

“The greater the power, the more dangerous the abuse.”

~ Edmund Burke

“We, the American People” would not be smart to think legislative, executive, and judicial political majorities underpin adherence to precepts and protections articulated by America’s commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions. We would be smart to recognize political majorities are out to promote and enforce political majority ideology. Ideologies, made law, define choice.

“Those who have been once intoxicated with power, and have derived any kind of emolument from it, even though but for one year, can never willingly abandon it.”

~ Edmund Burke

“Our, the American People’s” representative Constitutional government is supposed to assure no government branch has dominant power, and to protect minority representation. Every election since America started elections has been marked by political party efforts to have majority status in legislative, executive, and judicial branches, SCOTUS included. Majority aim is absolute control.

“The power which a multiple millionaire, who may be my neighbor and perhaps my employer, has over me is very much less than that which the smallest “functionaire” possesses who wields the coercive power of the state, and on whose desecration it depends whether and how I am allowed to live or to work.”

~ Frederich von Hayek

Laws, Be They Good, Bad, or indifferent, restrict choice. Not a stretch to say laws eliminate choice. Political majorities seek lawful power to force compliance with standing majority party ideology. America's Constitutions do not guard against tyranny by majority vote. American citizens, by their power of being a sovereign citizenry, can, if they are willing, prevent political majority oppression.

“Of all 36 ways to get out of trouble, the best way is – leave.”

~ Chinese Proverb

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to enact legislation or regulations requiring any private business to accept collective bargaining organizations. They exercise citizen sovereignty and negotiate mutually agreed upon employment terms

“We, the American People” are sadly mistaken if we expect military overrun of Iran will cease world political-economic destabilization carried out by Iran’s fanatical Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC). Confronting and defeating Iran’s IRGC is not exactly akin to confronting and defeating Axis powers of World War II. Fighting religious-ideological idealism is fighting diseased irrationalism.

DEMOCRATS THINK THEY ARE USING MUSLIMS TO USHER IN SOCIALISM.
THE TRUTH IS MUSLIMS ARE USING DEMOCRATS TO USHER IN ISLAM.

AI Sources Accurate, Islamic Terrorism is a conglomeration of contrary middle eastern socio-political ideals formed over decades of power struggles. Deeply rooted, religion-based personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) are not extinguished by armed conflict. Such PAVB linger generation-to-generation with potential to emerge whenever believers become organized and prepared to disrupt.

'Is It Too Late To Ask Who Gerry Mander Is?' KBJ Whispers To Clarence Thomas

Decimating Iran's IRGC May Completely reform Iran's government as one of all but non-existent Islamic terrorism. Doing so does not mean Islamic terrorism militants will not regroup and reappear elsewhere, possibly in places like France, Britain, America, Canada, or South American countries. "Our, the American People's" better option is to eliminate opportunities for radicals to flourish.

"A tiny and closed fraternity of privileged men, elected by no one, and enjoying a monopoly sanctioned and licensed by government."

~ Spiro T. Agnew

Philosophically Speaking, Islamic Radicalism is no different than any group looking for ways to attain geopolitical power and influence. PAVB, historically, have underpinned more than one effort by people to control people, by sheer force, not least, force of armed conquest. Massive armies are not necessary to perpetuate oppressive PAVB. Small, dedicated groups dedicated and willing to spread fear do so.

Are Americans Too Afraid To Be Free

The headlines of today lead me to feel that we, as a nation, are a leaning tower of tyranny. Perhaps we are in such a slant as to be leaning at a tilt that is at least at a 70-degree angle and falling down into complete tyranny and slavery of We the People.

No longer do we hear any commentators speak words of protecting Americans, in fact it is quite the opposite. While President Trump is known for his name calling of his adversaries, he doesn’t pick a complete group of Americans citizens and trash them, as Hillary Clinton did. She referred to Americans who might want safety and freedom, who might possibly believe in God, and who stand on the Bill of Rights, taking each one literally and seriously, as a Basket of Deplorables, who are irredeemable. And then there was Obama, claiming that “rural Americans” all cling to their God and their guns. I ask him, “What do you cling to besides your ego and your money?” I am however proud to be considered a member of the Basket of Deplorables, I’m not worried about those conceited politicians seeing me as irredeemable, for my Savior, Jesus Christ is my Redeemer!

However, I am concerned that many Americans today are fearful of politicians, media and our government. We have watched in the past several years, as the DOJ has handcuffed and arrested political rivals, while allowing criminals to go free and commit violence against American citizens.

It is also true, unfortunately, that We the People have become dependent on government policies and social programs for the necessities of life: food, clothing, shelter, our health and educational institutions, etc.

Will we not be willing to sacrifice even just a tiny bit in order to secure the future for our grandchildren?

Perhaps it is not only FEAR that keeps us from living as a FREE people!

Perhaps, we no longer LOVE our country. My love for this nation is strong, and I cannot understand why others do not see this nation’s unique beauty and love her too. She is not perfect, but she used to be free, safe and fair. Can we not remember those days?

If justice is in the hands of whoever is in power, we are no longer free and there is no justice.

Upgrade to paid

To remain reticent or silent is not the way of a Free People! Tyranny abounds when We the People are apathetic. If we are already living in fear, then we are already under tyranny.

I do not say or write these things to discourage you but to wake you up and call us, all of us, We the People to action. We can no longer ignore the tyranny and evil that is reigning over our sweet America. If we remain so complacent we condemn our children and grandchildren to government slavery.

“Those who would give up essential liberty to purchase a little temporary safety, deserve neither liberty nor safety.” Benjamin Franklin

“Let them call me rebel and welcome, I feel no concern from it; but I should suffer the misery of devils, were I to make a whore of my soul by swearing allegiance to one whose character is that of a sottish, stupid, stubborn, worthless, brutish man.” — Thomas Paine, The Crisis

Thomas Paine was not so afraid that he should concern himself of another’s precious political feelings. I do not believe any of our brave Founding Fathers would have concerned themselves over which pronoun to use for some spoiled, not yet weened or self-reliant, childish adolescent.

Patrick Henry just witnessed a man flogged to death by the “government” (king). Was that to be the future of America? He was not going to allow fear to guide him away from the dream and want of living Free: Liberty!

Should I keep back my opinions at such a time, through fear of giving offense, I should consider myself as guilty of treason towards my country, and of an act of disloyalty toward the Majesty of Heaven, which I revere above all earthly kings.... Patrick Henry - It was at the end of this very speech, that Patrick Henry finished with a profound statement, “Give me liberty or give me death!”

The man Patrick Henry watched being flogged, died of that brutal beating! His crime? He was a minister who refused to take a license from the King. Yet today we have news hosts claiming “Christian Nationalists” are a threat to democracy. Why? Because they believe our rights (unalienable rights) come from God and not from man or government. Are we now to be flogged or imprisoned for believing in God above “king” government?

Nathan Hale, as he was facing DEATH, still valued Liberty and loved his country!! As Hale was led to the gallows, his last words reportedly were, “I only regret that I have but one life to give for my country.”

If we today are unwilling to give up the comfort or dollars of government legislated subsidies or entitlements, then we surely love ourselves more than Liberty. If we only care about today and not about the tomorrows of our own grandchildren, then we surely must love ourselves more than them and we place no value on their Freedom! For in our own selfishness we condemn the future generations of America to government slavery as indentured servants on the land! That is not Love! That is not Liberty!

Benjamin Franklin wise old man that he was, laid it out plainly, Freedom or Slavery? Tyranny or Liberty?

The bravery of our Founding Fathers was amazing!

It is in vain, sir, to extenuate the matter. Gentlemen may cry, Peace, Peace--but there is no peace. The war is actually begun! The next gale that sweeps from the north will bring to our ears the clash of resounding arms! Our brethren are already in the field! Why stand we here idle? What is it that gentlemen wish? What would they have? Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take; but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!

Are Americans too afraid to be Free? Are we too selfish to be Independent? Do we prefer slavery over Sovereignty? Is there no Love for Liberty?

“Tyranny, like hell, is not easily conquered; yet we have this consolation with us, that the harder the conflict, the more glorious the triumph.”

Thomas Paine, The American Crisis

We the People must no longer stand by silent as we watch American citizens arrested, fired from their jobs, indicted for their opinions by a tyrannical regime, while our children are mutilated and women and children are being trafficked as sex slaves into this nation.

"When the people fear the government, there is tyranny. But when the government fears the people, there is liberty." Thomas Jefferson

As Joshua was facing a mighty battle he declared to his people,

"But if serving the Lord seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord."

Joshuah 24:15

Being brave isn't easy but it is the right thing to do! "Consent of the governed," as mentioned in our Declaration of Independence, places the responsibility on our shoulders. It's time we took that responsibility as seriously as our Founding Fathers. There are those today, who are standing strong under government persecution and are being prosecuted unjustly by this tyrannical Biden/Obama regime. It is our duty to stand up in their defense.

Pray, speak up and stand up for Liberty and for our God... and Bring America Home.©

"Our, the, American People's" media has an opinion piece running on how political liberals try various means to grab power when they are not getting their political way. Piece author could have gone a step further and said when virtually all politicians/legislators/activists don't get their way they resort to tactics such as trying to pack America's Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS).

It Doesn't Take Much Digging for “Us, the American People” to get a handle on why politics is such a contentious undertaking. People who end up with lawful political power control virtually every aspect of other people's lives. Critical aspects include power to confiscate property (wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty). Our sovereign citizenry power must check lawful power to stave off tyranny.

“We, the American People” would be smart to cast jaundiced eye, alert ear, and harsh skepticism when activists/legislators/politicians propose selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation. taxation and regulation (SADLT&R). SADLT&R is how government (SCOTUS et al) exerts control over people’s property (wealth) and restricts people’s choice (Liberty). Free societies limit SADLT&R severely.

Government Is Incapable Of Satisfying people's every want and need. Laws, good, bad, or indifferent, take away choice. It would be fair to say virtually every war has been rooted in efforts to make officialdom PAVB dominant.
