How I sleep May 31st knowing there won't be any federal government pride events in June:

"Our, the American People's" media report America's Justice Department (DOJ) has dismissed a lawsuit calling for records of a White House official release from President Donald J. Trump's first Administration. Official in question had been ordered to turn over specified records by President Donald J. Trump's predecessor, President Joe Biden's White House. Official refused to comply.

"We, the American People" have more than ample examples of how America's legislators are not to be trusted to maintain stability in America's socio-economic system. It is not as though America's legislators are, necessarily, out to create instability in interest of overturning Americans' way of life. More, because political agendas vary from administration-to administration, election-to-election.

"Talk sense to a fool and he calls you foolish."

~ Euripides

Why did Noah build an Ark when he could have simply paid more taxes to stop climate change?

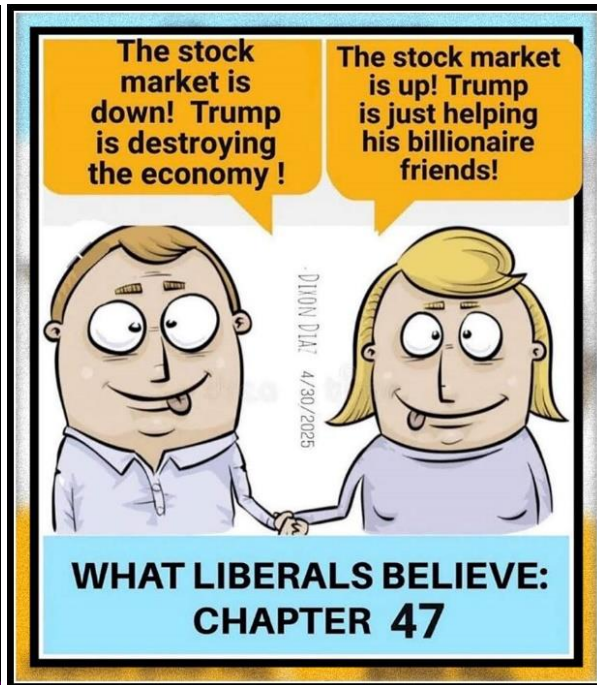

Without Complete Disclosure, There is no way for “Us, the American People” to know why President Joe Biden’s Administration’s DOJ wanted access to records in question, or, why President Donald J. Trump’s Administration’s DOJ has decided records in question are not necessary. Given Biden and Trump are deep political enemies, deducing records investigation was/is motivated by political aim.

"Tolerance is a better guarantee of freedom than brotherly love; for a man may love his brother so much that he feels himself thereby appointed his brother's keeper."

~ Everett Dean Martin

Political Goals Are, Arguably, Not Objective. Political goals tend to be skewed toward having lawful control over people and property (wealth). We, as a sovereign citizenry, if we are to keep our numbers free from politically-biased government overreach inspired by lawful power, would be smart to hold all government to strict transparency. Transparency applied equally no matter who sits in office.

"Liberty is not a right but a duty."

~ Ezra Pound

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to prohibit or restrict private ownership of firearms and ammunition from any citizen of good repute and responsible standing. They hold fast their ability to ward off would-be tyranny.

"We, the American People" might be inclined to take sides in media-reported rift between President Donald J. Trump and his former Department Of Government Efficiency (DOGE) head. It would be easy for Trump-Musk split to take our attention away from a much more important matter. How will President Donald J.'s 'Big Beautiful Bill' weigh on our future financial security. Forecasts vary – a lot.

"A ruling intelligentsia, whether in Europe, Asia or Africa, treats the masses as raw material to be experimented on, processed, and wasted at will."

~ Eric Hoffer

Media Reports On Big Beautiful Bill analysis, national debt-wise, have it America's national debt will grow by trillions, despite spending cuts, over next ten years. President Donald J. Trump's White House claims revenue growth projections understated. Sooner or later, it will dawn on "Us, the American People" America's national debt will be under control when we (DOGE) force legislators to control it.

"The truth doesn't sell. It is high in supply, but low in demand."

~ Eric Schaub

There Is A Fundamental Flaw in representative Constitution republic government. Representatives act on their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB, not on verifiable facts and figures free of political ideology manipulation. We, a sovereign citizenry, could require our legislators to operate on a balanced federal budget. We don't, because we're accustomed to having election winners to blame.

"Human history begins with man's act of disobedience which is at the very same time the beginning of his freedom and development of his reason."

~ Erich Fromm

People Prepared To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to overrule Commonwealth/State (10th Amendment) Sovereignty. They uphold their heritage of self-government and reject illegitimate federal intrusion.

"It is incredible how as soon as a people become subject, it promptly falls into such complete forgetfulness of its freedom that it can hardly be roused to the point of regaining it, obeying so easily and willingly that one is led to say that this people has not so much lost its liberty as won its enslavement."

Perception: The Biden Administration failed closing the border.

Reality: The Biden administration succeeded at keeping the border open.

Perception: The Biden administration failed the US economy.

Reality: The Biden administration intentionally caused inflation by cutting our energy industry, and crippling our supply chain.

Perception: Border Czar VP Harris was assigned to guard our borders.

Reality: VP Harris was assigned as the border czar to create a Venn diagram welcoming all criminals and assigning them cities to flee to.

Perception: Democrats protect abortion to help women plan their families.

Reality: Democrats push abortion to control the population, especially in poorer regions of the nation.

Perception: Climate change is an existential threat to the world, and we need to spend trillions of dollars fighting against it.

Reality: Climate change is a scheme dreamed up by global elites. There is no existential threat, just lots of politicians and green industries growing very wealthy by pushing and subsidizing green energy.

Perception: CO₂ is a toxic gas.

Reality: All life contains CO₂; without CO₂ we would have a dead planet.

Perception: Democrats are fierce fighters for democracy.

Reality: Democrats are fighting fiercely to destroy America.

Perception: Joe Biden resigned because he wanted to allow the “younger” generation to take the lead. Joe is a mighty selfless patriot.

Reality: Kamala Harris is not young, and Joe didn’t bow out of the election process on his own accord or consciousness. Joe is not a patriot; he is an angry corrupt politician who happens to have a cognitive disease. Joe has only been acting president, he has not been the one making national decisions and that should make every American angry.

Politics is not a game; it is a plot to gain power for the upper few and remove liberty from the multitude.

Perception vs Reality should awaken Americans.

I watched a video of Kamala Harris in the senate grilling an ICE agent. Over and over again, in Kamala repetitive style, she asked the agent, “Are you aware of the perception of ICE?” (she was comparing ICE to the KKK)

Reality this; Kamala is from a family of slave owners. She is not a part of black Americans, who claim such; her mother was from India and her father Jamaican.

“Are you aware of the perception?” She kept repeating. Each time he tried to answer, “I do not see the parallel...” she would again interrupt him and say, “I’m asking you if you are aware of the perception? Are you aware of the perception of ICE, by people? Do you know the perception?” The agent finally stopped trying to answer her idiotic gaslighting questions. She told him, “As someone in a high position of ICE, I would assume you would know, or want to know, of the perception of ICE.”

Known for her word salads, her love of yellow school busses and her love for Venn diagrams, Kamala and her democrat colleagues, assisted by their true-blue media, continue gaslighting Americans into perceiving that which is not true.

They want Americans to perceive that America is a systemically racist nation. They want us all to perceive the perverted sexual behavior of drag queens and gays is normal. They want us to perceive that tens of millions of illegal aliens entering our nation are just here looking for work and that this huge migration of millions of people is due to climate change.

It would have been tempting, had I been in that hot seat, to ask, “Are you aware, senator, how America perceives you, and how they believe you rose to such a top place in politics?” I more than likely would have been held in contempt. However, I perceived her line of questioning to be disgusting, insulting and unprofessional. I am ashamed that democrat politicians are allowed to threaten Americans, threaten Supreme Court Justices, and belittle those who come to Congress to testify as to the problems in their areas, such as the agent from ICE. He did not deserve the implication of KKK from Senator Harris.

Kamala Harris Hates America!!

Perception vs Reality

Perhaps the line of questioning should be reasoned this way. If ICE is perceived to be like the KKK because they do their job of obeying the immigration laws, which Congress legislated and passed as law... why is it that the institution of ICE, and their agents, are the ones perceived to be like the KKK?

Have you noticed that no one ever talks about the specifics of the immigration laws? They are not KKK, I am not implying that they are. Why is what ICE does by obeying the law and following their orders perceived as a bad thing? ICE did not hang any illegal immigrants because they are illegally here, which meant they broke our laws. ICE arrested them and sent them back home. Well, that's the law, but the Obama-Biden-Kamala regime rules by breaking the laws of our land. ICE is no longer allowed to follow the immigration laws, and America is unsafe because of the current administration.

It is then my perception that this administration is an unlawful administration. Actually, it is not simply a perception; it is a reality!

We the People don't like to face reality when it is something discouraging or painful. I believe we are strong people (the majority of us) and it's time we faced the reality; America is under tyranny and has been for a very long time.

We have, for a long time, perceived (pretended) ourselves to be a free and independent people.

The truth that lives in reality will set us free!

We must not be discouraged by this reality; we must be all the more determined for Liberty. Life is too short and too important to live as slaves to a tyrannical government. Recently Elon Musk used the phrase “woke virus,” I tell you the woke virus was created by tyrants, just as COVID-19 was created in a lab in China, unfortunately assisted by Americans such as Anthony Fauci.

Tyranny is a vicious enemy, limitless with its tactics to subdue a people and conquer their land. Tyranny is cunning and deceitful, never hiding its face just its intentions. Disguised as a do-gooder, Tyranny preys on our emotions and uses our own system of governance against us. Tyranny changes the rules, amends the contract, ignores the rule of law, spreads falsehoods, and sows discord among the people.

We cannot allow the tyrants to discourage us and rob us of our Freedom. We must turn that feeling of discouragement into determination.

Recognize the deception of their perception and see the reality of their tyranny.

Let’s stand together, work together and gather together.

Let us be enthusiastic for Liberty, as Alexander Hamilton stated, “There’s a certain enthusiasm in Liberty, causing mankind to rise above itself in acts of bravery and heroism.”

Let us all have a great respect for Life; and America, pursue your happiness!

Let us all

Make America Godly Again

Make America Great Again

And.....

"He is free who lives as he wishes to live; who is neither subject to compulsion nor to hindrance, nor to force; whose movements to action are not impeded, whose desires attain their purpose, and who does not fall into that which he would avoid."

~ Epictetus

“Our, the American People’s” President Donald J. Trumps’ critics claim President Donald J., by way of an Executive Order (EO), was undermining federal agency independence. EO in question is EO 89 titled, “Ensuring Accountability for All Agencies.” A federal judge, noting case was too speculative, was turned away litigation filed under critics’ assertion. Laws against crime speculate commitment.

"Is freedom anything else than the right to live as we wish? Nothing else."

~ Epictetus

“We, the American People” line under a jurisprudence system we are not able to predict, in terms of court outcomes when laws are tested. We do know permanency has, thus far, been wishful thinking when it comes to socio-economic legislation benefitting some Americans, not benefitting others. Sitting legislatures rescind predecessor laws, courts overturn court decisions, all want their say made law.

"He is free who lives as he wishes to live; who is neither subject to compulsion nor to hindrance, nor to force; whose movements to action are not impeded, whose desires attain their purpose, and who does not fall into that which he would avoid."

~ Epictetus

There Looks To Be No End to legislators, judges, and government Chief Executive Officers striving to make their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) lawfully compulsory. Such PAVB are made lawfully compulsory, election-to-election. Post-election winners work to rid themselves of laws made by political opponents, or make their predecessor laws permanent for agreeing predecessors.

"History is replete with examples of empires mounting impressive military campaigns on the cusp of their impending economic collapse."

~ Eric Alterman

Given There Are No Laws Not Subject to some sort of change, public review/acceptance may be necessary if ordinary people are to expect legislative stability. There may be people who'll argue there are permanent laws, when those laws have their roots in tenets of Faith. Nonetheless, Faith-based or not, legislative stability, if it is to be, will, apt as not, be force-fed by "Us, the American People."

"People unfit for freedom - who cannot do much with it - are hungry for power."
