"...the very idea that some faceless government functionary can walk into my house, or my office, at any time and on any pretense and require me to spend my time and resources assisting him in going over my books so that he may demand more money from me money that will then flow through the machine to be used to purposes I find personally abhorrent -- is a truly warped and disturbing concept."

~ David Galland

Media Reports On President Donald J. Trump's presidential style are, if related hubbub is covered matter-of-factly, upsetting political convention's fruit basket. Of pertinent news of late are media reports "Our, the American People's" American Bar Association (ABA) will no longer have a say in federal executive picks for judicial judgeships. Media word is decision has produced shockwaves.

"It is seldom that liberty of any kind is lost all at once."

~ David Hume

Not Surprising, Calamity Trollers sunk hooks, hoping to land large reasons for discrediting President Donald J. Trump's methods of selecting federal judgeship nominees. For trollers, "We, the American People's" can presume any departure from conventional selection procedures would amount to a sure sign President Donald J. is making another attempt at excluding himself from any accountability.

"Liberty is not merely a privilege to be conferred; it is a habit to be acquired."

~ David Lloyd George

America's Federal (U.S./National) Constitution does not set criteria for qualifying federal judgeship nominees. America's presidents nominate candidates; America's Senate says yea or nay to nominees. Other agencies or organizations have, essentially, no role in deciding who gets to sit on a federal bench. President Donald J.'s Justice department (DOJ), opting to exclude ABA, violates not but convention.

"Political advertising ought to be stopped. It's the only really dishonest kind of advertising that's left. It's totally dishonest."

~ David Ogilvy

It Matters Not If President Donald J. Trump's DOJ fields sterling federal judgeship candidates. Not in Trump critic eyes. Critics want President Donald J. to follow their demands for judgeship nominees. More enticing, is Presidents Donald J.'s DOJ going about selecting judgeship nominees in ways not aggregable to Trump/DOJ policies and practices. Justice is secondary to who gets to proclaim justice.

"I invest in anything that Bernanke can't destroy including Gold, canned beans, bottled water and flashlight batteries...."

Criminal propagandists for the evil leftist empire

"Our, the American People's" media circulated articles and videos on whether school choice is a right choice. Education is variously defined, depending on lexicons and other references. Education, all said and done, regardless how defined or elaborated has a solitary purpose – to control behavior. Resistance to President Donald J. Trump's federal education department reform stands in evidence.

"As long as people will accept crap, it will be financially profitable to dispense it."

~ Dick Cavett

Education, If It Serves No Other behavioral purpose, prepares people to make critically considered decisions on their own. Educational material, when addressing other than purely unbiased disciplines – like, say, mathematics and physics, is laced with conceptual deliberation based on personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB). Appreciating art, for example, is far from objective, other than time-tested.

Government-Controlled Education Can Hardly be expected to be free of political ideological influence. Legislators, given power to approve educational curricula, would, arguably, have socioeconomic curricula tailored to underpin legislators' PAVB, similarly as applied to law-making. Laws are not rooted in immutable standards; rather, laws are products of precedents previously entrenched.

Education, If Administered To Develop self-reliance, makes for people prepared to choose as they determine fits their interests. To structure education with curricula framed to impart and induce obedience-oriented goals undermines people's capacity to think independent of rote ideas ingrained in both instruction and testing. "We, the American People" would be smart to sustain choice in education.

Those who are here reading this Substack are more than aware that our nation's Republic is in great danger. Danger is real, but it is certainly not the first time this nation has faced great peril.

I gain encouragement when I go back and read quotes from our Founders and others who fought great battles for our Liberty.

Thomas Paine wrote in the American Crisis: "We have every opportunity and every encouragement before us, to form the noblest purest constitution on the face of the earth, we have it in our power to begin the world over again." Within those same thoughts of the American Crisis, Paine also stated, "Those who expect to reap the blessings of freedom, must, like men, undergo the fatigue of supporting it."

As we weigh out the battles and obstacles before us, do we believe they are too great to conquer? Is our Republic so lost that we cannot restore it?

When I read about these great men who spoke and fought for Liberty, I realize that Liberty truly is always in the hands of the people. However, Freedom must be a longing and a lust within their hearts; such a longing that they are willing to “undergo the fatigue of supporting it.”

We have many battle fronts before us, as we watch our own elected officials protesting against our Liberty, disregarding our Constitution and breaking our laws. Appointed judges are obstructing the President of the United States (elected by We the People) and then ruling on agendas instead of making honest, Constitutional decisions. The mainstream and lamestream media became the voices of the LEFT and the Democrat Party, as they too join the efforts to destroy America. Together they all promote the “deconstruction” of America’s core values. (read previous Substack here)

We see the following quote as somewhat humorous, but just think and consider the frame of mind, full of grit and determination, it took to meet such an impossible situation and persevere for Liberty...

“The enemy is in front of us, the enemy is behind us, the enemy is to the right and to the left of us. They can't get away this time!” Douglas MacArthur.

...and there’s the famous quote from U.S. Marine General Chesty Puller, which was recorded to have been during the battle of the Chosin Reservoir, “We’ve been looking for the enemy for some time now. We’ve finally found him. We’re surrounded. That simplifies things.”

The words of these men cry out to us today. Even if it seems we are surrounded by the enemy, surrender is not an option. Perseverance, persistence and yes, perhaps a large amount of stubbornness should be our mindset for Liberty.

Do we believe that America is too far gone now to save our Republic? Do we believe our battle is greater and more dangerous than those who went before us?

Some battles are fought by great men, while others are fought and won by ordinary people in their own backyards.

What is the battle in our backyard? Our local governments, our own elected officials, our local news outlets and our local schools are in the backyards of all Americans. As a Constitutional Republic, We the People are the government, however, if we are unwilling to stay active and informed, the Republic will be corrupted and lost.

A defeatist attitude did not win our Independence 249 years ago and it will not restore our Republic today.

Liberty Lovers,

~ Dave Barry

Given "Our, the American People's" media reports on same topics or events differ slightly from outlet to outlet, there is no certainty reported news is factual news. One media outlet, for example, reports President Donald J. Trump's trade (tariff (trade tax)) war revenue generation at $23.B; a second outlet has revenue at $23.28B; a third at $23.2B. Not radically different, but conspicuous inconsistencies.

"The difference between libertarianism and socialism is that libertarians will tolerate the existence of a socialist community, but socialists can't tolerate a libertarian community."

~ David Boaz

Should President Donald J. Trump's Tariff (trade tax) revenue remain at $23B, or thereabouts, annual tariff (trade tax) income to federal government coffers would be on order of $276B. Individual income tax revenue to federal coffers comes to around $1.6T, references referenced accurate. President Donald J. has made noises about replacing income tax with tariff (trade tax) revenue. Somewhat of a shortfall.

"It is said that power corrupts, but actually it's more true that power attracts the corruptible. The sane are usually attracted by other things than power."

~ David Brin

when you have a great marketing idea that you know will generate sales

"We, the American People" could see our federal income tax drop by somewhere around 16%. We would be naïve fools to expect America's federal legislators will warm up to decreasing individual income tax by 16% due to tariff (trade tax) revenue offset. Federal legislators will not let go their hold on their power to confiscate property (wealth), and rely on iffy tariff (trade tax) revenue. Unthinkable.

"The direct use of physical force is so poor a solution to the problem of limited resources that it is commonly employed only by small children and great nations."

One Media Article Goes To Some length to let “Us, the American People” know who really pays tariffs (trade taxes). Those of us who went to good schools already know who pays tariffs (trade taxes). Those of us who don’t know would be smart to get our money back from schools where students are not advised who pays tariffs (trade taxes). Who pays tariffs (trade taxes) pays all taxes. Consumers.
