~ D.H. Lawrence

Ever been so frustrated you skipped anger and went straight to laughing like a lunatic?

"We, the American People" are treated, on a near daily basis, with media reports President Donald J. Trump is acting like a dictator. It wouldn't be far afield of reasonableness to say virtually every legislator would, if every legislator could, have everyone else follow every legislator's personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB). Otherwise, there would be no need for laws. Advice would do.

"The single most exciting thing you encounter in government is competence, because it's so rare."

~ Daniel Patrick Moynihan

Articles Arguing President Donald J. Trump has become a de facto dictator go to some length pointing out Presidents do not have authority to override judicial decisions. It would be perspicacious for "Us, the American People" to bear in mind America's judicial power is not sacrosanct. America's federal (U.S./National) Constitution assigns equal power to each of America's three government branches.

"Human beings will generally exercise power when they can get it, and they will exercise it most undoubtedly in popular governments under pretense of public safety."

~ Daniel Webster

Coequal Power, By Constitutional Edict, makes for never-ending, time and cost-consuming parliamentary deliberation going nowhere, in terms of government action on socio-economic matters. Hardly a wonder "Our, the American People's" body politic (state/society) is caught up in never-ending socio-economic frustration. Frustration expected to be treated by legislation not at all disagreeable.

"The contest, for ages, has been to rescue Liberty from the grasp of executive power."

~ Daniel Webster

Gridlock And Societal Consternation brought on by coequal triumvirate government branches PAVB-quibbling can be remedied by declaration-proclamation-civil action by us, as a sovereign citizenry. We could. Were we willing and committed, decentralize government's lawful authority to our lowest political subdivisions. Voters, at those levels would decide their socio-economic fate. Fourth branch.

"Good intentions will always be pleaded for every assumption of authority. It is hardly too strong to say that the Constitution was made to guard the people against the dangers of good intentions. There are men in all ages who mean to govern well, but they mean to govern. They promise to be good masters, but they mean to be masters."

~ Daniel Webster

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to overrule Commonwealth/State (10th Amendment) Sovereignty as determined and defined by citizens of those respective Commonwealths and States. They uphold limited government without equivocation.

"Of all contrivances for cheating the laboring classes of mankind, none has been more effective than that which deludes them with paper money."

~ Daniel Webster

"In our desire to have government become our benefactor and sustainer, we have allowed it to become our taskmaster and overlord. As a result, we have become little more than well-fed, well-entertained slaves to the state. Freedom, as envisioned by our forefathers, is gone."

~ Chuck Baldwin

"Our, the American People's" Congressional legislators are by no means united behind President Donald J. Trump. Apart from hardcore Trump/MAGA enthusiasts, opposition party Congressional legislators and some GOP Congressional legislators are up in arms against President Donald J.'s alleged attempt at bypassing Congressional check-and-balance authority. Labeling Trump a dictator.

"Only reason can convince us of those three fundamental truths without a recognition of which there can be no effective liberty: that what we believe is not necessarily true; that what we like is not necessarily good; and that all questions are open."

"We, the American People" live under a representative Constitutional republic form of government. No American president has power to force America's elected representatives to do anything. If America's elected representatives turn rogue and try usurping America's triumvirate checks-and-balance government system, it is because we, a sovereign citizenry, allow it by not being proactive.

One Congressional Senate Legislator is calling on other Congressional legislators to assert their 'lawful' authority and stop President Donald J. Trump from doing his 'unlawful' deeds. An especially irritating 'unlawful' deed is President Donald J.'s rampant Executive Order (EO) tactic. EOs do not allow America's presidents to act outside pertinent law. America's presidents know it. Might still try.

"We may not imagine how our lives could be more frustrating and complex--but Congress can."

Watching Trump slash federal programs knowing it doesn't affect you because you're not a member of the Parasite Class

Law Enforcement Is Tricky When applied to a representative Constitutional republic. Having three co-equal government branches, despite how Constitutional verbiage might distribute authority, enforcing law depends on those tasked with enforcing law to enforce it. If law is seen unreasonable by enough people, law will not be enforced. As bad, three co-equal powers means no power. Perplexing.

"Almost all war-making states borrow extensively, raise taxes, and seize the means of combat - including men - from reluctant citizens who have other uses for their resources."

~ Charles Tilley

"We, the American People" would do a lot towards putting President Donald J. Trump's Department Of Government Efficiency (DOGE) out of business if we put political in-fighting in government out of business. Media report America's newly installed federal Attorney General has given notice to America's Empire State governor to get cracking on complying with immigration law --- or else.

"Here's your enemy for this week, the government says. And some gullible Americans click their heels and salute - often without knowing who or even where the enemy of the week is."

~ Charley Reese

"Our, the American People's" government gets itself involved in turf wars over illegal immigrant/migrant/refugee (IIMR). Our federal Justice Department feuding with Empire State over IIMR jurisdiction is an example. Not only do we, as taxpayers, get to pay necessities for IIMR groups in New York, we get to ante up for politicized legal battles between New York and Washington, D.C.

"The sole purpose of their presence is to plunder, by hook or crook, the public treasury for the benefit of their particular people or corporations."

~ Charlie Reese

IIMR Policies Not Consistent from government entity to government entity, it would make sense for "Us, the American People" to take drastic action. At very least, we could make it clear to government officials at large, we, as a sovereign citizenry, are not going to have our property (wealth) confiscated to, in effect, subsidize other countries where conditions create IIMR problems for people elsewhere.

"Political correctness is simply tyranny with manners."

~ Charlton Heston

It Would Not Be Heartless for us to force our government to make it clear no one plants roots on U.S. soil without undergoing due process. Present efforts to deal with IIMR and unavoidable emergencies. Reasons for IIMR do not include home country socio-economic inadequacy. Socio-economic instability is a reason; there is no reason why socio-economic instability can not be corrected.

"There is only one success: to be able to spend your life in your own way, and not to give others absurd maddening claims upon it."

~ Christopher Darlington Morley

People Expecting To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to cause any citizen to be drawn into an obligation to assume responsibility for public debt for reasons other than to defend These United States. They uphold self-government and their option to protect their property

Me Spending My Parents Money

Me Spending My Own Money

"Our, the American People's" President Donald J. Trump campaigned his way to 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue by vowing to, amongst other things, send his predecessors inflationary policies packing. Media are warning inflation may be President Donald J.'s undoing. One article goes so far as to question President Donald J.'s cost-of-money understanding. Owing to Donald J.'s lower interest rate liking.

"I only ask to be free. The butterflies are free. Mankind will surely not deny to [me] what it concedes to the butterflies!"

~ Charles Dickens

If I didn't spend money on food

"We, the American People" can muse over never-ending debate over how money works. We have a government ever ready to work at controlling cost-of-money by slowing or speeding up government monetary printing presses. Legislators, some in any case, prattle on about how they can lower hammers on greedy businesses to make consumer price burdens easier to bear. Goods and services are costly.

"The voice of protest, of warning, of appeal is never more needed than when the clamor of fife and drum, echoed by the press and too often by the pulpit, is bidding all men fall in and keep step and obey in silence the tyrannous word of command."

~ Charles Eliot Norton

Me: How do I save money?
Friend: Stop spending money on things you don't need Me:

Those Of “Us, the American People” who own and operate businesses know – in no uncertain terms – costs of doing business are unavoidable. Legislators can bark loudly about how prices are too high. Let them open stores, offer like goods and services at lower prices with comparable quality. If they're so smart. Profiteering is steadily attacked. No profit, business goes out of business. Pure and simple.

"It is important to remember, as has well been said, 'the essential characteristic of true liberty is that under its shelter many different types of life and character and opinion and belief can develop unmolested and unobstructed.'"

~ Charles Evans Hughes

President Donald J. Trump is under scrutiny for hiking tariffs (trade taxes) when inflation is already chipping away at people's money store. Never has there been a time when people don't have to manage their money to get by. Might take foregoing treats or entertainment, saving before going in debt for a house or new car. Expecting government to make it better is folly. We supply all government money.

"Tyranny is always better organized than freedom."
