

Impetus To Tax People With Comparatively Large wealth (property) holdings is not losing steam. Not if myriad media pieces are an example. Two reasons to take away comparatively wealthy people's property (wealth) are (1) to reduce government debt (amassed by deficit spending), and (2) lessen society's inequity problem. Both reasons serve to punish people who are monetarily successful.

"Manufacturing and commercial monopolies owe their origin not to a tendency imminent in a capitalist economy but to governmental interventionist policy directed against free trade and laissez faire."

How It Is Taking People's Property (wealth) is an acceptable way to deal with societal problems and government deficit spending is mind-boggling to anyone who has regard for other people's stuff. "We, the American People" would be smart to consider forced property (wealth) redistribution as modern day slavery. While slavery connotes people ownership, slavery, essentially, deprives people of choice.

Articles Dealing With Wealth Confiscation/redistribution are not in universal agreement as to how society's inequity problem would be remedied, or, how government deficit spending would be held in check. People are different in lots of ways. How people are compensated for their time and effort depends on how a person's time and effort are valued. Neurosurgeons are paid more than dog catchers.

“Tariffs, quotas and other import restrictions protect the business of the rich at the expense of high cost of living for the poor. Their intent is to deprive you of the right to choose, and to force you to buy the high-priced inferior products of politically favored companies.”

If Everyone Is To Have Their Needs And Wants Met, exclusive of their ability to fend for themselves, people who are more competitive in dealing with life's challenges and obstacles are likely to be assessed for their accomplishments. How power to confiscate property (wealth) in meeting needs and wants would be constrained is problematic. Needs and wants are unlimited; confiscatory power alike.

“Perhaps the removal of trade restrictions throughout the world would do more for the cause of universal peace than can any political union of peoples separated by trade barriers.”

To Tax or To Tariff, That Is the Question

Whether it be nobler to tax the American citizens, or to charge foreign governments for the privilege of selling their goods to these United States of America

Taxes have long been an argument of necessity (by government) throughout the history of this nation. The king taxed our Founding Fathers to help him pay for his wars and they rebelled in the way of “The Boston Tea Party.” Taxes remain a sore rub with We the People. We are taxed on nearly everything in our lives; income tax (fed & state in many places), sales tax, property taxes, gas tax, license and permits (yes those are a tax), and then the fines (also taxes) for not complying; death tax, inheritance tax, real estate tax, gift tax, luxury tax, use tax, social security tax, services rendered tax, excise tax, progressive and regressive taxes too; utility taxes, capital gains tax... the list goes on. All that we are taxed make the “Boston Tea Party” seem like a useless dispute.

I know that list is not all inclusive of the taxation we must endure. Did you know that the IRS has over 800 forms and schedules to “figure out” what you owe to the government. The instruction booklet for filling out the main tax form, (known as the 1040) is over 113 pages long. Page 112 is a patriotic page titled: “Your Rights as a Taxpayer.”

Observe #9 on that list: “The Right to Retain Representation Taxpayers have the right to retain an authorized representative of their choice to represent them in their dealings with the IRS. Taxpayers have the right to seek assistance from a Low-Income Taxpayer Clinic if they cannot afford representation.”

When we actually stop and think about it (we don’t because it’s too infuriatingly painful) We the People are not free at all. It’s almost as if we own nothing, even the income we make from our hard work is not ours; we simply rent out our lives to the US Government. The musical, West Side Story, had a song that captured the ugly truth of bureaucracy in America; “Everything’s free in America, for a small fee in America.”

We pay a lot of unnecessary taxes! We have suspected for years that our tax dollars were being misused. With the recent auditing being done by DOGE, we now have evidence that the D.C. Occupiers, and their bureaucratic branch of governing, treat our hard-earned money with indifference and disrespect.

While there have been only a few whispers of conversations regarding the discontinuation of income tax, I dare say, that is only a pittance of the taxes we are forced to pay to government. With all that American citizens do pay,

Congress has put us in such a debt, that it is completely unsustainable; and they are about to continue with the same insanity, come March 14.

Would you rather be taxed as we are, or could this nation actually function financially on tariffs?

Did you know:

Before the Civil War, tariffs represented some 90 percent of U.S. government revenue. That share fell to about 50 percent with the advent of new taxes to pay for the war effort. Tariffs would become relatively insignificant as a source of government revenue after the introduction of the income tax in 1913, but they remained an important tool for protecting domestic producers from foreign competition.

I used the following website to glean most of my information...

Visit: <https://www.history.com/news/what-is-a-tariff>

Article I, Section 8 of the U.S. Constitution, designates to Congress the “Power To lay and collect Taxes, Duties, Imposts and Excises, to pay the Debts and provide for the common Defence and general Welfare of the United States.”

What Is a Tariff?

Tariffs have been used to bring in revenue, protect domestic industries from foreign competition and cooperate or retaliate against other nations around the world.

Definition and Purpose of Tariffs

In simple terms, a tariff is a tax that a country’s government imposes on goods that are imported from other countries. The importing business pays the tariff when the goods cross the border into the country, typically at a seaport or airport. The most common types of tariffs are “ad valorem” tariffs, which are set as a fixed percentage of the value of the imports, and “specific” tariffs, charged as a fixed amount on each unit of an imported good. In his book Clashing Over Commerce: A History of U.S. Trade Policy, Douglas Irwin explains there are three motivations for using tariffs. He breaks them down to what he refers to as the “three Rs”: revenue, restriction and reciprocity.

The three motivations for using tariffs are to raise revenue by taxing foreign countries on the imports; restricting imports to discourage foreign goods and encourage domestic production, and of course reciprocity; which President Trump has been talking about recently. Reciprocity or equal tariffs: if the importer country charges us a tariff of 25%, then we as the exporter will also charge 25%. As I learned in the article: if we have tariffs and other countries do too, we can negotiate to bring those down and promote trade, or if their markets are closed to us, we can raise tariffs against them to retaliate.

Taxes, as we are taxed, is a nation increasing its revenue through the citizens. We don't mind assisting with the maintenance of our infrastructure, our schools and other necessities. However, our tax dollars are being used to benefit other countries, before helping our own in need. Our tax dollars are being used for projects and agendas that are not to the betterment of our own. Because of the lack of respect for American citizens and our tax dollars, our nation now finds itself in a pickle of a debt; unsustainable.

Tariffs, on the other side of this situation, tax importers (other countries). Before the income tax began in 1913 our nation's economy was stable. That year our nation made a drastic turn downward; income tax was established, and We the People now paid a portion of our income to our government. 1913 was also the year that Congress decided to forgo its obligation to guard the purse of We the People. Congress turned America's economy over to the Federal Reserve. The most misunderstood fact is the belief that the Federal Reserve is part of the U.S., but they are not. While we might have representation in Jerome Powell, the Chair of the Federal Reserve of the United States, the Federal Reserve is made up of outside world bankers, who make decisions regarding interest rates, and they manipulate markets.

Like I mentioned in the beginning, I am not an economist, nor do I pretend to understand all of the ins and outs or pros and cons of Taxes vs. Tariffs. What I do know, however, is that our own Congress continues to approve more and more spending. Our debt is now at $32 Trillion and growing exponentially by the hour. The unconstitutionally created bureaucratic branch of government should have been audited long ago; in fact, there should be annual audits before the next fiscal budget is written and voted on in Congress.

Americans are excited to finally see an audit by DOGE, but we must stay vigilant. It's important to understand there were a lot of nonpartisan decisions made along the way to create the ever-increasing alphabet departments of bureaucracy. We must also realize that the one thing political parties always manage to unite together on... is spending our money! So, let's keep a closer eye on them varmints in Congress and Bring America Home. ©

America's Judges, Without Exception, are required to swear or affirm they will support America's federal (U.S./National) Constitution. America's federal (U.S./National) Constitution stipulates so. One of "Our, the American People's" media outlets has an article in circulation letting one and all know one of America's major political parties has locked up one of America's more important high courts.

"I think the terror most people are concerned with is the IRS."

~ Malcolm Forbes

"We, the American People" would be smart to take note when we are told one court is more important than another. Particularly so, given America's federal (U.S./National) Constitution has it all judges are to swear or affirm their commitment to uphold America's federal (U.S./National) Constitution. Required so, no judge ought find inconsistent with America's Constitutional precepts and protections.

"Let the people decide through the marketplace mechanism what they wish to see and hear."

~ Mark Fowler

"Our, the American People's" jurisprudence system, despite federal (U.S./National) Constitution requirements its precepts and protections be upheld, is made up of people. People are imbued with dissimilar personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB). Members of America's judiciary are no different. Otherwise, courts would reach like decisions, regardless appellate process or highest court.

"The usual road to slavery is that first they take away your guns, then they take away your property, then last of all they tell you to shut up and say you are enjoying it."

~ James A. Donald

It Would Be Apparent To Anyone who peruses America's judiciary records unanimity of court opinions is far from reach. Dissimilar PAVB, regardless pertinent office oaths, lead courts to find dissimilar rulings. If America's courts are to exhibit neutrality and fairness, it will happen by sovereign citizenry oversight, either by organized charter, or, by something as direct as public rebuke through disobedience.

"Each of us has to decide what the right balance is between being effective and being honest."
