

mansion tax has made housing shortages worse. Reason being, coverage accurate, so-called ‘mansion tax’ is applied to bulti purpose buildings, including multi family apartment buildings. Consumers pay.

Taxes, In Business, Are One Factor making up Cost-of-Sales. Cost-of-Sales drives price. Consumers pay prices. Thus, consumers pay taxes as part of a business Cost-of-Sales. While mansion owners pay ‘mansion taxes,’ mulita-purpose building occupants pay those ‘mansion taxes’ applied to multi-purpose buildings, including multi-family apartment buildings. Taxes become a factor in housing shortages.

“Our, the American People’s” analytical AI sources confirm costs contribute to shortages. Connection is, for example, AI on point, when housing development/operating costs outpace income growth, shortages occur in terms of affordability. It is reasonable, therefore, to conclude ‘mansion taxes’ are a significant factor contributing to housing shortages occurring because of housing development taxes.

It Would Be Smart For “Us, the American People” to stop government from trying to bring about equity by taxing wealthy people under higher or expanded taxation. Taxation decreases total wealth for entrepreneurship. Entrepreneurism creates jobs. Jobs contribute to building equity. Equity contributes to prosperity. We are misguided by allowing taxation to diminish wealth’s creative power.

It's Just Not A Good Idea. Not a good idea for former Vice-President and unsuccessful presidential candidate Kamala Harris to run for president, come General Election 2028. Numbers-wise, “We, the American People” could figure her odds are not so bad, despite President Donald J Trump having won Electoral College 2024 vote by a commanding margin. Harris lost Popular Vote 2024 by just 1.5%.

There Are Examples Of Campaign Rhetoric indicating election candidates are not persuaded voters do not vote their wallets. Two examples are, “It’s the economy, stupid,” and “Are you better of now than you were four years ago.” Why voters would cast their ballots for candidates promising to take more of their property (wealth) might be prevalent, depending on notions of nurturing common good.

The American Crisis* by Thomas Paine, December 23, 1776

There are cases which cannot be overdone by language, and this is one. There are persons, too, who see not the full extent of the evil which threatens them; they solace themselves with hopes that the enemy, if he succeed, will be merciful. It is the madness of folly, to expect mercy from those who have refused to do justice; and even mercy, where conquest is the object, is only a trick of war; the cunning of the fox is as murderous as the violence of the wolf, and we ought to guard equally against both. Howe's first object is, partly by threats and partly by promises, to terrify or seduce the people to deliver up their arms and receive mercy. The ministry recommended the same plan to Gage, and this is what the tories call making their peace, "a peace which passeth all understanding" indeed! A peace which would be the immediate forerunner of a worse ruin than any we have yet thought of. Ye men of Pennsylvania, do reason upon these things! Were the back counties to give up their arms, they would fall an easy prey to the Indians, who are all armed: this perhaps is what some Tories would not be sorry for. Were the home counties to deliver up their arms, they would be exposed to the resentment of the back counties who would then have it in their power to chastise their defection at pleasure. And were any one state to give up its arms, that state must be garrisoned by all Howe's army of Britons and Hessians to preserve it from the anger of the rest. Mutual fear is the principal link in the chain of mutual love, and woe be to that state that breaks the compact. Howe is mercifully inviting you to barbarous destruction, and men must be either rogues or fools that will not see it. I dwell not upon the vapors of imagination; I bring reason to your ears, and, in language as plain as A, B, C, hold up truth to your eyes.

(The American Crisis Continues by Beth Ann)

Evil is present in our nation, it is disguised by political party and presented as compassion for the sins of the criminals, while ignoring the pain and death of the innocent victims. We have reached an era in America which I thought we would never see. There are those who are blinded by the heavy fog of propaganda and others who are swayed by the power of gaslighting, they have been led to believe evil is good and good is now evil! They are told that they should be ashamed of their skin color and for their successes. Perhaps times have changed, but sin has not. Isaiah 5:20 warned of such times; “Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil; Who put darkness for light, and light for darkness; Who put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!”

Do not be deceived by those sheep in wolves clothing. We have one political party today that is bidding for every White House policy to fail, for our nation to suffer, for our economy to collapse, for our military to fall, and they verbally remark they'd rejoice if our President were to be assassinated. How can we not conclude that these are now enemies of our entire nation?

Our battle today is for the restoration of our Constitutional Republic. A republic, for which Thomas Paine dreamt of, but we somehow neglected to keep. We have reaped Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness by the blood of many brave American Patriots, it's time that we honored them all by saving our Republic.

It is our time now to rise up and battle for our nation, not necessarily by sword, but by commonsense and the authority vested in We the People; Consent of the Governed. A Republic only works if the Republic (the People) are working and paying attention. But if the sword be required today, will you save this great Republic for the ones that you love; your children, grandchildren and greatgrandchildren: Our Posterity?

Let me use Thomas Paine's words:

There are cases which cannot be overdone by language, and this is one. There are persons, too, who see not the full extent of the evil which threatens them; they solace themselves with hopes that the enemy, if he succeed, will be merciful. It is the madness of folly, to expect mercy from those who have refused to do justice; and even mercy, where conquest is the object, is only a trick of war; the cunning of the fox is as murderous as the violence of the wolf, and we ought to guard equally against both.

As Thomas Paine was straight forward regarding his ill feelings for, and the dangers of the Tories, I will be blunt in my perception of the one political party today that is swearing their allegiance to destroy our Constitutional Republic.

It is evident today that the most dangerous enemy to America is the Democrat Party, and the second most dangerous are those who believe all the violence and chaos we are experiencing is nothing more than "politics." It is madness of folly to believe the lies that the Democrat (Marxist) Party is spreading. President Trump is not the enemy of America. Those who declare America was evil from its beginning are the true enemies. When they say that they want (and will) fundamentally change our governance in America, they are the true enemies; they are the insurrectionists! The Democrat Party has denied God; that alone should cause chills of fear down your spine.

The Democrat Party is loyal only to their want for absolute power. They are the party of slavery! They are the party of abortion! They are the party of Jim Crow! They are the party ready to remove the Bill of Rights and force their tyranny upon all Americans. If they ever gain power again, it will be the end of America; no longer will there be the great land of opportunity for all who are willing to work hard. Before they seize all power, they will remove your rights; in particular, the Second Amendment; your right to keep and bear arms. You must understand, all tyrants disarm their citizens.

It is the madness of folly, to expect mercy from those who have refused to do justice.

The Democrat Party is promising to go after President Trump's administration, destroy our Constitution, ignore your Inalienable rights, they hate the Declaration of Independence and they will not be celebrating America's 250th year anniversary... out of spite and hatred for our President, they will say – but it's really their hate for The United States of America... AND YOU!

Should they once again gain power, justice will not be the focus of the Marxist-democrats. They will focus on punishing those who speak against this new regime and punish those who worked against this regime. To believe they will show mercy, as Thomas Paine stated, “would be the madness of folly.” There will be no mercy...none whatsoever! Liberty, Independence, and Freedom are not words that cross the lips of tyrants, such as the Marxist-democrats.

As Thomas Paine wrote of hope and success of Independence, we too should feel that same hope today. Hope lies not in the politicians, but in the awareness of the American citizens. This is the time when we must take back control of our government and those political parties. As one party now declares its allegiance to “fundamentally change” America, Americans should be committed to put an end to that particular party. We must show no mercy to our enemies, but give to them exactly what they are asking for. I am serious about this: those who have committed crimes against our nation must be punished and those who remain loyal to Marxism must leave. After our revolutionary war and our winning of Independence, those who remained loyal to the motherland and their King were allowed to leave. If they don’t love America, they must leave America!

Perhaps those are harsh words, but if we want America to be peaceful and free for our children and grandchildren, we must get rid of all those who would enslave them for their own selfish desire for power. “If there must be trouble, let it be in my day, that my child may have peace.”

Consider these words seriously and let us, We the People...

Dear Mr. Llamas, reporters, Mr. Panlilio and Reuters Business Development officers,

Thank you for your kind call this morning and for your willingness to review my business development proposal and bring it to the attention of your superiors.

1. I worked at Thomson Reuters's Lawyers Cooperative Publishing (LCP) as a researcher-writer for ALR Fed (American Law Reports, Federal). I left LCP to attend The University of Michigan Business School, where I earned a Master's in Business Administration. This is a proposal for a business and a venture that can benefit Thomson Reuters, others, me, and millions of insureds.
2. I propose that Reuters Business Development gain access as a sponsor to the 64,102+ subscribers to my website Judicial Discipline Reform at <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org> as of 21 May 2026, in exchange for compensation and the granting to me of access to WestLaw services and books.
3. My website subscribers read the articles that I write in long form, that is, consisting of more than 1,000 words...and ask for more. They are interested in the intricacies of the law and the way I discuss them. It is reasonable to expect them to be intellectually demanding and certainly educated, influential, and well-off. They can afford Reuters's products and services as well as those advertised by third-parties, be they law-related or addressed to other needs of affluent people(C infra).

4. Convinced by experience of the substantial usefulness of Reuters's offerings for finding and arguing the law, I have praised them in a series of articles.¹ The latter and similar ones are collected in my three-volume study² exposing abuse of power; collectively demanding compensation; and setting in motion a national movement for transformatively reforming the system of justice.
5. Just as my study exposes abuses of power by the judiciary and other public and private entities, so did Reuters in its series of articles exposing the riskless abuse of power by state judges and the state commissions charged with supervising their conduct(OL3:1825). It described them as intertwined by "hardwired judicial corruption". It titled the series "The Teflon Robe".(App:6§C¶491)³
6. This is the most opportune time for us to join forces on behalf of the 70 million insureds abused by Medicare and its healthcare insurers. They coordinate their running of an insurance fraud scheme whose modus operandi centers on committing claim evasive "delay, deny, defend" tactics.
7. That word triptych has been made known by Luigi Mangione. He allegedly killed the CEO, Brian Thompson, of United Healthcare on 4 December 2024. His impending trial will attract journalists from NYC, NYS, the rest of the country, and abroad. We can benefit by interesting them in investigating an angle unavailable to Mangione as justification for murder: how Medicare and its insurers abuse their insureds with those tactics because they are old, sick, disabled, and ignorant of the law.
8. The joint venture's timing is optimal: Mangione's trial will be held in the federal court where I am prosecuting a civil case⁴ intended to be a test case in the public interest of exposing, not the abuse inflicted on one insured, but rather how those tactics work(^{4>}SDNY:156§L) and abuse millions.
9. The strategy(§A, B infra) aims to turn my website from an informational source into a rallying point where an informed and outraged public organizes to compel primaries and mid-term elections candidates to make this issue a key one of theirs; hold public hearings; and undertake reform. I offer to present it to you and your guests, whether in person if in your NYC offices, or anywhere else if my expenses and fee are covered; otherwise, via video conference.

So, I look forward to hearing from you.⁵

Dare shout "I accuse!"
You may trigger history and even enter it as a Champion of Justice.

Sincerely,

Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.
