"Taxation of earnings from labor is on a par with forced labor. Seizing the results of someone's labor is equivalent to seizing hours from him and directing him to carry on various activities."

Gridlock, As Gridlock Applies to government means government is in a state where it can not pass laws or act. "We, the American People" witness a form of government gridlock, as reported by media coverage of judicial blockage of President Donald J. Trump's MAGA/Department Of Government Efficiency (DOGE). Judiciary-DOGE battle has brought to fore judicial/executive power struggle.

"It is becoming increasingly apparent that many—arguably most—of the problems that plague our nation have been aggravated rather than alleviated by federal intervention."

~ Robert W. Lee

President Donald J. Trump Executive Order dispute with “Our, the American People’s” judiciary is reported by America’s media on a daily, sometimes hourly, basis. From judicial-Trump dispute has arisen an on-going jurisdictional debate over America’s triumvirate government branches. Specifically, branch power to impede other branches from acting on their charters as they see those charters to be.

"The real freedom of any individual can always be measured by the amount of responsibility which he must assume for his own welfare and security."

~ Robert Welch

Either America’s Commonwealth, Federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions empower “Us, the American People” with self-government, or, they do not. When federal officials do battle with each other over who gets to tell other government officials how and when to do their jobs, and work to confiscate property (wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty), then self-government does not, can not exist.

"The terrorists have already won the political and ideological war with one terrorist act. It is mindboggling that we are that weak as a society."

~ Rocco Galati

It May Well Be Wishful Thinking for any society to have universally accepted government. People have far too diverse ideas and ideals for government to make selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulation (SADLT&R) satisfactory to all. SADLT&R is, by its nature divisive, pits regular citizen against regular citizen, benefits authority most. Power diffusion an option.

"There are in fact four very significant stumblingblocks in the way of grasping the truth, which hinder every man however learned, and scarcely allow anyone to win a clear title to wisdom, namely, the example of weak and unworthy authority, longstanding custom, the feeling of the ignorant crowd, and the hiding of our own ignorance while making a display of our apparent knowledge."

"All nonstate threats to life, liberty, and property appear to be relatively petty and therefore can be dealt with. Only states can pose truly massive threats, and sooner or later the horrors with which they menace mankind invariably come to pass."

~ Robert Higgs

Never Look A Gift Horse in its mouth. Not if you expect another. America's GOP was handed, by Election 2024 vote, an opportunity to advance GOP ideas. If GOP, or any political party, has ideals intended to improve people's lives by virtue of political power made lawful power. Odds are political parties want power to make their ideals lawfully compulsory. By suppressing people's choice to differ.

"But politicians who talk about failed policies are just blowing smoke. Government policies succeed in doing exactly what they are supposed to do: channeling resources bilked from the general public to politically organized and influential interests groups."

~ Robert Higgs

Media Reports Have It “Our, the American People’s” Congressional House Speaker has a serious problem. Some House legislators, upset with Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) Chief Justice John Roberts lowering boom on they who would defy or disparage America’s courts. Said Hose legislators are reported out to impeach Chief Justice Roberts, maybe any like-minded magistrate.

"Liberty a word without which all other words are vain."

~ Robert Ingersoll

How It Is Congressional House legislators demanding judges be impeached is a problem for Speaker Mike Johnson, is curious to a point of laughable. Speaker Johnson has no obligation to entertain impeachment cries from House legislators. He could simply say, "Go ahead. Do as you will." House legislators, then, would have to figure how they're going to impeach without Johnson's participation.

"I will not attack your doctrines nor your creeds if they accord liberty to me. If they hold thought to be dangerous - if they aver that doubt is a crime, then I attack them one and all, because they enslave the minds of men."

~ Robert G. Ingersoll

Some GOP Legislators Are, Reportedly, rebuking House legislators with impeachment in their hearts. Rebuking GOP legislators advise House impeachers to use America's appellate/SCOTUS system and let cards fall as they may. Impeachment-bound House legislators might not be happy putting forth effort needed to run appellate course. They'd rather be unhappy with a gift horse without a silver saddle.

"Freedom to differ is not limited to things that do not matter much. That would be a mere shadow of freedom. The test of its substance is the right to differ as to things that touch the heart of the existing order."

~ Robert H. Jackson

America Was Created Out Of contempt of/for court. Media news is peppered with articles, pro and con, on America's Supreme court of the United States (SCOTUS) Chief Justice chastising "Us, the American People" should it be unseemly of us to voice displeasure with America's courts, or heaven forbid, defy court opinions. Americans are not a people to act like legislative or judicial Lemmings.

"There is no such thing as an achieved liberty: like electricity, there can be no substantial storage and it must be generated as it is enjoyed, or the lights go out."

~ Robert H. Jackson

"We, the American People," depending on who we choose to accurately characterize us, are incurable, fanatically independent, rugged individualists; or we are a people of law, not inclined to get our backs up against legislative or judicial authority. We, too, are characterized as a melting pot of extractions from ethnic, racial differences. We, acting as juries, can pass judgement on legislative-judicial edict.

"The human race divides politically into those who want people to be controlled and those who have no such desire."

~ Robert Heinlein

It Would Be Hypocritical Of Us, given "Our, the American People's" legislative-judicial system is subject to prevailing at our pleasure, to hold SCOTUS Chief Justice Roberts in contempt for exercising his 1st Amendment option. Moreover, Chief Justice Roberts sits in America's highest position of judicial authority. We would be served by a Chief Justice easily manipulated, were he hesitant to speak.

"It is a truism that almost any sect, cult, or religion will legislate its creed into law if it acquires the political power to do so."

~ Robert Heinlein

We, Diverse Melting Pot, Are, As Well, a smelting pot seething with strongly-held, conflicting personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) with roots as deep as our very being. Our PAVB are not easily altered, nor are we willing to surrender them to authority of those with conflicting PAVB who occupy positions of authority over us. We will stand our ground when our PAVB are threatened by formality.

"Love your country, but never trust its government."

~ Robert Heinlein

People Fritty Enough To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to infringe upon Americans’ 1st Amendment rights or other Bill-of-Rights protections; nor do they allow blame for another person’s behavior to be ascribed to their freedom to exercise their rights. They retain their heritage of self-government.

"An armed society is a polite society."

"As government regulations grow slowly, we become used to the harness. Habit is a powerful force, and we no longer feel as intensely as we once would have [the] constriction of our liberties that would have been utterly intolerable a mere half century ago."

~ Judge Robert Bork

Media Outlet Articles Continue Speculating on how "Our, the American People's" President Donald J. Trump tariff (trade tax) policies could/might help/hurt America and countries steeped in regulatory trappings brought on by government attempts to make socio-economic struggles go away by edict. Not much chance for stability and tranquility while governments work to exert leverage on governments.

"For as long as one hundred of us shall remain alive, we shall never in any wise consent submit to the rule of the English, for it is not for glory we fight, nor riches, or for honour, but for freedom alone, which no good man loses but with his life."

~ Robert Bruce

Me, an intellectual, judging people for making the same mistake I recently learned to stop making

"We, the American People" could/might see some relief from socio-economic discord, were we to force government to give free markets and absence of socio-engineering a sporting chance. For reasons unclear, government exhibits an irresistible urge to keep people in ideological line by lawful force. Lawful force carried to extents of parenting oversight and business intrusion. We can choose smartly.

"Censorship is contagious, and experience with this culture of regulation teaches us that regulatory enthusiasts herald each new medium of communications as another opportunity to spread the disease."

~ Robert Corn-Revere

Free Markets Offer People Opportunities to exchange goods and services for goods and services by allowing traders to decide if they're getting a good deal. Government distorts free market exchanges by turning government officials' personal attitudes, values and beliefs (PAVB) into lawful force. PAVB vary person-to-person, and are thus, biased. Not everyone likes vanilla ice cream or sushi.

"...if I had foreseen the use those people designed to make of their victory, there would have been no surrender at Appomattox Courthouse; no sir, not by me. Had I foreseen these results of subjugation, I would have preferred to die at Appomattox with my brave men, my sword in my right hand."

~ Robert E. Lee

There Is No Reason Why Government has to supervise "Us, the American People" in how we chose our cars, how we get our teeth fixed, how we decide who we shall hire or shall work for, for whom we shall vote. Nonetheless, government officials can't resist their deep-seated urge to help. Help us see our erroneous ways and be less likely to make mistakes. Good to know government makes no mistakes.

"This freedom, this liberty, this beautiful and terrible thing, needful to man as air, usable as earth."

~ Robert Earl Hayden

People Determined To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to cause any citizen to be drawn into an obligation to assume responsibility for public debt for reasons other than to defend these United States. They prohibit government from putting them at financial risk.

"What light is to the eyes – what air is to the lungs – what love is to the heart, liberty is to the soul of man. Without liberty, the brain is a dungeon, where the chained thoughts die with their pinions pressed against the hingeless doors."
