

“See if the law takes from some persons what belongs to them, and gives it to other persons to whom it does not belong. See if the law benefits one citizen at the expense of another by doing what the citizen himself cannot do without committing a crime. Then abolish this law without delay, for it is not only an evil itself, but also it is a fertile source for further evils because it invites reprisals.”

~ Frédéric Bastiat

In Theory, According To AI Sources, permanent laws are part of America’s United States Code. So-called permanent laws are referred to as laws having a long-term effect. Constitutional amendment can cause laws to be repealed. “We, the American People” would be fools to expect laws can not be altered, outright abandoned, rescinded, or replaced by other laws as America’s legislators deem to their liking.

“Do not ever say that the desire to “do good” by force is a good motive. Neither power-lust nor stupidity are good motives.”

~ Ayn Rand

America’s Political System, From A Legislative election point of view, operates to change laws based on how voters perceive elected officials will revolutionize (or sustain) government. “Our, the American People’s” legislators and would-be legislators are empowered by America’s commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions to enact laws legislators find consistent with their mindsets.

“Government ought to be as much open to improvement as anything which appertains to man, instead of which it has been monopolized from age to age, by the most ignorant and vicious of the human race.”

Whether President Donald J. Trump’s BBB will, in fact, keep tax rates from reverting to previous higher levels remains to be seen. Given our cultural dissimilarities and expectations for government to cater to our needs and wants, there is no telling how coming elections will seat legislators who will write new tax laws, tax laws effectively rendering President Donald J. Trump’s BBG wishful thinking.

“Painful as it may be to hear it, there’s nothing special about the people of this country that sets them apart from the other people of the world. It is the Bill of Rights, and only the Bill of Rights, that keeps us from becoming the world’s biggest banana republic.”

~ Alexander Hope

People Intending To Live In Liberty would not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to interfere in business matters between private citizens in any way so long as those dealings are free of fraudulent behavior by all parties and do not encourage threats to national security by foreign powers or known enemies of These United States of America.. They would exercise citizen sovereignty and protect their property.

“Most of the major ills of the world have been caused by well-meaning people who ignored the principle of individual freedom, except as applied to themselves, and who were obsessed with fanatical zeal to improve the lot of mankind-in-the-mass through some pet formula of their own.”

Media Report To "Us, the American People" President Donald J. Trump is prepared to use America's Insurrection Act to quell riotous Minnesota protests against ICE. Why, exactly, there needs be an Insurrection Act is unclear. Presumably, Insurrection Act powers enable government (America's President, especially) to assure civil unrest does not work to undermine American citizens' rights.

"It seems that wherever the Welfare State is involved, the moral precept, "Thou shalt not steal," becomes altered to say: "Thou shalt not steal, except for what thou deemest to be a worthy cause, where thou thinkest that thou canst use the loot for a better purpose than wouldst the victim of the theft."

“We, the American People,” arguably, if we are, in fact sovereign, self-governing citizens, would be in authority to advise government if America’s civil rights are menaced (not be told by government those rights are imperiled) and let government act as officials warrants. Supposedly America’s Posse Comitatus Act guards against civil military force except by Constitutional or Congressional action.

“We must remember that the principal instrument of government is coercion and that our government officials are no more moral, omnipotent, nor omniscient than are any of the rest of us. ”

Use Of Force Is Use Of Force, whether use of force be initiated by people against government, government against people, or government against government. Minnesota government has claimed raids and stops conducted by ICE and DHS unConstitutional. “Our, the American People’s” commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions, supposedly, are superior over laws.

Oddly. While America's Laws are supposed to uphold Constitutionality, there is constant debate over law versus Constitutionality. Systemically, America's courts decide if laws are rooted in Constitutionality. We would be sharp-witted to know courts are operated by officers, judge, and jury who act on their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB). PAVB are not immutable. Impasse.

When I think about all the “fixing of America” that President Trump has had to do: restore our diminished oil reserves, bring down prices for consumers, working on solving the housing crisis, renegotiate the unfair trade deals, deport millions of illegal aliens, find and rescue hundreds of thousands of missing children, restore Title IX, issue an Executive Order declaring there are only two genders, finally win the “war on drugs,” stop wars hither and yonder, take out the Iranian nukes, working on purchasing Greenland, never-ending exposure of FAKE news, flip the food pyramid for a healthier America, restore MILK to our kid’s school lunches, investigating fraud all over the place, implementing DOGE to find fraud and wasteful spending, downsize government bureaucracy, and of course, the latest but not the least (unfortunately) investigate the billions of dollars stolen from Americans by the Minnesota Somalian community... When I contemplate all the troubles that President Trump and his administration are continuing to attack and solve, I wonder How Close Were We in America to no longer being America?

I sit and watch the rioting crowds in Minnesota and Portland and I wonder; how ignorant can people be? I watch Mayor Frey and Governor Tampon make their speeches as they call for more protesting, and again, I wonder how ignorant can people be?

For years we've listened to radical politicians tell us over and over and over again, "No one is above the law" – which translated, "We're going to invent stories and crimes and then indict Trump on numerous invented felony charges and then repeat over and over again - No one is above the law." But it is now obvious that Democrats have no laws.

They can attempt assassination.

They can unlawfully charge a police officer for murder, withhold truth and evidence that proves he's innocent and then put him in jail for a murder he did not commit.

Democrats can hang out with Jeffery Epstein in his pool, then ignore lawful subpoenas and no one is arrested or held accountable. But if republicans ignore a subpoena, they are thrown in prison, because "No one is above the law."

Democrats can disobey Federal laws and federal authorities. They can literally look into the camera and say, "We are declaring a civil war against the current administration, against the Federal government," and no one is arrested; because democrats have no laws!

WOKE Democrat doctors can't define a woman, cannot speak the truth that a man (male) cannot get pregnant, and yet still keep their medical license... SERIOUSLY? Democrats called for the revocation of the medical licenses of all the doctors working with Secretary of Health, Robert F. Kennedy Jr.

For years Americans have been lied to about what's in our food. We've been told the wrong foods to eat, diabetes has risen, people have died OR their lives severely limited, and yet, no one has been held responsible; and I doubt anyone ever will be. We have an epidemic of mental illness, chronic illnesses, drug addictions, obesity and auto immune diseases.

Americans are fatter and less healthy than we've ever been and we are less healthy than people in other countries. We are an unhealthy nation in every sense of the word.

Is it because the radicals (democrats and RINOs) hate President Trump that they deny all truth and commonsense? Or is it because allowing truth to prevail infringes on their profit margins and their political power?

Truth will help Americans – Truth is Freeing and its Liberating; Lies, however, seem to protect and prop up politicians and their bought and paid for media. Lies enslave the citizens and encourage violent protestors, and even cause death.

When I list all these things, and the list is not complete, I can't help but wonder how close we were as a nation to falling completely into the oblivion of the third world status. After all, isn't that why the democrats opened our borders and invited all the third world trash to come in and invade us? If we had an honest media, things would never have gotten this far, this ugly and this violent. We would not be experiencing the tyranny being initiated by the Democrat Party. Tyranny! The democrats believed that if they turned us into a third world dictator "democracy," they would forever hold the positions of power. Americans, however, had a different idea; we believe in Liberty and we elected President Trump to clean up the mess all those DC occupiers have created!

We elected President Trump to deport all these illegal aliens... and he's getting it done! Americans need to hold the line and continue to stand with President Trump and continue to support ICE.

I've heard it mentioned that watching ICE is scary and MAGA's support is weakening. I remember warning all of us before President Trump's election that it wasn't going to be pretty. Arrests are usually not pretty but they are necessary.

The following is from an unknown origin (unknown to me). I wanted to share this with all of you today, because I believe it is a great analysis to just how much President Trump is doing. It is an example of the great leadership of President Trump's move on Venezuela. It is my opinion, that all that President Trump does has numerous objectives, as he has the rare talent of seeing a very large picture and solving problems...

The attack on Venezuela:

In truth, it's not about drugs, not about terror, and not about oil. At least not the way people think. They're missing the point.

Venezuela sits on the largest oil reserves on Earth, over 300 billion barrels worth nearly $17 trillion. But here's the twist, the United States doesn't need that oil. China does. China buys nearly 90% of Venezuela's crude, almost all of Iran's oil, and a massive share of Russia's exports.

Trump understood something most leaders ignore. Power doesn't come from owning energy, it comes from controlling who gets it. Destabilize Venezuela, and pressure Iran at the same time... China suddenly loses 70% of its non-U.S. regulated oil supply. Leaving China no fuel for a Taiwan war, no energy for AI dominance, no BRICS currency replacing the dollar.

(BRICS: Brazil, Russia, India, China and South Africa, which was designed to decrease dependence on the US dollar)

No shots fired, no war declared... just leverage.

As Marco Rubio put it, we don't need Venezuelan oil, but we will not allow this hemisphere's energy to be controlled by America's adversaries.

This isn't chaos, this isn't luck, this is President Trump playing the long game; outthinking rivals, reshaping alliances, and winning without asking permission. That's not recklessness that's strategy. ■

I might not always agree with President Trump, but I also have to confess, I do not know or see all the things he has knowledge of.

To all MAGA Americans: Hold the line, stand with your President, and let's help him destroy the tyranny and "Liberate" our Constitutional Republic!

“Our, the American People’s” media report President Adonald J. Trump would like people to be able to use their 401(K) savings to buy a house. Trouble is, according to media, refunding 401(K) withdrawal would be complicated. Complicated. Government 410(K) policy makers could make it easy. Doubtful they would, without an incentive. Our incentive to them could be, “Do it, or find another job.”

“We, the American People” have inordinately complicated government because we are not angry enough to act like sovereign, self-governing people. We could get government out of our savings plans entirely. If we were mad enough to do it. We could have more simplified government. If we were mad enough to have it. We could have greater freedom of choice. If we were mad enough.

Government Could - And Government Would, get along with less complexity, were government forced by "Us, the American People" to make government less complex and less complicated. Trouble is, we have allowed government to require us to ask permission, rather than requiring government to ask permission. And - - - we've done so by giving government interpretive Constitutional authority.

"It must be obvious that liberty necessarily means freedom to choose foolishly as well as wisely; freedom to choose evil as well as good; freedom to enjoy the rewards of good judgment, and freedom to suffer the penalties of bad judgment. If this is not true, the word "freedom" has no meaning."

A necessary alteration to celebrity anti-ICE pins.

We Need Look No Further than legislative election campaign intensity to empower candidates with positional authority to make their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) lawfully compulsory. Legislators/Politicians know Constitutionality is a matter of who controls legislature majority votes. They know they have interpretive power to make laws fit their PAVB and declare them Constitutional.
