"Two percent of the people think; Three percent of the people think they think; Ninety-five percent of the people would rather die than think."

~ George Bernard Shaw

When you're getting destroyed in an argument so you correct their grammar

He, "Our, the American People's" President Donald J. Trump, is a near master at rattling cages. Especially so, cages housing they who are ever alert for anything they can use to discredit they who stoke their rancor. Media aired a variety of sharp-shooter reaction to Donald J. saying, "He who saves his Country does not violate any Law." One deep-thinker christened it most unAmerican retort ever.

"Liberty means responsibility. That is why most men dread it."

~ George Bernard Shaw

Those Of "Us, the American People," who are not inclined to shoot messengers, might find President Donald J. Trump's assertion an embodiment of America's fundamental impetus. Arguably, Declaration of Independence essence is rooted precisely in contempt for law suppressing Liberty. A critic's claim to fame is criticism; objectivity (public verification) is of secondary consequence.

"Nothing is more destructive of respect for the government and the law of the land than passing laws which cannot be enforced."

~ Albert Einstein

Press Personalities (Some) Went Bonkers over President Donald J. Trump's 'Napoleonic' remark. One had it President Donald J. thinks he can break any law he wants. "We, the American People," who are prone to letting legislators confiscate property (wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty) would be smart to bear in mind it matters not if President Donald J. says Planet Mars is pink. If Mars is pink.

"Rightful liberty is unobstructed action according to our will within limits drawn around us by the equal rights of others. I do not add 'within the limits of the law' because law is often but the tyrant's will, and always so when it violates the rights of the individual."

~ Thomas Jefferson

Despite Media Hysteria Over President Donald J. Trump's statement on saving a nation and law-breaking, we'd be certifiable if we tried to stop media from being hysteric when covering political controversy. Or, when acting to create hysteria. Better we encourage a press mindset to be eccentric. We might, with luck, force ourselves to extract fact from fiction. Given we can recognize either.

"The best way to get a bad law repealed is to enforce it strictly."

~ Abraham Lincoln

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to define or limit their 10th Amendment powers beyond Constitutional constraint. They exercise self-government to preserve their liberty.

~ Edmund Burke

President Donald J. Trump/MAGA detractors must be delighted with a fuming outburst from a former GOP party chair who, in a word, expressed with gurgling vitriol, "To hell with republicans." "We, the American People" ought not be surprised when political turncoats hang up one color coat and don another color coat. Might be epiphanies in some cases; odds are election remorse in most cases.

"The majority of us are for free speech when it deals with subjects concerning which we have no intense feelings."

~ Edmund Chaffee

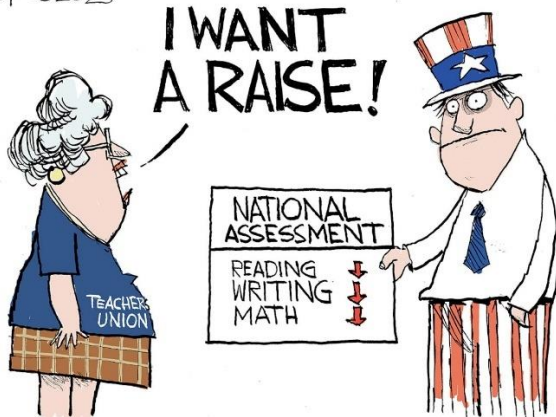

Politics Is Like An Addiction Drug. All rational thinking goes down nearest drains. People caught up in political addiction, when they are convinced they were betrayed by some artificial pacifier, turn to irresistible anger for whoever or whatever they decide is their nemesis du jour. No stretch for voters who misread presidential candidate Donald J. Trump to think President Donald J. has broken promises.

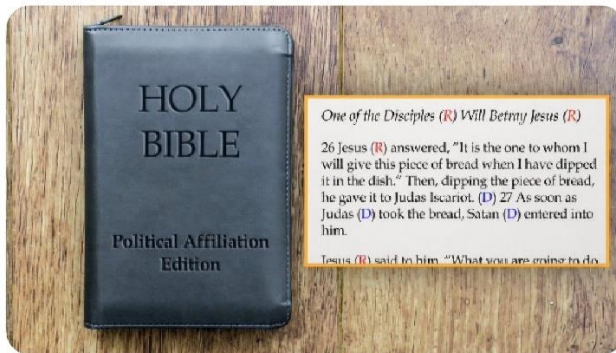

"Among a people generally corrupt, liberty cannot long exist."

Former GOP Big Wig Has Decided President Donald J. Trump is out to undercut all manner of American style opportunity by positioning a radical fanatic to head up America's Department Of Government Efficiency (DOGE). It would not be to far out in left field to speculate unhappy former GOP big wig resents not having been asked to head up DOGE. Political goals all center on power.

"The greater the power the more dangerous the abuse."

~ Edmund Burke

"Our, the American People's" tolerance for they who are outright enemies of DOGE might be taken aback to hear or see polls have Americans backing President Donald J. Trump/MAGA – as they are unfolding – by noteworthy majority numbers. It's not unreasonable to say we fall into two fundamental categories. People who want freedom of choice, compared with people who want power over choice.

"Those who have been once intoxicated with power, and have derived any kind of emolument from it, even though but for one year, can never willingly abandon it."

Federal Government owned lands:

<https://usafacts.org/reports/2021/government-10-k/part-i/item-2-properties/>

US Debt Clock: <https://usdebtclock.org/world-debt-clock.html>

Federally owned land does not include state owned land, but being that all governments have fungible-chicanery methods, governments may interchange a land property for a bridge grant, etc.

Surface water acreage is considered land mass. (Great Lakes, Mississippi)

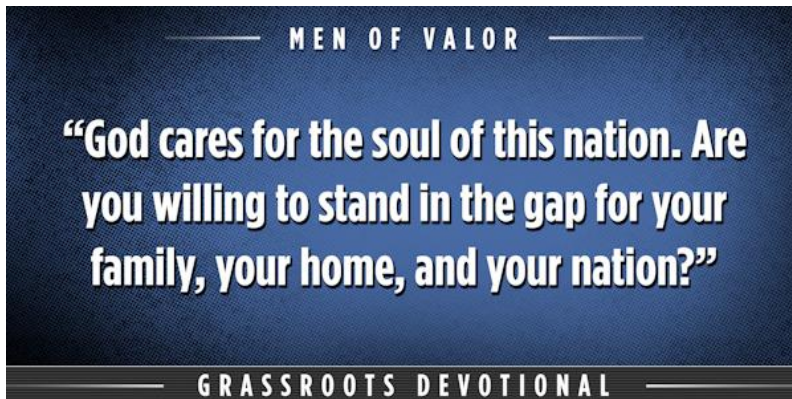

The US owns land in over 193 countries for embassies, air ports, military bases, etc. Much of this acreage is very difficult to calculate.

My best calculations today:

US Debt: $34,000,000,000,000
US Land Mass Fed owned acres 664,000,000 -- collateral for all loans.
US total acres: 2,271,343,000
US Debt per acre of US owned collateral: $51,203
US Debt per acre of all US lands $17,894 -- loan collateral

Some of these numbers change by millions in an hour.

PI2025 #0190 – Are, In Effect, Tyrants

"When a well-packaged web of lies has been sold gradually to the masses over generations, the truth will seem utterly preposterous and its speaker a raving lunatic."

~ Dresden James

"Our, the American People's" President Donald J. Trump has taken some controversial MAGA steps in his second presidency first weeks. As controversial as any, closing federal Education Department doors. True to form, as with virtually every MAGA measure President Donald J. Trump has taken, shutting Education Department doors has been met with cheers and jeers. Let noise not clutter clarity.

"The ideal tyranny is that which is ignorantly self-administered by its victims. The most perfect slaves are, therefore, those which blissfully and unawaredly enslave themselves."

~ Dresden James

The two-party system leads to permanent despotism! I told you that 200 years ago! Think, America, think!

A Media Writer Advises “Us, the American People” to consider two things as President Donald J. Trump and his MAGA reformers gear up to radically transform America’s federal government. Decide those skills our children ought master to be effective in future undertakings. Decide how our children shall be tested to verify their skills mastery. No terribly novel ponderance of education’s objective.

"The time not to become a father is eighteen years before a war.

~ E.B. White

Suffice It To Say "We, the American People" are sufficiently 'educated' when we are able to do as we need to do to satisfy our basic needs. And, if we are so inspired, to reach goals to satisfy our urge for achievement and contentment. In short, we would be smart not to consider 'education's' purpose as anything other than to control behavior. Not everyone might agree. Some might think much unlike.

"We are willing enough to praise freedom when she is safely tucked away in the past and cannot be a nuisance. In the present, amidst dangers whose outcome we cannot foresee, we get nervous about her, and admit censorship."

~ E.M. Forster

It Is Easy For 'Education' to be corrupted by they who think there should 'educational' standards to develop people into acceptable members of society. Societal acceptance, as defined by such people, means others will learn to act as such people dictate. Intellectual freedom would be limited by such people as needed to conform to such ideals such people prescribe. Such people are, in effect, tyrants.

"The essential psychological requirement of a free society is the willingness on the part of the individual to accept responsibility for his life."

~ Edith Packer

People Poised To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to interfere with how responsible citizens use their private property. They fiercely protect their most vital right – individual property ownership. Protecting property is protecting life.

All the fiery rhetoric of the Founders was directed at a 'tyrant' who taxed his subjects at a rate of about three percent. Today, we in 'the land of the free' are taxed at about 50 percent when you add federal, state, and local taxes. What kind of government would do this? A dictatorship would."

WHY CAN'T WE TODAY ???

Media Report There's A Lone Star state barrister with a plan to stop "Our, the American People's" President Donald J. Trump/MAGA project by using President Donald J.'s tactic to halt him forthwith. Something called vexation litigant. Get by vexation litigant legalese, it's a tactic to overwhelm courts with superfluous cases. Courts could, says Lone Star attorney, declare Trump/MAGA pleas frivolous.

"No man is entitled to the blessings of freedom unless he be vigilant in its preservation."

~ Douglas MacArthur

Lone Star State Attorney Reiterates a point made by others who've analyzed Trump/MAGA cases with an eye toward Trump Administration paying unfavorable court outcomes no mind. Laws (considering court outcomes lawful) are enforced by America's Executive Branches. Should America's judicial arm rule against sundry Trump/MAGA Executive Orders (EOs), enforcement nil.

"The inescapable price of liberty is an ability to preserve it from destruction."

~ Douglas MacArthur

Obey the law.
It will protect you.

Protect me from what?

Protect you
from what we'll do to you if you don't obey the law.

It May Come As A Surprise to some of "Us, the American People" court opinions are opinions. Whether court opinions are transformed into action depends, almost exclusively, on Executive Branch willingness to follow up to force losing litigants to comply with court decision. EO-wise, it would be a limp-wristed Chief Executive who would admit to issuing EOs not backed up by existing laws.

"Always there has been some terrible evil at home or some monstrous foreign power that was going to gobble us up if we did not blindly rally behind it."

~ Douglas MacArthur

"We, the American People" may end up refereeing between legislature, courts, and chief executives when there's a legal-political scuffle between court and executive branch. We, if we entertain a semblance of living in freedom under Liberty, had better be prepared to settle arguments between government branches. Otherwise, we stand to be undone by a subtle tyrannical form – lawful inertia.

"You cannot legislate the poor into freedom by legislating the wealthy out of freedom."
