"Our, the American Peoples's" President Donald J. Trump is a dangerous man. So dangerous is President Donald J., articles of impeachment have been filed against Donald J. for, mainly, President Donald J.'s comments about taking over Gaza Strip ravaged by Mideast war. Wouldn't be hard to conclude Congressional legislator filing impeachment doesn't care for America's 1st Amendment.

"People have only as much liberty as they have the intelligence to want and the courage to take."

~ Emma Goldman

There Could Be Innumerable Reasons why a good, up-standing American Congressional legislator would file impeachment proceedings against President Donald J. Trump. Media report a ‘famed’ financial guru says President Donald J.’s tariff (trade tax) policies could lead to more irksome Inflation “We, the American People” will have to suffer. And, could be legislators covet Donald J.’s power.

"Civilization has been a continuous struggle of the individual or of groups of individuals against the State and even against "society," that is, against the majority subdued and hypnotized by the State and State worship."

~ Emma Goldman

Never Ought It Escape “Us, the American People” people who seek legislative office, along with people who don’t, yet work to bring about legislation, are out to achieve one thing above all. To control other people’s lives by virtue of lawful force. Odds are Americans favoring President Donald J.’s” impeachment would be, percentage-wise, no greater than voters who cast for him in Election 2024.

"There's never been a good government."

~ Emma Goldman

Thus Far, President Donald J. Trump has done nothing more than suggest Gaza Strip should be infused with economic development, rather than continue on as a terrorist operations base. Trump/MAGA detractors and anti-Trump/MAGA Congressional legislators would, if they only could, have President Donald J. Trump seek their permission for his every move. All other Americans as well.

"The individual is the true reality of life. A cosmos in himself, he does not exist for the State, nor for that abstraction called "society" or the "nation," which is only a collection of individuals."

You might be in a Constitutional Crisis if...

your elected (democrat) representatives are cursing rather than working!

You might be in a Constitutional Crisis if...

your democrat officials don't know which side you're on, after the President's approval rating is over 50% and over 80% approval of deporting illegal aliens.

You might be in a Constitutional Crisis if...

it's discovered that government not funding an NGO (non-government organization) actually shuts down the NGO because it can't function without government funding.

You might be in a Constitutional Crisis if...

Congress members are holding cursing rallies and writing songs, instead of figuring out the next CR. "Which side are they on?"

You might be in a Constitutional Crisis if...

handpicked federal judges believe they can trump a sitting President of the United States.
(pun intended)

You might be in a Constitutional Crisis if...

you discover that the DOD paid Reuters $9 million to study "large scale social deception."

(Maybe that was actually supposed to be a study on how to implement large scale social deception.)

You might be in a Constitutional Crisis if...

a hospital with a CEO making $1.2 million a year and having a $98 million stock portfolio, made the decision, after USAID funding was cut off, to send a 71-year-old woman home without oxygen, because "they" couldn't afford her oxygen. This well-paid CEO allowed the 71-year-old patient to die.

You might be in a Constitutional Crisis if...

a Federal Judge, after referring to President Trump as a tyrant and then reversing the president's order to defund USAID, actually paid for his position as federal judge. Jack McConnell donated over $700,000 to democrats to "reward" them for recommending him to Obama as an appointee for a Federal Judgeship. Then the same (a little wealthier now) democrats refused to recuse themselves from McConnell's confirmation vote.

Such corruption is evidence of a Constitutional Crisis, and in this case it was embedded within the Democrat Party.

Just another thought here, if a Federal Judge was concerned, should he not have asked to see the proof of financial spending corruption before stopping the process? If the judge was truly concerned about justice, I believe he would have asked to see the ledger sheets.

You might be in a Constitutional Crisis if...

The US Dept of Education spent $3 million on a contract to write a report that showed that prior reports are not being read... TRUE STORY! Look on DOGE.gov

You might be in a Constitutional Crisis if...

an elected official (AOC) hosts a webinar instructing illegal aliens on how to evade ICE.

I thought AOC said "NO ONE" is above the law? I guess she didn't mean illegal aliens or herself! Tom Homan might soon be paying her a visit!

You might be in a Constitutional Crisis if...

your elected officials have never studied the Constitution of the United States, yet took an oath to uphold it... and then turn around and hold rallies to obstruct it!

Dear AOC, have you yet figured out what the three branches of government are?

You might be in a Constitutional Crisis if...

USAID is paying political news outlets to write and speak what they are told by the Democrat Party; aka POLITICO and the used-to-be trusted AP.

This might explain why they all use the exact same language and name calling; it was in the morning's memo!

A Constitutional Crisis They Say...

It seems to be that the C in democrat stands for either Crisis, Crazy, or Corrupt; maybe all three as they studder their way through President Trump's administration; Demo-c-c-c-rat!

There is no logical reasoning for any government official, elected or unelected, to cry out against transparency and audits of any and all departments, UNLESS there are some money-laundering-money-funneling-shenanigans going on!

When the elected officials (unfortunately both sides of the aisle) discovered they could use governmental departments, the bureaucracy, to prop up and promote their political agendas, buy the media, funnel money hither and yon and back into their own pockets, the United States entered into a Constitutional Crisis.

The auditing of governmental departments does not cause a Constitutional Crisis, it has, however, revealed a long-time existing crisis via corruption and money laundering.

There are only Three Branches of government:

Executive

Legislative

Judicial

There is no fourth branch! The alphabet departments of bureaucracy have no real Constitutional authority!

Our Founding Fathers established our system of governance using three separate branches. They were established as checks and balances to protect the rights and Liberty of We the People. There seems to be lots of “checks” bouncing around but no accountability as to their validity.

The United States of America is in a crisis, with a debt too big to be paid. Currently we are $32 trillion in debt. Every member of congress should have been demanding audits years ago. In my opinion, each department should undergo an audit every year, before the House proposes another budget. That seems to be just simple common sense! Alas, that is not the way the House conducts our financial affairs. Without checking any of the spending that was done in the previous budget, they add more spending to the new budget. There is never a discussion on how the programs will be paid for, or how “we” are to meet the budget, because they never intend to balance a budget. This is not just a Constitutional Crisis, this is the destruction of our nation and a national security threat, leaving us slaves to all the lenders.

“The accumulation of all powers, legislative, executive, and judiciary, in the same hands, whether of one, a few, or many, and whether hereditary, self-appointed, or elective, may justly be pronounced the very definition of tyranny.” James Madison

“Governments without separation of powers commit the worst crimes.” James Cook

Charles de Montesquieu said: “If the legislative and executive authorities are one institution, there will be no freedom. There won’t be freedom anyway if the judiciary body is not separated from the legislative and executive authorities.”

As they continue to try to hide the atrocities of their spending and funneling of tax dollars, there is no doubt in my mind that the legislative branch, (the democrats) are colluding with certain judicial activists to circumvent the actions of a sitting President of the United States.

THAT IS A CONSTITUTIONAL CRISIS!

Contributing to a Constitutional Crisis is the sad fact that most Americans have not read the Constitution. It was written in such a way that all Americans would easily understand it... after all, We the People are the true overseers - Consent of the Governed!

Wouldn't Be Hard To Characterize "Our, the American People's" President Donald J. Trump as a "loose cannon." Recent media articles with bear apoplectic coverage of President Donald J.'s remark on people saving their countries don't violate laws exemplify. Wouldn't be much of a stretch to say they who are demonizing President Donald J. over his remark just don't like him or his politics.

"We, the American People," if we're upset with President Doanld J. Trump and his unconventional governance style and related policies, have ourselves to blame. Election campaign promises mean nothing once legislative office winners are seated. Seated, legislative office holders go about making their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) keeping promises and Constitutionally sound.
