It Would Be A Doomsday Scenario. Were President Donald J. Trump to defy America's Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS). "We, the American People" would be smart to give such an idea due consideration. Then, after giving it due concern, scuttle it. America's SCOTUS has been defied by another SCOTUS, e.g. Roe v Wade. Struggle goes on. One thing, 't is, no president can defy.

"The ruling class has the schools and press under its thumb. This enables it to sway the emotions of the masses."

~ Albert Einstein

No American President, Not Even an ambitious, rambunctious president like President Doanld J. Trump can defy "Us, the American People." Not if we get our sovereign citizenry back up. Trouble is, sovereign citizenry power has been usurped by America's 'education' system. We've been conditioned to think in terms of obedience, rather than in terms of self-government. We dare not defy.

"When politicians say 'I'm in politics,' it may or may not be possible to trust them, but when they say, 'I'm in public service,' you know you should flee."

~ Albert Jay Nock

Revolt Against The Modern World

“Our, the American People’s” legislators have been inordinately successful making their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) lawfully compulsory. Legislators, calculating, have enforced their lawfully compulsory PAVB with selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulation (SADLT&R). SADLT&R has accustomed us to focus on staying in legislators’ good graces.

"Idealism is the noble toga that political gentlemen drape over their will to power."

~ Aldous Huxley

Free Societies, Run By Proactive sovereign citizenries, need not worry about Chiefs-of-State running amok by defying courts or other ways, such as going berserk with Executive Orders (EOs) having no more weight than legislative, judicial or public rejection. EOs are incapable of withstanding public dissent risen to mass protest manifested by armed citizens. Bullies fall to them with nothing to lose.

"Morality is always the product of terror; its chains and strait-waistcoats are fashioned by those who dare not trust others, because they dare not trust themselves, to walk in liberty."

~ Aldous Huxley

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, especially public (“State”) schools, to impose mandatory instruction on personal attitudes, values, and beliefs. They raise their children to be independent thinkers, not products of “State”-imposed correctness.

A Congressional Senate Legislator. from one of "Our, the American People's" four commonwealths, has a novel idea. Said legislator's novel idea was, ostensibly, once a prominent idea permeated amongst a band of rag-tag revolutionaries who invented America. Novel idea in question is people having power over themselves, and ultimate power over government. Said Congressional legislator has a tough chore.

"The welfare of the people in particular has always been the alibi of tyrants, and it provides the further advantage of giving the servants of tyranny a good conscience."

~ Albert Camus

How “We, the American People,” once ‘people power’ (sovereign citizenry) was rooted in America’s governance soil, allowed legislators to gain hold and presume power to confiscate property (wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty) is lost to history’s dust bin. Given there are no crumbs to follow, save, possibly, on a trail begun by Magna Carta struggle, we could discern an urge for freedom lies deep.

"We shall require a substantially new manner of thinking if mankind is to survive."

~ Albert Einstein

It Would Be Supremely Naïve for “Us, the American People” to expect Congressional Senate legislator with ‘power-to-people’ idea will find other Congressional legislators rushing to join ranks in defense of Liberty. Legislators make laws they will swear and be damned are for our own good. Whether or not we might have ideas of our well being differing from legislators’ ideas. Societal diversity balks.

"Everything that is really great and inspiring is created by the individual who can labor in freedom." ~
~ Albert Einstein

America's Legislative Bodies, For Practical purposes, are dichotomies of ideas. Ideas made up of personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) legislative majorities work to make lawfully compulsory. To keep us from strangling each other. Strangling each other because our PAVB clash mightily, and legislators hasten to have their PAVB prevail over our, sovereign citizenry, PAVB. Mess.

“The old idea of a good bargain was a transaction in which one man got the better of another. The new idea of a good contract is a transaction which is good for both parties to it.”

~ Louis D. Brandeis

Media Tell "Us, the American People" Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) Justice Sonja Sotomayor has taken umbrage with SCOTUS ruling on presidential immunity, along with other recent rulings by SCOTUS 'conservative' majority. Justice Sotomayor, reportedly, has not taken rulings in question to task based on their judicial soundness. Rather, rulings erode public trust of judiciary.

"I believe the Court has no power to add to or subtract from the procedures set forth by the founders...I shall not at any time surrender my belief that the document itself should be our guide, not our own concept of what is fair, decent, and right."

~ Hugo L. Black

"We, the American People" would do well not to trust America's judiciary when it comes to objectivity. America's courts (courts in free societies), if they are to be anything, they are to be objective. How courts can be objective is impossible to pin down. Neither laws, nor courts are based on incontrovertible standards. Both stem from personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB).

"The layman's constitutional view is that what he likes is constitutional and that which he doesn't like is unconstitutional."

~ Hugo L. Black

There Being No Incontrovertible Legislative or judicial standards, it is fools' play for us to believe "Our, the American People's" legislators and magistrates are objective. They're not, no matter how they may try. They end up legislating and adjudicating based on how their PAVB urge them to interpret references before them, including commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions.

"The public welfare demands that constitutional cases must be decided according to the terms of the Constitution itself, and not according to judges' views of fairness, reasonableness, or justice."

~ Hugo L. Black

Inquiring Minds Need Go No Further than judicial rulings from courts where judges are spilt in their decisions. Or, if one wants more dramatic evidence, cases where laws are upheld or ruled inappropriate from SCOTUS to SCOTUS. Justice Sotomayor is, more than likely, sincere when expressing concern for eroded public trust. If we expect to ward off legislative-judicial tyranny, distrust is our defense.

"Crime is contagious. If the government becomes a law breaker, it breeds contempt for the law."
 ~ Louis D. Brandeis

People Comitted To Living In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to permit public ('government'/'State") schools to delve into their children's attitudes, values, or beliefs. They protect their children's privacy and teach them to be thinking individuals.

"It seemed to me that I had barely reached the Court when people were trying to get me off.

Dear Councilwoman Farias, Assemblywoman Reyes, Sen. Fernandez, Rep. Ocasio-Cortez, and Reporter Capoot,+

1. This is a proposal for you all to join forces to amplify and make long-term the strong and positive impact on public opinion that other women are having, to wit, NYPD Commissioner Jessica Tisch and Karen Friedman Agnifilo, Esq., the attorney for Luigi Mangione.

a. This proposal, the letters to Comm. Tisch and Att. Friedman Agnifilo, an excerpt of the case filed in the U.S. District Court SDNY, supporting material, and the humorous skit "The Four Chicks and Trump", can be downloaded through this link: http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-women\_leading\_movement.pdf

2. We can bring to the attention of your constituents, the audience at your activities, and the media two related cases that provoke the emotion that most effectively drives the public, and especially voters, to protest vehemently and take sustained action: outrage at abuse of power that harms them and those they care about.

3. These two cases deal with police corruption and denials of healthcare insurance claims:

a. Indictments are fabricated on false and insufficient evidence by prosecutors, police officers, and detectives, and covered up by grand jury and NYC and NYS administrative judges, and each of the judges of the NYS Court of Appeals. Thousands of people have fallen victim to the coordinated abuse of power of these public officers, and have been deprived of their liberty or evicted, fired, and ruined financially and reputationally by having a criminal record.

b. Medicare seeks to keep in its network, and increase the number of, its thousands of medical services and equipment providers. They coordinate their denial of claims of many of its 67 million insureds, who are old, disabled, sick, and cannot afford lawyers though confronting five levels of administrative and judicial appeals. If capable at all, the insureds appeal pro se, but ignorant of the law, they have little to no chance of prevailing over the lawyers of Medicare and its providers. Their coordinated abuse of power is exposed in a case filed in SDNY<sup>1</sup>.

4. Indeed, officers in those cases engage in patterns of abusive conduct that reveal an institutionalized modus operandi. Their conduct can be exposed as so coordinated by them, and for their benefit, as a class as to make them part of racketeering and corrupt organizations.

5. That will distinguish our joint effort from a mere sensational case of officers going rogue individually.

6. Such exposure will exacerbate public outrage.

7. That will motivate ever more people to participate in what we will promote to media outlets and universities: unprecedented\_citizens hearings. To be held at their stations and auditoriums, these hearings will enable people to tell in person or online to the national public their story<sup>2</sup> of the abuse by those organizations that they have suffered or witnessed.

8. Only an informed and outraged We the People can subject those who wield entrenched political and financial power to transparency, accountability, and liability.

9. I offer to make for you and your guests a presentation in person or via video conference on leading a movement that can have trans-formative impact on our system of governance and turn you into Champions of the People. Cf.↓530

Dare shout "I accuse!"...
You may trigger history and even enter it.

Sincerely,

Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.
