~ John Stuart Mill

"We, the American People" would do well to ignore politically-motivated comments on tariffs (trade taxes) made by politicians, legislators, advocacy groups or individuals, and self-proclaimed experts.

We'll be better prepared to decide if tariffs (trade taxes) serve better interests of people who have no positional authority to levy tariffs (trade taxes). Several Internet tariff (trade tax) references pertain.

"If all mankind minus one, were of one opinion, and only one person were of the contrary opinion, mankind would be no more justified in silencing that one person, than he, if he had the power, would be justified in silencing mankind."

~ John Stuart Mill

Tariffs (Trade Taxes) Function variously in affecting people who must cope with results brought on by tariffs (trade taxes). Depending on reference referenced, tariffs (trade taxes bring about any of numerous results. These include: (1) regulating imports; (2) slowed innovation, decreased efficiency; (3) declining imports; (4) more attractive domestic items; (5) creating political or diplomatic tension.

"To tax the larger incomes at a higher percentage than the smaller, is to lay a tax on industry and economy; to impose a penalty on people for having worked harder and saved more than their neighbors."

~ John Stuart Mill

Other Tariff (Trade Tax) Effects are (1) increased government income; (2) leveraging international negotiations, (3) international retaliation; (4) guarding business; (5) trade and welfare alteration; Tariffs (trade taxes), no matter how they are described. Characterized, or justified, are, first and foremost, taxes. All taxes are paid, directly or indirectly, by consumers, regardless how convoluted money trails.

"The only freedom which deserves the name, is that of pursuing our own good in our way, so long as we do not attempt to deprive others of theirs, or impede their efforts to obtain it."

If Any Harm Emerges By Governments imposing tariffs (trade taxes), such harm is to be placed at government's feet. It is more than possible for "Us, the American People" to minimize harmful tariff (trade tax) effects. We, as a sovereign citizenry, can force government to assure there are no tariffs (trade taxes) in place causing our socio-economic state to be in jeopardy. We can have final say.

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to remain in office if they break their word to their constituents. They dismiss and replace them summarily.

"A general State education is a mere contrivance for molding people to be exactly like one another; and as the mold in which it casts them is that which pleases the dominant power in the government, whether this be a monarch, an aristocracy, or a majority of the existing generation; in proportion as it is efficient and successful, it establishes a despotism over the mind, leading by a natural tendency to one over the body."

Apart From Dismissed Federal workers upset over being dismissed, there have been no reports Americans are, in fact, losing their Social Security coverage due federal worker reductions. Social Security is an entitlement program; payments by employee/employer are mandatory. How someone might be able to prepare for their future investing their social security equivalent sums is uncertain.

“Our, the American People’s” media are carrying survey results indicating a substantial number of Americans queried believe it would be justified for President Donald J. Trump and Department Of Government Efficiency (DOGE) Head, Elon Musk, to be assassinated. How such an attitude makes those who think so different than those who would behead those who disagree is beyond bizarre.

"The power to tax involves the power to destroy;...the power to destroy may defeat and render useless the power to create...."

~ John Marshall

Given 'Assassination-Is-OK' Survey is accurate, "We, the American People" are far from safe and secure in America, a place where freedom from coercion is supposed to be a societal pillar. Human psyche students might have some insight into how one person would consider exterminating another person to be rational. Setting morality aside, people have been killing people since people showed up.

"No nation ancient or modern ever lost the liberty of freely speaking, writing, or publishing their sentiments, but forthwith lost their liberty in general and became slaves."

~ John P. Zenger

Millions Of People Have Lost Their lives to wars. Wars are conducted, arguably, for one reason. To do away with people standing in way of other people, namely, governments, getting something they want. Granted, not all warring governments are aggressors. Nonetheless, people living under warring governments are not safe from weaponry. No bullet ever cared who it struck, or why it was fired.

"No nation, ancient or modern, ever lost the liberty of speaking freely, writing, or publishing their sentiments, but forthwith lost their liberty in general and became slaves."

~ John Peter Zenger

For “Us, the American People” to know we live in a society where fellow citizens are ready to do us in if we prompt their dislike to sufficient intensity is cause to pause. It would be reason enough for someone like an Elon Musk to step away from DOGE, or, for anyone inclined toward having lawful power to look twice before venturing outside. No number of guardians guarding guardians would do.

"It is the common fate of the indolent to see their rights become prey to the active. The conditions upon which God hath given liberty to man is eternal vigilance; which condition if he break, servitude is at once the consequence of his crime...."

~ John Philpot Curran

People Longing To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to enter into contracts with collective bargaining units. They preclude government from eroding their assets through property confiscation.
