"The US government is on a 'burning platform' of unsustainable policies and practices with fiscal deficits, chronic healthcare under funding, immigration and overseas military commitments."

"The eminence and usefulness of the gold standard consists in the fact that it makes the supply of money depend on the profitability of mining gold, and thus checks large-scale inflationary ventures on the part of governments."

~ Ludwig von Mises

"Our, the American People's" President-to-be Donald J. Trump's noises about tariffs, Canada, Panama Canal, and Greenland are providing more than enough fuel for media coverage to last a while beyond Election Day 2025. Tariffs (trade taxes) have been in news a while, with expert and novice speculating on how Trump-planned tariffs will hinder or help U.S. consumers. Net effect could be nil.

"The gold standard did not fail. Governments deliberately sabotaged it, and still go on sabotaging it. But no government is powerful enough to destroy the gold standard so long as the market economy is not entirely suppressed by the establishment of socialism in every part of the world."

~ Ludwig von Mises

"We, the American People" would be smart to consider one aspect of Trump 'takeover' ideas on Panama Canada, Greenland, and Canada. There has been no news of how people living in Canada, Panama Canada zone, and Greenland might react to their being annexed or subject to control by other nations, different than they now face. Free societies don't just welcome prospects of being supervised.

"The age-old success of the ideologists of the State is perhaps the most gigantic hoax in the history of mankind."

~ Murray Rothbard

Canadian Legislative Representatives are swinging back at notion Trump would make Canada America's 51st state. Canadian legislators are advancing ideas about taking U.S. states under Canadian wing with promises of, say, free health care and tougher gun control. Whether either U.S. or Canadian citizens care to be citizens/subjects of either change in nationality is not up for discussion. Do as told.

"Central banks = centralized economic planning."

~ Michael Nystrom

Renaming Gulf of Mexico Gulf of America is another idea expressed by America's President-to-be Donald J. Trump. Mexican Gulf waters have been known as Mexican Guld for some 400 years, having been referred to by Spanish explorers as a namesake for a Mexican city of similar name. Mexico's president, not to be undone, reportedly, proposed to rename America 'America Mexicana.' Antics.

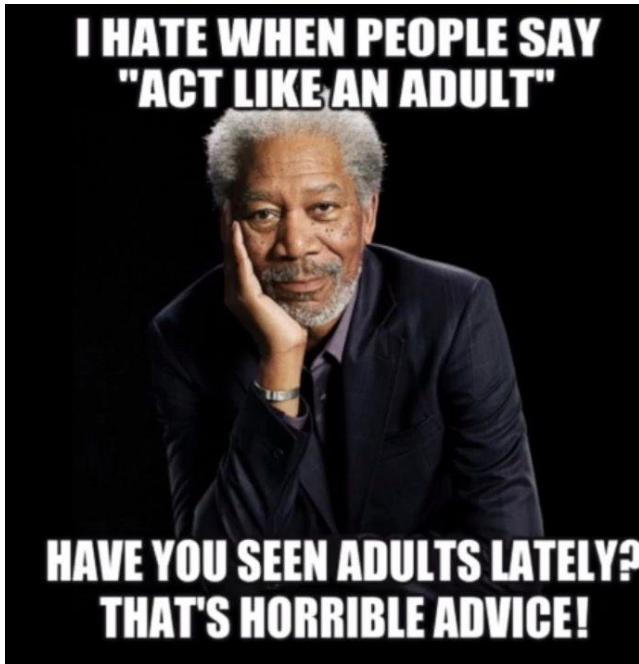

"Throughout history groups of men calling themselves 'the government' or 'the State' have attempted, usually successfully, to gain a compulsory monopoly of the commanding heights of the economy and the society."

~ Murray Rothbard

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to subsidize private enterprise with public money. They uphold free markets.

"Aside from other sound arguments against enforced morality (e.g., that no action not freely chosen can be considered 'moral'), it is surely grotesque to entrust the function of guardian of the public morality to the most extensive criminal (and hence the most immoral) group in society -- the State."

"Transgenderism is the only mental illness demanding that the rest of society adopt the patient's delusion as part of the patient's treatment."

- Dr. Paul McHugh, Distinguished Service Professor of Psychiatry, Johns Hopkins School of Medicine.

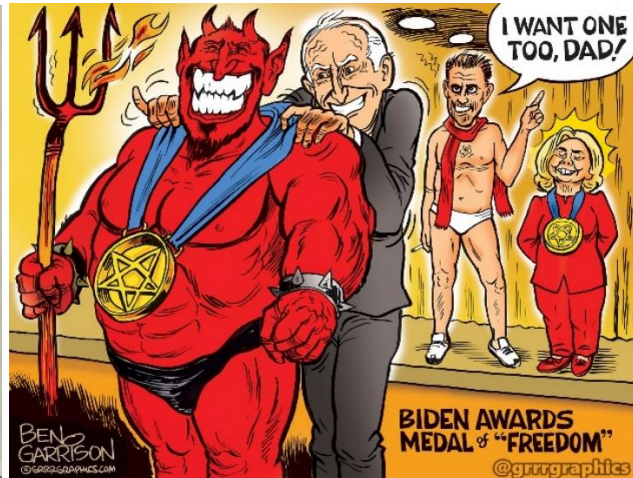

A Former Obama Administration executive level staff member claims "Our, the American People's" very own defense industry is more of a threat to America's security than is China. Reason is common greed. Common greed as in worries about stock prices as opposed to delivering weapons systems on time. Media reports said executive claims covering up industry failures by using political capital.

"When you fully grasp the plain truth that 545 people exercise power of the federal government, then it must follow that what exists is what they want to exist."

~ Charley Reese

Me anytime the Government or the Media says anything

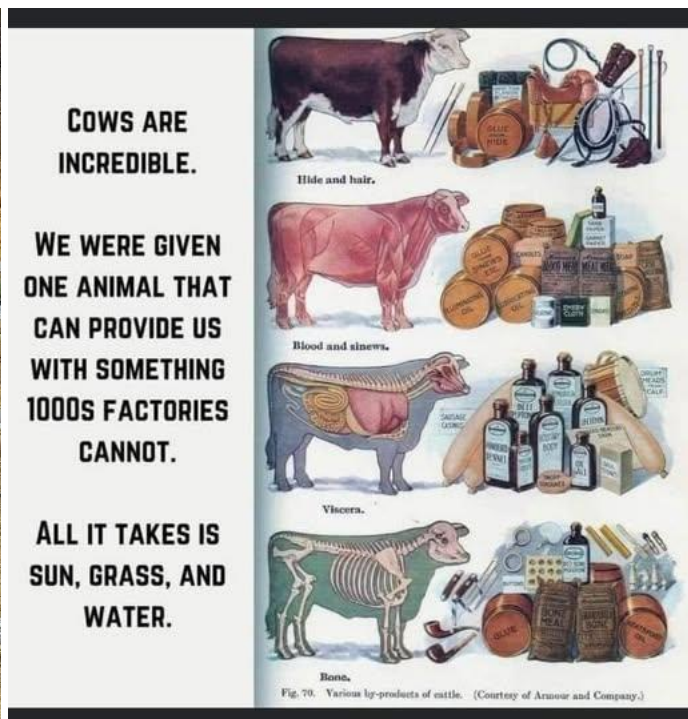

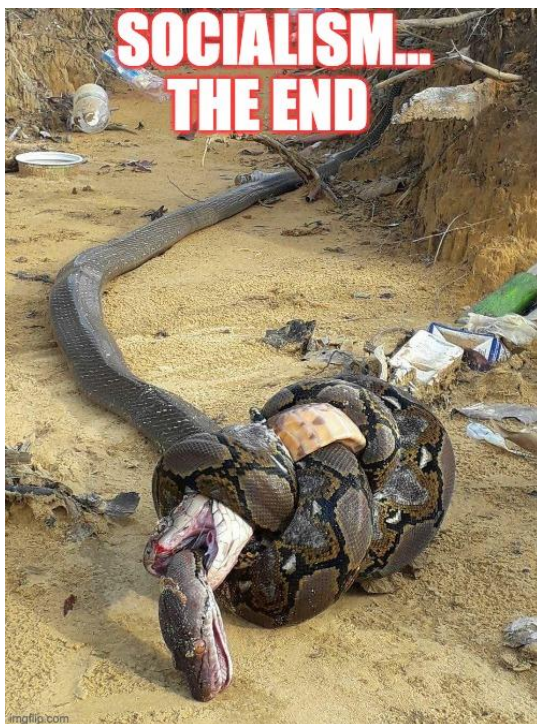

"We, the American People" would not be unreasonable to prefer charges against said executive level staff member for not reporting alleged failures. Intentional profit-over-performance in contracts paid for by taxpayer money would be a serious offense involving collusion and defrauding public funds. May well be other government managerial level people who were negligent or incompetent, as well.

"Unfortunately for us, murderous thugs like bin Laden apparently believe all the tripe about democracy being 'the will of the people,' and so they equate us with the government."

~ Thomas J DiLorenzo

Public Sector Project/Program performance does not have inherent quality assurance or cost accountability akin to private sector project/program management. Private sector subpar or unsatisfactory performance has a direct bearing on a company's return on investment (ROI). ROI is a sales by-product. Sales result from consumer needs met and related repeat sales. Not so public sector.

Public Sector Defense Project/Program shortcomings end up weakening military capabilities meant to defend “Us, the American People” from foreign aggression. It’s not as though private citizens can shop around for better armored vehicles, missiles, or protective gear for combatants. We are dependent on defense system procurement efficiency and integrity. Covering up failures is no reliable solution.

"I have seen the money powers intervene in the markets and yet I don't see anyone talking about the robbery and theft involved. I really do not like thieves and I dislike even more, those thieves who try to con me into thinking that what they are doing isn't theft."

Darol Quotes

People Committed To Living In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to interfere in business matters between private citizens in any way so long as those dealings are free of fraudulent behavior by all parties and do not encourage threats to national security by foreign powers or known enemies of the United States of America. They stand by their right to use their property as they see fit.

"The State has no money. It produces nothing. Its existence is purely parasitic, maintained by taxation; that is to say, by forced levies on the production of others. 'Government money,' of which one hears so much nowadays, does not exist; there is no such thing."

"We, the American People" who expected President-to-be Donald J. Trump and his visionary agenda for America to sail in under billowed sail over smooth waters couldn't be more wrong. Anti-Trump/MAGA initiatives abound, not least offered up by former said to be Trump/MAGA-like supporter turned anti-Trump/MAGA antagonist. One, media reports, wants an aggressive fight.

"Politicians are the only people in the world who create problems and then campaign against them."

Media Report A Trump/MAGA dissenter is calling for “Us, the American People” who are determined to see Donald J. Trump and his agenda go up in flames, if we are democrats, to “be more like GOP” operatives to bring down Donald J. Dissenter says anti-Trump/MAGA agitators should use every social media opportunity available to hold Donald J. accountable for everything Trump does wrong.

"The only things more spurious than a promissory note with a dead president on it are the promises made by whatever goofball occupies the White House when the survey is taken. The national debt provides about 9 trillion examples of these broken promises."

~ Joel Bowman

“Our, the American People’s” government is incapable of meeting our myriad expectations of satisfactory socio-economic problem-solving. Government does not create prosperity, because government has no means of creating prosperity. Government can only confiscate prosperity held by ordinary people and redistribute confiscated prosperity to they who demand confiscated prosperity.

"States, by their very nature, are perpetually at war — not always against foreign foes, of course, but always against their own subjects. The state's most fundamental purpose, the activity without which it cannot even exist, is robbery."

~ Robert Higgs

President-To-Be Donald J. Trump’s agenda is not likely to satisfy those of us who did not vote for Donald J. Election 2024 legislative office winners, Donald J. included, will conduct their positional duties as their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) urge them. Given enough voters are satisfied with Donald J.’s PAVB-driven agenda, Donald J. could be re-elected, albeit Constitutionality.

"One hundred senators, 435 congressmen, one president and nine Supreme Court justices - 545 human beings out of the 235 million - are directly, legally, morally and individually responsible for the domestic problems that plague this country."

~ Charley Reese

People Expecting To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to enter into contracts with collective bargaining units. They forbid government from confiscating their property.

"Such is the confusion between the synapses of the brain and the impulses of the heart that men of sound and reliable judgment have begun using the word 'belief' as an adequate synonym for 'knowledge'."

"Modern day financial engineering has built a lunatic contraption, not subject to adjustment or repair. It spews toxins by connen and masters of fraud with the collusion of compromised USGovt and US financial sector gatekeepers."

~ Jim Willie

It Was A Mere $20B. $20B "Our the American People's" Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Enforcement Division was shorted due multi-year budgeting language error. Comes to a bit shy of $59/American. Eyebrow raiser for any accountant worth decent accountant's pay. Our IRS enforcement needn't worry. Error detected; error corrected. IRS sure not to miss a beat pursuing taxpayer mistakes.

"There is no scenario under which authority trumps morality."

~ Wilton Alston

"We, the American People" would not have to concern ourselves with our tax return mistakes. Nor, would there need to be a gigantic IRS-like system throughout government at any level if we would force our legislators to abolish direct taxation. Abolish direct taxation, and allow no taxation other than commerce tax. Commerce taxation with rates established and approved by local jurisdiction voters.

"When governments and banks are allowed to degrade and ultimately destroy the integrity and value of money, a danger is created that exceeds even the dangers of outright war."

~ Glen Allport

Federal IRS Budget Comes To around $13.5B. To keep some 89,000 employees getting paychecks. Abolishing direct taxation would carve away several billion from taxpayer-funded IRS federal payroll. Commonwealth/state and local IRS-like proportional reductions would save more taxpayer billions. No reason why commerce taxes only couldn't work. Legislators would cry foul in their loudest voices.

"We must treat others as we ourselves would like to be treated, not treat them as harshly as our authority allows. Violence begets violence. It always has. It always will."

~ Wilton Alston

Direct Taxation Enables Legislators to confiscate property (wealth) at legislator whim. A commerce-only tax system would not let legislators do so. No tax revenue from step ladder sales if consumers don't buy step ladders. Ditto for all consumer taxation. Further advantage would be personal tax return elimination. Taxes would be collected at points-of-sale and remitted from same. Red tape minimized.

"A society ignorant of the fact that violence is only capable of generating evil will accept the expansion of violence as the 'logical' remedy for the failure of violence."

~ John Doe
