The taking of our children started a long time ago, really, when you think about it. Remember when it was rare that a child was taken from their parents? It was usually because of abuse, extreme poverty, or even the horrific crime of incest; of course today, there are many who would say that it is no longer horrific, it's just a sexual preference. In fact, they've even given it a name; MAP (minor attracted persons).

Hillary Clinton's favorite line "It takes a village," should have been a precursor of the government horrors that were to come.

It was in April of 2013 when MSNBC host Melissa Harris-Perry recorded a commercial for the network in which she stated that children do not belong to their parents, but are instead the responsibility of the members of their community.

"We have never invested as much in public education as we should have because we've always had kind of a private notion of children. Your kid is yours and totally your responsibility. We haven't had a very collective notion of these are our children," she said in a spot for the network's "Lean Forward" campaign. "So part of it is we have to break through our kind of private idea that kids belong to their parents, or kids belong to their families, and recognize that kids belong to whole communities." Harris-Perry's views ignited a firestorm of anger and disbelief, but unfortunately that "shock-and-awe-knee-jerk-reaction" died down, however the LEFT (democrat-communists) pressed on with their "taking of America's children."

When Melissa Harris-Perry used the term public education, be assured she was not talking about math, reading, science or history lessons; she was referring to the communist indoctrination of America's children.

The LEFT want to control your children from the womb and beyond. Government policies have been shifting, for quite some time, away from protecting traditional families. They've gone from paying unwed mothers welfare based on how many children they have, to wanting government to pay to abort the baby before he or she is born.

The latest news on this topic is that children are being taken from their parents if the parents do not comply with the child's "choice" of gender identity. The Daily Caller is featuring a documentary on this issue. "What Happens When The State Decides It Knows Best For Your Child? We Found Out"

<https://dailycaller.com/2025/04/21/transgender-separated-child-protective-series-daily-caller-original/>

I don't know if you feel as I do, but there seems to be a firestorm of confused children regarding sexual identities, and it's not just adolescents who are struggling during puberty, but it's much younger children, even toddlers, who seem to be on the "sexual confused watchdog pervert radar."

Very young children will mimic and pretend to be a super hero, an animal or even one of their parents. A girl might choose to dress or act like a boy; we used to call them "tomboys." Hey, I was one! I also had two older brothers I was trying to keep up with. However, I still liked to play dress up and enjoyed a new dress mom made for me to wear to church.

A young boy without a father figure and perhaps only has sisters, might want to join his sister in a tea party or taking care of a doll baby. Maybe mom just had a baby and he will mimic caring for his own doll or stuffed animal. Neither one of these scenarios is evidence that the child wishes to be the opposite gender or an animal.

It is my belief that America's youth and children are being sexually targeted, confused and coerced intentionally.

It has long been known that gender dysphoria is a mental illness, but now we have government officials taking children from their parents if the parents do not except this gender confusion as “fact.”

While the LEFT loves throwing out the word Nazi, it was the Nazis who took children from their parents for the government indoctrination of children and youth. It was Hitler who experimented on children, old people, and ill people; it was cruel and barbaric what took place. The democrats want to mutilate American children and youth with dangerous, experimental and perverted sex transforming surgeries, while giving them hormone blockers to reverse the natural growth of a human being. How is any of that different from what took place in Nazi Germany?

Currently there is a case in front of the Supreme Court to decide if parents have a right to know what curriculum their young children are being exposed to in the public school system. The lawsuit is against the Montgomery County, Maryland school district, who claim that parents cannot opt their children out of the LGBT-themed curriculum. We’re not talking about teenagers here; this is kindergarten and elementary school aged children. There is no reason to have children of any age exposed to gay and lesbian sex, anymore than they should be exposed to explicit heterosexual behaviors.

Who you elect as school board members matters “largely.” They are the ones making these curriculum decisions and they are the once taking parental rights away from parents. It was during a school board meeting in the Loudoun County, Virginia school district, when the father was forcibly removed from the meeting for speaking up about the rape of his daughter in the “girls” bathroom.

When we question just why is this transgender confusion escalating, why is it so important to feed young children homosexual porn, why are pronouns intentionally misused, why is it so important to “transgender” surgically and medically at such a young age, and why are the democrats so adamant about killing the unborn?

I have come to a conclusion and it isn't a pretty one.

Population Control!

The radical transformation of transgender individuals leaves them sterile for life.

The true homosexual lifestyle does not beget children.

When a child or youth is intentionally confused in the matters of sexuality and identity, they are more apt to commit suicide as well as violent crimes against others. The mass "Covenant Park murder," committed by Audrey Hale took place at the Covenant School in Nashville, Tennessee on March 27, 2023. Audrey murdered six people that day, two were only nine-years old. The LEFT refused to allow the public to read the trans-murderer's manifesto explaining why she decided to murder the children that day. The LEFT know what they are doing and they know it is dangerous for all!

Gender dysphoria is a mental illness and it's time we understood that and realized the heinous reasons the LEFT (democrats) are desperate to Take Our Children!

The LEFT discourages young women from having children, and they are against the nuclear family. They attempt to remove God; because they believe government is god and should control all things, and that includes our Children! The LEFT have allowed this nation to be overrun by illegal aliens, who came here to rape and murder. They brought fentanyl which has cost the lives of hundreds of thousands of young Americans.

Is there a better way to destroy or control a nation, than to sterilize the youth who would be the ones to replenish the next generation of America?

Advocates of Honest Judiciaries,

Dear Professor Gardner, Wilmer Cutler, Perkins Coie, Susman Godfrey, Jenner & Block, Harvard, lawyers, law firms, universities, and Advocates,‡

1. This is a proposal to join forces to apply Professor Gardner's article District Court en bancs[1] in a case pending in the U.S.
District Court, SDNY, concerning healthcare insurers and other medical services and equipment providers' plotting and committing with the complicity of Medicare abusive insurance claims evasive "delay, deny, defend" tactics:

Secretary of Health and Human Services, Medicare,
EmblemHealth [healthcare insurer],
Maximus Federal Services [reviewer of insurance claims denials], et al. [including many of the top officers of the Medicare Appeals Council and the Office of Medicare Hearings and Appeals (OMHA)]; docket no. 24-cv-9778-JAV;

filed in U.S. District Court, SDNY, on 16 December 2024.

>complaint at SDNY:111[2]

2. I cited you, Prof. Gardner, and your article in my April 11 motion[3], which requests en banc review. With your amicus curiae[see endnote 4] support of it, you can capitalize on the enormous research and writing effort that you must have invested in your article.

3. Wilmer Cutler[5], Perkins Coie[6], Susman Godfrey[7], Jenner & Block[8], Harvard[9], and the lawyers, law firms, universities, and Advocates challenging the Trump administration are invited to join in one amicus brief or write their own amicus to benefit from the greater use of district court en bancs.

District of Columbia live database

4. Indeed, my motion was addressed to SDNY Chief Judge Laura Taylor Swain to request that she convene her district court en banc to resolve the conflict between an order of hers in my case and a subsequent one of the currently assigned judge, i.e., J. Annette A. Vargas; and decide other issues of public interest in these turbulent judicial times, e.g., whether:

a. a decision of a district court en banc, convened on a party's or the judges' motion, can more effectively persuade the public and a court of appeals than a decision of a single judge. If so, it would better resist arbitrary and capricious attacks by the current administration;

b. access to justice can become 'speedier and more inexpensive' in line with the purpose for the FRCP set forth in Rule 1[10] through review by a district court en banc compared with an appeal to an appeals court;

c. the sovereign and judicial immunity doctrines violate Articles II §4 and III §1; and Amendments XIV §1 and V of the Constitution, which provide for holding all officers of the United States, including those of the Executive branch and all judges, accountable so that against those officers We the People can secure "the equal protection of the laws" instead of being at the mercy of officers who arrogate to themselves an unconstitutionally superior place: Above the Law;

d. district court en bancs are mechanisms for judges to police themselves so that they can deter, detect, and correct their fellow judges' abuse of discretion/power or incompetence;

e. characterizing mine as a test case in defense of civil rights and in the public interest, so it will benefit the 67.3 million[11] old, sick, and disabled insureds of Medicare, and the additional millions of non-Medicare insureds, the overwhelming majority of all of whom lack the physical and emotional stamina and knowledge of the law needed to defend their rights individually, e.g., through four levels of administrative appeals and climb to the fifth level of judicial review in a federal district court, never mind appealing to a circuit court;

Medicare Statistics And Facts In 2025

Alena Hall

Medicare is the primary form of health insurance for older adults in the U.S. Provided by the federal government...

f. such characterization will induce law, journalism, and IT/AI professionals as well as professors and students to use my case to expose providers of healthcare insurance, other services, and equipment who commit “delay, deny, defend” tactics, and those who cover for them.

5. It is in the same SDNY district court that federal criminal charges seeking the death penalty have been brought against Luigi Mangione for allegedly murdering UnitedHealthcare CEO Brian Thompson in NYC last December 4. Given the overwhelming public support for Mr. Mangione and the public outrage at those tactics, it is reasonable to expect that his trial will attract the national and international media.

6. As a result, this is the most opportune time to ask law firms, universities, and the media to investigate how district court en bancs can launch the reform of the judiciary by providing a speedier, affordable, and meaningful level of judicial review of cases, such as healthcare cases, where time is of the essence but insurers have an interest in dragging out the case until the insured is dead or too weak to press their claim anymore.

7. Courts of appeals do not provide that kind of review because they can dispose of appeals perfunctorily in reliance on the fact that the Supreme Court grants barely 1.5% of certiorari petitions.<sup>[12]</sup> Such unaccountability allows riskless abuse of power by healthcare insurers and providers, among others, and an individual judge presiding over a case.

8. We can contribute to the wider use of district court en bancs by making presentations thereon at law, journalism, and IT/AI schools, beginning with our local ones and our alma maters, as well as many other public interest entities.

9. At those presentations, we will propose concrete actions that the audience can undertake to expose the abusers, such as press releases, the publication of articles, press conferences, interviews, podcasts, townhall meetings, rallies; etc.

10. Moreover, we will propose UNPRECEDENTED CITIZENS HEARINGS.

a. The citizens hearings will be held by media outlets and universities at their stations and auditoriums during the first semester of an academic year[13].

b. They will afford people the opportunity to tell their story[14] of the abuse of power that they have suffered or witnessed.

c. They will allow people throughout the country to tell and listen to the stories in person and online.

d. The more stories are told and heard, the more people will be informed about the abuse of power and become outraged. Ever more will scream, "That happened to Me-Too!" They will be driven to ask to be allowed to tell their stories to vent that fire that is burning in their soul: the constant cry for justice and compensation2 >[SDNY:156§L]. Nothing oppresses the soul more harshly and persistently than the feeling of having been or being abused. The informed and outraged people will thus energize another self-reinforcing cycle of citizens hearings.

e. During the second academic semester[15], the findings of the hearings will be established and the preparation undertaken for their presentation near the end of the semester at the first-ever national conference on abuse of power. It will be held simultaneously at several interconnected universities and news media networks.

f. At that conference, the findings of the citizens hearings will be presented in speeches, panel discussions, and the first edition of the Annual Report on Unaccountability and Abuse of Power in America.

g. The citizens hearings will be a rich source of materials for the proposed multidisciplinary summer internships of students.

h. There will also be offered semester-long multidisciplinary clinics for academic credit. Students will learn, among other things:

1) administrative law;

2) agency and social data gathering;

3) news gathering and reporting;

4) public relations and image managing;

5) the application of IT/AI to audit massive amounts of writings, speeches, and footage to detect patterns of unlawful meeting of the minds and coordinated abusive conduct;

6) legislative drafting;

7) lobbying;

8) development and leadership of a national, nonpartisan Me-Too!-like civic movement for civil rights, accountability, liability, and reform;

9) the setting up of a new type of practice for handling a flood of motions to vacate decisions, remand for a new trial, and obtain compensation, and staging a supporting campaign of mass communication and demonstrations. This practice can be lucrative and build national name recognition for the practitioners;

10) working as a team inside an institution and among institutions in one or several states under the guidance of an editor or a lead attorney; etc.

i. In addition, the students will learn to do what abusees cannot do individually: prepare and initiate non-class aggregate actions and class actions, and multidistrict litigation in the public interest of exposing the nature, extent, and gravity of abuse of power by a big multistate entity[16] and collectively demanding compensation.

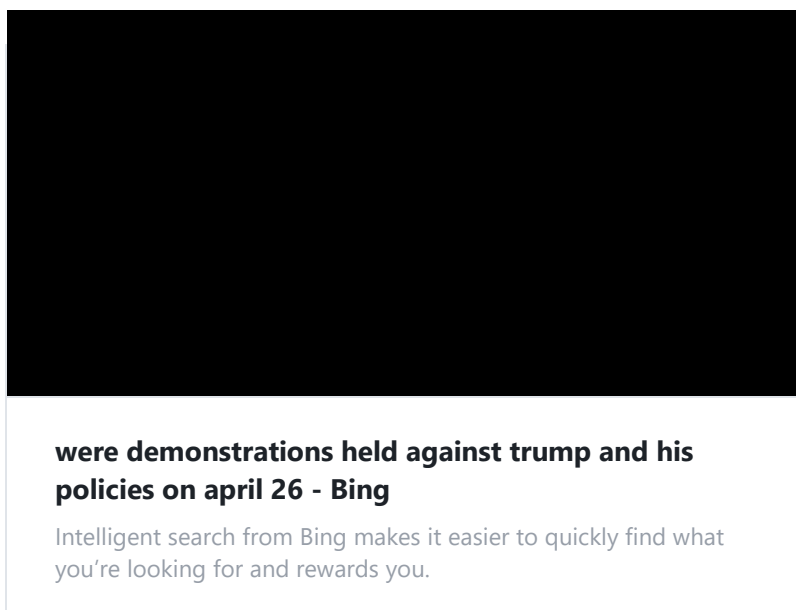

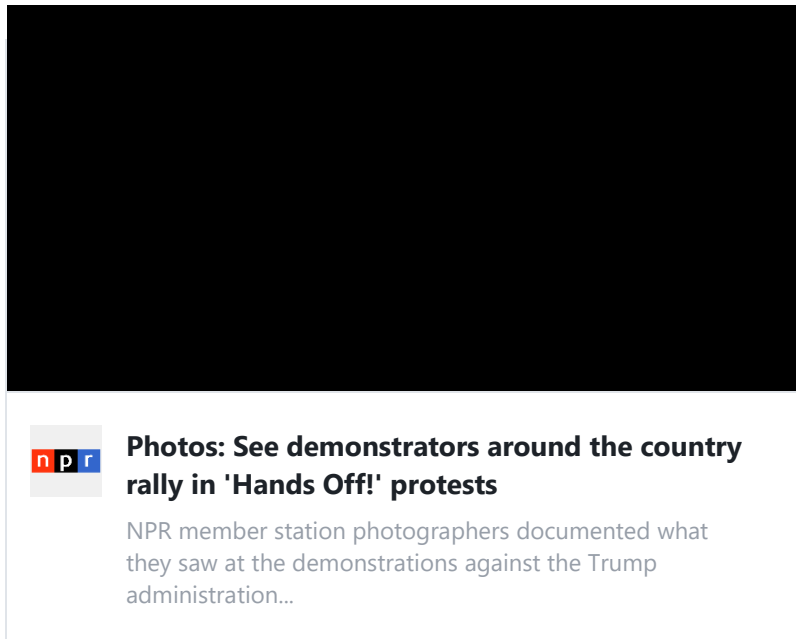

j. Students will gain unique hands-on experience that will impress job recruiters or enable them to open multidisciplinary boutiques upon graduation. Their success can build up the reputation of their schools and increase admission applications and enrollment of better qualified applicants.

k. The citizens hearings' findings of abuse of power coordinated and committed as institutionalized modus operandi should sufficiently inform and outrage the public to compel politicians, lest they be primaried or voted out of, or not into, office, to legislate transparency, accountability, and liability for, e.g., the healthcare industry.

L. The unprecedented citizens hearings have the potential for becoming a rallying point for abusees and reformers. They can set in motion the joint development of academe and the media as a powerhouse that can hold accountable and liable private and public entities so big that We the People separated into millions of individuals cannot fight.[16]

m. The citizens hearings can lead to the creation of the Institute of Unaccountability Reporting and Reform Advocacy, to be attached to a preeminent university or news network, and engaged in research, publishing, classroom and public education, consulting, litigation, lobbying, etc.

11. This proposal is realistic: multistate law firms from several states have represented Harvard; hundreds of universities as well as professors have added their names and efforts to challenge Trump administration executive orders; on April 5 over 1,200 demonstrations in all 50 states were reportedly held in communities across the country to protest Trump administration actions[17] and more have been held every Saturday since then[18]; etc.

12. In the same vein, my website at Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org has become a rallying point. There I post some of my law and business articles, the product of my professional research and writing, and strategic thinking. They have attracted so many webvisitors and impress them so favorably that as of 27 April 2025, the number of subscribers was 55,061+.

13. Some of my articles have been added to my three-volume study of abuse of power, titled and downloadable thus:

“We, the American People,” as consumers, and, as a sovereign citizenry, have ultimate say on how much something offered for sale will cost. When we, as consumers, cut back on purchasing, businesses look for ways to lower prices. When we, as a sovereign citizenry, force government to lower taxes, we can prompt sales to increase. All taxes revenue is generated, directly or indirectly, by sales (commerce).

"At the start of this nation's unique experiment with individual sovereignty and limited government, "Taxation without representation is tyranny" was the watchword of the American Revolution."

Sooner Or Later Tariff (Trade tax) dilemma will settle out. If we, as consumers, are picket when we think about buying foreign goods, there will be, like as not, comparatively good deals for "Us, the American People." We, as a sovereign citizenry, could boycott foreign products. America's production, unhampered by legislation, taxation, and regulation, could adjust to Americans needs.

WE DON'T WANT TO STOP FRAUD AND CORRUPTION, WE JUST NEED TO RAISE YOUR TAXES TO MAKE UP FOR IT!

While It Might Be Attractive for us to use foreign produce to supply some demand, we would hardly be foolish to relieve our critical needs of dependency on foreign supply, There's a theory on armies crossing borders when trade does not. Ample reason to be sure balance of military power stays demonstrably in our favor. We can take odds tariffs (trade taxes) are incapable of winning armed war.

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to enact, impose, or increase taxes without securing a majority vote approval in all jurisdictions affected. They exercise sovereignty, not obedience.

"In dealing with the State, we ought to remember . . . every law and usage was a man's expedient to meet a particular case; that they all are imitable, all alterable; we may make as good; we may make better."

"Our, the American People's" President Donald J. Trump has, if he has done nothing else., kept America's media abuzz with vellicating news. Media report, for example, White House Press Secretary, Karoline Leavitt has intimated President Donald J,'s Justice Department could arrest judges. Given our government structure is as it is, government justice department officials would be arresting officials.

"Whoever lays his hand on me to govern me is a usurper and tyrant, and I declare him my enemy."

~ Plato

"We, the American People," if we happen to be President Donald J. Trump detractors, might be inclined to argue President Donald J. Trump has no business allowing America's justice systems law enforcement people to arrest judges. Judges, after all, are those individuals who preside over lawful legitimacy. Press Secretary Leavitt, correctly, points out not even judges may break America's laws.

"When the tyrant has disposed of foreign enemies by conquest or treaty, and there is nothing to fear from them, then he is always stirring up some war or other, in order that the people may require a leader."

~ Plato

Those Of "Us, the American People" who fancy ourselves as utterly rational, objective thinkers, and who happen to find President Donald J. Trump's Administration acting completely consistent with America's Constitutional precepts and protections, are not braindead morons. We would know America's justice department law enforcement can't go around arresting people absent probable cause.

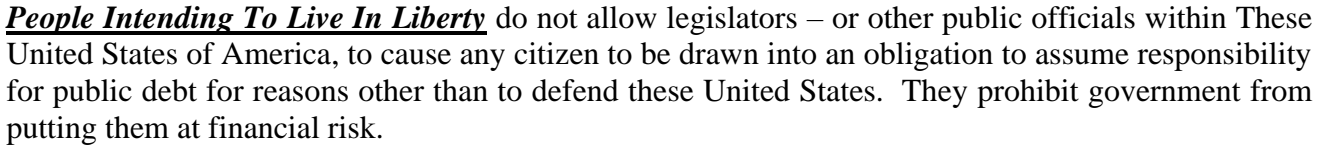

"Justice will only exist where those not effected by injustice are filled with the same amount of indignation as those offended."

~ Plato

Probable Cause. There May well be lots of people who believe there is no probable cause to arrest a judge for, say, acting to aid an illegal immigrant/migrant/refugee (IIMR) person from arrest. If so, then there must be no law precluding IIMR people from roaming about America at their leisure. As it happens, IIMR people may not roan about America at their leisure, because if they do, they violate law.
