~ Charles Eliot Norton

WOW, ALL OF YOUR YELLING AND NAME CALLING HAS CONVINCED ME TO CHANGE MY POINT OF VIEW.

"Our, the America People's" legislators have a penchant for name calling . . . each other. May be never more true than when a legislator is out of sorts with another legislator's behavior. A classic e4xample of such behavior was a Congressional legislator, who happens to be an opposition party member to President Donald J. Trump, announcing President Donald J. is not a king. Everyone knows.

"It is important to remember, as has well been said, 'the essential characteristic of true liberty is that under its shelter many different types of life and character and opinion and belief can develop unmolested and unobstructed.'"

~ Charles Evans Hughes

"We, the American People" would not be in error if we were to conclude Congressional legislator at odds with President Donald J. Trump pointed out President Donald J. is not a king in objection to President Donald J.'s call for federal budget cuts, principally, because, name-calling Congressional legislator is not in America's presidential driver's seat, nor is a Congressional major party member.

"If it had been left to the majority, the world would never have had the steamboat, the railroad, the telegraph, or any of the conveniences of modern life."

~ Charles Sprading

This is a serious problem for me.

It Would Not Be A Mistake for "Us, the American People" to presume all legislators in office ran for legislative office with a goal of having their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) being made lawfully compulsory. Our legislators would never admit they could be in error in how they interpret Constitutionality in their attempt to make their PAVB lawfully compulsory. Obedience is their aim.

"Going to war accelerated the move from indirect to direct rule. Almost any state that makes war finds that it cannot pay for the effort from its accumulated reserves and current revenues. "

~ Charles Tilley

Legislators Have No Interest in ordinary people – voters of a sovereign citizenry – having a choice to accept or reject ideas. Persuasive ideas have no need for lawful enforcement. Ideas are at home with choice. Legislation, all said and done, nullifies choice. Legislators, in similar fashion, have no interest in lower-level legislators having any say. Legislators aim for decision-making to rest with them.

"There is no crueler tyranny than that which is perpetrated under the shield of law and in the name of justice."

~ Charles-Louis de Secondat

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to enter into contracts with collective bargaining units. They uphold citizen sovereignty to prevent government from imposing debt-laden defined benefit contracts.

"Here's your enemy for this week, the government says. And some gullible Americans click their heels and salute - often without knowing who or even where the enemy of the week is."

"The difference between a democracy and a dictatorship is that in a democracy you vote first and take orders later; in a dictatorship you don't have to waste your time voting."

~ Charles Bukowski

It Might Be Fitting For “Our, the American People’s” Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) Justices to have emblazoned above their bench these inauspicious words, “~~WE DISAGREE~~” Media outlets have been reporting SCOTUS Justices speaking their minds against SCOTUS Justices opting not to hear some lower-court case appeals. Not, for a second, SCOTUS Justices ought be unanimous.

"Liberty is one of the choicest gifts that heaven hath bestowed upon man, and exceeds in value all the treasures which the earth contains within its bosom, or the sea covers. Liberty, as well as honor, man ought to preserve at the hazard of his life, for without it life is insupportable."

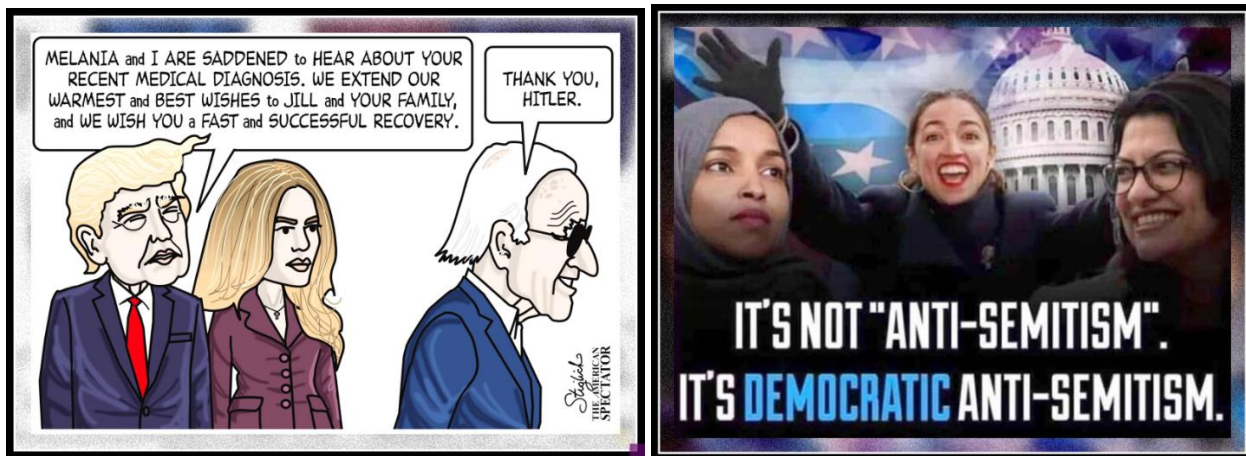

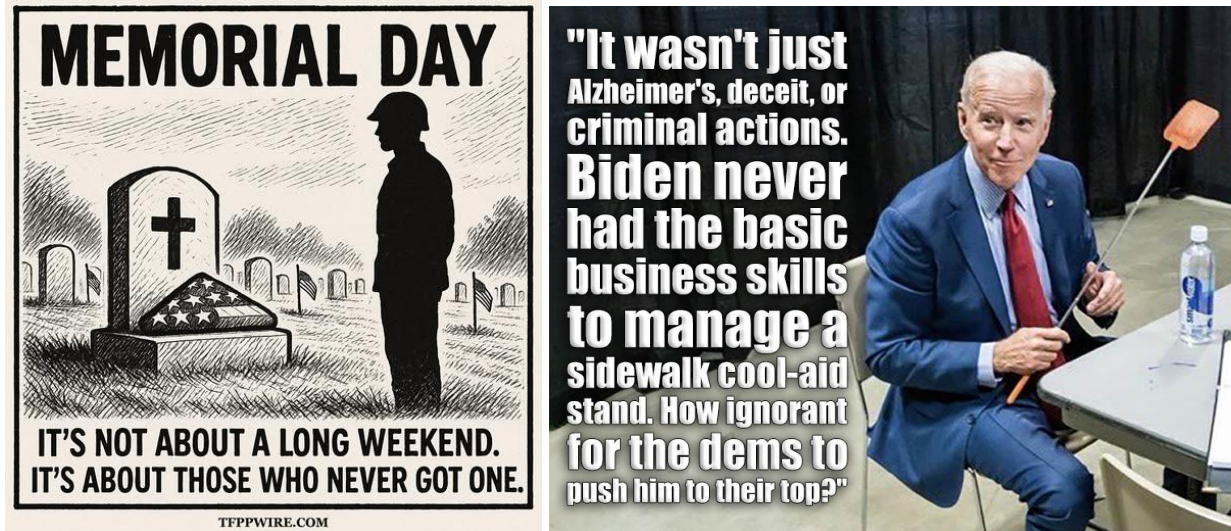

There Can Be SCOTUS Justice disagreement in cases “We, the American People” might find crystal clear. Not because we are too naive to see how evidence works, or,, if evidence is suspect. Rather, because regular people – regular people part of a sovereign citizenry – might be less prone to be distracted by legalese and nuance. Magistrates, in contrast, are knowledgeable in lawful subtlety.

"Liberty will not descend to a people; a people must raise themselves to liberty."

~ Charles Caleb Colton

Whether Courts Ought Be Able to pick and choose cases is problematic for "Us, the American People." If we, in fact, expect America's jurisprudence system to be indiscriminate. "... Liberty and Justice - - - for all. Not Liberty and Justice for those America's courts deign shall be given an opportunity to make their arguments for or against injustice. Our government does not assure we shall be heard.

"Liberty will not descend to a people. A people must raise themselves to liberty. It is a blessing that must be earned before it can be enjoyed."

~ Charles Caleb Colton

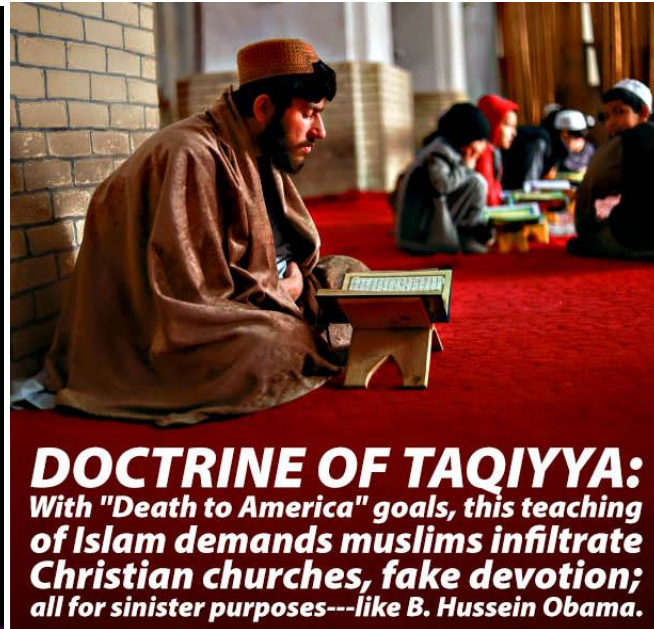

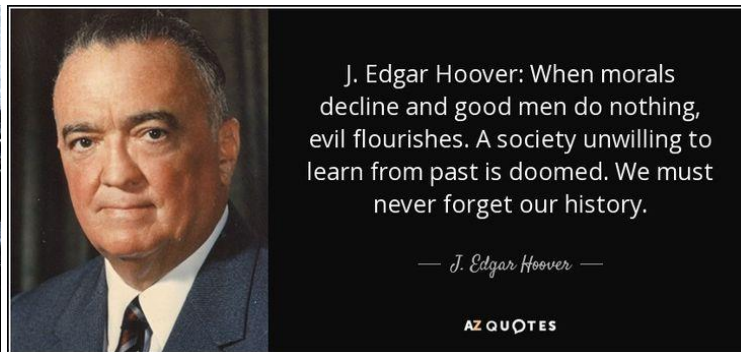

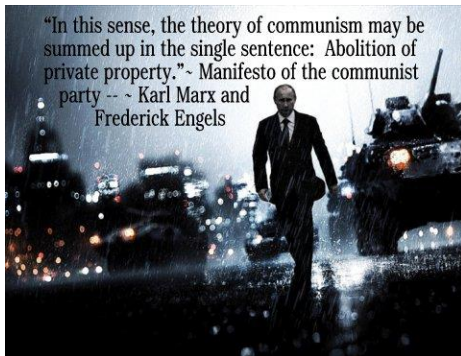

America's SCOTUS, While Standing as a, more-or-less, conclusive body on judicial fulcrums, has no way of assuring SCOTUS opinions are to be followed. Both America's two other, co-equal, government branches, can, at their leisure, side with SCOTUS, oppose SCOTUS, split their support, or, do nothing. To do nothing is tantamount to agreeing with SCOTUS. Yet, SCOTUS opinion may fall on deaf ears.

"We, the American People," if we give a Tinker's Damn about how America's government officials go about doing their jobs, would be smart to consider official-against-official confrontations leading to criminal charges as an indication of a sorry state of state affairs. "Our, the American People's" representative Constitutional republic governmental form makes it convenient for people with strong personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) to use their government positional authority to stop other government officials from following orders of their superiors. When Fights With Government, for any reason, ordinary people – taxpayers – pick up costs. America's commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions are not least at fault. Our Constitutions are open to interpretation; lawmakers, judges, and government chief executives use their PAVB when deciding how Constitutionality shall be upheld. Ordinary people are left to choose sides.

“Our Constitution was made for a moral and religious people, it is wholly inadequate to any other.”

We have watched in utter disgust as the democrats and the LEFT (whoever “they” are) publicly display their contempt for good character and morals. Have you ever wondered why these folks continue to push absurd and violent forms of character? Why all the cursing? Why protect criminals and punish the victims? Why are congressional members breaking their own laws (laws made by congress) and claiming they are “fighting” for “democracy?” Why do they point their fingers at others regarding racism, when at the time they are claiming all white people are racists? Why are today’s ivy league schools promoting and teaching anti-American values, when they should be promoting Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness? Why do the democrats strongly object to God and Judeo-Christian Biblical principles and laws? Is their constant off-key horrific singing a form of torture, psychological warfare? (Please, make them stop singing!)

We've heard the word before, Deconstruction!

"Deconstruction of a nation" in a political or social context often refers to the breaking down or dismantling of a nation's structures, institutions, or core values. This can involve various processes like the weakening of central government authority, the rise of regional or ethnic separatism, or the erosion of national identity by way of excessive immigration. (An invasion!)

The Democrat Party and their radical LEFT followers are promoting all things that are the opposite of our core governing principles as written in our founding documents. To understand these lost principles, read "The American Crisis Continues: The Lost Principles" (Part I and Part II)

Public and Private Virtue

John Adams said, "Our constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other. Morality and virtue are the foundation of our republic and necessary for a society to be free. Virtue is an inner commitment and voluntary outward obedience to principles of truth and moral law. Private virtue is the character to govern oneself according to moral law at all times. Public virtue is the character to voluntarily sacrifice or subjugate personal wants for the greater good of other individuals or the community. Specific moral virtues include charity, justice, courage, temperance, reverence, prudence, and honesty. These virtues are the moral fiber and moving force to act in accordance with wisdom. Our scholars embrace these virtues and seek to incorporate them in the John Adams Academy community through which these virtues are cultivated and practiced."

John Adams, Letter from John Adams to Massachusetts Militia, 11 October 1798.

NOTE: John Adams refers to our government as a republic; he does not use the word democracy.

Our nation has been falling away from those seven virtues for decades. We've discounted the value of marriage, and we've embraced premarital sex. "Living together" is considered normal and acceptable. We place very little value on life, as we promote and use government funds for the killing of unborn babies. They advocate abortion as a choice, but abortion (Planned Parenthood) is truly an industry for profit! Filthy language and obscene sex scenes in movies were once disallowed, then they were rated X or R, and now... it is everywhere. Congress recently passed the "Take It Down Act" to remove nonconsensual pornographic photos from the internet... This tells me that pornography is now approved and flaunted. Social media is a "social platform" which all ages of children can see. America has become the #1 nation in human trafficking, yet we hear not a peep about that from the Democrat Party who are still screaming for reparations. There is no temperance when the LEFT begins their rioting-protests. There is no honesty in America's politics; all parties lie to We the People.

There is no Love for Life! There is no thought, nor talk of Liberty, and no want for Independence. Happiness is a selfish desire instead of a want for self-sustaining and seeking Property and Prosperity through hard work.

It is important, in my opinion, that We the People recognize the truth of the virtue-less LEFT and the dispassionate democrats. Their goal is that of "Deconstruction." They are working very hard and diligently to destroy the foundation of our nation. Private virtue is the character to govern oneself according to moral law at all times.

Without sounding prudish, what are the virtues of character we witness in many of the democrat congressional members? Are they examples of charity, justice, courage, temperance, reverence, prudence, and honesty? Lest we believe the Republican Party is without blame, let's apply this same test to their lives as well.

Of course, we need to look inside our own hearts and judge our own characters just as we might for those who are representing us. What kind of an example of these same core values does your life display?

“Our Constitution was made for a moral and religious people, it is wholly inadequate to any other.”

Without God our Republic will fail!
