"Our, the American People's" Vice-President (VP) JD Vance and America's Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) Chief Justice lock horns on who gets to gore whose ox when it comes to government positional

"We shall require a substantially new manner of thinking if mankind is to survive."

~ Albert Einstein

Media Report VP Vance Is Of A Mind America's courts should be deferential to America's presidential executive when it comes to matters like immigration. "We, the American People," who are inclined to back President Donald J. Trump's MAGA agenda, are likely to agree with VP Vance. We, who are convinced President Donald J.'s MAGA is simply wrong-headed, will, likely, say courts rule, period.

There Is No Place For "Us, the American People" to go if we are inclined to learn how our representative Constitutional republic governmental form is supposed to operate when it comes to sorting how just how our much-heralded, three, co-equal, branch government is inferred to police itself through checks-and-balances. There are no final-convincing references, much less verifiable standards.

"Force always attracts men of low morality."

America's Commonwealth, Federal (U.S./National, and state Constitutions are subject to interpretation based on personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) held by judge, government chief executive, or legislator. Consequently, triumvirate officials maneuver to have their PAVB prevail as lawfully compulsory. We, as a sovereign citizenry, show scant penchant to have our PAVB resolve.

"Unthinking respect for authority is the greatest enemy of truth."

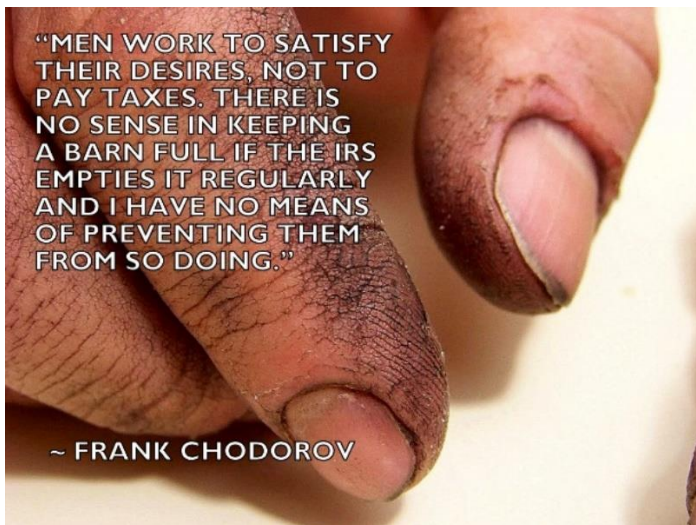

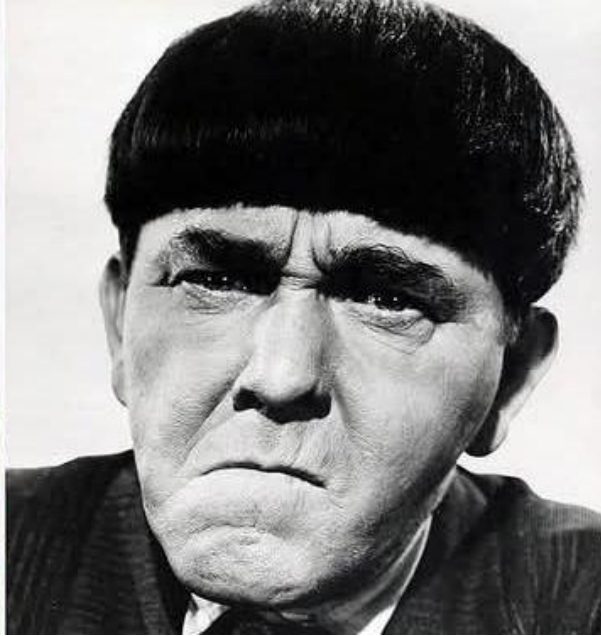

~ ~Albert Einstein

"We, the American People" have cause to pause and give some serious thought to stripping legislators, government chief executives, and judiciary members of their needless lawful power. By decentralizing said lawful power to America's lowest political subdivisions. There is nothing inconsistent with representative Constitutional republic governance by decentralizing lawful power to local jurisdiction.

"When politicians say 'I'm in politics,' it may or may not be possible to trust them, but when they say, 'I'm in public service,' you know you should flee."

~ Albert Jay Nock

"Our, the American People's" media routinely runs stories exemplifying justification to decentralize lawful power. Personal attacks on legislature members by legislature members, as opposed to persuasion by debate. Legislature votes cast by overwhelming partisanship. Legislatures exercising power to remove legislature members without constituent approval. Ouster power is denial power.

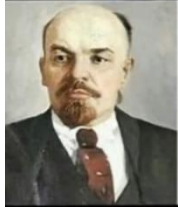

"Morality is always the product of terror; its chains and strait-waistcoats are fashioned by those who dare not trust others, because they dare not trust themselves, to walk in liberty."

So, we will continue to pray for President Biden, but America needs to go forward investigating the coverups.

Compassion leads us to pray for and be concerned for the health of the former installed President Joe Biden. As human beings we should show sympathy and compassion. However, the compassion for Biden's health issues should not stop the compassion we have for the health of America, as she suffers from the cancer of corruption in our nation, which is currently an epidemic within the Democrat Party.

Having been a person who received a cancer diagnosis, I know the journey can be scary, painful and in many cases long. My breast cancer was found very early, and I am now four years out and still cancer free.

I just realized that there is no legal requirement for presidents of the United States to have regular medical checkups. It has, however, become a customary practice, which led me to believe it was required. Personally, I think maybe it should be a requirement, with all the questionable peculiarities of Joe Biden's cognitive health. There has been a practice with modern-day presidents to undergo annual physicals and share the results with the public, even though neither is required of the presidents.

We know, or we were told, that Joe Biden had annual physicals. He did not allow the media to grill his doctors as they did when President Trump was #45. White House Physician, Dr. Ronnie Jackson (now House Representative, TX) underwent quite the interrogation over President Trump's health. The media asked all kinds of idiotic questions, like: does he watch too much tv, does he smoke, does he drink, does he do drugs, is he overweight, does he have dementia...etc., but they did not do the same for Joe Biden, in fact, they didn't even care to ask any of those questions, even though the most obvious question loomed over the majority of Americans. Apparently, those in Biden's administration never saw a need for a cognitive test for Joe. They never questioned his forgetfulness, his ability to be lost, imaginary hand shaking, frequent falls and lack of balance. There were many signs President Biden was in a poor state of health, yet Americans were told he was fine.

He was not fine! Joe hasn't been "fine" for a long time. Remember back in August of 2020, then candidate Joe Biden was interviewed by CBS correspondent Errol Barnett. During that interview Joe was asked if he would undergo a cognitive test, for which he angrily replied, "Why the hell would I do that? Come on man!"

Now, he has suddenly developed stage 4 prostate cancer. Am I the only American wondering how, with thorough health checkups the cancer did not have an early detection? I know it's aggressive, but seriously...

Joe Biden's last health physical took place in February 2024. At which time, his physician, Dr. Kevin O'Connor, declared him "fit to serve" and described him as a "healthy, active, robust 81-year-old male."

Upgrade to paid

Perhaps our sympathy should be that Joe Biden had such an incompetent physician. All the world could see, when foreign leaders have to help the President of the United States off and on the stage when he was speaking, and keep him from getting lost in the jungle; when America and the world watched Joe trip and fall numerous times... We had a more astute awareness of his declining health; physically and mentally than Dr. O'Connor did.

Then there was Joe Scarborough and Jake Tapper who both saw President Biden as healthy, active robust and sharp... but they were scripted to have such positive opinions. They and others, in their particular-liberal media groups, insulted any person who questioned Joe Biden's speech, saying he is a stutterer and all who question his ability are just mean and bigoted.

I'm not alone in my concerns, and unfortunately my suspicions, regarding former President Joe Biden's cancer disclosure. According to the Political Insider, several doctors are throwing cold water on Biden statement that doctors only found metastatic prostate cancer last week. https://thepoliticalinsider.com/doctors-throw-cold-water-on-biden-statement-that-doctors-only-found-metastatic-prostate-cancer-last-week/?utm\_medium=web-push&utm\_source=wp-send

Dr. Steven Quay, a doctor and pharmaceutical inventor who founded the Seattle-based company Atossa Therapeutics, wrote in a post on X Sunday,

"The PSA blood test shows the rate of cancer cell growth. For even with the most aggressive form, it is a 5-7 year journey without treatment before it becomes metastatic."

Dr. Ezekiel Emanuel, an oncologist Biden brought on to advise during the COVID-19 pandemic, said the former president likely had cancer at the beginning of his presidency.

Not to be political, but they say in politics, “Timing is everything.” I have also heard there are no “coincidences” in politics.

So, we will continue to pray for President Biden, but America needs to go forward investigating the coverup. His sudden diagnosis is more evidence of corruption and coverups!

Coming up later this week, we’ll talk about “The Desperation Of The Democrats.”

“Power tends to corrupt, and absolute power corrupts absolutely.” Lord Acton (John Emerich Edward Dalberg Acton).

~ Alan Burris

Governments Have Been Working at taxing unrealized gains a while. "We, the American People" would be utterly nuts to allow it. Governments might as well be allowed to tax people for being alive. Much as it may seem near beyond belief, head/poll taxes are a case in point. Head/poll taxes are taxes levied on people for no reason other than their existence. Lawful idiocy has no limit or extreme.

"Many people never grow up. They stay all their lives with a passionate need for external authority and guidance, pretending not to trust their own judgment."

~ Alan Watts

It Is Far From Impossible for someone to live acceptably well having nothing but a little land. People have done it for as long as there have been people. Governments, in their infinite wisdom, learned they could exact property (wealth) or labor from people. And they did. History's first known tax may have been levied by Egypt's Pharaohs. "Our, the American People's" legislators have refined taxation's art.

"Fire, water, and government know nothing of mercy."

~ Albanian proverb

America's Legislators Are Not Alone in exploiting taxation's art. Taxation is how people are able to benefit by confiscating other people's property (wealth), and restricting other people's choice (Liberty). Who came up with taxing unrealized gains figured out how to tax people for nothing. Why there is a tolerance for unrealized gains tax by "Us, the American People," and people elsewhere, is inscrutable.

"Freedom is not a reward or a decoration that is celebrated with champagne...Oh no! It's a...long distance race, quite solitary and very exhausting."

~ Albert Camus

● "I just think it's about just paying your fair share, for Lord's sake."

Biden supports a proposal to tax billionaires annually on unrealized investment gains

If People Allow Government to tax unrealized gains, then people might as well allow government to engage in forced labor. Small chance, because it could happen to anyone. Unrealized gains taxes are very likely, because unrealized gains taxes are, largely directed only at people who own property (wealth) deemed to have future value increase. Unrealized gains taxes are, therefore, discriminatory.
