"Love your country, but never trust its government."

~ Robert Heinlein

Some Fine Day, With Any Luck, “We, the American People” are going to go beyond recognizing America’s legislators are all about gaining lawful power to control wealth and choice. We’ll do something. Something like decentralizing lawful power to America’s lowest political subdivisions, and we’ll stop all legislators from interfering with how local government legislates and adjudicates.

"An armed society is a polite society."

~ Robert Heinlein

“Our, the American People’s” legislators, as much as anything, seek lawful power to make their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) lawfully compulsory for everyone. It won’t be easy stopping legislators from making their PAVB lawfully compulsory. Legislators have making their PAVB lawfully compulsory since legislators first created laws. Tactics, not goal, are more intricate.

"All nonstate threats to life, liberty, and property appear to be relatively petty and therefore can be dealt with. Only states can pose truly massive threats, and sooner or later the horrors with which they menace mankind invariably come to pass."

~ Robert Higgs

Media Report To “Us, the American People” on how legislators struggle for power, including struggle within party factions. Recent examples include like party legislators fighting amongst themselves over latest continuing resolution to avoid shutting down federal government. It’s not so much legislators are for or against federal government shutdown. It’s more about who gets to throw On/Off switch.

"But politicians who talk about failed policies are just blowing smoke. Government policies succeed in doing exactly what they are supposed to do: channeling resources bilked from the general public to politically organized and influential interests groups."

~ Robert Higgs

Why People Have An Irresistible Yearning to control people may never be understood. As likely, if not more so, yearning to control other people, by force of law backed up by physical force, will never stop. We can, if we work at it, prevent people from exercising lawful physical force to control people against their will. By exerting greater preventive force. And by using such force with conviction.

"The man who does not do his own thinking is a slave, and is a traitor to himself and to his fellow-men."

~ Robert Ingersoll

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to interfere or impose in any way with how responsible citizens choose to use their private property. They protect their heritage to use their property as they see fit.

"Liberty a word without which all other words are vain."

~ Robert E. Lee

"Our, the American People's" President Donald J. Trump just might have rustled more jurisprudence system feathers than a poultry processing plant. People of professional judicial note have an abundance of professional views on how President Donald J. fares with America's courts, and, how court members behave. America's Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) is never a boring topic. Never.

"This freedom, this liberty, this beautiful and terrible thing, needful to man as air, usable as earth."
 ~ Robert Earl Hayden

Recent Media Articles Focus On SCOTUS Justice Clarence Thomas. Article writers draw attention to professorial-level academics who, presumably by their erudite observations, characterize Justice Thomas as most conservative SCOTUS Justice. Of note, is a characterization of Justice Thomas's predilection to challenge settled law. Inquiring minds will find settled law means by binding precedent.

"What light is to the eyes – what air is to the lungs – what love is to the heart, liberty is to the soul of man. Without liberty, the brain is a dungeon, where the chained thoughts die with their pinions pressed against the hingeless doors."

~ Robert G. Ingersoll

"We, the American People" would be consummate fools to warm up to an idea of law settled by something so highmindedly sounding as binding precedent. Not since our ancestors slithered from ocean waters and felt first rousing of thought, has there been binding precedent for something as predatory as law rooted in personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB), Nor, will there ever be such.

"Freedom to differ is not limited to things that do not matter much. That would be a mere shadow of freedom. The test of its substance is the right to differ as to things that touch the heart of the existing order."

~ Robert H. Jackson

There is one social security employee for every 6 recipients. What exactly are they doing?

It Would Be A Death Blow for "Us, the American People" to adopt such a far-fetched idea as settled law. Law, and its handmaiden, judgement, wreak their annoyance on people because they are steeped in PAVB held by they who write law, they who administer law, and they who adjudicate law. By people with exquisite bias in their hearts no law can ever suppress. We are incurably naive to think so.

"There is no such thing as an achieved liberty: like electricity, there can be no substantial storage and it must be generated as it is enjoyed, or the lights go out."

~ Robert H. Jackson

People Relentless To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to enter into defined-benefit contracts with collective bargaining units. They forbid government from eroding their property rights.

"The human race divides politically into those who want people to be controlled and those who have no such desire."

What is Wokeness, an Ideology or a Tactic?

The WOKE attacked American culture in order to destroy our very foundation.

Is wokeness all about transgender awareness and acceptance?

Is wokeness abortion?

Is wokeness population control?

Is wokeness the protecting of criminals over their victims?

Is wokeness the inability to “define a woman?”

Is wokeness holding on to the lies of climate change?

Is wokeness convincing all people that CO2 is a toxic gas, even though most of us know without CO2 there would be no life whatsoever?

Is wokeness the hatred of one’s own country?

Is wokeness the hatred of the Creator God?

Is wokeness the hatred of family?

Is wokeness the removing of all individuality and identities?

Is wokeness drag queens influencing minors?

Is wokeness identifiable to only one political party, or is wokeness the process to make all people unidentifiable? (Wokeness allows no individualism)

Does wokeness achieve greatness or does the WOKE ideology stifle competition and discourage innovation.

Is wokeness the lack of true compassion for others?

Is wokeness the enemy of Conservative Americans?

Does the wokeness ideology parallel with the United States Constitution: Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness?

How do we perceive this wokeness that the LEFT has embraced? Wokeness in and of itself is a lie!

WOKE certainly has many distractions but WOKE, in my opinion, is a strategical tactic for destruction and the gain of absolute power. This tactic has been significantly successful, as it has drawn Americans to several different battlefronts: Women's sports, college campuses, our southern and northern borders, the public school bathrooms, the public school libraries, local libraries, our churches and synagogues, America's sports, American businesses, our military, our clothing, our hospitals; the WOKE's tactical attacks are everywhere.

It's as if the WOKE took those things they knew would be the most abhorrent to most Americans; particularly conservative-commonsense thinking Americans, Christian Americans and Jewish Americans, and then crammed it down our throats. They attacked our children, women, and American families. The WOKE attacked all that we would consider wholesome. The WOKE perverted all that was good about the United States of America; they attacked our history and began removing all evidence of it and led a movement to replace our history; such as the 1619 project. The WOKE attacked American culture in order to destroy our very foundation.

What most honest, decent Americans would call good, the WOKE call evil and what most honest, decent Americans would call evil, the WOKE define as good.

The WOKE hate all that is American, including baseball, moms and apple pie. (...and apparently Chevrolet)

Recently the Transgender Dem. Representative from Delaware, (Mr. Tim) Sarah McBride made the comment that republicans are obsessed with a culture war. However, WOKE is a tactical movement against the very core of American culture. I'm sorry to explain this, but the once Tim, now Sarah McBride, is mentally ill; transgenderism is a mental illness. Society does, them-him-her or others, no favor by playing along with their perverted vision of themselves.

WOKE is a strategic political tactic to distract and destroy. Those who promote the WOKE agendas are literally using and abusing the mentally ill. The WOKE do not want freedom. The WOKE do not want equality; au contraire, the left prefer equity, which is the opposite of equality. Their forced DEI (diversity-equity-inclusion) solution to make all people equal only puts employers, companies, and our nation at a disadvantage; competition and production becomes stifled and the work inferior. "Just good enough," is not a slogan for those who want to prosper or succeed in life.

WOKENESS, and it's many corners of distractions, is a tactic; surging ahead with its goal to destroy our nation! While we're putting out all the fires of wokeness, chasing pronouns and second guessing who's on first, the WOKE keep lighting more fires in other camps, all the while owning the deep-state actors and directing them to continue with the plan of their war on our culture and spend the USA into oblivion.

The WOKE do not care about the Constitution of the United States; it is laughable to even think that they do. The WOKE are not compassionate and accepting of transgenders, they are using them and their mental illness as a convenient way to “stick it to” conservatives.

Yes, WOKENESS is a tactic to destroy, and the Republicans seem to be fanning the flames with rhetoric, rather than drowning their fires with truth, reality and sound Constitutional doctrine.

I’m not sure republicans have much backbone for truth and Liberty! They don’t know how to act when they are the winners and have control.

No, it isn’t because they are “gentlemen,” they are either cowards or they are the quiet WOKE who sit and complain. They might rage a battle or two, hither and yonder, but nothing ever changes, and the democrats seem to be in charge, even when they are the minority party in Congress.

Right now, as President Trump and his administration work their hardest to “drain the swamp,” the LEFT-WOKE continue to bring forth unelected judges to usurp the authority of the President of the United States. President Trump might eventually win at the Supreme court level, but in the meantime... draining the swamp becomes difficult, as the drain is clogged with anti-Constitutional WOKE creatures. Remember when republicans did that with Biden? No, me either!

For the last several decades the LEFT have infiltrated our learning institutions to brainwash our children so that the WOKE will own the next several generations of American leaders. We must stop them now!

How do we stop the tactics of the WOKE? First we must recognize our own authority as the “people in charge.” Then we need to accept the call to action and contact our local, state and federal officials. If the elected officials want to be reelected, perhaps they should start listening to their constituents. We also need to begin petitions to recall officials who are unconstitutional and petition for certain judges to be impeached.

The United States of America is a Constitutional Republic! We elect our representatives and senators; the Constitution of the United States of America is a contract between We the People (Consent of the Governed) and the elected officials. This contract is to keep them from usurping the freedoms and Liberties of We the People. Congress is not elected to micro-manage our lives!

Liberty is always in the hands of the People, but first it must be a longing and a lust within their hearts.

Earlier this week, I said “November 5, 2024 was too close for comfort.” We are not out of the woods of “absolute tyranny” just yet. The democrats continue to push their WOKE tactics and force crazy-culture ideologies at us, and it is time that We the People pushed back with our authority under the Constitution to...

"Our, the American People's" Congressional legislator, Maxine Waters, according to media reports, has let it be known she's worried President Donald J. Trump has Americans on verge of civil war. Legislator Waters warned all sorts of Americans will not get government help they, according to Legislator Waters, believe government has promised them. Them being nonprofits, seniors, poor folks.

"We, the American People" would be smart, when politicians-legislators make claims people will be distraught and suffer if government does not come to their rescue, to give some thought to how government does anything, including rendering help to anybody. Government does everything by confiscating property (wealth) and restricting choice (Liberty). Because government has no money.

"Taking somebody's money without permission is stealing, unless you work for the IRS; then it's taxation."

~ Robert Anton Wilson

Politicians-Legislators, Who Declare they are out to help downtrodden and needful Americans, stand ready to take from some Americans to give to other Americans. Might sound like a great thing to do, helping others, till it registers with “Us, the American People,” politicians-legislators propose to help anyone by depriving someone else of their property (wealth). By fighting greediness, their mantra.

"As government regulations grow slowly, we become used to the harness. Habit is a powerful force, and we no longer feel as intensely as we once would have [the] constriction of our liberties that would have been utterly intolerable a mere half century ago."

~ Robert Bork

Confiscation-Happy Politicians-Legislators Argue it's government's duty to care for people. Government's duty, if government has a duty, is to protect freedom. Taking people's property (wealth) by force is not charity, not, by any stretch, protecting freedom. It is lawful theft. Whether lawful theft is acceptable is up to us, a sovereign citizenry, to decide. Politicians-legislators will, if allowed, decide.

"So free we seem, so fettered fast we are."

~ Robert Browning

People Determined To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to remain in office if they break their word to their constituents. They dismiss remiss elected officials without hesitation.

"For as long as one hundred of us shall remain alive, we shall never in any wise consent submit to the rule of the English, for it is not for glory we fight, nor riches, or for honour, but for freedom alone, which no good man loses but with his life."
