

It's As Predictable As tomorrow's morning. Legislative office candidates tell voters they'll make life better by increasing public services. Paying for service increases is never pinned down before voters take candidate promises and cast their ballots. Sooner or later, seated candidates are forced to come clean. Their promises are based on confiscating more property (wealth) and restricting choice (Liberty).

Nothing Is Free. “We, the American People” can take it to proverbial banks. Often as not, seated legislative office candidates, faced with admitting they are unable to deliver on their campaign word, resort to blaming everything and everyone but themselves for coming up short. Media report newly elected Mayor Zohran Mamdani can’t pay for existing services, much less his promised increases.

Sooner Or Later It Will Register with” Us, the American People” governments are unable to give anyone anything without taking something from someone. So, governments resort to selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation and regulation (SADLT&R) to exact property (wealth) from property (wealth) owners to fund their broken promises. And we let them do it. Let them.

“Our, the American People’s” commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions offer no help when it comes to curbing government largesse and growing public debt. Our Constitutions empower legislators to make laws they deem fit. So empowered, they make their SADLT&R personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) lawfully compulsory. PAVB-driven laws, then, amass public debt.

“Our, the American People’s” media outlets routinely carry articles on who pays for tariffs (trade taxes). Consumers pay all costs. All costs. Tariffs (trade taxes) are, first and foremost taxes. Taxes, where business is concerned, are a cost-of-sales). Business factor all costs-of-sales into prices. Prices are, always, psid by consumers. How costs are accounted changes nothing. .

Tariffs (Trade Taxes) Are Used by governments to influence government policies. “We, the American People,” if we pay attention to President Donald J. Trump’s remarks on tariffs (trade taxes), know President Donald J. is using his tariff (trade taxes) for quid pro quo responses by countries exporting stuff to America. No different than governments using other taxes to control people’s behavior.

Countries Benefit, Theoretically, At Least, by enacting comparatively high tariffs (trade taxes) to urge people to buy local, not international. President Donald J. maintains his tariffs (trade taxes) even trade balances between America and countries using higher import taxes to gain trade advantages. President Donald J.’s tariff (trade tax) detractors claim tariffs (trade taxes) work against consumer leverage.

America's Culture War Is a Holy War

American culture needs to be guarded and protected just as much as our borders and our economy.

The culture war in America has been going on for a very long time: the loss of morality, self-respect, the sanctification of marriage and family, the value for life, respect and caring for your neighbors and your communities, integrity, and much more.

While we'd love to just blame democrats for their absurd and obscene view of our culture and the denial of God, the decline of America's culture began with government social programs, which involved both political parties. As the old saying goes, it takes two to tango... and lead America down the path of tyranny. (Okay I added a little to that, but you get the gist.)

American culture needs to be guarded and protected just as much as our borders and our economy; it's all a part of National Security. However, our government officials have legislatively squandered our American culture just like they squandered our tax dollars, placing us in a deficit of over $33 trillion. Decades of squandering and floundering by Congress has done great harm to our nation; financially, militarily, and culturally.

We are being led into a cultural deficit, as the Marxist democrat party and other officials believe God has no place in government... but oh contraire

“Let everyone be subject to the governing authorities, for there is no authority except that which God has established. The authorities that exist have been established by God.” Romans 13:1 NIV

Western culture is Christian culture, and it's under attack in America as well as other western nations. I don't know much about other nations, but I do know we've watched a deterioration of morals in America for decades. It started small, many thought it was insignificant but all those “small” changes in our culture have continued to mount up until now we see and feel the pain of it all.

Remember blue laws when stores and businesses were closed on Sunday?

Remember when Sundays and Wednesdays were respected in the communities; schools would be careful not to schedule events on those days or evenings? Today teachers and students can't attend church on certain Sundays because they have an event, concert, practice etc., and so school takes precedent over family worship.

There was a day and time when even the nonbelievers respected believers and wouldn't disturb churches. Recently the "non-believers" decided to disrupt a church service in Minnesota. Don Lemon and the violent protestors entered that church, separated children from their parents, wouldn't allow the service to continue...and called it free speech. Even though they didn't have guns, they were terrorists, using fear and intimidation for their own sick purposes.

Remember when marriage between a man and a woman, the two genders God created, not the multiple made up ones in the minds of mentally ill or the ones behind the scalpels of deranged doctors, but a man and a woman, which was once held as sacred? One day our government and the lawyers around town decided they can work some legislation and make divorce easier, and in turn the lawyers increased their clientele. Broken families make a broken nation; the result of strong stable families is a strong stable nation!

Later, ignoring the Christian culture and the word of God, "government" decided marriage could be between anyone, and so same-sex marriages were government approved. This is completely contrary to our God and to our "culture."

Remember when commercial ads for drugs were not allowed on TV?

Remember when ads for lawyers were not allowed on TV? We used to call such lawyers "ambulance chasers."

For our "safety" government removed cigarette ads, but decided to raise the tax on cigarettes, not remove them from the market. We see numerous advertising for alcohol products followed up with ads to not drink and drive. Marijuana has been made legal and now we see ads to not drive buzzed. Today we're bombarded with ads for all kinds of drugs; drug ads by the bazillion, as well as inappropriate ads for "sex enhancement drugs." ...And those feminine products, which well – there seems to be no modesty these days.

It truly upsets me that these ads are so prevalent on the so-called-conservative networks... not to mention they are now carrying ads in another language...

I'm not a prude; however, I have watched as this nation has gone downhill. I thought my mother was a prude for standing against sex education in the public schools, and now I see her wisdom. Not even she at that time, could have imagined our schools teaching and encouraging children to be gay and to change their sex identifying gender. It was after sex education was prevalent in our public schools that teenage pregnancy rose. Unwanted pregnancies are "fixed" by the murdering of the unborn child. Society tells us, this is ok and females should have say over their own bodies. However the fetus (person), whether female or male, has no say in the ending of their life: murder. It has also been a practice for school officials to help a young girl have an abortion, without her parent's knowledge. Family doesn't matter!

YES my friends, the culture war is a holy war. We will be victorious over these attacks on American culture when believers in the one and only True God start living as believers and boldly standing up for His righteousness.

The “culture war” is a “Holy War.”

#1 – America was established as a Christian nation

#2 – America was not established as a democracy but as a Constitutional Republic... YES there is a difference!

Christian Americans have lost their way; we have compromised ourselves out of our own Liberties and freedom. In our apathy we turned to government and not to God.

The anti-god Marxist-democrats are bold and violent. It’s time We the People, the children of the Most High God, stand up and fight for the battles of today. We all know the end of the story, and it is We (GOD) who is victorious.

Do not be bullied; it is not racist to believe we should have control and have the say over who enters our nation. There is absolutely nothing wrong in being a “nationalist.” You are not a bigot just because you are a Christian and believe in God’s commandments and his glorious creations. You are not automatically a racist if your skin color happens to be white. Americans come in all shapes, sizes and colors. Brothers and sisters! “One nation under God.”

The “culture war” is a “Holy War.”

If we are to Make America Great Again we must first Make America Godly Again.

Absent Contrary Evidence, "Our, the American People's" President Donald J. Trump's proposal to end birthright citizenship would mean virtually anyone born in These United States would not be a U.S. citizen by birth. Absent contrary evidence, all U.S. citizens could be so only through naturalization. Our Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) is to pass birthright judgement.

'VERY DISTURBING'

We are paying 535 members of Congress MILLIONS to do NOTHING

We are paying nothing for President TRUMP to do EVERYTHING

It Would Be Smart For “Us, the American People,” as a sovereign citizenry, to weigh heavily on how SCOTUS rules on birthright citizenship. Doing away with Federal (U.S./National) Constitution right of citizenship by birth has some pointed ramifications. There would be no born-American citizens, should birthright citizenship be abolished, courtesy SCOTUS. Naturalization would grant citizenship.

Naturalization Is A Process Put Together by people with political bents. "We, the American People" can rest assured naturalization would be overseen by government officials with personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) prospective American citizens would have to adopt or be refused citizenship. Moreover, Federal (U.S./National) Constitution 14th Amendment would need be nullified.

It Would Be A Fool's Errand to get President Donald J. Trump to admit he is not a good American Citizen because he is a citizen by birth. There may be some argument for denying birthright citizenship to other than children born to U.S. citizens. Potential for less immigration for purposes of child citizenship. Otherwise, turning citizenship into a political PAVB process invites despotic control.
