.....trying to keep up. What we are seeing in the currency markets is merely relative, but important, degrees of badness."

"It would never occur to people that they are victims of deliberate plundering by their own government, and deceitful pilfering by their banks, covered up by the mendacity of academia and the financial media."

~ Antal E. Fekete

Those Of "Us, the American People" who think America's legislative-judicial system is nor politically biased need only look to a North Carolina State Supreme Court race where North Carolina's High Court blocked a justice race certification due trailing incumbent justice claimed some 60,000 votes should be thrown out for clerical errors. Two recounts have, reportedly, shown incumbent justice lost.

"When people owe money and can't pay it back, someone is going to take a loss. You can diddle with the details all you want....all you're going to do is to shift the loss from someone who deserves it onto someone else."

~ Bill Bonner

how smart they are.
Rich men don't tell you how rich they are.
Tough men don't tell you

Honest men don't tell you

Con men do.

The media's job these days is to make you believe that the views of 10% of the country represent 90% of the country!

North Carolina Voters Could Resolve contest by demanding their Supreme Court justice/trailing candidate show unequivocal evidence voters who stand to have their ballots disallowed were, in fact, not 'qualified' voters. 60,000 voters able to vote with error-laden records would indicate an election system fraught with ineffective administration. Case resolution is weeks away. Justice suspended.

"Without sound money, there is no protection for savings and property, nor capital accumulation, nor long-term investment, nor entrepreneurship, nor social advance. Without the right to own and control property, we have no real say over our lives."

~ Lew Rockwell

In A Somewhat Related Matter, H1-B high-skilled worker VISA program is, though a matter of law, under fire by said-to-be right-wing critics who would rescind it. Reputable academics are reported in favor of doubling or tripling numbers of H1-B workers allowed annually. Elon Musk, a President-to-be Donald J. Trump deportation initiative supporter came under controversy supporting H1-B.

"The law is whatever those in power say it is.... Under positivism, whoever or whatever controls the government, whether a majority or a minority, always rules and always gets its way."

~ Andrew Napolitano

“We, the American People” who are high-tech business owners might not discover an H1-B applicant would be connected to, say, terrorist movements or other groups aimed at sabotaging America’s economy by infiltrating key industries. Those of us who’ve been through background investigations know how thorough investigations can be. H1-B, being lawful and time-tested, ought be low-risk.

"Most Americans have believed the Lie for so long that they have come to expect it; to lust after it. They want politicians to tickle their ears. The last thing they want to hear is the whole truth and nothing but the truth. They want things from government that are unlawful for government to provide. They have a messianic complex when it comes to government. It is their god surrogate."

~ William H. Huff

People Aspiring To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to impose direct taxes of any kind. They refuse to allow government to confiscate private property.

Something On Order Of Half Planet Earth's humans (possibly a share of 'inhumans') use META social platforms. Media reports accurate, those 4-million-odd information traders will not be subject to fact checking as once they were. Something to do with promoting free speech, alleged reason. So, "We, the American People" can feel free to write our minds, courtesy META. Write away, META Users.

"Try to imagine a country where theft was the principle means of survival. It is easy to see how such a society would soon become bankrupt. Whenever people urge government to create laws that rob Peter to pay Paul or themselves, they participate in legal theft."

~ Wes Alexander

Censorship And Free Societies go together like oil and water. Doesn't stop anyone who wants to have anything they don't like suppressed. Anathema for legislative office seekers, for example, to be called on to explain their motives for seeking office. Motives disguised as they may be, one thing is crystal clear. Legislative office seekers intent their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) mandatory.

"The self-styled 'best and brightest among American's present gaggle of 'leaders' are being exposed as perhaps the worst and stupidest ruling class ever known--a true kakistocracy."

~ Edwin Vieira

America's Commonwealth, Federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions have no power to keep people from seeking and attaining legislative office, whereby they can work to make their PAVB lawfully compulsory, regardless how their PAVB might conflict with PAVB held by an ordinary sovereign citizenry. It's up to sovereign citizenries to assure their PAVB are not infringed on by law.

"The state's most fundamental purpose, the activity without which it cannot even exist, is robbery."

~ Roberts Higgs

WHEN YOU TEAR OUT SOMEONE'S TONGUE,

YOU'RE NOT PROVING THEM WRONG, YOU'RE PROVING YOU'RE AFRAID OF WHAT THEY HAVE TO SAY.

"We, the American People" are irredeemable fools to think America's Constitutions can keep tyrannical minded people from seeking and attaining legislative office. We can keep those who attain office from getting their PAVB way through law. We can, by proactive citizen pressure, stop PAVB0-criven legislation from becoming law. Unless we want legislators to impose PAVB we hold supreme.

"What chance does peace have when millions of well-heeled, politically connected opportunists of all stripes depend on the continuation of a state of war for their personal financial success?"

~ Robert Higgs

People Determined To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to cause any citizen to be drawn into an obligation to assume responsibility for public debt for reasons other than to defend These United States. They uphold self-government and their option to protect their property and financial security as they see fit.

"Our rulers have led us from one unnecessary slaughter to the next; and, to make matters worse, they have exploited each such occasion to fasten their chains around us more tightly. "

"Never, however, do they so much as hint that the people may have a choice as to whether they wish to retain the state system itself."

~ Murray Rothbard

"Our, the American People's" democrat party analysts are still reeling from Election 2024 GOP sweep. Media coverage, given news is not fake news, misinformation, disinformation, or misdirection, Election 2026 and beyond democrat hopefuls are wracking their brains over how to take back legislative power. One former democrat federal agency level spokesperson says time to go on offense.

"In a country whose legal framework authorizes the government to kidnap, torture and murder them, opponents of U.S. policy must decide whether getting out of line--anything from a letter to the editor to direct action--is worth the risk of getting kidnapped, tortured and murdered."

~ Ted Rall

"We, the American People," as strategists grapple with ways to run GOP legislators out of office, would be smart to bear in mind every legislative office election is a contest for who gets lawful power to confiscate property (wealth) and restrict choice. Having lawful power means controlling people's behavior by coercive means. Ideas are secondary. Wielding lawful power is legislators' first aim.

"Patriots are not those who blindly click their heels and salute whatever current politician temporarily occupies the office. Such heel-clickers are generally described as having the makings of a fascist, but a kinder description is that they are people who have misplaced their faith."

~ Charley Reese

It Would BE A Very Good Idea for "Us, the American People" to take a political breather and get a firm grip on why it is legislators seek lawful power. Legislators will, no doubt, declare their desire to preserve hamburgers, apple pie, and Chevrolets. Defend American values. Better, have power to define American values. Better yet, require one and all to abide by lawfully-defined American values.

"There is increased desperation that is palpable among our political and media elites to protect and defend their system. The extent of their wrongdoing over the last several years -- political, legal and economic -- is so extreme that the potential for upheaval in the event of accountability is extreme as well."

~ Glenn Greenwald

Nothing In America's Constitutions says government has power to confiscate property (wealth) or restrict choice. America's Constitutions afford legislators power to make laws upholding Constitutionality; including power to tax. America's federal (U.S./National) Constitution 16th Amendment lets Congress tax income directly, thereby, putting all wealth under government control.

"Few Americans understand that all government action is inherently coercive. If nothing else, government action requires taxes."

~ Ron Paul

People Determined To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to permit public (government-"State") schools to delve into their children's attitudes, values, or beliefs.
