AI does as it is told to do, much like a calculator.

Me and the boys thinking about thinking

“Our, the American People’s” historical socio-economic impact on civil and human rights, as a matter of record, is no more accurate if compiled by AI than if compiled by a researcher or research team. We would be smart to be wary of reports, studies, compendiums, or like works intended to influence how we form our views on civil and human rights. Attitudinal influence is a popular pastime for imbeciles.

“If politicians were serious about day care for children, instead of just sloganizing about it, nothing they could do would improve the quality of child care more than by lifting the heavy burden of taxation that forces so many families to have both parents working.”

There Are Enough Internet Articles on human/civil rights infringement and AI resistance/rebellion to keep inquiring minds busy for months. Years, if minds inquiring are of a lethargic bent. Sooner or later AI and civil/human rights will find their norms. Not, in all likelihood, without help from they who are relentless in their quest to have everyone think as they think, and marvel at their omniscience.

“The natural effort of every individual to better his own condition is so powerful that it is alone, and without any assistance, capable not only of carrying on the society to wealth and prosperity, but of surmounting 100 impertinent obstructions with which the folly of human laws too often encumbers its operations.”

"Our, the American People's" Congressional House of Representatives legislator Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez's (AOC) office staff is on record pronouncing America's wealthiest Americans steal $50B in wages each year. Calling on our trusty AI to confirm Ocasio-Cortez assertion raises myriad Internet articles on wage theft, including one article claiming some $1B in wage theft cases has been recovered.

"For libertarians, freedom entails the right of people to live their lives any way they choose, so long as their conduct is peaceful. For conservatives, freedom entails the right of government to do just about anything it wants, even if its conduct is violent."

~ Jacob Hornberger

New York City Muslim Mayor Zohran Mamdani today publicly called for America to align with Islam and "Prophet Muhammad" to support mass Muslim immigration, which is truly terrifying. He is also preparing to implement Sharia law in New York City!

$1B is 2% of $50B. "We, the American People" stand to right a hefty wrong if we make it our business to recover, say, another $49B each year. No reason why litigation expenses, as well, could not be paid by employers who steal. Given AOC's &50B assertion and related Internet articles are correct, a big bite out of poverty could be taken, not to mention potential for making gains against fraud overall.

Vice-President JD Vance has been tasked by President Donald J. Trump to spearhead federal efforts to root out and take steps to prevent America’s fraud. Waste, and abuse (FWA) as FWA steals from “us, the American People” as taxpayers. Would be quite a spectacle to see AOC and V-P JD team up for an all-out assault on FWA. Wouldn’t take long to see if they combine their talents on principle or policy.

Wages And Compensation Are Cost-of-Sales deductions for business expenses. If businesses committing wage theft are deducting related expenses not paid, then those businesses stand to be nailed for tax evasion. Employment terms and time worked ought be easily audited records. A wage theft recovery rate of 2% is meager compared to America's GDP. Theft, though, is theft Rarely excusable.

The American Crisis by Thomas Paine, December 23, 1776

There are cases which cannot be overdone by language, and this is one. There are persons, too, who see not the full extent of the evil which threatens them; they solace themselves with hopes that the enemy, if he succeed, will be merciful. It is the madness of folly, to expect mercy from those who have refused to do justice; and even mercy, where conquest is the object, is only a trick of war; the cunning of the fox is as murderous as the violence of the wolf, and we ought to guard equally against both. Howe’s first object is, partly by threats and partly by promises, to terrify or seduce the people to deliver up their arms and receive mercy. The ministry recommended the same plan to Gage, and this is what the Tories call making their peace, “a peace which passeth all understanding” indeed! A peace which would be the immediate forerunner of a worse ruin than any we have yet thought of. Ye men of Pennsylvania, do reason upon these things! Were the back counties to give up their arms, they would fall an easy prey to the Indians, who are all armed: this perhaps is what some Tories would not be sorry for. Were the home counties to deliver up their arms, they would be exposed to the resentment of the back counties who would then have it in their power to chastise their defection at pleasure. And were any one state to give up its arms, that state must be garrisoned by all Howe’s army of Britons and Hessians to preserve it from the anger of the rest. Mutual fear is the principal link in the chain of mutual love, and woe be to that state that breaks the compact. Howe is mercifully inviting you to barbarous destruction, and men must be either rogues or fools that will not see it. I dwell not upon the vapors of imagination; I bring reason to your ears, and, in language as plain as A, B, C, hold up truth to your eyes.

(The American Crisis Continues by Beth Ann)

Evil is present in our nation, it is disguised by political party and presented as compassion for the sins of the criminals, while ignoring the pain and death of the innocent victims. We have reached an era in America which I thought we would never see. There are those who are blinded by the heavy fog of propaganda and others who are swayed by the power of gaslighting, they have been led to believe evil is good and good is now evil! They are told that they should be ashamed of their skin color and for their successes. Perhaps times have changed, but sin has not. Isaiah 5:20 warned of such times; “Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; Who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; Who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!”

Do not be deceived by those sheep in wolves clothing. We have one political party today that is bidding for every White House policy to fail, for our nation to suffer, for our economy to collapse, for our military to fall, and they verbally remark they'd rejoice if our President were to be assassinated. How can we not conclude that these are now enemies of our entire nation?

Our battle today is for the restoration of our Constitutional Republic. A republic, for which Thomas Paine dreamt of, but we somehow neglected to keep. We have reaped Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness by the blood of many brave American Patriots, it's time that we honored them all by saving our Republic.

It is our time now to rise up and battle for our nation, not necessarily by sword, but by commonsense and the authority vested in We the People; Consent of the Governed. A Republic only works if the Republic (the People) are working and paying attention. But if the sword be required today, will you save this great Republic for the ones that you love; your children, grandchildren and greatgrandchildren: Our Posterity?

Let me use Thomas Paine's words:

There are cases which cannot be overdone by language, and this is one. There are persons, too, who see not the full extent of the evil which threatens them; they solace themselves with hopes that the enemy, if he succeed, will be merciful. It is the madness of folly, to expect mercy from those who have refused to do justice; and even mercy, where conquest is the object, is only a trick of war; the cunning of the fox is as murderous as the violence of the wolf, and we ought to guard equally against both.

As Thomas Paine was straight forward regarding his ill feelings for, and the dangers of the Tories, I will be blunt in my perception of the one political party today that is swearing their allegiance to destroy our Constitutional Republic.

It is evident today that the most dangerous enemy to America is the Democrat Party, and the second most dangerous are those who believe all the violence and chaos we are experiencing is nothing more than “politics.” It is madness of folly to believe the lies that the Democrat (Marxist) Party is spreading. President Trump is not the enemy of America. Those who declare America was evil from its beginning are the true enemies. When they say that they want (and will) fundamentally change our governance in America, they are the true enemies; they are the insurrectionists! The Democrat Party has denied God; that alone should cause chills of fear down your spine.

The Democrat Party is loyal only to their want for absolute power. They are the party of slavery! They are the party of abortion! They are the party of Jim Crow! They are the party ready to remove the Bill of Rights and force their tyranny upon all Americans. If they ever gain power again, it will be the end of America; no longer will there be the great land of opportunity for all who are willing to work hard. Before they seize all power, they will remove your rights; in particular, the Second Amendment; your right to keep and bear arms. You must understand, all tyrants disarm their citizens.

It is the madness of folly, to expect mercy from those who have refused to do justice.

The Democrat Party is promising to go after President Trump’s administration, destroy our Constitution, ignore your Inalienable rights, they hate the Declaration of Independence and they will not be celebrating America’s 250th year anniversary... out of spite and hatred for our President, they will say – but it’s really their hate for The United States of America... AND YOU!

Should they once again gain power, justice will not be the focus of the Marxist-democrats. They will focus on punishing those who speak against this new regime and punish those who worked against this regime. To believe they will show mercy, as Thomas Paine stated, “would be the madness of folly.” There will be no mercy...none whatsoever! Liberty, Independence, and Freedom are not words that cross the lips of tyrants, such as the Marxist-democrats.

As Thomas Paine wrote of hope and success of Independence, we too should feel that same hope today. Hope lies not in the politicians, but in the awareness of the American citizens. This is the time when we must take back control of our government and those political parties. As one party now declares its allegiance to “fundamentally change” America, Americans should be committed to put an end to that particular party. We must show no mercy to our enemies, but give to them exactly what they are asking for. I am serious about this: those who have committed crimes against our nation must be punished and those who remain loyal to Marxism must leave. After our revolutionary war and our winning of Independence, those who remained loyal to the motherland and their King were allowed to leave. If they don't love America, they must leave America!

Perhaps those are harsh words, but if we want America to be peaceful and free for our children and grandchildren, we must get rid of all those who would enslave them for their own selfish desire for power. “If there must be trouble, let it be in my day, that my child may have peace.”

Consider these words seriously and let us, We the People...

Or, so, saith AI when queried on SCOTUS philosophical leaning. AI, though, like most informational sources, has variations on a given theme. It is, thus, our problem to solve whether SCOTUS philosophical leaning is of import.

Nothing In America's Triumvirate Governmental system is absolute. Laws, until they are implemented and carried out, are nothing more than efforts by legislators, government chief executives, judges, and a variety of activists to have thier personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) made lawfully compulsory. And even then, laws are subject to challenge, public rejection, and rescission.
