PI2025 #0112 – To Tip Election Scales

ASK A HORSE

"American politicians of both political parties are addicted to spending. And like any other addict, they will go to extreme lengths to procure the money to support their habit."

"The existence of the state leads to the development and promotion of parasitism. As tax-receivers, it is possible for the occupants of the state to live without working, i.e., without having to give the taxpayers something they consider worthwhile in return."

~ Hans-Herman Hoppe

It Wouldn't Be Off Base to characterize "Our, the American People's" presidency under Donald J. Trump as a study in contrasts. One of our larger media outlets is, reportedly, conducting a study to record just how much Donald J. Trump's presidency is a study in contrast by surveying voters who went for Kamala Harris in Election 2024 against those who went for Donald J. Trump in Election 2024.

"There is no social good in politics or politicians."

~ Frank Chodorov

some humans require intense supervision

YOU are a prime example

One Media Article Reporting Harris-Trump voter survey includes observations from voters in both Harris/Trump camps. Observations range, not unexpectedly, from total commitment to total rejection. "We, the American People" are, without doubt, intensely split over how government ought to operate in America's public interest. Views expressed toward legislators show no reconciliation likelihood.

"As final judge in all matters of conflict, the occupants of the state are in a position to actually cause and to provoke conflict in order to then "solve" it to their own advantage."

~ Hans-Herman Hoppe

Supervisor: Do you have any special skills?
Me: Look, a turtle!

One Reported Observation From A Trump supporter was, in part, a desire to see President Donald J. Trump use more discernment. Discernment. Lexicons have long lists of words revealing discernment meaning. Pick a word for discernment, wouldn't be hard to cite examples where President Donald J. is exercising discernment in his every move. Could be Trump supporter in question was just unsure.

"Government is the great destroyer of wealth, income and yes lives."

~ Murray Sabrin

History Serving As An Example, it is not likely there will be an American President who fits everyone's bill. Doesn't have much to do with bad government or good government. Has more than a little to do with people's preferences and views of how government ought to function. Completely paternalistic or utter hands-off people's lives. Our tolerance for supervision stands to tip election scales.

"In a natural order, all goods are the private property of some person or group of persons. Streets, airports, waterways, all land and every structure -- everything is someone's private property. There exists no state, no taxation, no judicial monopoly and no public property."

~ Hans-Herman Hoppe

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to interfere or impose in any way with how responsible citizens choose to use their private property. They protect their property against government intrusion – with force if necessary.

"A person's character is nothing more and nothing less than the sum of his choices. You fine-tune your character every time you distinguish right from wrong and act accordingly. Your character is further defined by how you choose to interact with others and the standards of speech and conduct you uphold."

~ Lawrence Reed

The 15 million people who entered the US illegally right now.

If my neighbors cow breaks through my fence then gives birth on my property...
It's still NOT MY COW AND NOT MY CALF!

One Of “Our, the American People’s” Congressional Senate legislators claims President Donald J. Trump “technically,” violated law by firing U.S. inspectors general. Media coverage, as might be expected, indicates Trump critics (there are a few) fear Donald J. is trying to replace fired inspectors general – who are pronounced to be independent – with a cabal of Donald J. Trump loyalists. Surprise.

"Until farmers in particular, and society in general, realize the cruelty of a faceless bureaucracy that claims the right to dictate the use of private assets (which, after all, is the basis of fascism), mad cow scares will continue to be one of the many side effects of a far larger disease."

~ Christopher Westley

"Romeo, Romeo, where dafuq you is Romeo?"

Biologists are predicting a decline in male pregnancies
due to a political climate change...

"We, the American People" can also expect America's Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) will get criticized for being complicit with inspectors general firings. SCOTUS, having ruled on presidential immunity in Trump's favor, say media reports, decided such presidential firings would be within presidential latitude. So, it could be said, presidents can have some of their cake and eat it too.

"We still find the greedy hand of government thrusting itself into every corner and crevice of industry, and grasping at the spoil of the multitude. Invention is continually exercised to furnish new pretenses for revenue and taxation. It watches prosperity as its prey and permits none to escape without a tribute."

~ Thomas Paine

🇺🇸👏 IT'S HAPPENING: President Trump has ordered federal prisons to transfer male inmates who identify as women into men's facilities and halt medical treatments related to gender transition.

I was asked, "Are you happy with a racist President?" 🤔

I said, "Absolutely not! 🤔 We replaced him with Donald Trump." 🙌

There is No Such Thing as an independent inspector general. Or, as it happens, no such thing as any elected or appointed legislative-judicial officer. It would be misguided for "Us, the American People" to presume or believe otherwise. Such officers might have independent authority by virtue of their position. As individuals, they are trapped by their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB).

"Almost all political statements are empty of meaning; nearly every word is a promiscuous lie."

~ Bill Bonner

"The 'democracy' the left wants is a 'democracy' in which only one view
— theirs — is heard day after day, month after month, year after year."
—Gary Bauer

America's Legislative-Judicial System is biased by PAVB because there are no unequivocal, immutable standards available to legislators or magistrate when performing their duties of office. There are only legislative-judicial outcomes of earlier times to draw upon. Legislatures, courts, and juries can sustain or overturn laws and court decisions as their PAVB urge. Public deference attests.

"We have gotten to the point where everything the government does is counterproductive. The conclusion of course, is that the government should do nothing at all, that is, should retire quickly from the monetary and economic scene and allow freedom and free markets to work."

~ Murray Rothbard

People Committed To Living In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to enact legislation or regulations requiring any private business to accept collective bargaining organizations. They stand by free markets and limited government.

"When the American spirit was in its youth, the language of America was different: Liberty, Sir, was then the primary object...But now, Sir, the American spirit, assisted by the ropes and chains of consolidation, is about to convert this country to a powerful and mighty empire."

"We are conditioned through the schools, the media, the state, and other institutions to fear our own autonomy, and to transfer control over our behavior to external agencies. "

"Our, the American People's" illegal immigrant/migrant/refugee (IIMR) situation may never get straightened out. Contrasting media reports have it, on one hand, America's southern border was so quiet on Donald J. Trump's presidential debut, Donald J. had to take action to keep his political credibility on IIMR. So, deportation was begun in earnest. Contrasting report says border wall to fail.

"Our freedom is inseparably tied to the responsibility we have for both our thinking and actions, a connection that goes to the question of control over our lives."

Border Wall Impotency Report claims President Donald J. Trump may not know a hefty number of undocumented immigrants are people who have overstayed their visas. Vics overstayers have to eat. Some visa overstayers, at least, need rooves (or roofs) over their heads. And, some visa overstayers are likely to need medical attention, or, draw police attention. Wall won't keep people here out.

"The neo-conservative tell us that all this spending will make the nation safer and freer. We are 'rising to the tasks of history,' says the president. If only future generations, who will be shackled to the ball and chain of Bush's deficits for decades to come, would appreciate our sacrifices on their behalf!"

~ Bill Bonner

"We, the American People," history attesting, will endure IIMR 'crisis' while America's legislative offices and judicial operatives work at deciding who shall have lawful authority to decide IIMR fate. Whoever gets to decide is very likely to face dissent and active resistance, much like IIMR has generated through federal administration after administration. Solution lies in IIMR root impetus.

"If the Democrats are the party of 'tax and spend,' the Republicans are the party of 'borrow and spend.'"
 ~ Scott Trask (in 2004) -

If There Is Reliable Information on how many people leave U.S. soil bound for other countries illegally, such information is not readily available. Inference for "Us, the American People," thus, life in U.S. of A. doesn't drive many people away. Planet Earth's multi-millions of IIMR crop up from somewhere for, arguably, reasons bearing on finding a better life. IIMR solution: better homeland life.

"We take no pleasure in body bags.....for they never seem to contain the right bodies. That is the trouble with war, dear reader. The bodies are always those of the fools who undertook the errand.....rather than the fools who sent them."

~ Bill Bonner

People Poised To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to define or limit their 10th Amendment powers beyond Constitutional constraint. They exercise self-government to preserve their liberty.

"If Bastiat was right, the United States was already profoundly corrupt. It took me years to come to terms with this idea. Today it seems to me almost self-evident. I marvel that anyone with common sense thinks otherwise."

"Our, the American People's" illegal immigrant/migrant/refugee (IMMR) deportation effort has fallen in Vatican disfavor. His Holiness, Pope Francis, not at all happy with President Donald J. Trump's IIMR initiative, calls Donald J.'s IIMR move inhuman and disgraceful; since, in Pope Francis's view, it's poor wretches who have nothing will have to pay IIMR deportation bill. Plenty of innocents paying.

"We, the American People" are footing IIMR bill wherever IIMR folk are lodged at American taxpayer expense. Then, there are those who've been attacked, ravaged, murdered by IIMR criminals. And, there is no news Vatican City has been overrun by IIMR influx. Has to be a reason why IIMR folk are not knocking on Pontif Francis's door. Could be Pope Francis is short loaves and fishes nowadays.

"There is a battle shaping up in the world – a battle between the forces of archy – of statism, of political rule and authority – and its only alternative – anarchy, the absence of political rule. This battle is the necessary and logical consequence of the battle between individualism and collectivism, between liberty and the state, between freedom and slavery."

It's unlikely President Donald J. Trump will seek Papal absolution for Pope-pronounced transgressions. Unlikely.
