

THERE'S NO SUCH THING AS
"GOVERNMENT-FUNDED."
IT'S ALL
"TAXPAYER-FUNDED."

There Are Media Articles in circulation rating America's worst states to call home and worst states for property taxes for "Us, the American People." Cost of government is central to why articles in question cite states so. Government cost, like in one's private life, or, a business cost, amounts to spending. Government spending is irresponsible when government financial managers borrow in excess.

"First, God created idiots. That was just for practice. Then He created school boards."

~ Mark Twain

"We, the American People" can get a read on government borrowing in excess by paying attention to reports on deficit spending. It's called deficit spending when government takes in less money than it spends and makes up difference by borrowing money at taxpayer (public) expense. Deficit spending detriment, broadly speaking, is loss of government financial independence and taxpayer encumbrance.

"Protecting yourself from harm is your responsibility, and you are far less likely to be hurt in a neighborhood of gun-owners than in one of disarmed citizens – even if you don't own a gun yourself."

~ Harry Browne

“Our, the American People’s” government ability to overspend (deficit spending) is made possible by our unwillingness to curb government spending. We do not have to allow pour government officials to put America’s taxpayers in debt and erode future Americans’ chance to be financially independent. We could, by exerting our authority as a sovereign citizenry, force government to ‘pay-as-you-go.’

“The politician attempts to remedy the evil by increasing the very thing that caused the evil in the first place: legal plunder.”

~ Frédéric Bastiat

Putting Government On A ‘pay-as-you-go’ basis will not be easy. For no reason than there are enough people anxious to have government subsidize their lives to skew voting in favor of those fiscal candidates who advocate deficit spending. Sooner or later, lenders will reach a point where using taxpayers as collateral will not suffice to secure loans. Thereafter officials will have no choice.

“The only thing necessary for evil to triumph is for good men to do nothing.”

~ Edmund Burke

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to infringe upon Americans’ 1st Amendment rights or other Bill-of-Rights protections; nor do they allow blame for another person’s behavior to be ascribed to their freedom to exercise their rights. They retain their heritage of self-government.

Peer Into AI's Famous and infamous mind on how come gerrymandering happens, AI is likely to tell "Us, the American People" gerrymandering is how politicians try getting to pick their voters, rather than voters picking their politicians. Process-wise, gerrymandering amounts to drawing voting district boundaries to favor one political party over others. How this happens amounts to legislative power.

"I have always thanked all my enemies profusely for expanding my horizons."

~ Unknown

Media Report Gerrymandering Tactics are underway in America's Old Dominion state where, should gerrymandering efforts come to fruition, one major political party would, in theory, control election outcomes in ninety percent of said state voting districts. It would not make sense to “Our, the American People’s” sense of balanced and neutral government (if such is so) to allow apolitical party (0% control.

“Pay no attention to that man behind the curtain.”

~ The Wizard of Oz

If, In Fact, Gerrymandering Works, hard evidence is not readily apparent. It is not surprising politicians would try using gerrymandering to get elected. Nor, would it be surprising to find voters close ranks with gerrymandering proponents. They who wany their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) to be lawfully compulsory would back methods to take away other people’s choice.

“The proverb warns that “You should not bite the hand that feeds you.” But maybe you should if it prevents you from feeding yourself.”

~ Thomas Szasz

The woke change.

"We, the American People," if we are as independent minded as we're reputed, would not subscribe to gerrymandering. Rather, we would opt for defining coting districts by using, say, a grid system. Draw a grid of square miles over America's land. However population appears in said squares would make up districts. Relocations would define future districts without politicians exerting their PAVB.

The American Crisis – Part 3

(The American Crisis by Thomas Paine, December 23, 1776)

Whether the independence of the continent was declared too soon, or delayed too long, I will not now enter into as an argument; my own simple opinion is, that had it been eight months earlier, it would have been much better. We did not make a proper use of last winter, neither could we, while we were in a dependent state. However, the fault, if it were one, was all our own; we have none to blame but ourselves. But no great deal is lost yet. All that Howe has been doing for this month past, is rather a ravage than a conquest, which the spirit of the Jerseys, a year ago, would have quickly repulsed, and which time and a little resolution will soon recover.

(The American Crisis Continues by Beth Ann)

We are now celebrating 250 years of Independence; but are we truly independent? As a nation, I would say yes (for now), as a people, I would say no. The large bureaucracy and the promises of government assistance, welfare, subsidies and more, has us now dependent upon the established government. With the promise of protection, government has taken charge of our healthcare, environment, housing, travel, education, land, and more. So how long have we been so enslaved? How long will we continue to allow this and capitulate to the unelected who believe it is their duty to rule over us? Does our Constitution allow for such? No! In its original intent, our Federal Government was to be small and insignificant with just a few responsibilities, in order to protect and serve We the People. “*Governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed...”

The proper role of the federal government is very simple; it was never to be large and complicated:

- 1) To protect citizens from foreign invasion
- 2) To protect citizens from crime and maintain peace at home through law and order
- 3) To provide justice in the courts
- 4) To keep the people free

Recently democrats rejected and refused to carry out their duty under the Constitution; to keep American citizens safe!

Of course, the House Chamber of Congress is to “guard the purse” of We the People. Instead of guarding, they have been spending money we do not have, and causing a great debt which hangs over this nation, devouring our Liberty and thieving our Independence.

Independence! Is it not independent people that bring to a nation its greatness? As our government has grown, it has placed its own existence in danger. The debt caused by the bureaucracy is an existential threat to our Liberty. When in debt, we are enslaved.

There is a known cycle of nations, people and governments; at what place in the cycle does the United States now find itself?

The following is a quote from Alexander Fraser Tytler

From bondage to spiritual faith;

From spiritual faith to great courage;

From courage to liberty;

From liberty to abundance;

From abundance to complacency;

From complacency to apathy;

From apathy to dependence;

From dependence back into bondage.

“...Governments are instituted among men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed...”

THE EPSTEIN FILES SHOW WHY GOD HAD TO BE SO AGGRESSIVE IN THE OLD TESTAMENT.

“We, the American People” do not have to put up with unreasonable government. Elected officials can be recalled, either by process, or, if, necessary, escorted out of their offices. Appointed officials who act like tyrants can be dealt with by firing their appointing officials. Self-government works only when a sovereign citizenry acts like sovereign citizens. Elected/appointed officials are not dictators.

It Would Be Categorically Naïve for “Us, the American People” to expect government officials – at any level – to agree with officials at any other level. America’s triumvirate governmental system is a fertile setting for people who relish lawful control over their fellow human beings to thrive by tossing their positional authority around. They need not be tolerated by subordinates or, especially, by voters.
