

“Our, the American People’s” President Donald J. Trump’s order for federal employees to return to their offices fell flat. According to a media writer. Writer’s article tells how President Donald J’s return=to=office order disrupted federal workers lives unnecessarily and caused services to drop off when workers decided to quit. Writer cites evidence in a Government Accounting Office (GAO) report.

“Men love liberty because it protects them from control and humiliation by others, thus affording them the possibility of dignity; they loathe liberty because it throws them back on their own abilities and resources, thus confronting them with the possibility of insignificance.”

~ Thomas Szasz

Pertinent GAO Report Says President Donald J. Trump’s return-to-office order had detrimental effects on hiring, training, and retention. Article notes GAO report is based on a look at America’s Social Security Administration (SSA) operations during a period from summer, 2019 through spring, 2025. GAO report on SSA operation concludes telework employees planned and budgeted around it.

“Constitutions are checks upon the hasty action of the majority. They are the self-imposed restraints of a whole people upon a majority of them to secure sober action and a respect for the rights of the minority.”

~ William Howard Taft

GAO SSA Telework Report Found SS recipients end up with processing and other services delays when staffing drops off. Telework, reportedly, helped keep a proficient workforce in house and helps keep SSA a more responsive agency. “We, the American People” might either demand President Donald J. Trump take advantage of teleworking, or, initiate SS reform to allow a smaller SSA force.

“No doctrine involving more pernicious consequences was ever invented by the wit of man than any [constitutional] provisions can be suspended during any of the great exigencies of government.”

It Would Be Smart for “Us, the American People” to recognize SS is paid for by taxation, as are virtually all government services. It would be useful to learn how many SS recipients would choose not to take SS, in favor of managing their own investments for retirement. Clearly, there is no small number of SS recipients who, by their existing investments, do better, financially, by private means.

Fair To Say Satan's Perceived and presumed power to bring about evil is renowned and prophesized through humanity's ages. Suffice it to say blaming Satan for people's ills and travails is commonplace. "We, the American People," for example, could, if we're looking for a scapegoat, blame Satan for ill will between they who seek peace and tranquility between Islam and Christianity. Expedient scapegoat.

Doesn't Take Much Research to find Satan has no absolute power to bring ill will between Muslim and Christian. Muslim and Christian need no help from Satan to foster and fertilize ill will between those respective followers of their Faiths. Satan's strength, if, in fact, Satan has strength beyond people believing Satan has power, it is power of persuasion. If not persuasion, then power of temptation.

Faster, according to references, than all other religions combined. “Our, the American People’s” largest domestic religion is Christianity, congregants some 229 million strong. Judaism ranks #2. in misrepresentation of Islam's tenets. Terrorism is terrorism. We would be at least as effective bringing terrorists to account absent their affiliation with any religion. People believe as they believe.

The World Economic Forum (WEF) is a select group of elites where world leaders are invited to learn (be lectured) about Climate Change, alternative lab-grown meats, how yummy it is to eat bugs, population control and the plan for a New World Order: Globalism.

I had to laugh when Gavin Newsom claimed (not as a compliment) that President Trump is "Tyrannosaurus Rex; you either mate with him or he devours you." ("Newscum" might soon find out the truth in his own statement.) Wannabe president Gavin decided to procure some camera time and lecture the elitists in Davos to grow a backbone and take on President Trump, aka T. Rex.

President Trump spoke in Davos this morning. (It was morning in the USA but afternoon in Davos, Switzerland.) Whenever and wherever President Trump shows up, he owns the room, and the United States owns the crowd of smug elitists. I have to say, it felt good Mr. President! Rest assured America, when the WEF take their 2026 photo shoot, President Trump will not be standing on the end of the row; he will be front and center. Larger than life is America's T. Rex!

Many in Davos are angry with President Trump for defying their "New World Order" globalist ideologies. They are outraged about President Trump's talk (serious talk) regarding the USA purchasing Greenland for our security, as well as the security of others. Obviously, T. Rex was going to have to use the art of the deal to convince others of his plan for Greenland.

So, before T. Rex showed up, he sent one of his "Raptors" (Howard Lutnick, United States Secretary of Commerce) to set the stage for T. Rex's upcoming message to the world.

Secretary Lutnick's message to the elitists, who had their noses in the air, was direct, loud and clear: Globalism has failed! He then began listing, one by one, the obvious failures of the "World Economic Forum globalist-doctrine."

Offshoring hollowed out the West

Cheap labor destroyed innovation

Net Zero made Europe dependent on China

Sovereignty begins with borders

Nations must control their industry, energy and medicine

Then his blatant statement, which no one could deny, shook the room: “Why would Europe agree to Net Zero when they don’t even make a battery?” That is a truth globalists cannot answer!

Green agendas without industry... Climate pledges without sovereignty... Moral posturing while outsourcing power to Beijing...

I personally love this line the best: “America First isn’t isolation; its Independence!”

Raptor Lutnick made it clear to the Davos elitists: The old model is finished! The globalist experiment has failed, and the future belongs to nations that put their own people first! Raptor Lutnick read to Davos the obituary of their preferred and beloved globalism.

As Raptor Lutnick wrapped up his speech, Al Gore decided to heckle him with loud boos. But of course, rodents are some of the Raptor’s favored cuisine.

What a great segway for T. Rex Trump to come on the scene and set the record straight.

Before the day was over in Davos, negotiations for Greenland progressed positively!

We call that WINNING!

Thank you, President T. Rex!

According To A Media Opinion Writer, America will follow its moral compass, come November. “We, the American People,” should we be of an inquiring mood and do some digging, are apt to find references on America’s moral compass are less than pointed on America’s moral compass definition or direction. Apart from offering notions as to exactly how to reach an American moral compass ideal.

“In any free society, the conflict between social conformity and individual liberty is permanent, unresolvable, and necessary.”

~ Kathleen Norris

When you work extra hard and make overtime

Article In Question Tells “Us, the American People’ there is declining approval for how President Donald J. Trump’s Administration is conducting America’s business. Poll figures are noted to show President Donald J’s way of picking a moral compass heading does not sit well with Americans at large. Cruelty, chaos, and corruption are how writer says we, as a whole, find President Donald J.’s style.

“The number of laws is constantly growing in all countries and, owing to this, what is called crime is very often not a crime at all, for it contains no element of violence or harm.”

References Addressing Government Moral policies are many. References are not clear where learning source(s) of government moral authority are concerned. Circumspect fits description. One reference defines government moral policy as using coercion to legitimize moral values. It wouldn’t be hard to argue such coercion is rooted in government officials’ personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB)

No chore, thusly, inferring we, then are government's moral authority source. Clearing PAVB bias from government authority is illusive
