The Real State of the Union

The American Crisis Continues

Recently Attorney General Pam Bondi suggested that the Lawfare against President Trump is a Constitutional Crisis. Both sides of the aisle keep claiming this horrific-threat-crime-national-decline-crisis and both are correct, but not for the reasons that they give. Attorney General Bondi is correct, but the Constitutional Crisis didn't begin with the lawfare war that has been directed at President Trump, or even the January 6 prisoners, who were not allowed due process of law. Of course today the democrats and their rogue judges are very concerned that the violent illegal aliens in this country be given rights above American citizens... but I digress.

I published a book last year and the following is one of the chapters in my book, "The American Crisis Continues; Bring America Home." Below is the article.
NOTE: Biden was still President at the time of its writing.

Symptoms Of A Nation In Peril: The Real State of the Union

These are the times that try men's souls.

Those, of course, are once again the words of Thomas Paine's, "The American Crisis" also known as "Common Sense." His words are just as relevant in today's America as they were in 1775.

The American Crisis Continues

I will not sugarcoat this message, for that would give you the impression there is much time for rescue. But rescue will not come should We the People continue to procrastinate, ignore, and prostitute our Liberty as if it were a cheap harlot or commodity that can be bought and sold. Liberty is more precious than gold. Liberty comes from God and freedom comes from truth.

Although Liberty is a gift from God, it is always under attack. It required the blood and sacrifices of men and women of old, and requires the same today.

What are these symptoms?

Broken homes, drug addictions, our nation is now number one in human trafficking, we have an unsustainable (and growing) national debt, suicide among our youth is escalating, gender dysphoria is praised.

The belief in, and preference of heterosexual, monogamous relationships and marriage is considered racist.

Our children are taught this nation is shameful. Leaders ignore and rebuke The Constitution of the United States of America, and they believe the Bill of Rights is not absolute.

The Democrat Party openly denies God; the murdering of babies in the womb is called a healthcare right; hard work and the American dream of opportunity is said to be racist.

Our justice system has been tarnished by political hacks and there is no longer justice for the American people.

The media is bought and paid for; they are there to serve the politicians and no longer even pretend to uphold truth and protect the people from corruption; instead, they protect the corrupt from We the People.

Rule of Law and due process are denied to American citizens who are “political prisoners.”

We have a congress and a nation full of “constitutional lawyers” who would rather talk about injustice than fight for the oppressed.

Media is censoring truth and opinions that do not coincide with political agendas. We are told good is evil and evil is good.

Perverts are seducing our children. American children are taught what to think, not how to think for themselves. It is an indoctrination away from Liberty.

Sin is celebrated openly, and a transgender pervert exposes himself on the White House lawn, while celebrating pride month.

Life is no longer of any value.

A woman is undefinable according to the Left and females no longer have their own sports or beauty pageants.

Godlessness has brought chaos, crime, and death to America.

The current democrat administration framed and indicted their leading candidate opponent.

America is in deep trouble. Our elected officials have served our enemies, received bribes from lobbyists, and exchanged our liberty for their agendas. No longer do the elected serve their constituents!

It is a tiresome predicament in which we now find ourselves. However, we must not be discouraged, and we absolutely must not allow ourselves to grow weary.

Galatians 6:9 KJV - “And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.”

It is easy to grow weary; to want to turn away and ignore the true crisis we are experiencing today in our nation. OUR AMERICA! Yes, it belongs to YOU, not to these leaders barking and legislating their jabberwocky. The elected officials and the media, unfortunately I am including all media, have used their positions to prosper. Oh, how they all do profit from their jabberwocky-talky!

When you consume the “news” day in and day out as I do, (...and I do not pretend to catch it all) it is completely overwhelming; it does wear on a person’s mind, soul, and spirit. Yes, it is even physically exhausting.

“But they that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.” Isaiah 40:31 KJV

As I have said so many times, the answer to solving all of America’s problems is GOD! When the founders could not agree, after weeks and months of arguing about what form our new government should take, Ben Franklin told them that they ought to be in prayer just as they were each day during the Revolutionary War.

Benjamin Franklin's Plea for Prayer

MR. PRESIDENT: “The small progress we have made, after four or five weeks’ close attendance and continual reasoning with each other, our different sentiments on almost every question, several of the last producing as many noes as ayes, is, methinks, a melancholy proof of the imperfection of the human understanding. We indeed seem to feel our own want of political wisdom, since we have been running all about in search of it. We have gone back to ancient history for models of government, and examined the different forms of those republics which, having been originally formed with the seeds of their own dissolution, now no longer exist; and we have viewed modern States all round Europe, but find none of their constitutions suitable to our circumstances.

In this situation of this assembly, groping, as it were, in the dark to find political truth, and scarce able to distinguish it when presented to us, how has it happened, sir, that we have not hitherto once thought of humbly applying to the Father of Lights to illuminate our understandings? In the beginning of the contest with Britain when we were sensible of danger, we had daily prayers in this room for the Divine protection. Our prayers, sir, were heard;--and they were graciously answered. All of us who were engaged in the struggle must have observed frequent instances of a superintending Providence in our favor. To that kind Providence we owe this happy opportunity of consulting in peace on the means of establishing our future national felicity. And have we now forgotten that powerful Friend? or do we imagine we no longer need its assistance? I have lived, sir, a long time; and the longer I live the more convincing proofs I see of this truth, that God governs in the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without His notice is it probable that an empire can rise without His aid? We have been assured, sir, in the sacred writings, that “except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it.” I firmly believe this; and I also believe, that, without His concurring aid, we shall succeed in this political building no better than the builders of Babel; we shall be divided by our little, partial, local interests, our projects will be confounded, and we ourselves shall become a reproach and a by-word down to future ages. And what is worse, mankind may hereafter, from this unfortunate instance, despair of establishing government by human wisdom, and leave it to chance, war, and conquest. I therefore beg leave to move,--

That henceforth prayers, imploring the assistance of Heaven and its blessing on our deliberations, be held in this assembly every morning before we proceed to business; and that one or more of the clergy of this city be requested to officiate in that service.”

Benjamin Franklin

1 Timothy 2:1-2 “First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people, for kings and all who are in high positions, that we may lead a peaceful and quiet life, godly and dignified in every way.”

The “ritual” of prayer in the chambers of Congress continues today. But are their words just words without their hearts and souls connecting humbly before God? The truth of this was exposed; the prayers in the chamber today are nothing more than ritual and theater. Representative Emmanuel Cleaver, who is an ordained Methodist minister, closed his prayer to the House with “Amen and Awomen.” He explained that he meant this to be inclusive of men and women. Such a carnal and arrogant statement. His prayer certainly was not that of humility. Was he praying to God, or the chamber? “Amen” has nothing to do with the gender of human beings, it simply means “so be it.” However, in typical political fashion, the congress of today has taken prayer to the Almighty and used it to make political statements. This minister of man, and not of God, was mocking God and that is a dangerous thing to do!

God, through His prophets warned Israel of such behavior, and I am certain all His children are due this scolding.

Isaiah 1:11-17 KJV - “To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices unto me? Saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of the goats. When ye come to appear before me, who that required this at your and, to tread my courts? Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting. Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto me; I am weary to bear them.

And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.

Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil; Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow.”

When we are comfortable, we tend to forget to pray, we are lacking in gratitude, and we fail to have thankful hearts. Americans have compromised! We have forgotten our God and our purpose as a nation. We must again reach back into the scriptures and our founding documents!

Ephesians 6:11-12 KJV - “For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. Put on the whole armor of God that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.”

The real state of the union today will not be spoken from our installed president Joseph R. Biden.

America is covered with a dark veil of evil!! God will not be mocked, and it is time for America to return to prayer and stand up for God’s righteousness and...

Bring America Home©

Donald J. Trump is our President today. He is trying to Bring America Home, or as he would say, Make America Great Again. All the lawfare arrows being shot at him, are intended for you and me; the American people. Politicians have done an excellent job of dividing We the People. Politicians have spent decades building a government that is completely foreign to our Constitutional Republic, which was the real insurrection.

The oligarchy was left undeterred by the November 2024 election. Today they are using unelected rogue judges to obstruct the Executive Branch of our Constitutional Republic.

We are in a Constitutional Crisis, as the elected officials in Congress ignore the Constitution, ignore the separation of powers and ignore their obligation to balance a budget instead of spending the U.S. into oblivion.

I fear that the republicans are on the precipice of a repeat of 2012. While many republicans are at least saying they support President Trump’s promises; deport criminal illegal aliens, bring down the trade deficit, remove fraud and waste from our government...etc., they seem to take no viable action to back him up. It was in 2012 when we gave the republicans the majority on their promise to stop Obamacare which they did not; to defund Planned Parenthood, which they did not... and it was 2012 when Congress allowed Obama to work his secret Iranian deal and ship Iran pallets of cash. Today, many republicans are fighting to save other countries from President Trump's tariffs. Today many republicans are remaining silent while rogue judges obstruct the plans and usurp the President's authority. Democrats keep pushing and attacking and Republicans do virtually nothing. While many believe that the Democrat Party is virtually done, I believe the Republican Party will save them; after all, it seems to me they're in this oligarchy together.

Yes, we are in a Constitutional Crisis! Those We the People entrusted with our Liberty have been squandering it and making us serfs on our own land, no longer do they respect "Consent of the Governed." However, as I always say...

Liberty is always in the hands of the People, but first it must be a longing and a lust within their hearts.

God is our salvation! We the People are the salvation of this nation, but we cannot accomplish such a victory if we do not wake up, bend our knees, and roll up our sleeves and get to work.

Let your elected officials know that they are expected to follow President Trump's agenda of deportation, tariffs, removing the corruption, downsizing the government, draining that swamp and restoring our Constitutional Republic.

Liberty is always in the hands of the people...

"Our, the American People's" President Donald J. Trump's on-going struggle over presidential authority versus court authority offers scholars, intellectuals, academics, anyone carrying to know, a glimpse at how America's co-equal, three-branch, representative Constitutional republic government form is fraught with bias rooted in personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB). Not neutral justice.

"Remember, democracy never lasts long. It soon wastes, exhausts, and murders itself. There never was a democracy yet that did not commit suicide."

~ John Adams

Media Carry Steady Reports of various groups or individuals bringing litigation against President Donald J. Trump's actions as America's president. Litigation in question, typically, centers on one of America's three, co-equal government branches seeking power to have final say over how government shall operate, and by whom. America's federal (I.U.S./National) Constitution is imprecise on matter.

"Mankind will in time discover that unbridled majorities are as tyrannical and cruel as unlimited despots."

~ John Adams

America's Commonwealth, Federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions accord legislators power to make laws, accord executive branches authority to carry out laws, accord judicial branches authority to decide if laws are Constitutional and may be carried out. Nowhere is there Constitutional prescription for final authority. Legislative, judicial, and executive PAVB exacerbate such ambiguity.

"Nip the shoots of arbitrary power in the bud, is the only maxim which can ever preserve the liberties of any people."

~ John Adams

"The forest was shrinking, but the trees kept voting for the Axe, for the Axe was clever and convinced the Trees that because his handle was made of wood, he was one of them."

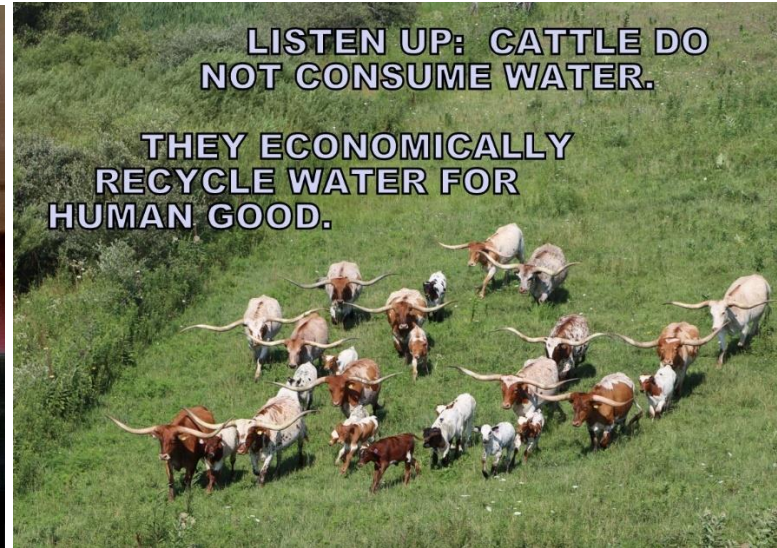

~Turkish proverb

"We, the American People," if we expect Liberty to prevail in These United States, had better recognize America's Constitutions are inadequate to assure Liberty and justice for all. America's Constitutions accord sovereign citizenry power to Americans at large. Sovereign citizenry power means nothing if we do not act to settle quarrels between our power-seeking three government branches.

"We hold that each man is the best judge of his own interest."

~ John Adams

People Expecting To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to infringe upon Americans' Bill-of-Rights protections; nor do they allow culpability for another person's behavior to be ascribed to their freedom to exercise their rights. They uphold Constitutional safeguards without equivocation.

A. Jointly exposing those who have fabricated indictments or covered them up, and their dynamics

1. This is a call by a grand juror lawyer to abusees, class action lawyers, investigative journalists, professors, and students to join forces to expose those public officers who have participated in the fabrication of indictments based on false and insufficient evidence and/or its cover-up, including:

a. current NY State Chief Judge Rowan Wilson, Chief Judge Janet DiFiore; former acting Chief Judge Anthony Cannataro; each of the other Court of Appeal Associate Judges;

b. Bronx Administrative Justice Alvin Yearwood; Grand Jury Justice Laurence Busching;

c. current Chief Administrative Judge Joseph Zayas; former Chief Administrative Judge Lawrence Marks; Principal Administrative Secretary Tonya Speckhardt, et al.;

d. NY Police Department (NYPD) Internal Affairs Bureau (IAB) current Chief Miguel Iglesias and former Chief David Barrere; current Commissioner Edward Caban and former Commissioner Keechant Sewell, et al.;

e. former NYPD captain and current NY City Mayor Eric Adams;

f. Inspector General Sherrill Spatz, Esq., and Deputy Inspector General Carol Hamm, Esq., at the Office of Court Administration; and

g. NY City Public Advocate Jumaane Williams and his county counterparts; et al.

2. Since 28 May 2022, some thirty public officers, including entities, have been informed by letter, email, and telephone of the fabricated indictments. A sample of email headers and text is collected in a pdf file; the addressees' email addresses are in the bloc of addresses below. Nevertheless, the officers have failed to even reply to them, yet the facts are both compelling and outrageous:

a. I am a lawyer and hold a Ph.D. in law. I was a member of a grand jury in Bronx, NY City. I had the knowledge and was in a position to realize that the prosecutors and police officers had charged people with murder despite the absence of any evidence thereof: No footage of the crime or photos of the victim or the street crime scene, or incident or autopsy report. The footage of the restaurants flanking the street did not show a crowd of onlookers or vehicles of the police, the medical examiner, or crime scene investigators.

b. The indictment was sought in reliance on grand jurors' indifference and uncritical judgment. When I asked critical questions, the presenting and the supervising prosecutors referred me to the grand jury judge, who discharged me on the spot even though neither those prosecutors nor anybody else showed up to make any allegations against me.

c. I described these events in a 4,743-word, 8-page sworn statement and submitted it to the administrative judge. Late enough, he sent it to the grand jury judge, who with no discussion dismissed it on the trivial fact that the grand jury term had expired.

d. I filed a complaint with three chief judges; the NYS and NYC administrative judges; two NYPD Internal Affairs Bureau chiefs and two Commissioners; Bronx council members; public advocates and defenders; et al., who have not replied. They are part of the defendant class as accessories who fail to investigate judges to avoid their retaliation.

e. The fabricated indictments are used in plea bargain to support baseless charges that can extort the defendants' agreement to the prosecutors' sought plea.

3. Their failure reveals that they have engaged in coordination consisting in harmonious conduct in furtherance of common interests. Circumstantial evidence is as sufficient to establish such coordination as it is in a criminal case where it provides the predicate for the jury to find the defendant guilty and punishable by death.

a. A key interest is to avoid retaliation from judges, who would close ranks to protect any fellow judge implicated in admitting into evidence or covering up fabricated indictments; and strike back at the implicators. Such implication may derive from the judges' possessing actual knowledge of the fabrication or committing willful ignorance or blindness.

b. Prosecutors and police officers are interested in maximizing the number of plea bargains favorable to them by using fabricated indictments to coerce suspects into entering them: The more cases they win, the better their chances of being reelected or promoted.

4. In purpose and effect, whether implicitly or explicitly, for their gain and convenience, the coordinated public officers run a corrupt and racketeering enterprise. By so doing, they violate the Enterprise Corruption Law, NY Consolidated Laws, Penal Law-PEN §460; and the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO), 18 U.S.C. §§1961 to 1968. They have committed:

a. abuse of the public power entrusted to them for the benefit of the sovereign source and destination of all public power in a democracy: We the People;

b. dereliction of duty to investigate allegations of wrongdoing and enforce the law, resulting in denial of equal protection under law;

c. obstruction of the administration of justice;

d. denial of honest services to be rendered through due diligence;

e. deprivation of liberty and property of those falsely accused of committing a crime, who incur expense to make bail, lose their jobs, and suffer reputational impairment by having a criminal record;

f. a cover-up to ensure reciprocal complicit protection: 'I don't investigate you and you don't investigate me'; and

g. deprivation of the right to be a member of a grand jury, confront accusers, present evidence, etc.

5. The exposure of coordinated abuse of power, public unaccountability, and need for justice system reform can turn those issues into decisive ones of the presidential debates, the primaries, and the general election campaign.

6. An informed and outraged public can incentivize the holding of the proposed unprecedented citizens hearings.

- a. The citizens hearings are to be held by journalists, media outlets, Information Technology (IT) and Artificial Intelligence (AI) experts, and journalism, law, and IT students and professors.
- b. Their venue will be media stations and school auditoriums.
- c. They will be transmitted via the Internet so that wherever abusees and the audience are, they can tell and listen to the stories of the abuse that they have suffered or witnessed by those who have fabricated indictments or covered them up. See the two-phase method for writing your story in up to 500 words and in a way so that it is accurate, significant, and verifiable.
- d. At the hearings, the abusees will shout self-assertively the rallying cry:

Enough is enough!
We won't take any abuse by anybody anymore.

e. Thus informing and outraging state and national audiences, the hearings will encourage ever more people to tell their story. A self-reinforcing process will snowball.

7. The citizens hearings can give rise to both a multidisciplinary academic and business investigation; and the development of a national, civic, Me Too!-like movement. Both will contribute to implementing a plan of action.

a. The hearings and the plan are aimed to spark the formation of a powerhouse centered on the media and academe that compels politicians, lest they be voted out of, or not into, office, to join the exposure of those who fabricate indictments; the collective demand for compensation for the abusees; and the pursuit of judicial reform.

b. That powerhouse can grow so strong as to bring about transformative change in American society and government to carry out the will of the People.

8. This is the most propitious time to respond to the call to join forces because the national public is receptive to it and resentful of public abuse of power and unaccountability:

a. Supreme Court justices have been exposed for engaging in unethical and illegal conduct; and failing to 'disqualify themselves in proceedings where their impartiality might reasonably be questioned'(28 U.S.C. §445), e.g., due to conflict of interests arising from their decades-long beneficial personal relationship with 'Friends of the Justices', such as billionaire Harlan Crow, as revealed by ProPublica. Consequently, public trust in the justices has plummeted;

b. the judicial treatment of President Biden's son and former President Trump has sparked allegations of double judicial standards and the politization of the Department of Justice; and

c. the current electoral season will allow politicians, whether principled or opportunistic, to turn judicial abuse, unaccountability, and reform into the distinguishing issues of their platform in an effort to earn public recognition as the People's Champions of Justice.

B. Hundreds of emails have been, and continue to be, sent to officers and entities duty-bound to safeguard the integrity of the justice system, who do not reply

9. A representative sample of the headings and text of the hundreds of emails sent since 7 June 2022 to the following officers and entities is contained in a downloadable file[†]:

10. I respectfully offer you and your colleagues and guests to make via video conference or, if in New York City, in person, a presentation on how to join forces to achieve the above-stated exposure, compensation, and reform; followed by a Questions & Answers session.

11. The presentation is supported by my professional law research and writing, and strategic thinking. They are the skills that undergird my three-volume study^{*†♣} of judges and their judiciaries:

Exposing Judges' Unaccountability and Consequent Riskless Abuse of Power: Pioneering the news and publishing field of judicial unaccountability reporting^{*†♣}

12. The study discusses evidence supporting the axiom 'Unaccountability breeds abuse'. Its corollary is 'What judges allow themselves to do - exposed by The Wall Street Journal and Thomson Reuters-, others copy and exceed'.

a. Former President Trump was found by NY State Judge Arthur Engoron to have committed business fraud, as stated in his decision of 26 September 2023. How much encouragement did he receive to defraud from his sister, former 3rd Circuit Judge Maryanne Trump Barry, who was going to be investigated for inheritance tax fraud before she simply resigned with impunity and on a full pension(¶16c)?

b. Judges show in their conduct contemptuous disregard with impunity for the requirement in Canon 2 of the Code of Conduct for U.S. Judges -and their equivalent Code for state judges, e.g., 22 NYCRR Part 100- that they "avoid even the appearance of impropriety".

13. Some of my articles on unaccountability and abuse of power are posted to my website Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org. They have attracted so many webvisitors and impressed them so positively that as of 29 March 2025, the number of visitors that had become subscribers was 54,475.

C. A similar case of coordinated abuse of power and cover-up involves Medicare and related entities

14. Similar emails have been sent since 4 October 2022 to the top officers of Medicare and related entities named infra, who have not replied or produced discovery, disclosure, or the overdue decision of the Medicare Appeals Council. Such failure to reply, produce, or decide results from, or works in effect, a coordinated cover-up to obstruct justice. Those officers have abused their power. Hence the need to expose them through the proposed unprecedented citizens hearings(¶16↑) on:

to people who have been denied their rights by Medicare and related entities, to class action law firms, and to investigative journalists, to join forces to expose the abuse of power and cover-up affecting so many people who assert their rights as single party to their stand-alone case and even do so without a lawyer (pro se), and as a result, have barely any chance against coordinated hospitals, medical practitioners, equipment and laboratory services providers, health insurance companies and health management organizations (HMOs)
and their networks of services and equipment providers, medical decisions reviewers, administrative law judges, Medicare, Medicaid, and the Medicare Appeals Council, all with their lawyers and working together to further their common interest in enlarging their networks of services and equipment providers; denying claims of people to save money; and/or billing them for the balance of bills in excess of what the tables of medical costs allow by law and contract, which constitutes balance billing and has been illegal since 1997♦(OL3:1611§A) because it defeats the purpose of medical costs limited by health insurance, thus prompting the recent adoption by Congress of the No Surprise Bill Act, which so many entities with Medicare's condonation blatantly disregard in their interest and to the detriment of their patients and their insureds

See

Cordero v. Secretary of HHS, Medicare, EmblemHealth [healthcare insurer], Maximus Federal Services [reviewer of healthcare claims denials], et al.
[including many of the top officers of the Medicare Appeals

Council
and the Office of Medicare Hearings and Appeals (OMHA)]; docket no. 24-cv-9778-JAV;
filed in the U.S. District Court, SDNY, on 16 December 2024

I look forward to hearing from you.

Dare shout "/accuse!"...
You may trigger history and enter it as

imgflip.com

It Will, Without Doubt, be a rare day when “Our, the American People’s” media are not brimming with news to stir our fancies with worry. Congressional GOP legislators reported considering a variation on wealth tax. Nissan to cut ROGUE SUV production because of President Donald J. Trump tariff (trade tax) policy. Americans are urged to check bank accounts for IRS refund direct deposits. No peace.

"Nip the shoots of arbitrary power in the bud, is the only maxim which can ever preserve the liberties of any people."

~ John Adams

“We, the American People,” from America’s dawning, were supposed to have meager government influence in our lives. America’s commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions say so. In so many words. Those same Constitutions have a fatal flaw, when it comes to our opportunities for – in those revered words – life, Liberty, and pursuit of happiness. Legislative power to disrupt.

"The jaws of power are always open to devour, and her arm is always stretched out, if possible, to destroy the freedom of thinking, speaking, and writing."

~ John Adams

America Will, Given Legislators Bless It, celebrate 250 years with stars and stripes waving in tumultuous winds of legislative property (wealth) confiscation and choice (Liberty). restriction. With Constitutional accord underpinning legislators’ power to curtail “Us, the American People” from partaking in America’s Semiquincentennial celebration. White House proclamation notwithstanding.

"If the people are capable of understanding, seeing and feeling the differences between true and false, right and wrong, virtue and vice, to what better principle can the friends of mankind apply than to the sense of this difference?"

We, Being A Sovereign Citizenry, could snub our collective noses at virtually everything America's government does to hamper our ability to live as we choose, provided we do not stand in way of others wanting to live similarly. We, were we to stop and think how abiding by Liberty throws a wrench in all tyrannical plans to control people, we'd take away government's lawful authority except for yield signs.

"You have rights antecedent to all earthly governments: rights that cannot be repealed or restrained by human laws...."

~ John Adams

People Determined To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to prohibit or restrict private ownership of firearms and ammunition from any citizen of good repute and responsible standing. They hold fast their ability to ward off would-be tyranny
