"Fear is a condition the state cannot allow to enervate; it must be constantly revitalized."

"Our, the America' People's" former Congressional House Speaker, Newt Gingrich, has issued a caution to President-to-be Donald J. Trump to rethink and reconsider mass illegal, immigrant/migrant/refugee (IIMR) deportation. Former House legislator Gingrich, gained fame for his 10-point legislative 'Contract With America' initiative when an active Congressional House member.

"The highwayman takes solely upon himself the responsibility, danger, and crime of his own act. In short, he does not, in addition to robbing you, attempt to make you either his dupe or his slave."

~ Lysander Spooner

Former Speaker Gingrich Advised President-to-be Donald J. Trump not to be overly restrictive on entrance/contract/citizenship requirements. Gingrich points out Donald J. got some key help getting back to 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue because of someone who came to America, but might have been turned away by an overly restrictive policy. “We, the American People” can discern policy flexibility.

"The state is the least essential of any institution in society. It has the same relationship to society that a parasite does to its host."

~ Lew Rockwell

Speaker Gingrich's Caution To President-to-be Donald J. Trump to go slow on IIMR deportation can be seen as not in line with “Us, the American People” living in a nation of laws, not men.’ Laws subject to selective enforcement might as well not be laws. Not so much such laws are wrong or bad; very much because laws ought be sound enough to be applied uniformly, not manipulated arbitrarily.

"For a rule to aspire to the rank of a law – a just rule – it is necessary that such a rule apply equally and universally to everyone."

~ Hans-Hermann Hoppe

President-To-Be Donald J. Trump, if he can pull off mass deportation, as he asserts he will, could, as likely, declare all existing IIMR free to pursue American citizenship without exception. And work like every other persona does hereabouts who seeks employment and gets hired. We can expect not many applicants abroad following rules would cheer. For they, by stroke of pen, would be long awaiting.

"Fed officials 'fight' inflation in the same manner that Ted Bundy 'dated' women; they pummel the dollar into a pulp, then do their best to avoid blame."

~ Cyd Malone

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to permit federal authorities or courts to define or limit their 10th Amendment powers beyond specific Constitutional constraint. They protect their lives and property against government intrusion.

"Once the principle of government – judicial monopoly and the power to tax – is incorrectly admitted as just, any notion of restraining government power and safeguarding individual liberty and property is illusory. ."

"Our, the American People's" President-to-be Donald J. Trump may be headed down a primrose path by not having a prospective Defense Secretary capable of beefing up America's military to take on a major adversary like Russia or China. So, claims a Russian-born best-selling author and defense analyst in a media article. Specifically, said analyst claims America's military unready for protracted conflict.

"If the State collects taxes from you to save your house when it is on fire, insurance companies will, if you pay your premiums, reimburse you for all your loss. The former thrusts its services on you unasked, and makes you pay for them whether you want them or not. The latter is a purely voluntary arrangement, and is perfectly willing to leave you alone if you do not molest it."

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

“We, the American People,” at risk of being extremely naïve, might be inclined to wonder how an analyst with a good read on , say, Russian war-making capability, would consider Russia so formidable when Russo-Ukraine conflict has drug on as it has with Russia still not having defeated a comparatively small adversary depending heavily on external support and Russia having North Korean military aid.

"Many people still cling to the idea that the main function of the State is to maintain Equal Freedom, an idea which has already been exploded, by showing that the State is the greatest violator of the law - in other words, the greatest criminal."

~ Francis Dashwood Tandy

Analyst In Question Advances America's military unpreparedness case to "Us, the American People" by way of challenging President-to-be Donald J. Trump's proposed Defense Secretary's readiness to lead America's military from a readiness perspective. It is not a practice for Companies looking to increase market share to reveal how they'll do so to competitors. Mostly, by making better mousetraps.

"Oh Liberty, what crimes are committed in thy name!"

~ Madame Roland

While It Would Be Nuts for “Us, the American People” to presume America’s military is completely aware of every threat from every direction and would smite all enemies before they knew they were hit, no military planners, strategists, or commanders would make their abilities common knowledge. As for, say, China, we’d be speaking Chinese if China were capable of bringing America into its fold.

"Violence contains none of the energies that enhance a civilized human society. At best, it is only capable of expanding the material existence of a few individuals, while narrowing the opportunities of most others."

~ Carl Watner

When "We, the American People" hear politicians-legislators tell how they've created jobs, we would be smart to, if such politicians-legislators are within view and earshot, demand they show verifiable evidence they created one, just one, job. We ought not, for example be taken in by President-to be Donald J. Trump, were he to claim his tariff (trade tax) policy creates jobs by forcing U.S. purchases.

"The power to do good to others is also the power to do them harm. Might does not make right; the end never justifies the means; nor may one person coercively interfere in the life of another."

~ Carl Watner

Politicians-Legislators Can Increase their staff payrolls. They can create new agencies. They can increase existing agency staffing. They can write new regulatory legislation, thereby creating need for additional inspectors and auditors. All 'job creation' paid for through selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulation (SADLT&R funded by seizing private property).

"America 2002 is an occupied country, occupied by a predatory State, and shunning of the enemy is one way to drive him away."

~ Ned Beaumont

No Job - No Job, Can Be Sustained without related consumer demand. No sales, no job. No lawful decree put out by a law-making body can drive people to storefront doors. Notable exception being runs on gun stores when government decides to crack down on personal firearm ownership. Jobs are created when consumers express a demand for goods and services. Government declares services.

"Far better that you fear the hidden monsters and hobgoblins who are just waiting to bring terror and havoc to your lives should efforts to increase police powers or budgets fail."

Government, If Government, In Fact, creates jobs, it does so by accounting. Assets come from property (wealth) confiscation through SADLT&R. Liabilities/accounts payable are payments due entitlements and benefits funded by on-going SADLT&R. Accounts receivable amount to projected revenue generated from SADLT&R. Whereas private sector accounts receivable come from sales.

"Are there murderers, kidnappers, rapists, and arsonists in our world? Of course there are, and there will always be, and they do not all work for the state."

People Poised To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to remain in office if they break their word to their constituents. They dismiss and replace them summarily.

When the wind blows in my hair.

Expectation

vs.

Reality

A U.S. Edition Of British Newspaper The Guardian has an article on America's President-to-be Donald J. Trump 'silliness' . . . even before he takes office. Article synopsis topics getting attention and growing serious analysis since Donald J. won presidential Election 2024. Topics include tariffs (trade taxes), multiple-pronged Trump 'imperialism, price drop promise back-off, and 'no guarantees.'

"Harmful and unjust political laws should simply be ignored and disobeyed. We do not need to use the State to abolish the State, any more than we need to embrace war to fight for peace. Such methodology is self-contradictory, and self-defeating, and inconsistent."

~ Carl Watner

It's True. Donald J. Trump is a first order feather rustler. Presidentially speaking, Donald J. is reported to be issuing some 100 Executive Orders (EOs) his first day in office. Wouldn't hurt for "Us, the American People" to keep in mind America's presidents, when issuing EOs, are issuing instructions to America's federal Executive Branch. America Presidents may not issue EOs not based in existing law.

"Individuals make the world go round; individuals and only individuals exist. No man has any duty towards his fellow men except to refrain from the initiation of violence. Let it not be said that I did not speak out against tyranny."

~ Carl Watner

“Our, the American People’s” President may not, for example, issue an EO directing a social media platform to fact check all postings before publishing. Even if a president were to issue such an EO, social media platform in question could ignore such an order inconsequentially. President In question might try some sort of intimidation to bully a social media platform into compliance, also frivolous.

"The only real revolution is in the enlightenment of the mind and improvement of character, the only real emancipation is individual, and the only real revolutionists are philosophers and saints."

~ Will and Ariel Durant

“We, the American People” are not administered by a royal government with lawful power to push people (subjects) around. We comprise a sovereign citizenry, to whom government officials answer for their official acts. And unofficial acts if their unofficial acts bring harm to their fellow citizens. Presidents, like all legislators, are obliged to act by lawful authority, not by personal whim or ideology.

"The use of coercion to compel virtue eliminates its possibility, for to be moral, an act must be uncoerced. Freedom of choice is a necessary ingredient for the achievement of virtue."
