It's Not Uncommon For People who are employed to have job descriptions. Nor, is it uncommon for people who are employed to receive periodic performance reviews. It is uncommon for employees to refuse to show their work when asked. President Donald J. Trump's Department Of Government Efficiency (DOGE) has called on some federal employees to show their work. Not all are showing.

"The only kind of freedom that the mob can imagine is freedom to annoy and oppress its betters, and that is precisely the kind that we mainly have."

~ H.L. Mencken

“Our, the American People’s” DOGE director, Elon Musk has said, media says, employees who do not show their work will be fired. Might not be so easy. Media also report some employee supervisors are telling their subordinates to await further instruction. People who find themselves working for two people with contrary instructions are put in an untenable position – choosing lesser of two evils.

"I believe that liberty is the only genuinely valuable thing that men have invented, at least in the field of government, in a thousand years."

~ H.L. Mencken

“We, the American People” have every right to require government workers (taxpayer employees) to demonstrate their success in performing their position description requirements. Prospective employees who think ahead would be smart to ask of their prospective employer how it is their prospective employer will know if they are doing a good job, should they be hired. Not a universally easy task.

"Under democracy one party always devotes its chief energies to trying to prove that the other party is unfit to rule – and both commonly succeed, and are right."

~ H.L. Mencken

It's Fairly Easy For "Us, the American People" to know if government bus drivers are doing their job. They drive scheduled routes. Not so easy to know if, say, an undercover cop is getting a job done - - - efficiently. Too many variables for a cut-and-dry assessment. A presidential press secretary would not be paid for podium time. Secretary would starve, or, be paid a hefty hourly rate. Efficiency is illusive.

"Democracy is the art of running the circus from the monkey cage."

~ H.L. Mencken

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to subsidize private enterprise with public money. They uphold free markets.

“Our, the American People’s” Department Of Government Efficiency (DOGE) Director, Elon Musk’s e-mails to federal workers requiring them to report job-related achievements is meeting roadblocks. Justice Department (DOJ) supervisors, media report, have told their staffs to hold in abeyance details on their job achievements, due possible ethics violations. Reporting productivity is an ethics concern.

Every time a Government Employee loses their job an Angel gets its wings!

"We, the American People" might have an entertaining time watching how two government agencies, working for a common boss – America's President – will work out how to satisfy one boss when job requirements pose legal troubles, should DOJ respond to DOGE categorically. Should be a minor task protecting confidentiality. Wouldn't be a first, changing names to protect innocent people. Wouldn't.

DOGE Is Not Well-Received everywhere DOGE pokes its nose in agency business. All federal executive branch agencies report to America's President. Dear Councilwoman Farias, Assemblywoman Reyes, Sen. Fernandez, Rep. Ocasio-Cortez, reporter Capoot, journalists, lawyers, and Advocates of Honest Judiciaries,^{*}

1. This is a proposal for you all to join forces to amplify and make long-term the strong and positive impact on public opinion that other women are having, to wit, NYPD Commissioner Jessica Tisch and Karen Friedman Agnifilo, Esq., the attorney for Luigi Mangione.

a. This proposal, the letters to Comm. Tisch and Att. Friedman Agnifilo, an excerpt of the case filed in the U.S. District Court SDNY, supporting material, and the humorous skit "The Four Chicks and Trump", can be downloaded through this link: http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/OL3/DrRCordero-women_leading_movement.pdf

2. We can bring to the attention of your constituents, the audience at your activities, and the media two related cases that provoke the emotion that most effectively drives the public, and especially voters, to protest vehemently and take sustained action: outrage at abuse of power that harms them and those they care about.

3. These two cases deal with police corruption and denials of healthcare insurance claims:

a. Indictments are fabricated on false and insufficient evidence by prosecutors, police officers, and detectives, and covered up by grand jury and NYC and NYS administrative judges, and each of the judges of the NYS Court of Appeals. Thousands of people have fallen victim to the coordinated abuse of power of these public officers, and have been deprived of their liberty or evicted, fired, and ruined financially and reputationally by having a criminal record.

b. Medicare seeks to keep in its network, and increase the number of, its thousands of medical services and equipment providers. They coordinate their denial of claims of many of its 67 million insureds, who are old, disabled, sick, and cannot afford lawyers though confronting five levels of administrative and judicial appeals. If capable at all, the insureds appeal pro se, but ignorant of the law, they have little to no chance of prevailing over the lawyers of Medicare and its providers. Their coordinated abuse of power is exposed in a case filed in SDNY¹.

4. Indeed, officers in those cases engage in patterns of abusive conduct that reveal an institutionalized modus operandi. Their conduct can be exposed as so coordinated by them, and for their benefit, as a class as to make them part of racketeering and corrupt organizations.

5. That will distinguish our joint effort from a mere sensational case of officers going rogue individually.

6. Such exposure will exacerbate public outrage.

7. That will motivate ever more people to participate in what we will promote to media outlets and universities: unprecedented citizens hearings. To be held at their stations and auditoriums, these hearings will enable people to tell in person or online to the national public their story² of the abuse by those organizations that they have suffered or witnessed.

8. Only an informed and outraged We the People can subject those who wield entrenched political and financial power to transparency, accountability, and liability.

a. The effort to inform the public is pursued through my website, Judicial Discipline Reform, at <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org>. There

I post some of my articles, the product of my professional law research and writing, and strategic thinking. They have attracted so many webvisitors and elicited such a positive response from them that as of 20 February 2025, the number of visitors who had become subscribers was 53,720.

b. Those articles are supported by my three-volume^{*†}♣ study of judges and their judiciaries, titled and downloadable thus:

Exposing Judges' Unaccountability and Consequent Riskless Abuse of Power:
Pioneering the news and publishing field of judicial unaccountability reporting ^{*†}♣

9. I offer to make for you and your guests a presentation in person or via video conference on leading a movement that can have transformative impact on our system of governance and turn you into Champions of the People.

10. See my complaint-appeal, which is filed and ready for class action:

Cordero v. Secretary of HHS, Medicare, EmblemHealth (healthcare insurer), Maximus Federal Services (reviewer of denials of healthcare coverage claims), et al.;
docket no. 24-cv-9778-JAV
filed in the U.S. District Court, SDNY, on 16 December 2024

http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/ALJ/24-12-15DrRCordero-v-Medicare_EmbemHealth_et_al.pdf

11. See also my motion for reconsideration of the order of service dismissing on the court's own motion all individual defendants on the allegation that they are protected by judicial or sovereign immunity, thus trampling underfoot the foundational principle that "ours is a government, not of men [and women], but by the rule of law".

12. Both the complaint-appeal and the motion for reconsideration together with the respective orders appealed from are at http://Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org/ALJ/24-12-15DrRCordero-v-Medicare_EmbemHealth_et_al.pdf.

13. The court has ordered such dismissals precisely at the time when scores of people are suing President Trump and other top officers and agencies of his administration, yet, judges are not dismissing those suits on their own or the defendants' allegation of any such immunity.

14. Moreover, consider the hypocrisy of federal judges demanding that Trump and his codefendants respect court orders, although those judges disregard the Judicial Conduct and Disability Act, 28 U.S.C. §§351-364, by dismissing 100% of complaints filed thereunder against their fellow federal judges and denying 100% of petitions for review of those dismissals; and the justices of the Supreme Court exempt themselves from the Code of Conduct applicable to all lower judges and even fail to disclose the lavish gifts that they receive from the billionaire "amici of the justices".

See an excerpt of the complaint-appeal below.

Dare shout "I accuse!"...
You may trigger history and even enter it as a Champion of Justice.

Sincerely,

Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.

"Our, the American People's" media has an article on how President Donald J. Trump might assure his agenda to reshape America is not lost to Trump/MAGA/Musk political enemies come Election 2028 and beyond. Article makes it clear America's political system is structured to afford competing political factions to grasp lawful power by manipulating America's electorate. Through election bids.

~ H.L. Mencken

Article In Question Speculates Anti-Trump/MAGA/Musk forces would, if they regained lawful power in Election 2028, serve vengeance on President Donald J. Trump, his family – and likely those who stood by him – jail them, divest their assets, and upend all political change brough on in Donald J.'s presidency. Political revenge is irresistible when they holding power make it lawfully compulsory.

"All government, of course, is against liberty."

~ H.L. Mencken

"We, the American People," were we committed to exerting our sovereign citizenry power, could structure America's governmental system to prevent socio-economic upheaval from election to election. We could keep lawful power from being concentrated by decentralizing it to our lowest political subdivisions, and empowering local officials with exclusive authority within their districts.

Me:

Nothing In America's Commonwealth, federal (U.S./National) or state Constitutions prevents "Us, the American People" from putting our government together as we see fit. Upper-level legislators, without a shred of doubt, would scream bloody murder at localized control. Their objection would be reason enough to force localized (home rule) government. A Sovereign citizenry is cooperative.
