"[S]tatism is a system of institutionalized violence and perpetual civil war. It leaves men no choice but to fight to seize political power -- to rob or be robbed, to kill or be killed. ... Statism survives by looting; a free country survives by production."

~ Ayn Rand

"We, the American People," as individuals, have absolutely no right to fill suits under America's Voting Rights Act (VRA). So, goes a pronouncement from America's 8th Circuit Court of Appeals. So, goes a media report. One level to go. America's Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS). SCOTUS may decide to hear VAR argument. May is may not. Courts are able to pick their poison.

"The only power the government has is the power to crack down on criminals. Well, when there aren't enough criminals one makes them. One declares so many things to be a crime that it becomes impossible for men to live without breaking laws."

~ Ayn Rand

It Is Curious How "Our, the American People's" courts can pick and choose their cases. As curious, America's SCOTUS can decide case outcomes without so much as convening court. America's SCOTUS can, at SCOTUS leisure, say Yea or Nea to a case appeal. Should SCOTUS say NAY, related appeals court, effectively gets to say Yea or Nay, as a matter of its pleasure. SCOTUS buck-passing.

"The difference between a welfare state and a totalitarian state is a matter of time."

~ Ayn Rand

Were SCOTUS To Say Yea to hearing a case, there is no guarantee how SCOTUS might render an opinion. SCOTUS Justices, having deliberated case argument(s), would pass judgement based on personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) SCOTUS Justices hold near and dear. Should there happen to be an even number of SCOTUS Justices deliberating, a tie vote is SCOTUS concurrence.

"Now those who seek absolute power, even though they seek it to do what they regard as good, are simply demanding the right to enforce their own version of heaven on earth, and let me remind you they are the very ones who always create the most hellish tyranny."

~ Barry Goldwater

Complication For "Us, the American People" is not yet over. A solitary SCOTUS Justice can decide a SCOTUS outcome – either way – by not voting. Deciding not to vote is no more than a matter of a Justice-held PAVB. Justice, as a matter of Constitutionality or established law, has no bearing. None. Leads one to wonder how SCOTUS could be overturned. Congressional legislation. Or, public bile.

"A government that is big enough to give you all you want is big enough to take it all away."

"Our, the American People's" media are keeping tabs on President Donald J. Trump's on-going war with America's judiciary over deportation. Whoever is winning this battle could boil down to a matter of perspective. Deport advocates win when courts side with President Donald J.'s steps to move illegal immigrants/migrants/refugees (IIMR) offshore; open-border advocates if courts rule against such steps.

"There is no difference between communism and socialism, except in the means of achieving the same ultimate end: communism proposes to enslave men by force, socialism -- by vote. It is merely the difference between murder and suicide."

~ Ayn Rand

It's Not Completely Clear if Americans win or lose when IIMR people are whisked away. Nor, it is completely clear if IIMR win. "We, the American People," as taxpayers, pay court costs whenever deportation cases are on dockets. No question, innocent IIMR kids face uncertain lives when they remain IIMR-bound. Adult IIMR people less so; they are capable of fending for themselves more so.

"It stands to reason that where there's sacrifice, there's someone collecting sacrificial offerings. Where there's service, there's someone being served. The man who speaks to you of sacrifice, speaks of slaves and masters. And intends to be the master."

On A Related Matter, A Foreign media outlet claims President Donald J. Trump's Administration is quietly going about recruiting silent partners to boycott abortion clinics. Media coverage has it silent partner Administration move amounts to a clandestine attack on free speech. Whether government has a legitimate role in abortion is, quite possible, a contest ever remaining with "Us, the American People"

It Is Arguable Government And Liberty are in a constant state of tension. Government amounts to force. Whether force is just amounts to who gets to make their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) lawfully compulsory. Impossible to know for certain when people are prepared to have their PAVB made lawfully compulsory, apart from legislative/judicial acts. PAVB thoughts remain synaptic.

America is in trouble; The American Crisis Continues

8-16-2024

When I sit and ponder the issues, the problems, and the crises that we are contending with today in this nation, it seems like the problems are the same; nothing has changed. I know I've spoken about this before, but think about it, the only change is that the problems have grown to an existential threat to our Liberty. They haven't improved or gone away; they have grown.

Comma-comma-Communist Kamala and Tyrannical Tim

These two are the epitome of what is wrong, VERY wrong in America. It isn't just the Democrat Party, but they are extremely vocal and proud of the infractions against the American people.

The statement, "I'm from the government and I'm here to help you," – should bring trimmers of terror through your being.

Society in every state is a blessing, but government even in its best state is but a necessary evil; in its worst state an intolerable one; for when we suffer, or are exposed to the same miseries by a government, which we might expect in a country without government, our calamity is heightened by reflecting that we furnish the means by which we suffer. Thomas Paine

Government is not reason, it is not eloquence-it is force! Like fire it is a dangerous servant and a fearful master; never for a moment should it be left to irresponsible action. George Washington

The phrases in those two quotes to consider as we continue are: “reflecting that we furnish the means by which we suffer”... and ... “never for a moment should it be left to irresponsible action.”

In 2009 I received an article by Charley Reese, titled, 545 vs. 300,000,000. The numbers in the title are referring to: One hundred senators, 435 congressmen, one President, and nine Supreme Court justices equates to 545 human beings out of the 300 million are directly, legally, morally, and individually responsible for the domestic problems that plague this country.

He continues in his article about the “issues” of the day:

Politicians are the only people in the world who create problems and then campaign against them.

Have you ever wondered, if both the Democrats and the Republicans are against deficits, WHY do we have deficits?

Have you ever wondered, if all the politicians are against inflation and high taxes, WHY do we have inflation and high taxes?

You and I don't propose a federal budget. The President does.

You and I don't have the Constitutional authority to vote on appropriations. The House of Representatives does.

You and I don't write the tax code, Congress does.

You and I don't set fiscal policy, Congress does.

Then he continued explaining:

If the tax code is unfair, it's because they want it unfair.

If the budget is in the red, it's because they want it in the red.

If the Army & Marines are in Iraq and Afghanistan it's because they want them in Iraq and Afghanistan.

If they do not receive social security but are on an elite retirement plan not available to the people, it's because they want it that way.

There are no insoluble government problems, he wrote.

That was 2009 and here we are today, in 2024, with the same issues only on an even larger and more dangerous scale. Have these problems now reached an “insoluble” state?

The American Crisis Continues Before we can solve any of the problems we need to dissolve the “state.” What state? Our U.S. government is no longer a Constitutional Republic, it is now an oligarchy of “rulers and dictators.” Those who are now making the rules and leading America into a state of world-wide-communism (Globalism), are not elected by We the People. This state of self-established ruling class elitists needs to be broken up (fired) and removed from positions of authority. Until we are able to disband and dissolve this rogue government (oligarchy), our state of affairs will only grow worse and farther away from Liberty.

Politicians and media talk and talk. Congress announces one investigation after the other to expose the corruption, but nothing is ever resolved, nobody (in government) is ever punished for the laws they’ve broken or treason they have committed against our Constitutional Government.

While it has been suspect for a long time, we now know that the elected President is not the person making the decisions and calling the shots for our nation. This is completely unconstitutional and it is without a doubt a form of treason against We the People and our Constitutional Republic.

I recently watched a chit-chat interview between Sean Hannity, Alan Dershowitz and Gregg Jarrett. They were discussing the allegations against President Trump. All were in agreement that the charges were made up and bogus and that the reason for the “get Trump” trials was purely political. As they continued with their conversation, they discussed the Hunter Biden corruption and the involvement of his dad, the President of the United States of America. It sounded as if all agreed that there was no doubt in the absolute corruption, but what disturbed me was that the Constitutional expert (proud democrat-Mr. Dershowitz) didn’t think any of them (including Trump) should be prosecuted. Of course, Trump’s charges were imagined and made-up, felonious crimes, but the Bidens’? Their profiting from Joe Biden’s political position (selling America out) was treason and absolutely should be prosecuted! Mr. Dershowitz is wrong! He calls himself a liberal-democrat but he is a socialist, as he too believes “government is here to help you,” with all their expensive programs and alphabet departments of overpaid bureaucrats. Alan is a knowledgeable man, but he loses my confidence when he talks about how “his party” is wrong, unconstitutionally going after Trump, yet he will still vote against President Trump. It doesn’t make good sense! It isn’t patriotic and he isn’t protecting America’s Constitution with such reasoning. Writing books defending Trump and exposing the corruption of the democrats isn’t stopping the corruption; it isn’t writing their wrongs, and if he continues to vote democrat, he is a part of the problem! Shouldn’t he, as a Constitutional scholar be protecting Americans from a rogue government system and not protecting the rogue government system from the people or the law? That is not justice!

As a side thought, I have always wondered why we have so many Constitutional genius lawyers on TV talking about the unjust attacks on President Trump and against the J6 prisoners, YET none of them are there on the steps of that prison, or the doorsteps of those courtrooms defending these political hostages in America.

Crimes against this nation by politicians and bureaucrats seem to be just a everyday occurrence in the life of the oligarchy. If we do not disband and dissolve this rogue government, the United States of America will cease to exist; we will no longer be a free people. Truth is, we are not free now!

“Comma-comma-communist “Kamala” and her cowardly side-kick Tim, Walzing to the tune of tyranny, will not be the ones making the decisions for America. Their political rhetoric serves only one purpose; to protect the oligarchy and keep them in power! They can talk a great political game, but they are just making promises that the oligarchy has no intention of honoring.

This coup of a rogue government is why they are fighting to keep President Trump out of the White House, should We the People manage to foil their election fraud tactics and elect him again.

America is in trouble; The American Crisis Continues.

Our ancestors were dealing with a dictator king and he too had governors (unelected by the people) who were spending much of their time making life miserable for the American colonists.

Grievance #10 from the Declaration of Independence states, “He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and sent hither swarms of Officers to harass our people, and eat out their substance.”

When we are being governed by people we did not vote into office, we are under tyranny!

The issues and the problems will never be solved, they will most certainly continue to escalate. The unelected do not fear for their jobs because We the People cannot fire them! (spoiler alert, President Trump plans to fire them!)

The elites who are running our government are worse than the king who burdened our past. Perhaps we are too removed from our own history to understand the danger we are now under.

Let this be a calling for each of us to read and re-read those documents, especially the Declaration of Independence.

As we edge closer to election day, November 5, consider the promises now being made by Kamala Harris and weigh them with what she has actually done and not done. If President Biden has not been the one governing, then, as VP it all falls on her. If she is not the one bearing the responsibility, then we know that the rogue government was the true insurrection of our Constitutional Republic, Kamala was involved and, (sorry Alan) they all need to be “locked up” for treason! Personally, I support hefty fines, stripping them of their U.S. citizenship and giving them a one-way trip out of the nation to a “country” of their choice. The medias that have gone along with this insurrection of our Constitutional Republic should no longer be allowed to broadcast in The United States of America. Free speech is not there to protect the enemies of our Constitutional Republic. Lying and withholding truth from We the People should never be tolerated.

All these political promises and finger pointing at our problems with hollow promises of solutions... Is Nothin' New, But It Sure Is Getting' Old!

Tyranny; It's nothing new but it sure is getting old!

Let's make a difference America, let's stand up for justice and Bring America Home.©

"We, the American People," being of inquiring mind, might be inclined to do some brutally clear inquiring on taxation. We might, for example, seek Internet articles on who pays for tax cuts, or, who bears tax cut burdens. We would do well to be prepared for near endless notions of who gets mailed, who benefits from taxation hikes or cuts. And, we ought not be surprised at radically differing notions.

"Statism survives by looting; a free country survives by production."

~ Ayn Rand

Once All Tax-Related Money Trails are followed, it will come painfully or comfortingly clear to "Us, the American People" there is one person who both benefits, and is nailed by, taxation. Said;person is none other than Consumer. We can use every political argument we can muster to say who gets nailed most, who benefits most, who's treated fairly or unfairly. All chips in, Consumer carries taxation load.

"What is the basic, the essential, the crucial principle that differentiates freedom from slavery? It is the principle of voluntary action versus physical coercion or compulsion."

“Our, the American People’s” federal legislators are, these days – every day, in reality – grappling over how they can jostle to gain maximum leverage over how President Donald J. Trump’s ‘Big, Beautiful Bill’ shall work in their favor to confiscate property (wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty) so they can remain in office. We would do well to consider why we put them in office to begin with.

"Do not ever say that the desire to 'do good' by force is a good motive. Neither power-lust nor stupidity are good motives."

~ Ayn Rand

On Balance, Articles Addressing President Donald J. Trump’s ‘Beautiful Bill’ predict his bill will add to America’s national debt by thousands of millions over coming decade. Articles have it tax cuts, mostly, benefit wealthier people, not work-a-day folk. Odd, given Consumer pays for all, thus, pays less when tax cuts yo business lower business cost-of-sales. Lower-cost-of-sales enables lower prices.
