"The refusal of King George III to allow the colonies to operate an honest money system, which freed the ordinary man from the clutches of the money manipulators, was probably the prime cause of the revolution."

~ Benjamin Franklin

"We, the American People," were we to choose so, could quiet rumblings of President Donald J. Trump's dictatorial government grab and all forms of actual or perceived governmental 'lawful' power abuse. By taking sovereign citizenry control of Liberty's nemesis - - - unbridled taxation. Unbridled taxation is part of selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation and regulation (SADLT&R).

"It would be thought a hard government that should tax its people one tenth part." ~ Benjamin Franklin
"No nation was ever ruined by trade."

~ Benjamin Franklin

Safe To Say Few, If Any, media days go by sans reports and opinions of how Donald J. Trump's Administration is amuck, marked by incessant Executive Orders (EOs) and battles with America's court system. Court outcomes have, through "Our, the American People's" history, fomented as much socio-economic unrest as soothing socio-economic ills. Due unquenchable thirst for unchecked power.

"Make yourself sheep and the wolves will eat you."

~ Benjamin Franklin

No American President, No Level of American government can do much of anything without money. Money, in sophisticated terms, is revenue, or, income. Government comes by income from taxation. Government controls taxation income through SADLT&R. Fundamentally, SADLT&R lets government apply taxation to anything legislators decide people shall pay to sustain in any manner.

"[A]s all history informs us, there has been in every State & Kingdom a constant kind of warfare between the governing & governed: the one striving to obtain more for its support, and the other to pay less. And this has alone occasioned great convulsions, actual civil wars, ending either in dethroning of the Princes, or enslaving of the people."

~ Benjamin Franklin

It Is Well Within Sovereign Citizenry power held by "Us, the American People" to take away government's power to tax, and to levy taxes at our lowest political subdivisions with our exclusive approval. We can fund all government needs (needs defined by us, as a sovereign citizenry) with no taxes other than taxes on commerce. Consumers generate all wealth, directly or indirectly. Doable.

"All governments are more or less combinations against the people...and as rulers have no more virtue than the ruled...the power of government can only be kept within its constituted bounds by the display of a power equal to itself, the collected sentiment of the people."

~ Benjamin Franklin Bache

has all the power

But the 10th
Amendment says people/states have more equal power

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to enact, impose, or increase taxes without securing a majority vote approval in all jurisdictions affected. They protect against property confiscation.

"We Americans have no commission from God to police the world."

Democrats Warn Trump Policies Will Lead To Skyrocketing Unemployment Among Child Traffickers

Media Articles On Prospects of President Donald J. Trump, or any president, having more than two terms in office keep populating “Our, the American People’s” airways. Anyone who has a grip on self-government and our election system knows America’s federal (U.S./National) Constitution is up to interpretation. Further, Constitutional provisions and laws are not, necessarily synchronous. Not.

"In those wretched countries where a man cannot call his tongue his own, he can scarce call anything his own. Whoever would overthrow the liberty of a nation must begin by subduing the freeness of speech."

~ Benjamin Franklin

"We, the American People," if we have any chance of living free of governmental-Constitutional-legislative-judicial tyranny, know, beyond a shadow of doubt, we, a sovereign citizenry, not government, decide who we shall seat as our representatives. And for how long, and how often. Two-Term presidential precept in our federal (U.S./National) Constitution is not written in Liberty's stone.

"Little strokes fell great oaks."

~ Benjamin Franklin

Real parents train them young, rather than let prisons do it.

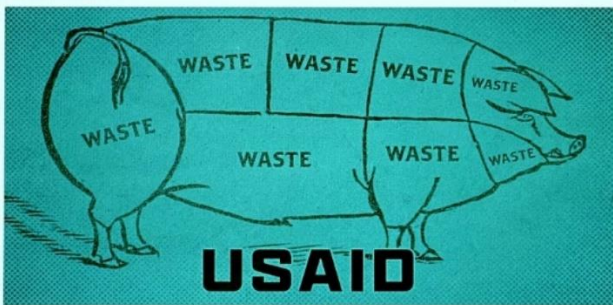

It Would Make No Earthly - or heavenly - sense for "Us, the American People" to change our car mechanics, bakers, doctors, spouses, friends, Faiths, hair stylists (pick your poison) for reason of arbitrary rule. Two-Term presidency rule, while it may be worthwhile, is, push-come-to-shove, arbitrary. For us to allow officialdom, academia, or stupidity to control our choice invites tyranny.

"Freedom is not a gift bestowed upon us by other men, but a right that belongs to us by the laws of God and nature."

If There Is One Principle Above all, when it comes to living in freedom underwritten by Liberty, it is ability to choose. If we subscribe to an idea we may not select our election candidates as we see fit, then we are neither able to elect candidates as we see fit. Arguments against presidents serving more than two terms, all said and done, have, at their essence, intent to control who shall vote for whom.

PI2025 #0170 – To Have Societal Order

"Now those who seek absolute power, even though they seek it to do what they regard as good, are simply demanding the right to enforce their own version of heaven on earth, and let me remind you they are the very ones who always create the most hellish tyranny."

~ Barry Goldwater

“Our, the American People’s” judges, at all levels, can recuse (excuse oneself) from trying cases. There is no requirement for judges to explain recusals. Media is circulating an article wherein article writer claims there is hope for rule-of-law at America’s Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) level because a SCOTUS Justice opted out from trying a case. Could be a sign SCOTUS fairness scant.

"A government that is big enough to give you all you want is big enough to take it all away."

~ Barry Goldwater

“We, the American People” would be smart to, exceptions few and far between, question SCOTUS decisions. Along with virtually any court decision not patently predictable, such as not stopping at a stop sign. Court cases revolving around Constitutionality provisions are, whether we like them or not, matters of opinion. No different than laws reflecting personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB).

"It must be obvious that liberty necessarily means freedom to choose foolishly as well as wisely; freedom to choose evil as well as good; freedom to enjoy the rewards of good judgment, and freedom to suffer the penalties of bad judgment. If this is not true, the word 'freedom' has no meaning."

~ Ben Moreell

Much As It May Unsettle some if “Us, the American People,” America’s legislative-judicial system is not cut-and dry. There are no unequivocal standards either legislator or magistrate can apply when making laws or trying cases. Virtually every law, every court outcome is rooted in PAVB held by legislators-judges-scholars of previous times. Moreover, courts render opinions, not enforcement.

"For you see, the world is governed by very different personages from what is imagined by those who are not behind the scenes."

~ Benjamin Disraeli

Both Friend And Foe of President Donald J. Trump and his cadre of policy implementers operate on trying to gain lawfully enforceable power to either advance Trump/MAGA initiatives, or to spell death for Trump/MAGA initiatives. We can, because we are a sovereign citizenry, have final say on every legislative-judicial-chief executive action. We may be forced to say so, if only to have societal order.

"Whenever is found what is called a paternal government, there is found state education. It has been discovered that the best way to ensure implicit obedience is to commence tyranny in the nursery."

~ Benjamin Disraeli

People Striving To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to give quarter to, offer sanctuary to, or negotiate with terrorists. They refuse to live in fear or at risk brought on by “State” policy.

Paper is a mortgage on wealth that does not exist, backed by a gun aimed at those who are expected to produce it. Paper is a check drawn by legal looters upon an account which is not theirs: upon the virtue of the victims. Watch for the day when it bounces, marked: 'Account Overdrawn.'"

~ Ayn Rand

Media Report China Is Retaliating against President Donald J. Trump's tariff (trade tax) policy. Media coverage sees China move as an indicator a major global trade war is about to erupt. Could be. "We, the American People," given we are consumers, have ultimate control over taxes. By adjusting shopping to where there is least outlay for most purchase. Tariffs (trade taxes) work similarly.

"When you have made evil the means of survival, do not expect men to remain good."

~ Ayn Rand

It Would Be Smart For "Us, the American People" to recognize tariffs (trade taxes) are levied by governments, just like sales taxes for domestic products. Governments, unlike consumers at large, use tariffs (trade taxes) to influence ideological policies of other governments. As such, tariffs (trade taxes) are not focused in getting consumers biggest bangs for consumer bucks. Control over people objective.

"A society that robs an individual of the product of his effort, or enslaves him, or attempts to limit the freedom of his mind, or compels him to act against his own rational judgment ... is not, strictly speaking, a society, but a mob held together by institutionalized gang-rule."

~ Ayn Rand

It Would Be To “Our, the American People’s” credit to focus our consumer habits toward minimizing impact tariffs (trade taxes) have on our lives. Controlling taxes, by smart shopping, ultimately controls government power to impose ideological policies, rather than promoting socio-economic diversity and greatest flexibility to trade participants. Tariffs can be neutralized by domestic product expansion.

"No private embezzlers or bank robbers in history have ever plundered people’s savings on a scale comparable to the plunder perpetrated by the fiscal policies of statist governments."

~ Ayn Rand

President Donald J. Trump May Well Be a superb negotiator. When it comes to tariffs (trade taxes) President Trump is in a position to limit our consumer power by introducing his personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) into trade policy. Presidents may have trade policy power; we, as sovereign citizenry, can nullify trade policy – any government PAVB policy- we find detrimental.
