There Are Arguments For And Against spending public money for higher education. Both arguing camps are adamant their positions are to be followed, excluding opposing argument. "We, the American People," could stop public money grants for higher-level education. And, we can let those grants go on. In either case, it wouldn't be inappropriate for voters to pass judgment on public grants.

"Why doesn't everybody just leave everybody else the hell alone?"

~ Jimmy Durante

Public Grants Might Not Be As Disputable, were it not money to fund public grants is acquired, as least in part, by confiscating people's property (wealth). Doesn't matter if something comes from Good Will or a Golden Arches fast food restaurant. Somebody, somehow, ends up paying. Good Will contributions are paid for by someone. Handing out confiscated property doesn't sit well with everyone.

Businesses Survive Because People patronize businesses. People patronize businesses when businesses offer goods or services people want or need. For a price. Business pays for goods and services made available to customers. Public grants are made available based on government officials deciding those grants suit government policy aims. As such, public grants are innately discriminatory.

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky is reported to see “Our, the American People’s” Vice-President J.D. Vance, and other White House officials, as siding with Russia in Russo-Ukraine war. President Zelensky’s view is reported to be taken from comments by White House officials intimating Ukraine promoted conflict with Russia, and J.D. Vance accused Zelensky of running propaganda tours.

“We, the American People” would be smart to avoid taking sides in Russo-Ukraine conflict. Who’s at fault does nothing to keep innocent people from suffering and dying when munitions rain on schoolyards or hospitals or people’s homes. Media reference a comment from President Donald J. Trump, supposedly criticizing Zelensky, by noting when someone starts a war, winning is imperative.

"Trying to wage war on 23 million Americans who are obviously very committed to certain recreational activities is not going to be any more successful than Prohibition was."

War Is Viewed As Inevitable in some notions about how people don't get along. Hardly a stretch to say wars are oft practiced in Faith. History has no shortage of Holy War accounts. World War II was, supposedly, fought because Adolf Hitler had in mind creating a master race, and exterminating all other, inferior, races. Turned out Hitler, as a war-maker, ended up not as superior as he might have thought.

Earnest to make others free."

Not Unreasonable For “Us, the American People,” and people most anywhere, who stand back and take a clear look at who wages war know it’s not ordinary people. By any measure. Wars are started by governments. Terrorism, while not acknowledged by governments, can, without doubt, complement wars waged by government. If war must be, we ought wage it shortly and decisively - for innocence.

"When once a Republic is corrupted, there is no possibility of remedying any of the growing evils but by removing the corruption and restoring its lost principles; every other correction is either useless or a new evil." Thomas Jefferson

Upgrade to paid

Should we take this advice from Thomas Jefferson seriously and literally? Because we have not heeded this warning and advice, our Republic is contaminated with an epidemic of corruption. As a parent, I knew that if a young child is allowed to behave badly (throw fits, pout, lie) without discipline, the child would grow to be obnoxious and unable to be productive or to get along with others.

The “lamestream” media and the democrats would have you believe that President Trump is a dictator, however they have no evidence of such, and their reasoning is noisy rhetoric lacking any kind of commonsense reasoning. During Mark Levin’s opening monologue on Sunday evening’s “Life Liberty and Levin,” Mark gave America a rapid-fire history lesson regarding the unconstitutional policies of past U.S. presidents, from Abe Lincoln to Joe Biden. He listed numerous presidents, on both sides of the aisle, that implemented unconstitutional, bad behavioral policies. He claimed too, that President Trump has not acted unconstitutionally. At the end of Mark’s monologue he made a statement that I plan to use repeatedly (thank you Mark); Trump is not a Dictator, he’s a Liberator.

Trump is not a Dictator he’s a Liberator

Recently President Trump issued an Executive Order to investigate several law firms and strip them of their security clearances. These law firms were quick to assist in the unconstitutional lawfare that was directed at President Trump and his lawyers that assisted and defended him. John Eastman is one of those attorneys and now has little sympathy for these law firms, who now find themselves on the other side of the coin. The law firms now screaming foul play, are the ones who sat silent while others were being censored and threatened with disbarment. Eastman stated, “Their silence in the face of the same conduct over the past 4 years against lawyers (including me) who represented President Trump is deafening.”

According to The Daily Caller News Foundation, three firms targeted by executive orders, Perkins Coie, WilmerHale and Jenner & Block have opted to fight back in court. Others, such as Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher and Flom; Willkie Farr & Gallagher; Milbank; and Paul Weiss struck deals with Trump’s administration to provide millions in pro bono legal services and avoid diversity, equity and inclusion (DEI) practices.

In 2022 Nayib Bukele, the president of El Salvador commented on X: “The most powerful country in the world is falling so fast, that it makes you rethink what are the real reasons. Something so big and powerful can’t be destroyed so quickly, unless the enemy comes from within.” And President Bukele was absolutely correct!

Remove the Corruption

If after the investigations, these firms and their lawyers are found guilty of corruption; falsifying documents, and unconstitutional procedures, such as knowingly denying President Trump and others due process of law, as well as freedom of speech, then they should be REMOVED! By removing, I mean disbarred, fined and serve time. The act of aggressive lawfare is an act against our Constitutional Republic, and in my opinion, a form of treason. Removing the bad actors, is the act of removing the corruption.

Removing the corruption must be done lawfully and Constitutionally.

Lawfully investigating all those involved in the lawfare against President Trump, as well as those who were a part of his cabinet, even sending several to prison, is a step forward in restoring law and order and in Liberating America.

Those who had “gone after Trump” unlawfully (lawfare) -- slanderously (media) - - those who attempted to assassinate him -- should they go unpunished and ignored, or be REMOVED?

If (and we all know it is true) the 2020 election was fraudulently done; should those who were involved be punished and REMOVED?

We know they lied and hid information regarding the laptop, we know they lied about the Russia-Russia collusion story and the fact that the Russian dossier was a bought and paid for document intended to frame a sitting president; and we know that Hillary Clinton paid for it and that Barack Hussein Obama knew and approved of the entire corrupt collusion. Should all these bad actors be REMOVED?

What about the government being run by unelected officials, while hiding the fact that Joe Biden was totally incapable of being the leader of America? Should that truth not be displayed and should all those behind the coverup be seriously held accountable? Should they all be REMOVED?

Trump removed security clearances from previous government actors, who were discovered to have leaked information. Should the 51 CIA agents and other officials who knowingly signed a letter claiming that Hunter Biden's laptop was "Russia Misinformation" be held accountable and REMOVED?

Should all states and local governments who are endangering citizens as they openly defy federal immigration laws and ignore the Constitution be left unchecked? OR should they be REMOVED?

Should elected officials be allowed to continually promote violence, even suggesting a presidential assassination and threatening judges (as did Schumer)... OR should they be legally punished and REMOVED?

Upgrade to paid

Should the media be allowed to knowingly practice political propaganda, continue to deliberately deceive and lie to the American people, we will never restore our Republic. We must realize their lies and deceit are meant to control We the People, for the purpose of keeping power and protecting the government. They are protecting the oligarchy, which replaced our Constitutional Republic.

Should government officials elected or unelected bureaucrats, be "forgiven" for taking money from China? Sleeping with spies? Employing spies? Or for national security purposes, should they be stripped of their security clearances and REMOVED?

Should all those who lied to the American people about COVID 19 and China; who lied about the safety of vaccines and then forced Americans to “take the jab,” be forgiven and forgotten, or should they be investigated and if found guilty of willfully deceiving Americans and allowing millions of people to die, be REMOVED?

How far should we go to remove the corruption? If we find out that it was former presidents, current congressional members, former DOJ, FBI, CIA operatives, and federal judges who colluded together to thwart an election (or two) and obstruct the office of the President of the United States, should they all be REMOVED? According to Thomas Jefferson, unless we remove the corruption and restore the lost principles, the Republic cannot be saved!

If we remove all the corruption and restore the lost principles, we will Make America Great Again!

All the actions that President Trump is executing to Make America Great Again, are in actuality Liberating America:

Deporting illegal aliens

Enacting tariffs for fair trade

Cracking down on crime in the U.S.

Removing unnecessary restrictions and regulations from Americans and their businesses

Making showers fun again

Trump's Tax cuts

Making business profitable again

Investigating the unconstitutional lawfare that has become too frequent in America

Firing an overwhelming number of nonessential bureaucrats and calling the rest of them back to the office to work

Using DOGE to audit the government departments of bureaucracy and eliminating the fraud, updating outdated procedures, and improving efficiency “Success will be revenge,” is a phrase President Trump used on the campaign trail. His tariffs are promoting American prosperity and bringing industries back to America. With Fair Trade leading the way, Americans can once again take pride in their jobs and make a living that will give them some relief, comfort and pleasure to their families.

Trump Is Not a Dictator He’s a Liberator

Trump is winning and the enemies within are losing and having meltdowns. When I was a cheerleader and the opposing team at one of our home games was losing badly; we had a chant, “Go start the bus!” The corruption is still here America and it’s time we removed it and told them to “Go start the bus!”

Trump Is Not a Dictator He’s a Liberator

Remove the Corruption

Restore the lost Principles

Success Will Be Revenge

Making America Great Again is the restoration of our lost principles known as; Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness, property and prosperity!

Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty...

If we persevere now, generations to come will thank us! ...and then they too must stand the vigilant watch to preserve Liberty...

"It is proper to take alarm at the first experiment on our liberties."

~ James Madison

"Our, the American People's" President Donald J. Trump's tariff (trade tax) policy worries are running strong, media reports accurate. While tariff (trade tax) worries might persist, major financial firms are reporting improved year-over-year profits, and forecast their continuing ability to, as one firm CEO put it, serve their client needs. It is not inaccurate to say tariff (trade tax) worries are government-induced.

"There are more instances of the abridgement of the freedom of the people by the gradual and silent encroachment of those in power, than by violent and sudden usurpation."

~ James Madison

Tariff (Trade Tax) Charges are imposed by governments on imported goods. Countries with higher tariffs (trade taxes) compared to countries those government trade with, stand to make more money, as a percentage of prices. “We, the American People” are, by America’s government charging comparatively lower tariffs (trade taxes) encouraged to import foreign goods, export moderately less.

"Democracies have been found incompatible with personal security or the rights of property; and in general have been as short in their lives as they have been violent in their death."

~ James Madison

Given Foreign-Manufactured Goods are of comparatively like quality to American-made goods, consumers in other countries would be encouraged to buy and export their products when their tariffs (trade taxes) are comparatively higher. American-made products would be comparatively more expensive than foreign products imported under a lower tariff (trade tax) structure. Policy economics.

"War is the parent of armies; from these proceed debts and taxes; and armies, debts, and taxes are the known instruments for bringing the many under the domination of the few. No nation could preserve its freedom in the midst of continual warfare."

~ James Madison

It Might Occur To "Us, the American People" a trade war amounts to governments seeking lower import tariffs (trade taxes) than export tariffs (trade taxes). Comparatively low tariffs (trade taxes) serve to increase market share in countries with lower tariffs (trade taxes). Governments can use tariffs (trade taxes) to pressure governments to alter their political policies. Trade wars are political wars.

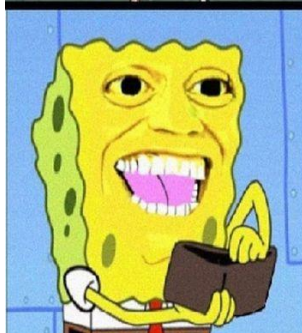

"The truth is that all men having power ought to be mistrusted."
