"We, the American People" have been deluged with IIMR news for years. Cost in suffering and taxpayer costs have been estimated in billions. America's politicians-legislators have used IIMR debacle as a means of trying to discredit rival politicians-legislators and sway American voters. Election 2024 legislative office winners were, reportedly, heavily skewed toward radical IIMR control.

"Impeaching Bill Clinton was relatively easy, because state power was not threatened in any way."

IIMR Is Not A Problem Unique to “Us, the American People.” Few, if any, countries are immune to IIMR troubles. Why there is not a world-wide initiative to correct socio-economic conditions prompting people to leave their homelands to get caught up in IIMR movements is atrocious. People don’t flee their home countries absent cause. Research suggests oppression and suppression principals.

Morgan is a brilliant man.

One Way Or Othe,r Lack Of viable socio-economic opportunity – for whatever reasons – looms as a major reason why people seek other places to live. Geographic resources do not appear a significant reason why people flee. Adversity, of one form or another, looks to be a driving force. Adversity brought on by social system corruption stifling chances for people to live securely and happily.

"If your income doubles, but all prices double, too, then you are not better off, are you? No. But if your income stays the same and prices go down, then you ARE better off, right? Of course your are! Welcome to the gold standard!"

People Determined To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to remain in office if they break their word to their constituents. They dismiss and replace them summarily.

"In short, thanks to our money being gold, the standard of living of was increasing! People's lives were getting better! And they had more! And they bought more, although their nominal wages were exactly the same! And in fact, things were so good that workers were becoming overpaid! Overpaid labor! What a Utopia!"

"Our, the American People's" Congressional Senate Legislator, Bernie Sanders is calling for American workers to have a 32-hour work week - - with no reduced compensation. Congressional Senate Legislator Sanders would, no doubt, if he could, have a law passed forcing America's business owners to implement a 32-hour work week with no benefit losses. Nice work, pushing people by law.

"We, the American People" would not be unreasonable were we to converge on Congressional Senate Legislator Sanders and require Legislator Sanders to show, unequivocally, exactly how Legislator Sanders proposes America's employers are to get funds to support Legislator Sanders's proposed 32-hour, no compensation reduction work week. Tax payers making up for shortfall doesn't fly.

"But what if a central bank, or the government that just sold debt to its central bank, then chooses to purchase equity of privately owned companies--not just debt, but actual ownership? What if this process has begun?"

America's Legislators Are Forever dreaming up schemes to make life better for "Us, the American People." At our expense. America's legislators will, odds are, declare their motives for every life-bettering scheme heartfelt and aimed at eliminating stress from people's lives. Legislators will, odds are, tell one and all it is their duty to improve Americans' lives. They must, therefore, be re-elected.

It's Rather Safe To Say for every winner in politics, there is a loser. Similarly, anti-tax cut legislators are, like as not, predisposed to argue tax cuts have a cost. Taxpayers, invariably, pay for tax cuts. Legislators decide who among taxpayers gets to pay by using selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulation (SADLT&R). SADLT&R is legislators' lawful exploitation power.

"If physical and human nature are too complicated to be predictable, the rationale for state control is swept away. To the controllists, the expression of this fact is a heresy that must be exorcised from our thinking."

According to "Our, the American People's" media, Xi Jinping's words were clear and direct: "People on both sides of the Taiwan Strait are one family" and added, "No one can sever our family bonds, and no one can stop the historical trend of national reunification." It would be unwise for anyone to interpret Xi's words than other than Xi's view Taiwan is part of China and will be Chinese territory.

"The government gave the central bankers--a private cartel--monopoly status in issuing or controlling the nation's currency. In exchange, the central bank guaranteed--not in writing--that it would be a lender to the government."

Chiang Kai-shek's Mid-Twentieth Century break with mainland China included leading defeated Republic of China from Taiwan. Xi Jinping, titular People's Republic of China chief of state, is considered holding a view Taiwanese Chinese people are part of China's mainland population by virtue of Chinese Communist Party's defeat of Chiang Kai-shek's regime. Not an untried territorial struggle.

"We, the American People" are far removed from a time when Mid-east Strongman Sadaam Husein decided Iraq should have Kuwait. America blood was shed on Iraqi sand. Russia's President Putin is two years' trying to take Ukraine. Should China's Xi Jinping decide to lasso Taiwan, America could be drawn in. President-to-be Donald J. Trump might need a Canadian alliance to keep China in tow.

"Humanity is now confronted with the choice of whether "society" is to continue being thought of in terms of institutionalized interests, or is to reflect the varied and spontaneous relationships that emerge from the interactions of free men and women?"

Media Have It China Is Planet Earth's second most powerful nation. Second most powerful nation with a ship-building capacity 200 times larger than America's. Formidable force should China go after Taiwan and America steam and fly to Taiwan's defense. President Trump would need deliver an overwhelming ward-off strike rendering China's sustainable war-making feeble. Nasty urge, conquest.

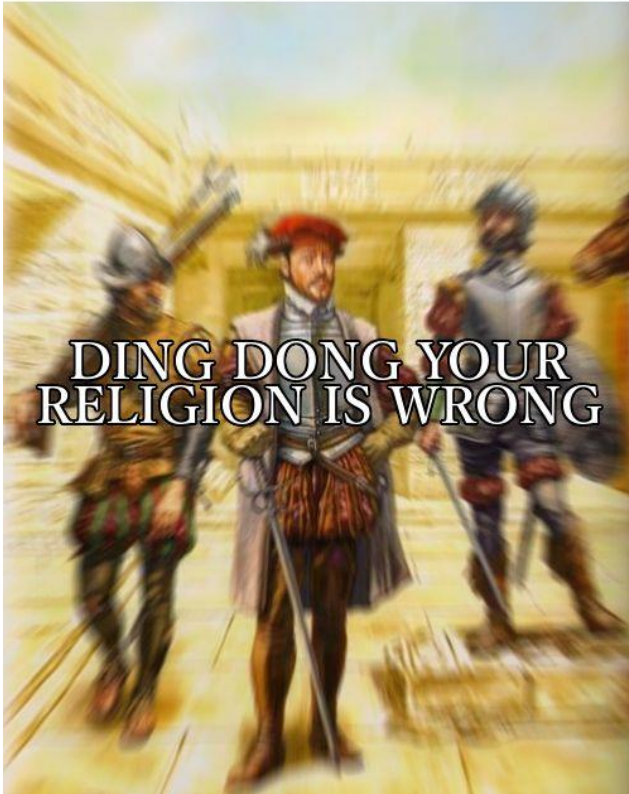

"Even after all the evidence that the war on terror has produced ever more terrorism – and this evidence is offered up by the government's own statistics – the champions of the war on terror cannot think their way out of the intellectual trap into which their ideology of force has locked them."

"Who is so evil, so dastardly, so despicable as to screw with such a successful system? Note the dark and gloomy soundtrack of wolves howling and the distant screams of people being eaten alive. The banks and the government! It's always the damned banks and the damned government!"

~ Mogambo Guru

Government, No Matter How "We, the American People" decide to size up taxation end up, once all fanciful ideas are dissected, figure out, aims to control property (wealth) and choice (Liberty). Legislators who go after direct property (wealth) control pass and enact laws enabling them to confiscate (tax) property (wealth). Those opting for less taxation use policies to control property use.

"Despite the tendency of central bankers to argue that consumers are better served by rising prices rather than falling prices, 'deflation' was never a real threat to Japan. On the contrary, falling consumer prices are one of the natural rewards that people enjoy in market economies. "

~ Peter Schiff

Critics Of "Our, the American People's" legislators who vie for less tax often claim tax cuts benefit wealthy people while subjecting unwealthy people to lives of poverty and grim drudgery. 'Tax less' and 'tax more' legislative camps, in a representative Constitutional government system (like America), are supposed to answer to sovereign citizenries to keep ordinary people from government coercion.

"We have acted like country bumpkins at the state fair with the egg money who, having been fleeced by a bunch of carnival sharpies, look everywhere for someone to blame other than ourselves."

Government Duress (Government Lawful Coercion) through selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulation (SADLT&R)) amounts to making "Us, the American People" lawful vassalage. Not by whips and chains or forced labor. Rather, by government's lawful; power to exact portions of people's fruits of labor to subsidize government policies, programs, and projects.

"...That to secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed, that whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these Ends, it the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it,...."

~ U.S. Declaration of Independence

Government Justifies Property (Wealth) Confiscation (taxation) by rationalizing national need for security, safety, defense, and general welfare. Were we, and ordinary people word-around, to abolish government's SADLT&R power, governments would not be able to wage war for any reason due lack of financial resources. Troubles like terrorism would face similar barriers to financial backing for fear.

"The problem is not that we have 'the wrong people in power,' but the fact that the power exists in the first place."

~ Francois Tremblay

People Prepared To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to enact legislation or regulations requiring any private business to accept collective bargaining organizations or subsidize private enterprise with public money. They keep government from meddling in employer-employee affairs.

"No problem is so pressing and so monumental that heads of state can't get together and turn it into a carnival sideshow."
