At Last. "We, the American People," finally, know why America is in such a deplorable state of political affairs. One John Roberts, Chief Justice of America's Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS). A media personality billed as America's #1 progressive something-or-other is categorical. Chief Justice Roberts – along with incorrigible like thinking SCOTUS Associated Justices are to blame.

Before Too Many Of “Us, the American People” get drawn in by America’s #1 progressive something-or-other, and start closing ranks with #1 progressive something-or-other on SCOTUS Justices being responsible for America’s socio-economic woes, it would behoove us to reflect on America’s judicial system authority. America’s courts render opinions. Crack addicts render authority. So, do children.

"The salient feature of America in the Age of Obama is a failed government class institutionally committed to living beyond its means, and a citizenry too many of whom are content to string along."

~ Mark Steyn

"Our, the American People's" proclivity for blaming anyone but ourselves for our political undoing is perplexing. We have total power to throw out any elected official – any government official - we find is behaving contrary to our freedom to pursue life, Liberty, and happiness. We are empowered by America's commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions to rid ourselves of misfits.

"In the beginning of a change the patriot is a scarce man and brave, and hated and scorned. When his cause succeeds, the timid join him for then it costs nothing to be a patriot." ~

~ Mark Twain

We, A Sovereign Coitizenry, Can Free ourselves of errant government officials at our pleasure, and at our leisure. There is nothing to stop us from coming together, organizing ourselves, arming ourselves if need be, descending on errant government officials' offices, and sending errant government officials on their way. Without so much as a fond farewell. It's easier, though, to demand someone else do it.

"Irreverence is the champion of liberty and its only sure defense."

~ Mark Twain

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to enter into defined-benefit contracts with collective bargaining units. They forbid government from eroding their property rights.

"Our, the American People's" President Donald J. Trump maintains Tariffs (trade taxes) can do away with Americans' income tax. all manner of economists, scholars, academics, special interest groups, legislators-politicians disagree on tariffs (trade taxes) replacing America's income tax. It is unlikely legislators-politicians, would be in favor of abolishing income taxes, unless to their political advantage.

Income Taxes Make It Easy for taxing authorities, when not constrained by a sovereign citizenry, to exact property (wealth) from property owners to fund government. Income taxes are a direct tax, paid by property owners surrendering property directly to taxing authorities, as opposed to, say, buying a TV at an electronics store and paying sales taxes. Income taxes make all property government-owned.

"I refer to the law which lays it down that, if our lives are endangered by plots or violence or armed robbers or enemies, any and every method of protecting ourselves is morally right."

~ Marcus Tullius Cicero

There Is No Reason Why Tariffs (trade taxes) can not replace income taxes. First and foremost, tariffs (trade taxes) are a tax. Tax revenue – all tax revenue – is derived, directly or indirectly, from sales. From commerce. Commerce creates wealth. No commerce, no income; no income, no ability to pay taxes. All taxes levied, for any purpose, are paid from income. Thus, commerce funds all government.

"The use of 'religion' as an excuse to repress the freedom of expression and to deny human rights is not confined to any country or time."

~ Margaret Atwood

Given All Government Costs are paid by taxes, there is no need for an income tax, per se. All government needs are, thus, can be funded by taxation. Government needs (meaning government wants) are defined by government officials, regardless how private sector studies might influence needs/wants. Tariffs (trade taxes) could meet government needs, were government costs limited so.

"Establishing lasting peace is the work of education."

~ Maria Montessori

People Prepared To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to remain in office if they break their word to their constituents. They dismiss remiss elected officials without hesitation.

"Discipline must come through liberty... We do not consider an individual disciplined when he has been rendered as artificially silent as a mute and as immovable as a paralytic. He is an individual annihilated, not disciplined."

The nonsense of politics and the lack of common sense has brought America to a very bad place in time. We are literally broke, as a nation, yet without blinking an eye, Congress continues to spend money we do not have; the LEFT (democrats) reimagined morality and have allowed perverts to claim our children; elected officials make noise and laws but do nothing to preserve our Constitution or to protect our Liberty. Our public school system has become a government institution of indoctrination with very little education, and our higher institutions of learning teach our students their “new” morality, and teach them to hate America’s very foundation. We were stripped of our sovereignty as the democrats opened our borders to allow a massive invasion of people from all over the world. The democrats even okayed, as in knowingly approved, third world countries to empty their prisons and insane asylums and invade our nation.

These things did not happen overnight, and they would not have happened if We the People had been more alert and active. When you are a citizen of a Constitutional Republic, you are the republic, and when you are not working to hold your elected officials accountable, your rights are being compromised until they disappear and are referred to as “privileges.” We’ve heard the old saying, “You can’t beat city hall,” but it’s time we realized that as “consent of the governed,” we own city hall!

Because the decisions being made by our congressional members seem to make no sense, I decided to put together a series of humorous satirical (too close to the truth) written conversations between a voter and his or her congressperson:

Dear Congressperson,

My taxes are too high.

Dear Voter,

I understand this is a burden; I'll have my staff write a bill to tax the corporations.

Dear Congressperson,

My grocery bills are too high.

Dear Voter,

I understand this is a burden; I'll have my staff write a bill to restrict producers and tax the mega food corporations.

Dear Congressperson,

My gas and utility bills are too high.

Dear Voter,

I understand this is a burden; I'll have my staff write a bill to tax and regulate all fossil fuels and offer subsidies for alternative green energy.

Dear Congressperson,

My small town has been overtaken by illegal aliens.

Dear Voter,

I understand this is a burden; I'll have my staff write a bill to speed up the naturalization process for the "migrants" in your town.

Dear Congressperson,

Violent crime has escalated in my state.

Dear Voter,

I understand this is a burden; I'll have my staff write a bill that will reimagine and redefine what constitutes crime, so as not to overwhelm the judicial system.

Dear Congressperson,

I'm concerned about the education of my children; they seem to be struggling with their test scores.

Dear Voter,

I understand this is a burden; I'll have my staff write a resolution to lower the test scores needed to pass each grade level.

Election Day is approaching...

Dear Voter,

I have diligently sponsored and passed numerous bills into law that have made a huge difference in the lives of my constituents, whom I am honored to serve. The bills I sponsored into law have allowed fairness and ease to your lives. Please support me with your vote on Election Day, so that I might continue serving you.

Dear Congressperson,

I understand election season is a burden for you. I know you and your staff have been busy writing bills and passing laws, but as far as your continuing to serve me; “No Thanks, I’m good.”

While this series of imagined letter correspondence was meant to be satire, it does capture (in my opinion) the twisted logic of law makers when it comes to “solving problems” and burdens felt by We the People.

Liberty is always in the hands of the people... We the People have the obligation to “reimagine” our Congress, and hold each one accountable to protect and preserve our rights by following the Constitution. Our vote does matter!

Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty. If We the People want to be a free and sovereign people, we must realize that the elected officials (bureaucrats too) work for us!

"I think the terror most people are concerned with is the IRS."
~ Malcolm Forbes

"Our, the American People's" media report America's Supreme Court of the United States SCOTUS is not able to keep President Donald J. Trump under control. President Donald J. and America's courts have been at odds with each other on a steady basis. At stake is, push come to shove, how America's legislative, executive, and chief government executive branches are able to police each other, coequally.

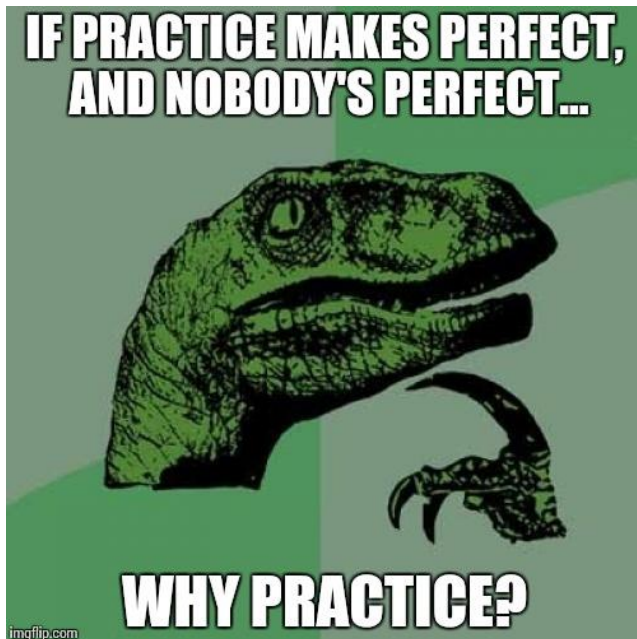

"Ancient Rome surely did not expect its sudden fall any more than the Soviet Union did in 1991, or than America does now."
~ Mallory Factor

Given On-Going Disputes Over America's federal three, coequal, branch government system, there is no definite way to decide how disputes shall be settled. There is a process, theoretically, whereby legislators make laws, executive branches carry out laws, courts/SCOTIS decide if laws stand or change when challenged. All people in every branch operate with differing levels of developed prejudice.

"Ancient Rome surely did not expect its sudden fall any more than the Soviet Union did in 1991, or than America does now."

~ Mallory Factor

There Is Nothing Concrete About America's law-making or law-enforcement. Legislators, judges, and executives decide how they are going to act based on their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB). PAVB come into play whenever legislators decide they're going to make a law; their PAVB guide their Constitutionality interpretation. Executives use PAVB in enforcement, judges in judging.

"The object of life is not to be on the side of the majority, but to escape finding oneself in the ranks of the insane."

~ Marcus Aurelius

Media Assessment Of Court Power to control legislative or executive government branch is near hollow when no one branch is able to do anything without collaboration of other branches. Nor, is there a way to have, say, two or three branches agree, and, as a result, third, disagreeing branch, acquiesce and carry on. We, a sovereign citizenry, can act in judgment, still no enforcement guarantee.
