

America's Election 2026 Will Be Upon "Us, the American People" to find us unprepared to stop government from confiscating property (wealth) and restricting choice (Liberty). Election 2026 legislative, government chief executive, and judicial candidates will let us know, in no uncertain terms, it is they who will keep America's Constitutional imperatives in place and us from oppression's grip.

"Mystical references to "society" and its programs to "help" may warm the hearts of the gullible, but what it really means is putting more power in the hands of bureaucrats."

~ Thomas Sowell

"We, the American People," who, as sovereign citizens, are to be Constitutional imperative arbitrators, have been told by candidates since America's elections began they will save us from oppression. Yet, steadily, election winners have increased government's oppressive grip by ever-expanding selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulations (SADLT&R). To protect us, natch.

"We don't have a budget crisis. We have a spending crisis."

~ Jonathan Hill

“Our, the American People’s” representative Constitutional republic governmental form is how we put people in office to do our bidding. Putting people in office to do as they think best by SADLT&R grants those in office power to make their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) lawfully compulsory. Well-meant PAVB, lawfully compulsory, empowers some PAVB to suppress public PAVB.

“Make happy those who are near, and those who are far will come.”

~ Chinese proverb

America’s Election 2026 Voters can expect to hear some candidates call for greater taxation on America’s wealthiest. Those candidates may demand America’s wealthiest pay their ‘fair share’ of taxation so Americans, overall, can have better lives. There will, no doubt, be enough voters who agree and will elect some ‘wealth tax’ candidates. Self-government, in part, is undifferentiated taxation.

“There is a word sweeter than mother, home or heaven. That word is liberty.”

~ Epitaph of Matilda Joslyn Gage

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to enact legislation or regulations requiring any private business to accept collective bargaining organizations. They uphold citizen sovereignty to negotiate with employers without government interference.

Nothing Like Racial Prejudice To Vellicate “Us, the American People” who look for any reason to label legislators/politicians/activists as harboring resentment for anyone causing us to take offence. Take offence. People are not, arguably, offended by something because it is inherently offensive. If such were so, then anyone and everyone would be offended, not take offence. Accuser, thus, decides.

President Donald J. Trump Is reported by delirious media outlets as racist because of a video he posted depicting former President Barack and First Lady Michelle Obama as apes. Media pieces don't claim President Donald J. created video in question. Trump detractors, though, would find it convenient to use video in question as evidence President Donald J. Trump is racist. Any reason to discredit.

“All the fiery rhetoric of the Founders was directed at a “tyrant” who taxed his subjects at a rate of about three percent. Today, we in “the land of the free” are taxed at about 50 percent when you add federal, state, and local taxes.”

“We, the American People” who are not inclined to take offense might, in objectivity’s interest, argue media outlets airing Trump/Obama Ape matter, including ‘apes’ illustration, are racist because they determined to allow illustration to meet public eyes. Not a lot different than declaring Muslims to be anti-Buddhist merely because they are Muslims. Neither pictures nor words are stacks and stones.

Many years ago, when I was a young mother raising my five sons, I purchased a book at the local Bible bookstore, “Parenting isn’t for Cowards,” by Dr. James C. Dobson.

I can tell you for sure, while being a parent has been quite rewarding, (lots of grandchildren) ... it was not easy, nor for the faint of heart. I was not a perfect mom, no not at all, but I was consistent and I love those boys of mine, who are now grown men. When they were young it seemed like discipline was never-ending... every day! I felt more like a marine drill sergeant than a loving mother... it was a job that took commitment and lots of love – tough love!

After they married, I jokingly informed their wives they were in their hands now; I did the best I could. (By the way I have five wonderful daughter in laws.)

My boys, like normal children, were rowdy and they did fight. Each one is what we used to call an Alpha-male; so, like bulls across the fence, there was a lot of pushing and grunting and they tried to establish who was king of the mountain, for that moment.

The Father's love teaches us that sometimes tough love is necessary. "My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord; neither be weary of his correction: For whom the Lord loveth he correcteth; even as a father the son in whom he delighteth." Proverbs 3:11-12 KJV

There is a lot of chaos and fighting today within our nation. The Marxist-democrat-party is saying out loud that they are leading an insurrection against President Trump and against our laws, in particular our immigration laws. What should we do when we see others disobeying laws, rioting and putting lives in danger?

Just like parenting isn't for cowards, neither is true patriotism for cowards.

What is patriotism? According to Merriam Webster it's, "love for or devotion to one's country."

What did our Founding Fathers think about "patriotism?"

"Where is the man who owes nothing to the land in which he lives? Whatever that land may be, he owes to it the most precious thing possessed by man, the morality of his actions and the love of virtue." Jean Jacques Rousseau

"There must be a positive passion for the public good, the public interest, honour, power and glory, established in the minds of people, or there can be no republication government (Constitutional republic) nor any real liberty; and this public passion must be superior to all private passions. Men must be ready, they must pride themselves and be happy to sacrifice their private pleasures, passions, and interests, nay, their private friendships and dearest connections, when they stand in competition with the rights of society." John Adams ,1776

"Banish unmanly fear, acquit yourselves like men, and with firm confidence trust the event with that Almighty and benevolent Being who hath commanded you to hold fast the liberty with which He has made you free; and who is able as well as willing to support you in performing his orders.” John Jay wrote July 22, 1777

Our Founding Fathers saw the Tories as cowards. Marxist-democrats are bullies and bullies are cowards. Today, we see Marxist-democrat leaders encouraging others to stand in the line of danger, but they will not do so themselves. The same is true with Hollywood celebrities, who are vocal with their mouths how others should protest, but they are all noise and no patriotism, just hate for their country and hate for President Donald Trump. Liars are cowards; all the media that gaslight the American people with Marxist-democrat propaganda are cowards

Cowards can be dangerous, but when you stand up against them and they realize your strength and resolve, they will eventually cower and shrink from their stance. They are no different than the summer soldiers and the sunshine patriots about which Thomas Paine wrote:

“THESE are the times that try men’s souls. The summer soldier and the sunshine patriot will, in this crisis, shrink from the service of their country; but he that stands by it now, deserves the love and thanks of man and woman.”

If you are only a patriot when you see the flag in a parade or have those little goosebumps on the back of your neck when you hear the Star Spangled Banner, or when times are easy, or as the sun shines, you are not a true patriot. I believe another term might be, “fair-weather friend.” We’ve all had friends that are there for the party but can’t be found when you need them to grieve with you or fight for you.

Many Americans today are indifferent to our nation. They’ve been taught it is evil (we’re living on stolen land). They claim that we are systemically racists, even though that’s not true, we actually have laws against such. Yes, there are people who hold great prejudice in their hearts, but it is not in our government documents.

Those who have been swayed by the liars and Marxists here in our nation are guilty of their own ignorance and will put themselves in great harm, not for country but for the lies they've been fed.

Our Founding Fathers were committed, not just to Liberty in their day, but for the Liberty of this country; a new nation.

It has been difficult to watch the chaos and violence unfold in Minnesota and other states across this nation. They believe ICE (Immigration and Customs Enforcement) is breaking the law. They believe the illegal aliens are in their communities seeking the American dream; they are wrong on all counts. The unpatriotic Marxist-democrats have lied to these people. The violence and the law-breaking in the streets must stop! When citizens are arrested, it's difficult to watch. When ICE has to forcibly remove illegal aliens, many who, by the way, have committed heinous crimes, it isn't easy to watch. The innocent five-year-old the Marxists are crying about, was made a victim not by ICE but by his law-breaking parents. This is nothing more than hypocrisy as well as theatrics for the cameras, after all drama sells, who doesn't have a caring heart for the 5-year-old boy? However, Elián González, was a 6-year-old little boy that the democrats ripped from his uncle's arms back in November of 1999, under the direction of President Bill Clinton and his Attorney General Janet Reno. Elián's mother drowned, as the small boat bringing her to the United States capsized. She was on her way to the US along with her son (then 5-year-old Elián) and twelve others, who were seeking asylum from Cuba. But the asylum for Elián was denied, as he was forcibly taken from the arms of his uncle by a highly armed squad of federal agents. The entire world watched as frightened, crying Elián was removed from safety and sent back to Cuba. I shared this with you for the purpose of pointing out the hypocrisy of the Marxist-democrat-party today. They were applauding the charade against 6-year-old Elián. But propagandizing the ugly situation of a 5-year old boy, whose father was here illegally and mother rejected him. ICE took both the father and 5-year-old into custody, so not to separate the child from his father.

The discipline that needs to be distributed to these law-breakers and nation-haters will take some very tough patriotism muscles; not just you and I as we watch, but also for President Trump and his administration as they orchestrate the arrests. They will need our support!

George Washington also warned us in his Farewell address; “Guard against the postures of pretended patriotism.” That’s how I view all the Marxist-democrats calling for an insurrection today. They are not patriots for this Constitutional Republic!

“The individual owes the exercise of all his faculties to the service of his country.”

John Quincy Adams. It is our duty my friends to keep abreast of all that is happening... and it is NOT easy!

One last voice from a ghost of one of our Founding Fathers, “When a whole nation is roaring Patriotism at the top of its voice, I am fain to explore the cleanliness of its hands and the purity of its heart.” Ralph Waldo Emerson.

True Patriotism isn’t for cowards... Be brave America and let us work together to...

“America is at that awkward stage. It’s too late to work within the system, but too early to shoot the bastards.”

~ Claire Wolfe

A Think Tank Level Economist, media report, predicts Golden State ‘billionaire tax’ would be ‘catastrophic.’ Detrimental impact on Golden State economy would include a mix of declining business expansion, drop in hiring, and less investing. “We, the American People” would be smart to look with jaundiced eye government initiatives to increase property (wealth) confiscation. Stifles motivation.

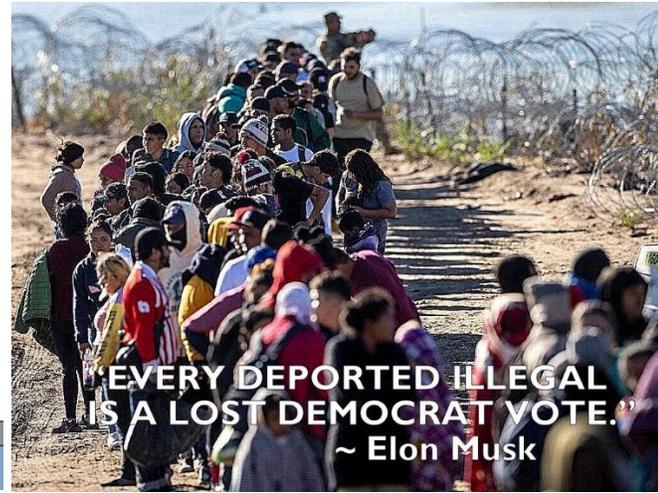

“Since there is no such entity as “the public,” since the public is merely a number of individuals, the idea that “the public interest” supersedes private interests and rights can have but one meaning: that the interests and rights of some individuals take precedence over the interests and rights of others.”

~ Ayn Rand

No Matter How Taxes Are Levied on "Us, the American People," taxes are paid, directly or indirectly, from income. Income is generated from sales; all wealth is, one way or other, derived from sales. We could, if, as a sovereign citizenry, we were so minded, require government(s) to cease and desist taxing anything other than commerce. Sales, money trails followed, pay for all taxes levied for any reason.

"In the end they will lay their freedom at our feet and say to us, "Make us your slaves, but feed us.""
~ Dostoevsky's

Government Wealth (property) Confiscation, arguably, is legal theft. Stealing. Government deciding legal theft is OK, regardless of theft value, doesn't change theft's result. Property (wealth) is taken by someone to whom property (wealth) taken doesn't belong. If legal theft is to be condoned, for any reason, then it would be no less wrong for government to force people to become doctors or carpenters.

“Since outright slavery has been discredited, “democracy” is the only remaining rationale for state compulsion that most people will accept.”

Sharon Pease Hospital Director Speaks Out: Former Employee Alex Pretti Fired Three Months Ago Amid Multiple Complaints Of Inappropriate Behavior

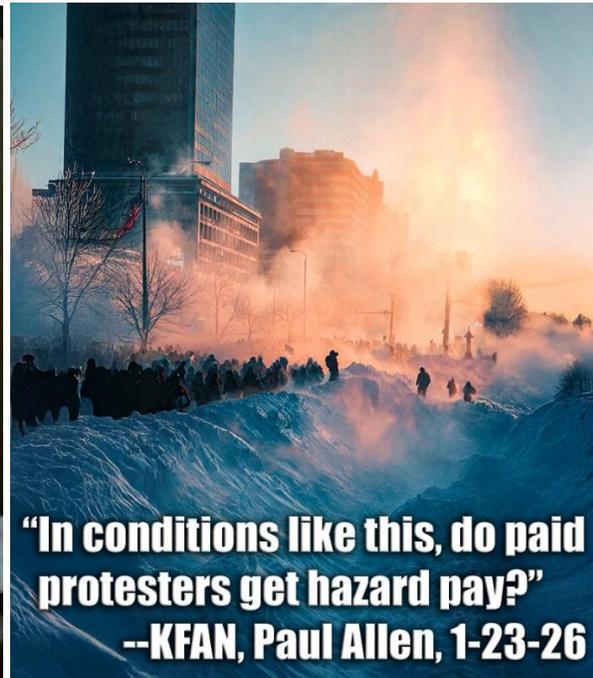

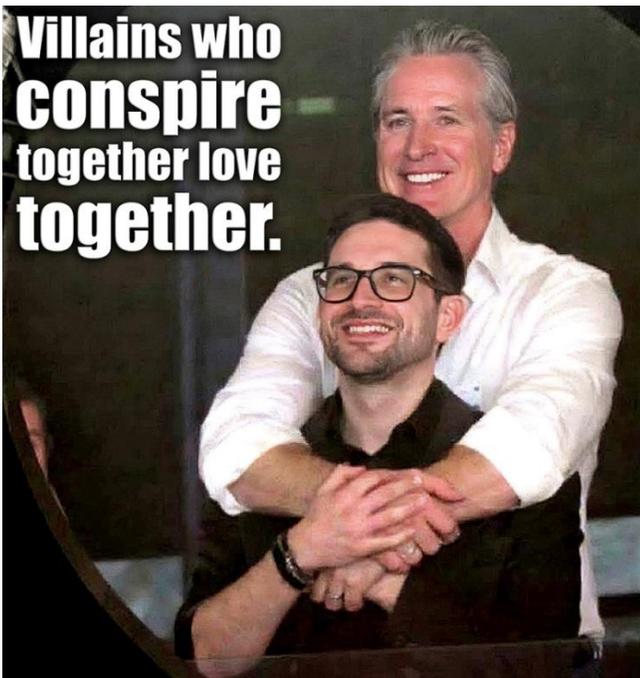

In a rare public statement, the director of Lakeshore Medical Center has confirmed that former staff member Alex Pretti was terminated three months ago following a series of disturbing complaints from patients' families regarding his alleged perverted actions toward vulnerable individuals under the hospital's care.

“Our, the American People’s” government is, ostensibly, government by choice. Self-government. Taxes are necessary for government to perform services we, a sovereign citizenry, decide government is to provide. Economist condemning Golden State billionaire tax predicts Golden State wealth owners will leave. Golden State government may try imposing an exit tax. A hostage tax. Many faces, tyranny.

“Democracy has proved only that the best way to gain power over people is to assure the people that they are ruling themselves. Once they believe that, they make wonderfully submissive slaves.”

~ Joseph Sobran

People Determined To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to require parents to enroll their children in public (government) schools. They raise thinking, independent-minded children.

“To entrust the government with the power of determining the education which our children receive is entrusting our servant with the power to be our master.”

~ David Nasaw
