"...were it left to me to decide whether we should have a government without newspapers, or newspapers without a government, I should not hesitate for a moment to prefer the latter."

~ Thomas Jefferson

"Our, the American People's" media tariff (trade tax) storm coverage is laced with contrasting stories. A media outlet is reported to have broken its scheduled programming to report a blow to President Donald J. Trump's tariff (trade tax) initiative; 'blow' meaning President Donald J. changing his tact by saying not all trade deals have to be signed. A related story covers a significant tariff (trade tax) deal.

"Were we directed from Washington when to sow and when to reap, we should soon want bread."

~ Thomas Jefferson

Related Story Circulated In Media reported Planet Earth's second largest car company to expand manufacturing in U.S. "We, the American People" have no sure way of knowing when media coverage is biased. Media bias, briefly put, amounts to news reported in a partisan manner, partisan meaning, generally one-sided. Media bias ought to be avoidable by sticking with verifiable information reporting.

"That government is best which governs the least, because its people discipline themselves."

~ Thomas Jefferson

There Is No Reason Why Media bias should be outlawed. Media outlets have their own criteria for reporting. A media outlet has no obligation to, say, give equal time to people running for public office. Any media business looking to stay in business has one prime concern. Create enough demand, measured in sales revenue, to keep presses running. Otherwise, bias ends up little more than yakking.

"Yet the hour of emancipation is advancing....this enterprise is for the young; for those who can follow it up, and bear it through to its consummation."

~ Thomas Jefferson

Why It Would Be Advantageous for "Us, the American People" to cull media bias is hard to pin down. There is nothing to say media reporting identified as opinion would not be as valuable as reporting based on pure factual content. No stretch to say legislative office elections are decided more on opinion than on fact. Bottom line is it's most beneficial to us to know when information works predictably.

"The boisterous sea of liberty is never without a wave."

What are the odds?

"Our, the American People's" President Donald J. Trump's battle with America's courts over jurisdiction looks to have no lessening. Media coverage includes various cases where courts act to curtail President Donald J. from, as an example, deporting illegal immigrants/migrants/refugees (IIMR) people using Alien Enemies Act (AEA) authority. Courts favoring plaintiffs deny presidential power.

"Liberty is to the collective body, what health is to every individual body. Without health no pleasure can be tasted by man; without liberty, no happiness can be enjoyed by society."

~ Thomas Jefferson

"We, the American People," are caught up in President Donald J. Trump's AEA/IIMR battle with courts by more ways than one. As taxpayers, we foot pertinent litigation bills. As citizens subject to law enforcement, we find ourselves unable to decide how we might be part of events where AEA is concerned – act in accord with a president, act in accord with a court ruling. Fundamental conundrum.

It Is Not Unreasonable For Sovereign citizenries to expect legislative, judicial, and executive government branches to produce legislation without ambiguity. No citizen should be put in a position where lawful compliance is not determined unless there is court action deciding same. Freedom is at risk when people can be in lawful violation without knowing so until courts decide violation occurs.

Our Triumvirate Government System, where our three, coequal, branches are subject to restraint by each branch, makes for political maneuvering to satisfy disparate personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) held by officials in each government branch. Justice, under such conditions is nigh impossible, since PAVB are inherently biased, leaving "Us, the American People" subject to arbitrary regulation.

A Foreign Press Media Article Writer goes to some length telling "Us, the American People" how it is American voters elected President Donald J. Trump. Article writer draws conclusions from an interview with President Donald J.'s successor, one Joe Biden. Unaware ineptness exhibited by former President Joe Biden, in a word. Writer chastised President Joe for lambasting President Donald J.

"God forbid we should ever be twenty years without such a rebellion."

~ Thomas Jefferson

"We, the American People" would be smart to take a dim view whenever someone presumes to advise us of our motives for our political actions. We, despite falling short of America's commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions according us power of self-government, do make conscious choices when going obediently to cast ballots for America's next crop of public officials.

"And what country can preserve its liberties, if its rulers are not warned from time to time, that this people preserve the spirit of resistance?"

~ Thomas Jefferson

Article Writer Who Presumes "Our, the American People's reasons for ushering in President Donald J. Trump is, most likely, correct on one point. We elect our government representatives based on expectation(s). Since we have not figured out how, or, are not willing to decide how, to be self-governing, we look to those we elect to, somehow, bring about our supposed Constitutional heritage.

"May [the Declaration of Independence] be to the world, what I believe it will be (to some parts sooner, to others later, but finally to all), the signal of arousing men to burst the chains under which monkish ignorance and superstition had persuaded them to bind themselves, and to assume the blessings and security of self-government."

~ Thomas Jefferson

Our Government Representatives, Once Elected, make it their business to exercise their positional authority to administer government as they assert we asked them by electing them. Result is our representatives use their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) to frame selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulation (SADLT&R). SADLT&R suppresses expectations.

"I have no fear that the result of our experiment will be that men may be trusted to govern themselves without a master."

"Rightful liberty is unobstructed action according to our will within limits drawn around us by the equal rights of others. I do not add 'within the limits of the law,' because law is often but the tyrant's will, and always so when it violates the rights of the individual."

~ Thomas Jefferson

"Our, the American People's" President Donald J. Trump has, at various times, proposed replacing America's federal income tax with tariff (trade tax) income. No easy chore. Tariff (trade tax income) is projected to reach on order of $100B by end 2025, rise to $1T over next decade. Federal income tax revenue is on order of $2.6T, leaving a shortfall of some $1.6T. Tough nut for tariffs (trade taxes).

"Who can endure toil, famine, stripes, imprisonment & death itself in vindication of his own liberty, and the next moment ... inflict on his fellow men a bondage, one hour of which is fraught with more misery than ages of that which he rose in rebellion to oppose."

~ Thomas Jefferson

Necessity is the mother if all inventions.

"We, the American People's" income tax is not federal government's only income-related tax. Payroll taxes come to about $2.2T, bringing total tariff (trade tax) income only to $3.8T. President Donald J. Trump, optimistic though he may be on tariff (trade tax) revenue generation, would need to come up with $3.8T in tariff (trade tax) revenue to have a case for eliminating income-related taxation. Big job.

"If a nation expects to be ignorant and free, in a state of civilization, it expects what never was and never will be."

~ Thomas Jefferson

Given Replacing Income tax-related income with tariff (trade tax) income is an ominous task, it would be smart for "Us, the American People" to look seriously at viability of reducing unnecessary government spending through Department Of Government Efficiency (DOGE) initiatives. DOGE Czar, Elon Musk, has projected DOGE cost avoidance upwards of $1T. Leaving $2.8T income tax revenue.

"The tree of liberty must be refreshed from time to time with the blood of patriots and tyrants. It is its natural manure."

~ Thomas Jefferson

unaffordable necessities starter pack

Given DOGE Cost Avoidance Projection were to materialize, getting rid of another $2.8T to eliminate need for income tax revenue is still no small task. It is, without question, however, factual America's economy generates enough revenue to cover all costs. Whether government ought be funding as many of those costs as it does is a bone of contention. Total government revamping may be necessary.

"Why suspend the habeas corpus in insurrections and rebellions? Examine the history of England. See how few of the cases of the suspension of the habeas corpus law have been worthy of that suspension"
