"The lesson that Americans today have forgotten or never learned -- the lesson which our ancestors tried so hard to teach -- is that the greatest threat to our lives, liberty, property, and security is not some foreign government, as our rulers so often tell us. The greatest threat to our freedom and well-being lies with our own government!"

~ Jacob Hornberger

"Our, the American People's" media ran a tantalizing article covering an exchange between like-party Congressional legislators trading witticisms on President Donald J, Trump and his thought-to-be aspirations of ascending as King Donald the 1st. One Congressional legislator, who must have had an insight into President Donald J.'s innermost thoughts – thinking he's a king because of social media.

"Every time we establish a new crime, we're creating a new mechanism for the government to check up on you."

~ James A. Bruton III

Clairvoyant Congressional Legislator, knowing President Donald J. Trump's secret thoughts, assured Department Of Government Efficiency (DOGE)-targeted job-losing workers their representatives would fight for them, and against reckless and disgusting cuts. A same-party Congressional legislator took umbrage, claiming threats against America's presidents would not be tolerated. From anywhere.

"The first step in saving our liberty is to realize how much we have already lost, how we lost it, and how we will continue to lose it unless fundamental political changes occur."

~ James Bovard

Congressional Legislator Who Countered like-party colleague accusing President J. Donald J. Trump of having kingly aspirations noted cutting excessive spending was necessary because America was flat-broke. "We, the American People" might take note of like-arty legislators sparring with each other over President Donald J. virtues. Loyal opposition amounts to words when legislator pits against legislator.

"It doesn't matter what untruths the people are fed because they will not long remember. But in politics, forgotten falsehoods almost guarantee new treachery."

~ James Bovard

It Is Quite A Different Matter for "Us, the American People": to do battle with over-priced items at our favorite greasy spoons, than to grapple with unnecessary government spending. WE can go to another greasy spoon with better prices. We can't go to another city hall or government seat. We have to let over-spending legislators know they lower taxpayer costs, or, their job income will be cut off.

"America needs fewer laws, not more prisons."

"We, the American People" will be faced with losing vital government services GOP operatives worked to destroy beyond any semblance of their capacity when President Donald J. Trump took office January 2025. Contributor refers to learned scholars who contributor claims believe Trump/MAGA/Musk damage so wide, status quo ante would be impossible for SCOTUS to recover.

Contributor Tells “Us, the American People” Trump/DOGE tactic is to create unease in veteran workers and let anxiety do its job. There ought not be undue unease among workers in any environment who are prepared to undergo audits testing productivity and workplace goals and objectives. Moreover, we (including government employees at every level) are members of a sovereign citizenry. We decide.

America's Government Executive Branches, if they are doing they jobs with due diligence, are more than prepared when their operations are stress-tested. It would not be in our interest if our courts were to deny Executive Branches authority to test their performance to assure Americans in their jurisdictions taxpayers are getting their money's worth. No perversity in asking people to do their jobs.

~ Hubert H. Humphrey

Those Of “Us, The American People” who voted for presidential candidate Donald J. Trump in Election 2024 might be shocked to learn it was not Donald J. Trump who won presidential Election 2024. It was Elon Musk. Or, so it would seem from sundry media articles indicating Elon Musk is America’s de facto president. Media articles credit Elon Musk with having unprecedented power.

"The right of citizens to bear arms is just one guarantee against arbitrary government, one more safeguard against the tyranny which now appears remote in America but which historically has proven to be always possible."

~ Hubert H. Humphrey

Elon Musk Is Not America's President. Elon Musk did not take presidential oath of office Inauguration Day 2025. It is Donald J. Trump who "We, the American People" will punish or praise for his job. Elon Musk is a member of President Donald J.' staff, authorized by President Donald J. to run Department Of Government Efficiency (DOGE). DOGE legality has been oft challenged.

"[I]t is true that [the provisions of the Bill of Rights] were designed to meet ancient evils. But they are the same kind of human evils that have emerged from century to century whenever excessive power is sought by the few at the expense of the many."

~ Hugo Black

"Our, the American People's" presidents can hire who they wish to do as they ask. Elon Musk, as DOGE head his presidential authority behind him. Not much different – if, at all, than a military commander acting on behalf of America's Commander-in-Chief. Elon Muck would have access to no government information or other property than his security level clearance would ordinarily permit.

"Every government is run by liars and nothing they say should be believed."

~ I.F. Stone

Trump/MAGA Detractors Will, when they can, resist cooperating with DOGE intervention for, if no other reason, to weaken President Donald J. Trump's political credibility. No surprise. Media report some federal agencies are denying DOGE access to records, etc. courts have not given President Donald J. carte blanche to implement Executive Orders (EOs) pertinent to DOGE operations. Politics.

"Liberty is the possibility of doubting, the possibility of making a mistake, the possibility of searching and experimenting, the possibility of saying "No" to any authority -- literary, artistic, philosophic, religious, social and even political."

People Proposing To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to cause any citizen to be drawn into an obligation to assume responsibility for public debt for reasons other than to defend these United States. They require elected leaders to defend America's liberty unequivocally.

"Our, the American People's" triumvirate federal government does not consist of three, co-equal branches. Contrary to text, tutorial, scholarly pronouncement, or lay definition. Not if, as media reported, a Congressional legislator, sitting in a confirmation hearing for Justice Department (DOJ) nominees, advised nominees to never, consider dismissing or ignoring a federal magistrate imperative.

"Bureaucracy is a giant mechanism operated by pygmies."

~ Honore de Balzac

Congressional Legislator At Hand took time to instruct DOJ nominees so, media reported, prompted by Vice-President JD Vance comments on judges acting to block President Donald J. Trump's various Executive Orders (EOs). Sticking point with Congressional legislators was DOJ nominees would not commit to following judicial orders. Nominees referred to judicial cases in history deemed erroneous.

"While boasting of our noble deeds we're careful to conceal the ugly fact that by an iniquitous money system we have nationalized a system of oppression which, though more refined, is not less cruel than the old system of chattel slavery."

~ Horace Greeley

"We, the American People" are between rocks and hard places when it comes to following court decisions. Presumptions bearing include (1) obeying laws, and (2) courts (juries, at least) may find pertinent law(s) impertinent, i.e. illegitimate, or inappropriate, or unjust. We, as a sovereign citizenry have power to decide if Congressional legislators, judges, or DOJ attorneys shall stand most correct.

"Politics is the means by which the will of the few becomes the will of the many."

~ Howard Koch

It Is Incumbent On “Us, the American People,” as a sovereign citizenry, to stand as arbiters when government officials reach an impasse. If we do not so stand, if we defer to warring government officials to reach a consensus, we forfeit our authority as a self-governing people. Ordinary people, imperfection notwithstanding, are Liberty’s last, and most likely to be fair, line of defense. Paradox.
