Bidens ask Americans to 'stop the rancor' and treat each other with 'decency' in Thanksgiving message

“We, the American People,” like it or not, are politically adversarial. We are out to prevail, politically, over anyone with differing personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB). Not to say we don’t come together when we are threatened as a nation. Even then, we can be at each other’s throats over how to meet a threat. We are especially hostile when it comes to lawful resource distribution. Especially So.

“In all history there is no war which was not hatched by the governments, the governments alone, independent of the interests of the people, to whom war is always pernicious even when successful.”

“Our, the American People’s” politicians/legislators/public executives/judges/activists are at least as, if not more so, politically adversarial. Our adversarial PAVB politics do not foster unity. If anything, we are becoming more combative; for example, violent confrontations between law enforcement and protests escalated to marked property destruction and personal injuries among belligerents. Nasty.

Adversarial Politics Percolating Amongst “Us, the American People” have as much as anything to do with lawful power to confiscate property (wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty). Resentment over perceived racism, systemic inequity, and representation are part of our socio-economic discontent. We, so far, have not been able to have government function with neutrality and evenhandedness. Divisive.

“Don’t be afraid to take a big step when one is indicated. You can’t cross a chasm in two small steps.”

~ David Lloyd George

We Could Go A Long Way toward objective and neutral government by abolishing government’s selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulation (SADLT&R). Allowing government to operate under SADLT&R nurtures resentment between people whose property (wealth) is confiscated and choice (Liberty) restricted and those benefiting from SADLT&R. Ugly stalemate.

EXPENSES

EXPENSES EVERYWHERE

“We, the American People,” were we to give wealth tax hysteria a little thought, could argue now popular assault on wealth is an assault on achievement. America’s friendly AI sources list several factors contributing to wealth (property) accumulation. Illegal behavior is not highlighted as a contributing factor. Wouldn’t be unreasonable to say achievers influence socio-economic outcomes.

“The compelling issue to both conservatives and liberals is not whether it is legitimate for government to confiscate one’s property to give to another, the debate is over the disposition of the pillage.”

~ Walter Williams

No Business Can Exist Without sales and, generally, repeat sales. For “Us, the American People” who own businesses, sales, by and large, equates to production; production equates to employee time and effort. Employee time and effort equate to employee paychecks and other compensation. People who are employed have means to put food on tables, have lodging, build equity, avoid impoverishment.

“Blind belief can be comforting, but it can easily cripple reason and productivity, and stop intellectual progress.”

~ James Randi

It Is Arguable People Who Own Businesses contribute to socio-economic wellbeing roughly equivalent to their total payroll compensation cost-of-sales. Cost-of-sales includes taxation, regulatory compliance, and legislative compliance, all part of wealth redistribution. “Our, the American People’s” friendly AI sources detail how companies use investments to grow, expand, and remain competitive.

“Rightful liberty is unobstructed action according to our will within limits drawn around us by the equal rights of others. I do not add “within the law,” because law is often but the tyrant’s will, and always so when it violates the rights of the individual.”

~ Thomas Jefferson

Our Friendly AI Sources, While Detailing investment use, note wealth concentration plays a large role in shaping government. Lobbying and campaign contributions. Stands to reason. People want government to make laws favoring their wants, needs, beliefs, and ambitions. We, if we want wealth contribution to find its way into socio-economic wellbeing, could stop government clout over business.

“The plans differ; the planners are all alike...”

“The marvel of all history is the patience with which men and women submit to burdens unnecessarily laid upon them by their government.”

George Washington

In the last couple of weeks, I've watched as New Yorkers express their disappointment in the current administration and want President Trump back in the White House working to Make America Great Again! The gentleman in the hardhat mentioned jobs, economy, the illegal alien invasion, and the rise in crime, as his reasoning to put Trump back in the White House.

While Katie Couric believes Americans who favor MAGA policies and President Trump are jealous of intellectuals like herself, I can assure her, Americans give her very little thought! Intellectuals like her have lied to the American people, suppressed real news for fake news, they are the ones who have brought a great deal of the division in this nation; from the 2020 mostly peaceful riots, to Antifa and BLM burning cities, open borders, anti-Constitution policies, higher taxes, and fewer jobs for Americans. It is the intellectuals who cannot define a woman, believe men can have babies, murdering the unborn or new-born is ok. The intellectuals agree with placing pornography in front of small children and subjecting them to perverts, such as drag queens. Intellectuals in the education system will hide the crime of a rape of a young female student in the female's bathroom by a trans male pretending to be female. Intellectuals are racists and believe you must give those who are underqualified jobs regardless of who might get hurt. Intellectuals are not smart enough or tough enough to fight their way out of a paper bag. No, we are not jealous Katie, and frankly, I've lost all pity for you as well. Intellectuals are shallow, self-centered narcissists who think they know everything but in reality are incapable of an honest conversation or logic, because they possess no common sense.

Will the blue states turn red? Political analysts love to predict this or that, but it is Americans who will decide. We do need to be well informed, however, things are increasingly and obviously dangerous now and our way of life has been grossly deteriorated by the democrat policies, which go against all that is good in America. Yes, Americans are awake and we have lost our patience!

Upgrade to paid

I recently read in the Washington Examiner that according to a new poll from Axios, 51% of the population wants to see the government conduct mass deportations of illegal immigrants. Perhaps most astonishing is that the policy is supported by 42% of Democrats, indicating that even the president's own party is fed up with his handling of the issue.

It only makes sense that all the illegal aliens that have entered this nation illegally, whether in the last three-plus years or the last 30 years, should be deported; their children too! There should be no birthright citizenship given to those who entered this nation illegally. If they are truly seeking asylum, they need to plead their case in a legal manner. DACA is done; expired!

I have one exception to this deportation, all those who are victims of human trafficking should be given the choice to stay here or return to their homes.

This may all sound hard and cold, but I can assure you that if you want to restore peace, Life, Liberty and that wonderful pursuit of Happiness, we must fill our nation with citizens who love her and respect her and respect the Rule of Law.

Regarding the hardened illegal alien criminals: Those who have been found guilty of murder and other violent, horrific crimes, or distributing fentanyl, should automatically be given the death penalty. There is no reason for this nation to grant room and board for the criminals of other nations. I do realize that the very ones who are ok with murdering the unborn and newly born (intellectuals), believe the death penalty is cruel but the death penalty is Biblical and America must protect the innocent by punishing those who are a threat and danger to Americans.

IF YOU DON'T LIKE US, LEAVE US!

If you are anti-American and believe our Constitution is out of date, then it might be time for you to go!

Loyalists leave America

It was in January of 1782 when America had a large evacuation. After defeating Great Britain, those colonists, who were loyal to the crown, and who actually preferred a dictatorship over freedom and independence, were sent packing! The evacuation was to the tune of nearly 100,000 colonists. You can't build a nation fighting from within, knowing there are spies among you who are loyal to your enemies.

It's no different today really. We have so-called American citizens, who have been fighting against our way of life, who hate our Constitution and abhor our Bill of Rights.

We have sat back for decades and watched as the ones we elected to protect and guard our nation used their positions to profit, to steal and to commit all kinds of immoral acts.

The most recent example of this hate is their hyperbolic reactions to President Donald Trump. Notice too that it wasn't just one-side of the political aisle. Hillary Clinton lost her race, threw a drunken fit (proving she's not fit to govern), then in her bitterness and anger she paid for a fake dossier in order to frame the President of the United States. The late Republican Senator John McCain helped distribute this false document. We watched as many in Congress lied and attacked President Trump, impeaching him twice. Nancy Pelosi showed her contempt, not just for President Trump, but for all America, when she stood there in front of God and everyone, as "the Ripper of the House," tearing the President State of the Union speech into. Making a show of her personal disdain, the Ripper of the House insulted the position of the President of the United States before the world. She should have been fined and kicked out of her positions, but there were no consequences for her disrespectful behavior. Today, she actually has the gall to tell President Netanyahu to resign.

IF YOU DON'T LIKE US, LEAVE US!

Hollywood elites, some political figures (both sides of the aisle) in the past have “threatened” to leave America if the candidate they choose is not elected. We’ve heard their idle-shallow-promises to depart numerous times! Since the majority of these are believers in “free choice,” it is my opinion, that it’s time we actually allowed them their freedom. In fact, we should demand they have their freedom. It just makes sense to me to strip them of their citizenship and send them to their country of choice. Maybe if we sent them all to Haiti they could prove to us how well and perfect their intellectual ideas truly are...

I’m only halfway kidding in this evacuation plan; they should choose, they might not prefer Haiti. I am serious, however, about evacuating all Americans who hate America, just as was done in 1782. If we are to Restore America in 2024 we need true freedom loving Patriots involved and working toward MAGA. I don’t want to listen to any idiotic politician or “intellectual” telling me that America was never that great to begin with. It was the first part of Governor Andrew Cuomo’s statement that gives reason to evacuate all those who say, “We aren’t going to make America Great again.” Fine, then leave! Seriously, if you don’t like us, leave us... and don’t let the door hit-ya on the way out!

United We Stand, Divided We Fall!

“We must, indeed, all hang together or, most assuredly, we shall all hang separately.” Benjamin Franklin

We must all stand with the gentleman in New York wearing a hard hat. This American gets it! He sees the enemy, he has felt the sting of the enemy, he has lost his patience with the current administration, and he’s voting to MAGA!

Lest you think that this is about Trump, I assure you it is not! This is about America. We are in a war for the very soul of this nation. The left, those Katie Couric intellectuals, will not be satisfied until they serve you up more suffering and slavery. They back a president who is only a figurehead, who has no authority. If they have their intellectual way, our nation will continue to be run by the deep state; established bureaucratic dictators, who ignore and hate our Constitution and American way of life.

When Americans lose their patience, tyranny will end and Liberty will once again win! ...because Liberty is always in the hands of the people, but first it must be a longing and a lust within their hearts.

There's A Media Article In Circulation warning “Us, the American People” virtually every aspect of people’s lives will be controlled by a growing number of ultra rich people. An example cited claims 1 of 13 dollars spent in Election 2024 campaigns came from people with property (wealth) portfolios worth more than a billion dollars. Article cautions us to be wary of concentrated wealth power.

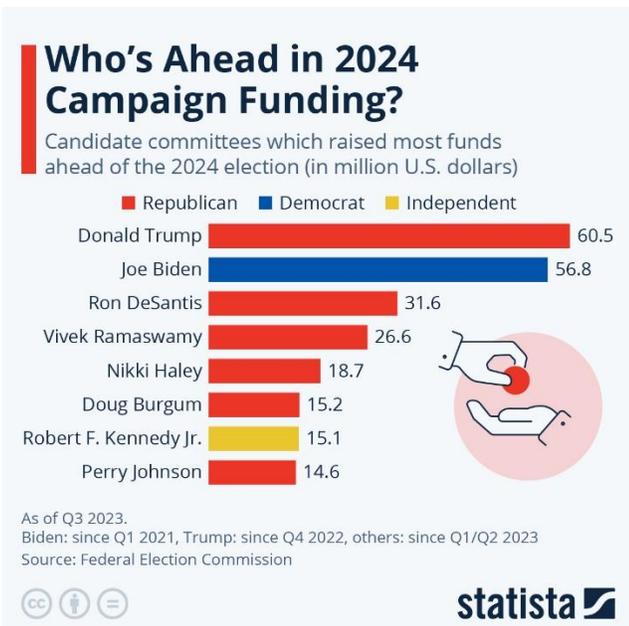

“The Bill of Rights does not come from the people and is not subject to change by majorities. It comes from the nature of things. It declares the inalienable rights of man not only against all government but also against the people collectively.”

~ Walter Lippmann

Article In Question Maintains Ultra Rich people have too much influence on everything from deciding how healthcare shall be provided to garnishes “We, the American People” may put on salads. Front and center in concerns over too much wealth (property) in too few hands is political power, meaning who decides who shall hold government judicial, chief public executive, and legislative office.

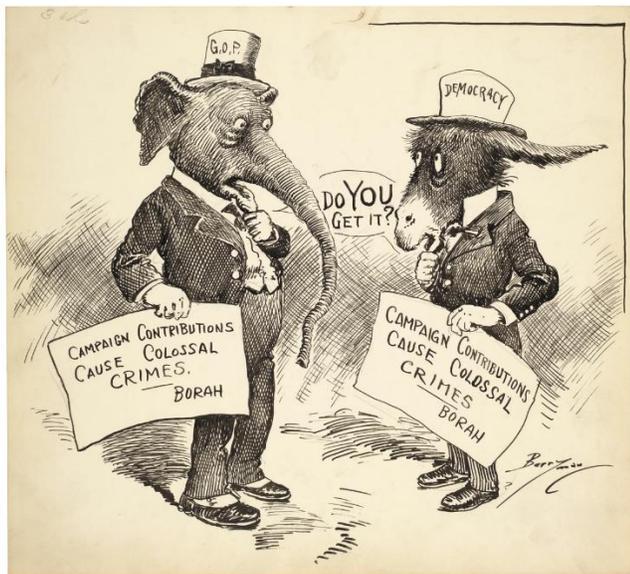

“Martyrdom has always been a proof of the intensity, never of the correctness of a belief.”
 ~ Arthur Schnitzler

“Our, the American People’s” commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions are powerless to prevent corruption spawned by concentrated power brought about by concentrated wealth. Solutions to wealth-concentrated corruption prevention, ultimately, amount to lawful property (wealth) concentration. Oddly, there is scant implied proof ultra rich voters violate election laws by voting.

“I cannot undertake to lay my finger upon an article of the Constitution which granted a right to Congress of expending, on the objects of benevolence, the money of their constituents.”

~ James Madison

No Amount Of Wealth (Property) in hands of a few billionaires, even a few trillionaires, can stop us from electing people to office by spending near nothing. Apart from deciding for whom to vote and getting to polling places, casting ballots costs nothing. We don't pay to vote. There is nothing to stop us from electing a penniless pauper president. protecting and exerting our power of choice. Nothing.

“It's not an endlessly expanding list of rights – the “right” to education, the “right” to health care, the “right” to food and housing. That's not freedom, that's dependency. Those aren't rights, those are the rations of slavery – hay and a barn for human cattle.”

~ Alexis De Tocquville

“Wow government, where did you get all that money for the budget?”
