

Media Coverage Tells “Us, the American People” there’s a pronounced migration from red states to blue states. Avoiding progressive governance is cited as a major reason. Wealth tax movements are said to be a significant reason as well. Not unreasonable for at least a newsworthy number of us to be wary or government bent on confiscating property (wealth) and regulating people’s ability to choose.

“State-mandated compassion produces, not love for ones fellow man, but hatred and resentment.”

~ Lizard

“We, the American People” would be smart to look long and hard at how many commonwealths or states will offer sanctuary from undue regulation and government incessantly intent on getting larger pieces of people’s property (wealth). There are no Constitutional guarantees against government’s ability to take virtually all property (wealth) when voters are unwilling to impose pertinent limits.

‘It is a besetting vice of democracies to substitute public opinion for law. This is the usual form in which masses of men exhibit their tyranny.’

~ James Fenimore Cooper

"Our, the American People's" capacity to be free has absolutely nothing to do with verbiage in documents called constitutions. Absolutely nothing. No constitution ever shouldered a weapon in its defense. Constitutions are words. Nothing more. Never has a Constitution stopped a tyrant from oppression. Nor have laws. Tyrants and oppression are stopped by people who will not be cowed.

"Choose loss rather than shameful gains."

~ Greek proverb

It Would Be Folly For They who hope to avoid progressive governance to think progressive governance will not be voted in by voters anywhere. Progressive governance, like every governance, needs wherewithal to exist and prevail. Wherewithal gained from confiscating property (wealth) and restricting choice. No constitution can do it. Not without people committed to living free in Liberty.

“A vote is “wasted” when someone fails to vote their conscience.”

~ Jesse Ventura

People Intending to live in liberty fo not allow legislators, or other public officials within These United States of America, to disregard Liberty’ precepts. They exercise their citizen sovereignty and sustain self-government to preserve freedom, liberty, and independence.

“I think this is the most extraordinary collection of talent and of human knowledge that has ever been gathered together at the White House – with the possible exception of when Thomas Jefferson dined alone.”

That is NOT a coincidence

“We, the American People” could look on Golden State Governor Gavin Newsom as an oddity when it comes to taxing wealthy Americans. Media have it His Honor opposes California’s wealth tax proposal. Governor Newsom, reportedly, is of a mind California’s wealth tax will not accomplish goals proponents claim, but will act to reduce investments in those problems wealth taxes are alleged to fix.

“Why Common Thieves Are Better Than Socialists: Thieves ... have the guts to do the job themselves ... don’t steal in the name of “justice” ... don’t masquerade as “liberals” ... don’t comprise a unified political mob of millions ... don’t loath freedom and individuality ... don’t undermine the Constitution ... don’t promote mind control via “political correctness” and “hate” crimes ... don’t own/control the “establishment” media ... don’t indoctrinate our children to be unquestioning drones of the state ... can be arrested.”

~ Mark Gilmore

It Would Be No Surprise if needs and wants will be forever unfilled to one extent or other. Asking various Ai sources to come up with sufficient taxation to satisfy everyone’s wants or needs – even needs – yields little more than discussions on how taxes impact socio-economic activity. It would be smart for “Us, the American People” to operate on a ground government will tac as much as government can.

“Socialism, like the ancient ideas from which it springs, confuses the distinction between government and society. As a result of this, every time we object to a thing being done by government, the socialists conclude that we object to its being done at all”

ONE is KNOWN for OVERSTEPPING CONSTITUTIONAL BOUNDARIES, USING ICE to DEPORT OVER THREE MILLION UNDOCUMENTED IMMIGRANTS. The OTHER is DONALD TRUMP.

There Is No Reason For “Our, the American People’s to think out government officials will settle for less tax revenue than they can secure by property (wealth) confiscation without prompting a revolt they will not be able to put down. Government, arguably, has yet to prove its prowess to operate without waste and inefficiency in excess. As arguable, proving greater government efficiency, less waste viable.

Weird that ICE are operating in dozens of states, but it only gets violent in the one where we just uncovered a billion dollar fraud ring with probable links to the governor.

Given We Are A Sovereign, Self-governing society, we could implement a system of citizen-controlled-taxation, and let government services chips fall as they may. Government, were taxes subject to citizen approval, would have to do with revenue such taxes produced. Given our record since we took root as a nation, we'd like as not, quibble over taxation-driven elections indefinitely. We're not easily satisfied.

People Prepared To Live In Liberty would not allow legislators, or other public officials within These United States of America, federal authorities or courts to define or limit their 10th Amendment powers beyond specific Constitutional constraint. Western Civilization vs. The Uncivilized

I'm the owner and host of CSC Talk Radio, a conservative radio talk show. I have a small network of stations who carry my show along with WWCR shortwave. That being said, you should understand I am opinionated. I am a female, I am a Christian, unapologetically. I'm not famous, I'm not wealthy. In fact, we barely make enough revenue to keep the lights on; I draw no salary and my very capable assistant ("Executive Manager" is on his business card) volunteers his time every day to CSC Talk Radio. So why do I continue? There's no logical reason to keep things going; that's true. I had a friend ask me just this week, "Why don't you just retire?" It's hard to explain to others who do not understand. While it is work, it's not a job... it's a calling. I love my country! I'm worried about our nation! I used to say the only thing that scares a liberal more than a conservative with a gun, is a conservative female with a microphone. I don't know if I'm making any liberals shake in their boots, but I hope I give my audience lots of food for thought and encouragement. Another thing to know about me and CSC Talk Radio is that I broadcast from the American heartland of this nation: Rural America... the Show Me State of Missouri!

I won't bore you with my life's story or my journey into broadcasting, but I think, if you're reading this, we probably agree... America is in trouble! Western civilization is under attack! I enjoy reading some of Thomas Paine's writings. "The American Crisis," by Thomas Paine, is not only interesting, but still pertinent to America today. "These are still the times that try men's souls," and I believe the American crisis continues yet today. Perhaps the tyrant is no longer a king, but a group of elites, who, like the evil mad scientists in the movies, want to rule the world. They believe in the New World Order, we call them "Globalists." It's important to understand these mad men are not all men, and they are not on some galaxy or continent far-far-away... and they are not all democrats!

I read an article this week titled, "The EU Just Murdered Western Civilization" by Bradley A. Thayer, which I highly recommend to you.

It might be important for us to understand what is meant by the term "Western Civilization?" Well, it refers to a developed shared heritage of social norms, ethical values, traditional customs, belief systems, and political systems originating in Europe and of course spread throughout the Americas and even Australasia. Western civilization is deeply rooted in the foundations of Ancient Greece, Ancient Rome, and Christianity. Concepts that are emphasized are individualism, democracy and rational thought. Down home we call that common sense!

I ask myself, why would anyone want to destroy western civilization? The purpose would be to control. Individual thinking and common sense make tyrant-rule more difficult.

I suppose the opposite of a western civilization would be that which is termed uncivilized. Uncivilized refers to behaviors, societies, or individuals that violate established social, moral or cultural norms. Uncivilized is commonly characterized as rude, cruel, chaotic, or lacking refinement. Their behavior is impolite, rude, and disrespectful. They lack in integrity (no ethics) and the morals of the uncivilized persons or societies are barbaric, savage, brutal and extremely cruel.

I heard it asked once: What would the world look like if you removed all the Christians? What would it look like if all Western Civilizations were destroyed? I believe it would look much like what we've seen on the streets of Minnesota these past few weeks and during the 2020 Summer of Love riots. They weren't rioting to right a wrong that was done, they were rioting to destroy.

There is a darkness in America and around the world today. Evil is uncivilized. Christians have allowed, by tolerance and misplaced compassion, our culture and western civilization to be reduced to what we see today. If we want to preserve and save Western Civilization: Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness, and yes Freedom, it's time Christians cease their apathetic ways, pay attention in America! Stop voting for anybody in the Democrat Party (as they have denied God) and get yourselves involved. First Pray! Then Stand up and speak up for Liberty and...

Trump's First Year: Are We Winning?

The cold civil war will not be won in the course of a single administration; whether it will even be won by the side committed to the American way of life remains an open question.

But Trump, more than any other leader on the national scene, has the qualities that may deliver such a victory. Has his first year back in office moved us closer to that goal?

~ Cheryl DeJesus

“We, the American People” could be in for a housing market adjustment. Media outlets are running housing articles on Chinese and U.S. markets. In China, reports are people are refusing to pay mortgages – in droves. Hereabouts, purchase agreement cancellation rates are reported at their highest in almost a decade. For sure, there will be prospective buyers ready to take advantage of openings.

“Control’s real name is bondage. The logical conclusion would be, if giving up some rights produces a better society, then by giving up all our rights we could produce a perfect society.”

~ Citizens’ Rule Book

It Would Be Smart For “Us, the American People” to be a bit laid back until there appears some dust settling. We would be especially smart to stay clear of legislators/politicians/activists prepared to offer coercive solutions for an unsettled housing market. Mortgage payment refusals, if they persist, will result in people losing property. Money owed is money owed. Refusals don’t cancel obligations.

“The poorest man may, in his cottage, bid defiance to all the forces of the Crown. It may be frail, its roof may shake; the wind may blow through it; the storm may enter; the rain may enter; but the King of England may not enter; all his force dares not cross the threshold of the ruined tenement.”

Minnesota Arrests Churchgoers For Interrupting Protest

“Our, the American People’s” housing market purchase agreement cancellation rate hike will, one way or t’ other, normalize. Better a purchase agreement be cancelled than an executed agreement fail to meet amortization requirements. Agreement cancellations might be no more than a sign prospective buyers figure they are better off having more disposable income, and are settling for fewer square feet.

“The American people will never knowingly adopt socialism, but under the name of liberalism, they will adopt every fragment of the socialist program until one day America will be a socialist nation without ever knowing how it happened.”

JUST SO WE'RE CLEAR... ILLEGALS ARE VOTING. ILLEGALS ARE RECEIVING BENEFITS. ILLEGALS ARE INFLUENCING ELECTORAL COLLEGE VOTES. ILLEGALS ARE CHANGING HOUSE APPORTIONMENT NUMBERS. ILLEGALS ARE MAKING THINGS MORE EXPENSIVE FOR AMERICANS. ANYONE THAT CLAIMS THEY ARE NOT IS LYING.

She misunderstood the assignment.

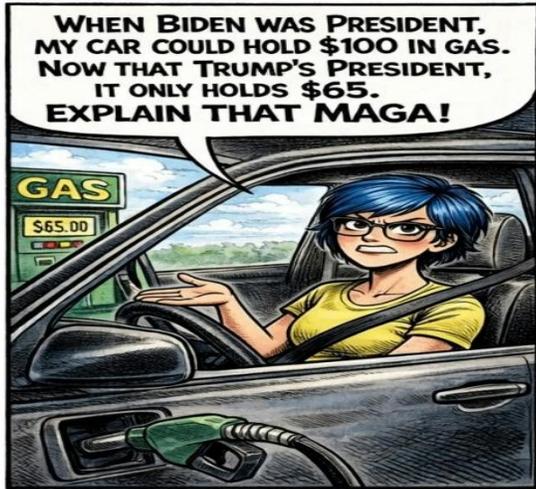

There should be no taxes on inheritance, no matter how large the amount.

This is money that has been taxed numerous times for DECADES, it should stay in the family.

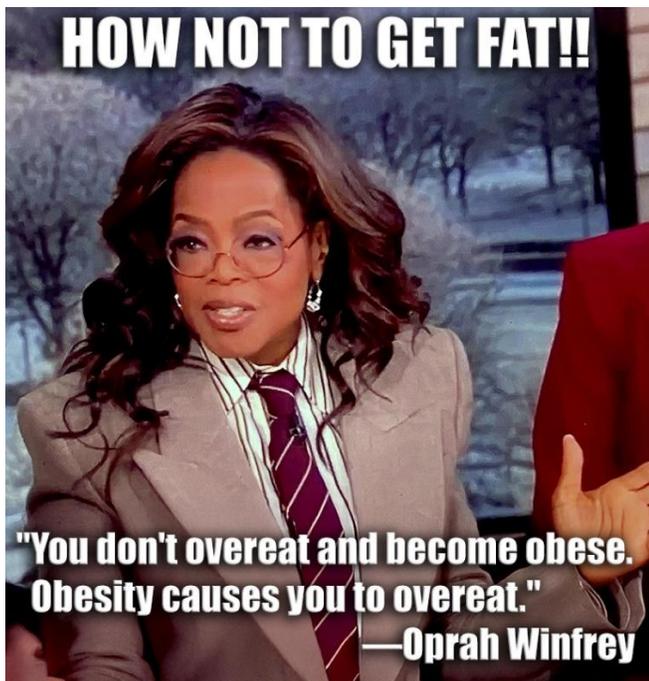

Housing Affordability (Affordability For most everything) has been getting airtime a while. Sooner or later, we come to grips we can't have things we can't afford. And, no matter how legislators/politicians/activists claim we can do better by confiscating property (wealth) from other people – by law – reality comes raining down, and we realize it is our job to better our lot, not others'.

“The Ten “Cannots” of Political Economy: You cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift. You cannot ... strengthen the weak by weakening the strong ... help small men by tearing down big men ... help the wage-earner by tearing down the wage-payer ... further the brotherhood of mankind by encouraging class hatred ... help the poor by destroying the rich ... establish sound security on borrowed money ... keep out of trouble by spending more than you earn ... build character and courage by taking away man's initiative ... help man permanently by doing for them what they could do and should do for themselves.”

– Although often attributed to Abraham Lincoln, he did not say this. The exact origin of this quote is unknown.

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators, or other public officials within These United States of America, to cause any citizen to be drawn into an obligation to assume responsibility for public debt for reasons other than to defend these United States.
