"The state calls its own violence law, but that of the individual crime."

~ Max Stirner

One Of "Our, the American People's" Congressional House of Representatives legislators, a legislator who had introduced impeachment articles against President Donald J. Trump, announced his intent to file impeachment charges against President J. again. Said legislator happen to be a vocal President Donald J. political adversary. Legislators, though, never admit being political, only freedom-loving.

"I don't want my children fed or clothed by the state, but I would prefer that to their being educated by the state."

~ Max Victor Belz

In A Somewhat Related Media Article, a former federal Treasury Secretary claims President Donald J. Trump's attacks on America's federal Internal Revenue Service (IRS), if allowed to transpire, will cost on order of $1T in federal government revenue over a decade. "We, the American People" would be smart to recognize said Treasury Secretary refers to $1T less taxes taken from American taxpayers.

"Give me control of a nation's money and I care not who makes the laws."

~ Mayer Amschel Rothschild

Taxation, Along With Legislation and regulation is how government exerts control over “Us, the American People” through selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulation (SADLT&R). SADLT&R allows government to confiscate property (wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty) to enforce government policy. Policy based on personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB).

"How long is it going to be before you finally resist and say “No, I will not comply. Period!” That is what liberty is all about."

~ Michael Badnarik

America's Government Policy, If Based on PAVB held by America's sovereign citizenry, would, arguably, be legitimate policy reflecting PAVB held by America's sovereign citizenry. America's sovereign citizenry includes every person in government. Thus, legislators can, by Constitutional accord, make their PAVB lawfully compulsory, thus subjecting sovereign citizenry to despotism.

"Each and every time someone says 'there ought to be a law' they are saying that men with guns should enforce their will on innocent others."

~ Michael Barnett

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to give quarter to, offer sanctuary to, or, negotiate with terrorists. They assure terrorists find no sanctuary wherever they run or try to ply their trade.

"Government does not grow by seizing our freedoms, but by assuming our responsibilities."

Saga Between President Donald J. Trump and America's Judiciary goes on . . . and on . . . and on. Hard to say how some cases where President Donald J. is accused of out-and-out flagrant court order non-compliance will end. Given court order enforcement, by-and-large, rests with "Our, the American People's" government executive branches, there's little to be done when executive acts not.

Public Sentiment Toward President Donald J. Trump's governance style has not reached a disapproval level whereby "We, the American People," acting as a sovereign citizenry, are prepared to take up arms, and banish President Donald J. from his cozy 1600 Pennsylvania bed. And, there is a question of exactly how we'd boot him out if we did show up with pitchfork and long gun in our mutinous hands.

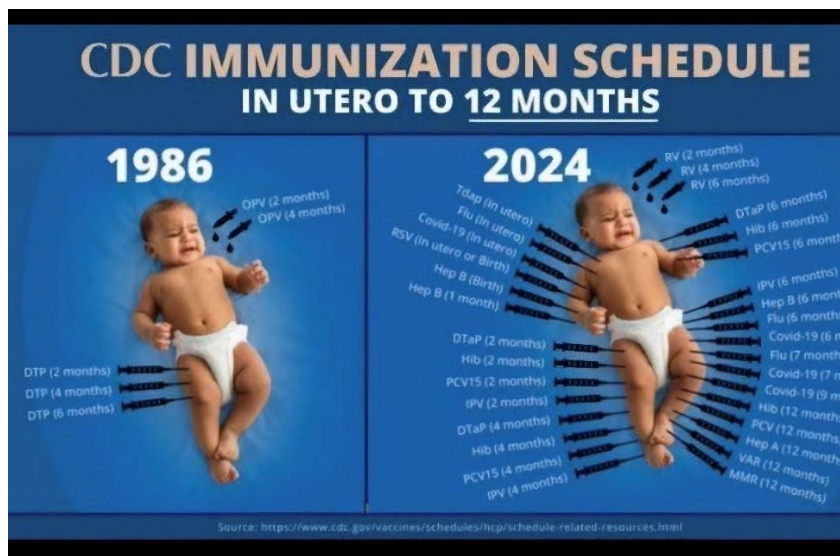

"We must pity the poor wretched, timid soul who is too faint-hearted to resist his oppressors. He sings the song of the damned: "I can't fight back; I have too much to lose; I own too much property; I have worked too hard to get what I have; They will put me out of business if I resist; I might go to jail; I have my family to think about."

~ Marvin Cooley

Pontius Pilate: "Joseph I really don't understand. You're one of the richest men in the region, and you've spent a small fortune on a new tomb for you and your family and you want to give it to this man Jesus?"

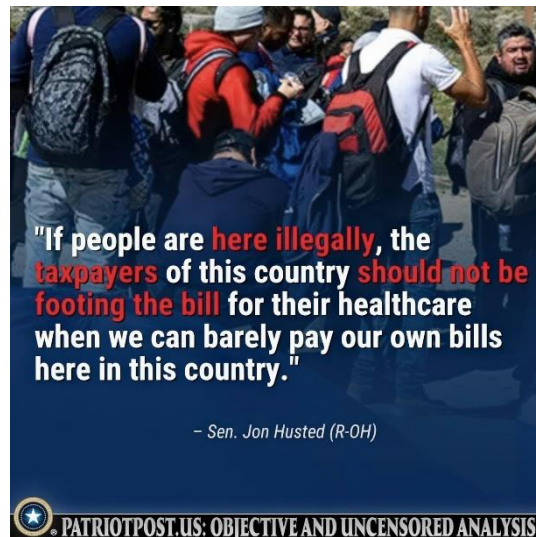

Joseph: "It's just for the weekend"

Were We to Converge On 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue in armed force, we'd have to be willing to use arms in forceful eviction, should President Donald J. not be willing to listen to "Us, the American People" when we tell him to beat feet. Ignoring court orders, though, is a bit different than facing irate citizens brandishing arms with intent to, if need be, haul President Donald J. out by belt and neck nape.

"Bureaucracy, the rule of no one, has become the modern form of despotism."

~ Mary McCarthy

HOW IS THIS OK?

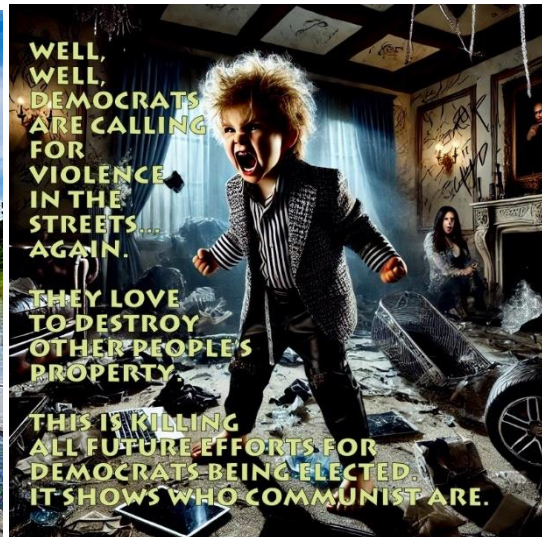

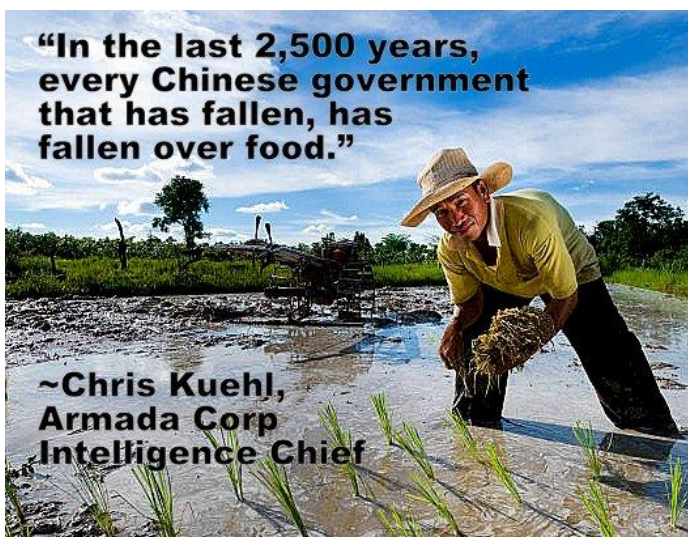

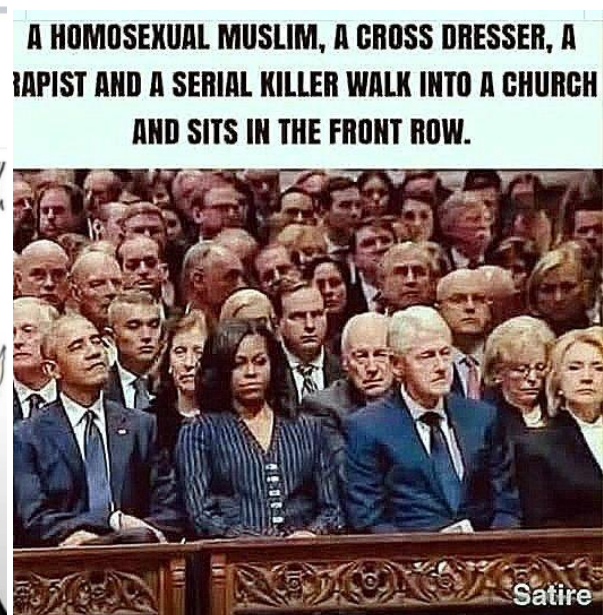

AND THIS IS NOT?

Part Of Our Relentless Trouble with deportation-like matters, as persist in media coverage nowadays, is our willingness to let central (federal) government too much leeway in handling socio-economic matters. We could draw on America's 10th Amendment and let federal government know we'll decide, as members of political divisions whether we decide our fate, or federal government decides our fate.

"Americans have the mistaken viewpoint that Lady Liberty is only a peacetime luxury who is ill-equipped to fight the nasties. Therefore, they reason, we need an equally nasty Big Brother. Americans have forgotten that Lady Liberty is one ferocious mother when protecting her children."

~ Mary Ruwart

People Resolute To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to prohibit or restrict private ownership of firearms and ammunition from any citizen of good repute and responsible standing. They protect their innate right of self-defense.

"There is a word sweeter than mother, home or heaven. That word is liberty."

This is an invitation to a huge Earth Day celebration.

Calling all the climate change worshippers and believers! Join us tonight as we celebrate this special day.

Dress appropriately for a community bonfire of Tesla's. We will not use wood for this bonfire because we'd have to kill a tree and everyone knows that could be your father; and that would be just wrong! Don't bring matches, they won't ignite the Tesla's, so we will use propane torches. (Nip your lips on that, we don't want that to get out.)

The bonfire will be held under a windmill. We're planning on the fire raging so hot that it creates it's own weather-wind environment to help source the energy of the windmill, to help generate even more "natural wind" energy.

The menu will be rotisserie birds, that are laying around on the ground, like manna from the climate change gods.

It will be a glorious time!

Happy Earth Day Y'all!

"We, the American People," if we take time to give some thought to how President Donald J. Trump has been battling America's courts, might conclude it's not clear who is running America's federal government executive office = America's president, or, America's courts. At hand has been a contest over if President Donald J. has authority to apply law as he reads law. Vague law is not law at all.

It Would Help “Us, the American People” to be rid of nuisance like deportation of illegal immigrants, migrants, and refugees (IIMR), were applicable laws lucid enough so law enforcement does not need to ask if law may be applied as written. Requiring a court to give law enforcement permission to enforce law makes law a mockery. Like stopping at stops signs only if drivers feel a need to stop.

“Our, the American People’s” legislative-judicial-executive governmental system where each branch is equal to both other branches, is ideal for people who are inclined to use their positions as roadblocks to other branches carrying out their Constitutionally-ordained duties. President Donald J. Trump is, in applying law as President Donald J. sees as his Constitutional obligation, testing co-equal branches.

Debate Over Presidential V. Court Authority could be put to rest by us, people of a sovereign citizenry, taking matters in hand and deciding who shall prevail, and be held consequentially accountable. It would not be unreasonable for us to do exactly so. Because it is us who, ultimately, come up with greenbacks to pay for IIMR escapades on American soil – and – cost of government.
