~ Bruce Barton

America's Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) has, once again, shown "Us, the American People" SCOTUS Justices can pick and choose cases as they deem fit and proper. Based on how SCOTUS Justices apply their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB). Media report four SCOTUS Justices opted to sit out on a case. Sort of like America's SCOTUS going on a labor strike.

"Throughout the history of the United States, war has been the primary impetus behind the growth and development of the central state. It has been the lever by which presidents and other national officials have bolstered the power of the state in the face of tenacious popular resistance."

~ Bruce D. Porter

Granted, "We, the American People" if we're at all level-headed, don't want America's judges adjudicating with other than clear heads. Reason would dictate; however, we do not want America's courts getting lazy, and backing off cases they find are too controversial to handle. Or, happen to challenge PAVB held by presiding judges. Doubtful ordinary people could deny showing up for court.

"It is poor civic hygiene to install technologies that could someday facilitate a police state."

of the story

Fairness And Ethics, For Certain, Play a significant role in America's courts serving justice. It would not be acceptable – one would think, for, say, a Muslim-Faith judge to recuse herself because she would be presiding over a trial where an accused individual is Christian-Faith religion professor. Arguably, someone of Islam Faith would be more-or-less bound to diminish a Christian-Faith person. Always.

"Terrorists can only take my life. Only my government can take my freedom."

~ Bruce Schneier

It Would Be Smart if "Our, the American People's" judicial system were subject to review by an independent regularity and review commission (IRRC), of sorts, as a matter of course. Such IRRC would need no credential-like status, more populated by regular folk willing to engage in justice system objectivity deliberation. Such IRRC could publish findings, America's sovereign citizenry assess.

"I can scarcely contemplate a greater calamity that could befall this country, than be loaded with a debt exceeding their ability ever to discharge."

~ Brutus

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to cause any citizen to be drawn into an obligation to assume responsibility for public debt for reasons other than to defend these United States. They require elected leaders to defend America's liberty unequivocally.

“Our, the American People’s” media has a short-and-sweet report on federal Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent saying he will not do anything about rising housing costs. Report in question inference being Secretary Bessent (government) has some obligation to keep housing costs at some level decided by they who maintain government needs to control economic activity, especially prices. No easy task.

"The task of government in this enlightened time does not extend to actually dealing with problems. Solving problems might put bureaucrats out of work."

AZ QUOTES

Hollywood dramatized "So Let It Be Written, so let it be done" in film, TEN COMMANDMENTS, where an Egyptian Pharaoh ordered his commands to be followed without exception. Turned out Pharaoh's commands could not be enforced. Unlikely Treasury Scott Bessent would be able to control housing costs through legislation or regulation to satisfy whoever wants housing costs at some level.

"You can't trust politicians. It doesn't matter who makes a political speech. It's all lies - and it applies to any rock star who wants to make a political speech as well."

~ Bob Geldof

It Would Be Smart For “Us, the American People” to not believe or expect government is, somehow, (somehow being by issuing dictates) able to force economic reality in our favor. Could government do so, no one would have to pay for anything, ever. As it turns out, we, as consumers, have power – purchasing power, to make prices acceptable. Economic principles include demand influence on price.

"Every day politicians say, 'I can make a better decision for you than you can for yourself, and let me take your money away from you and make it on your behalf' and thus make the nation poorer."

Soulless--great word for bureaucrats.

Legislative Office Candidates, And Legislators in office who would like to be seated in more influential legislative office, are not averse to vowing they would reduce prices if we would put them in offices occupied by legislators who could, if they only would - in consideration of everyday Americans - lower prices for necessities. Necessities like any necessities anyone says they must have.

"For every action there is an equal and opposite government program."

What the Founding Fathers created in the Constitution is the most magnificent government on the face of the Earth, and the reason is this: because it was intended to preserve the American society and the American spirit, not to transform it or destroy it.

The headlines of today lead me to feel that we, as a nation, are a leaning tower of tyranny. Perhaps we are in such a slant as to be leaning at a tilt that is at least at a 70-degree angle and falling down into complete tyranny and slavery of We the People.

No longer do we hear any commentators speak words of protecting Americans, in fact it is quite the opposite. While President Trump is known for his name calling of his adversaries, he doesn't pick a complete group of Americans citizens and trash them, as Hillary Clinton did. She referred to Americans who might want safety and freedom, who might possibly believe in God, and who stand on the Bill of Rights, taking each one literally and seriously, as a Basket of Deplorables, who are irredeemable. And then there was Obama, claiming that "rural Americans" all cling to their God and their guns. I ask him, "What do you cling to besides your ego and your money?" I am however proud to be considered a member of the Basket of Deplorables, I'm not worried about those conceited politicians seeing me as irredeemable, for my Savior, Jesus Christ is my Redeemer!

However, I am concerned that many Americans today are fearful of politicians, media and our government. We have watched in the past several years, as the DOJ has handcuffed and arrested political rivals, while allowing criminals to go free and commit violence against American citizens.

It is also true, unfortunately, that We the People have become dependent on government policies and social programs for the necessities of life: food, clothing, shelter, our health and educational institutions, etc.

Will we not be willing to sacrifice even just a tiny bit in order to secure the future for our grandchildren?

Perhaps it is not only FEAR that keeps us from living as a FREE people!

Perhaps, we no longer LOVE our country. My love for this nation is strong, and I cannot understand why others do not see this nation's unique beauty and love her too. She is not perfect, but she used to be free, safe and fair. Can we not remember those days?

If justice is in the hands of whoever is in power, we are no longer free and there is no justice.

Upgrade to paid

To remain reticent or silent is not the way of a Free People! Tyranny abounds when We the People are apathetic. If we are already living in fear, then we are already under tyranny.

I do not say or write these things to discourage you but to wake you up and call us, all of us, We the People to action. We can no longer ignore the tyranny and evil that is reigning over our sweet America. If we remain so complacent we condemn our children and grandchildren to government slavery.

“Those who would give up essential liberty to purchase a little temporary safety, deserve neither liberty nor safety.” Benjamin Franklin

“Let them call me rebel and welcome, I feel no concern from it; but I should suffer the misery of devils, were I to make a whore of my soul by swearing allegiance to one whose character is that of a sottish, stupid, stubborn, worthless, brutish man.” — Thomas Paine, The Crisis

Thomas Paine was not so afraid that he should concern himself of another's precious political feelings. I do not believe any of our brave Founding Fathers would have concerned themselves over which pronoun to use for some spoiled, not yet weened or self-reliant, childish adolescent.

Patrick Henry just witnessed a man flogged to death by the “government” (king). Was that to be the future of America? He was not going to allow fear to guide him away from the dream and want of living Free: Liberty!

Should I keep back my opinions at such a time, through fear of giving offense, I should consider myself as guilty of treason towards my country, and of an act of disloyalty toward the Majesty of Heaven, which I revere above all earthly kings.... Patrick Henry - It was at the end of this very speech, that Patrick Henry finished with a profound statement, “Give me liberty or give me death!”

The man Patrick Henry watched being flogged, died of that brutal beating! His crime? He was a minister who refused to take a license from the King. Yet today we have news hosts claiming “Christian Nationalists” are a threat to democracy. Why? Because they believe our rights (unalienable rights) come from God and not from man or government. Are we now to be flogged or imprisoned for believing in God above “king” government?

Nathan Hale, as he was facing DEATH, still valued Liberty and loved his country!! As Hale was led to the gallows, his last words reportedly were, “I only regret that I have but one life to give for my country.”

If we today are unwilling to give up the comfort or dollars of government legislated subsidies or entitlements, then we surely love ourselves more than Liberty. If we only care about today and not about the tomorrows of our own grandchildren, then we surely must love ourselves more than them and we place no value on their Freedom! For in our own selfishness we condemn the future generations of America to government slavery as indentured servants on the land! That is not Love! That is not Liberty!

Benjamin Franklin wise old man that he was, laid it out plainly, Freedom or Slavery? Tyranny or Liberty?

The bravery of our Founding Fathers was amazing!

It is in vain, sir, to extenuate the matter. Gentlemen may cry, Peace, Peace-- but there is no peace. The war is actually begun! The next gale that sweeps from the north will bring to our ears the clash of resounding arms! Our brethren are already in the field! Why stand we here idle? What is it that gentlemen wish? What would they have? Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take; but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!

Are Americans too afraid to be Free? Are we too selfish to be Independent? Do we prefer slavery over Sovereignty? Is there no Love for Liberty?

“Tyranny, like hell, is not easily conquered; yet we have this consolation with us, that the harder the conflict, the more glorious the triumph.”

Thomas Paine, The American Crisis

We the People must no longer stand by silent as we watch American citizens arrested, fired from their jobs, indicted for their opinions by a tyrannical regime, while our children are mutilated and women and children are being trafficked as sex slaves into this nation.

"When the people fear the government, there is tyranny. But when the government fears the people, there is liberty." Thomas Jefferson

As Joshua was facing a mighty battle he declared to his people,

“But if serving the Lord seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your ancestors served beyond the Euphrates, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the Lord.”

Joshuah 24:15

Being brave isn't easy but it is the right thing to do! “Consent of the governed,” as mentioned in our Declaration of Independence, places the responsibility on our shoulders. It's time we took that responsibility as seriously as our Founding Fathers. There are those today, who are standing strong under government persecution and are being prosecuted unjustly by this tyrannical Biden/Obama regime. It is our duty to stand up in their defense.

Pray, speak up and stand up for Liberty and for our God... and Bring America Home.©

"We, the American People," who are rabid anti-Trump/MAGA devotees, must be draining bladders with joy. We've another reason to demand President Donald J. Trump be ousted from office by begging America's 25th Amendment option. Media is running a piece wherein President Donald J. is declared incapable of dispatching his duties for reasons of growing dementia. He can't complete sentences.

Media Article Calling For President Donald J. Trump's removal goes into excruciating detail on how it is President Donald J. is exhibiting behavior meriting his ouster from 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue. Said article includes references to observations made by experts on presidential behavior indicating cause for keeping presidential office holders from having any semblance of official duty execution.

"Patriotism is the willingness to kill and be killed for trivial reasons."

Wouldn't Be A Bad Idea for "Us, the American People" to harken back to those times when President Donald J.'s predecessor was, similarly, accused of dementia. So much so, President Donald J.'s predecessor stepped away from seeking re-election. Article calling for President Donald J. Trump's removal points out America's 25th Amendment is meant to guard against presidential incompetence.
