~ Robert H. Jackson

“We, the American People” would be smart to recognize and bear in mind government’s first practical priority is to confiscate property (wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty). To protect people and serve common good. And, keep legislators seated to confiscate property (wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty). We, as a sovereign citizenry, ought be firstly concerned with holding entrepreneurial value.

“The very purpose of a Bill of Rights was to withdraw certain subjects from the vicissitudes of political controversy. One’s right to life, liberty and property, to free speech, a free press, freedom of worship and assembly may not be submitted to vote; they depend on no elections.”

~ Robert H. Jackson

Legislators, Bless Their Philanthropic Hearts, would have “Us, the American People” believe goos things come from coercive laws. Laws to keep us from being ripped off by uncaring equity building by other people is their mainstay. Only works as long as equity builders decide they'll build equity, rather than having government steal it for them. Risky, depending on government to feed and cloak us.

“It is error alone which needs the support of government. Truth can stand by itself.”

~ Thomas Jefferson

Hard To Say If “Our, the American People’s” willingness to be led by nose ring lines in public officials’ hands will prompt Congressional Senator Bernie Sanders to press for his AI profit sharing initiative to become law. Could be enough of us are inclined to bash billionaire (equity builder) unworthiness to possess their acquirements to make those billionaires pay up. So we prosper by fiat.

“The spirit of resistance to government is so valuable on certain occasions, that I wish it to be always kept alive. It will often be exercised when wrong but better so than not to be exercised at all. I like a little rebellion now and then. It is like a storm in the atmosphere.”

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to cause any citizen to be drawn into an obligation to assume responsibility for public debt for reasons other than to defend these United States. They require elected leaders to defend America's liberty unequivocally.

Media Is Telling "Us, the American People" Pope Leo XIV is taking to heart Isaih 2;4. Swords to plowshares, spears to pruning hooks. Taking to task is [just wars,] is Pope Loe. Media coverage has it His Holy See first made reference to horrors of war when U.S, bombers made waste of Iranian nuclear enrichment plants a in 2025. His Eminence is reported focusing on resolving conflict by war futility.

“We, the American People” would be smart to not be overanxious to have Pope Leo think for us. Popes (clerics) and Presidents (legislators) are notorious for using creeds and laws to sway people’s views, and, as important, people’s behavior. Behavior including deference to legislative penal power and propensity to contribute. Both are, in a sense, predicated on taking advantage of prompted fear.

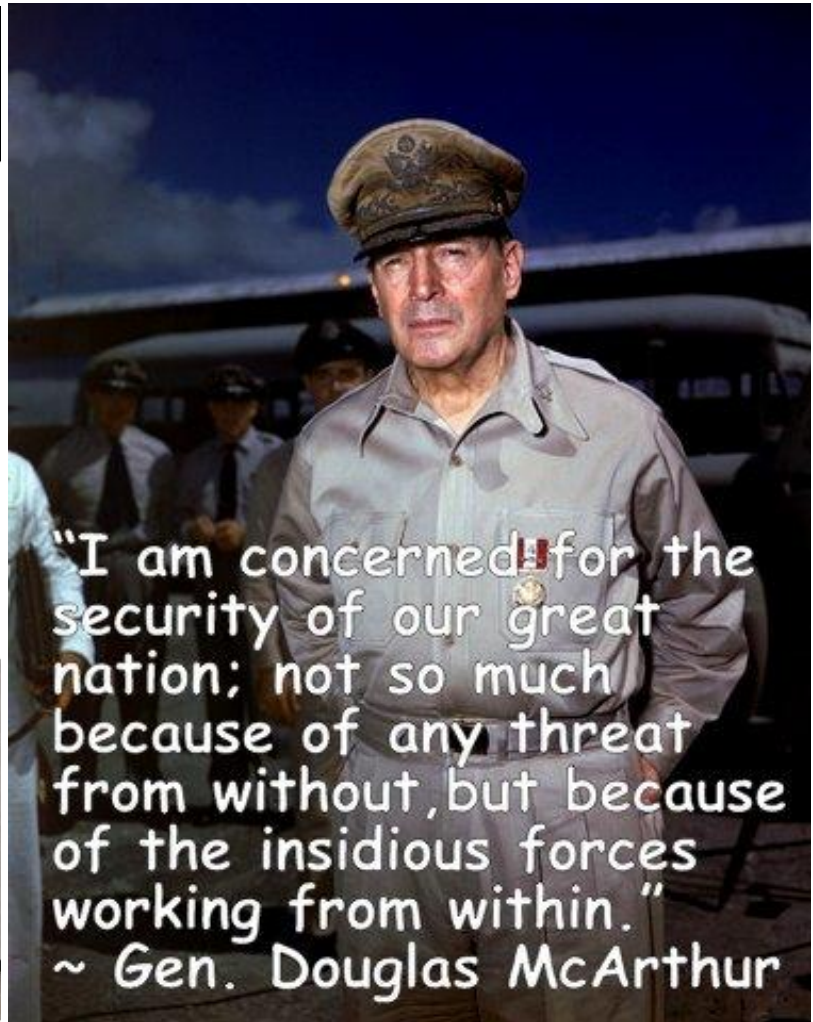

“At the heart of western freedom and democracy is the belief that the individual man ... is the touchstone of value, and all society, groups, the state, exist for his benefit. Therefore the enlargement of liberty for individual human beings must be the supreme goal and abiding practice of any western society.”

"Our, the American People's" predilection for or not for Islam to assimilate competing Faiths is, based on media coverage, far from universal. Officially, Islam doctrine is one of peaceful inclusion wherever Muslims happen to exist among other Faiths. Pope Leo tempers his apparent inclination to abolish just wars by allowing strict defense of one's existence when faced with lethal threat. Beholder's eyes.

Not stretch to anticipate Sino-Iranian collaboration to drain ship toll revenue to bolster Chinese and Iranian aims of world political dominance. Ergo, a presumed threat to western civilization. Thus, a just war.

(The American Crisis by Thomas Paine, December 23, 1776)

I thank God, that I fear not. I see no real cause for fear. I know our situation well, and can see the way out of it. While our army was collected, Howe dared not risk a battle; and it is no credit to him that he decamped from the White Plains, and waited a mean opportunity to ravage the defenceless Jerseys; but it is great credit to us, that, with a handful of men, we sustained an orderly retreat for near an hundred miles, brought off our ammunition, all our field pieces, the greatest part of our stores, and had four rivers to pass. None can say that our retreat was precipitate, for we were near three weeks in performing it, that the country might have time to come in. Twice we marched back to meet the enemy, and remained out till dark. The sign of fear was not seen in our camp, and had not some of the cowardly and disaffected inhabitants spread false alarms through the country, the Jerseys had never been ravaged. Once more we are again collected and collecting; our new army at both ends of the continent is recruiting fast, and we shall be able to open the next campaign with sixty thousand men, well armed and clothed. This is our situation, and who will may know it. By perseverance and fortitude we have the prospect of a glorious issue; by cowardice and submission, the sad choice of a variety of evils - a ravaged country - a depopulated city - habitations without safety, and slavery without hope - our homes turned into barracks and bawdy-houses for Hessians, and a future race to provide for, whose fathers we shall doubt of. Look on this picture and weep over it! and if there yet remains one thoughtless wretch who believes it not, let him suffer it unlamented.

(The American Crisis Continues by Beth Ann)

I cannot honestly say with a clear conscience that I know “our” situation well. I could not help but notice “fake news” seemed to be a part of the tactics by the Tories back in 1776. We see this same tactic (fake news) today the Democrats, the Republican-RINOs, and our media; all fall into the category of modern-day Tories; they seem to hate America and feel no loyalty to our nation or to We the People.

Fear should not be what drives the people of this nation, for the miracles of our history prove that this nation was most assuredly blessed by God; founded on freedom of religion and established as a Christian nation. However, like other nations before us, it is the nature of man, as we are prone to wander and prone to leave the God we love. Perhaps when life becomes too easy, we get bored and then we chase the pleasures of the world and forget the blessings of God’s righteousness, and neglect to share the miracles for which God allowed this nation to become His. We have those miracles as a part of our history; so many unexplained miraculous wins for Freedom, yet we do not share these with our children as we should.

The enemy of Liberty today is threefold.

Godlessness

Apathy

Ignorance

The ignorance I speak of is not that of the mind but that of the heart. Many choose to not see and to not hear or even listen to the troubles of our day. Many prefer to stay neutral in all things political, while others complain but do nothing to make the necessary changes.

Many refuse to acknowledge that there are persons in prominent positions in our nation who now work to fundamentally change our governance. Why? I simply do not know or understand, except that the governance they tout is that of power over the people, which is the opposite of our Constitutional Republic. So, the only conclusion I can surmise is that their want for change is based solely on their greed for power.

There is also the nature of ignoring the danger that is in front of us. While some (heroic patriots) would work to remove the danger, others, not wanting to get involved, would leave the danger there and simply guide themselves around it, leaving the danger for the next person to deal with.

Godlessness is an obvious problem; we, as a nation, have forgotten that God's Laws come before any laws instituted by man. It has become extremely problematic that our legislators continue to pile on bills and laws; so many that there is no way to know these laws, much less, keep the laws. It is my opinion, and I believe it is an astute opinion, that too many laws create lawlessness; and I believe this is intentionally done by these men and women who were elected to protect our Liberty and preserve our Constitutional Republic. They are failing us badly!

It is the apathy of Americans that allowed the lawlessness and put up with the Godlessness. If we are not ourselves anchored in God's Word and His Laws, and then know and understand our Constitution, we are easy prey for the tyrants that rule in DC and in our State Capitals.

There is a cycle of the rise and fall of nations. Alexander Fraser Tytler wrote it this way:

“A democracy cannot exist as a permanent form of government. It can only exist until the voters discover that they can vote themselves largesse from the public treasury. From that moment on, the majority always votes for the candidates promising the most benefits from the public treasury with the result that a democracy always collapses over loose fiscal policy, always followed by a dictatorship. The average age of the world’s greatest civilizations has been 200 years. These nations have progressed through this sequence: From bondage to spiritual faith; From spiritual faith to great courage; From courage to liberty; From liberty to abundance; From abundance to selfishness; From selfishness to apathy; From apathy to dependence; From dependence back into bondage.”

I cannot help but wonder, with all the warnings given to us by our Founding Fathers, why do today’s politicians scream to save democracy, when it is democracy that is killing our Constitutional Republic?

Spiritual Faith is the Foundation of our Constitutional Republic. We the People must return to the God of our Fathers; the God of Abraham. It was easy to be apathetic and complacent, leaving the governing to others, but we cannot continue to leave them unchecked. We must also refuse the politics and the political rhetoric that glorifies sin and curses righteousness; our children are suffering at the hands of such evilness in America. There was once a law prohibiting sexual predators to be within a certain distance of our public schools, now, they are invited into our schools and libraries to prey upon our innocent children. God will not bless such behavior!

The phrase and meaning, “separation of church and state,” has been intentionally distorted. The State (meaning the government) cannot say we must all be Catholic, or we must all be Methodist, or Baptist, however, We the People are free to practice our faith, display our nativity scenes, pray at school events, or on the street corner, and our President is allowed to read scripture publicly...There is only one reason the Marxist-democrat party repeats this lie over and over again; they deny the very existence of God in our nation! Without Him to answer to, they can (or so they believe) perpetrate any tyranny upon us that they desire. By removing God, in their twisted minds, they will be the ones who decide what privileges (rights) you are allowed to enjoy. The Marxist-democrats do not believe in your Inalienable rights from God.

John Adams said it, “Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.”

If our Constitution isn't working, (Is that why they keep piling on laws?) perhaps we should look at the moral character of our leaders; our legislators. They are apparently morally bankrupt, and that is the reason they have a slush fund to “pay their way” out of their sins. Again, my opinion... House Speaker Mike Johnson claims to be a strong Christian, if so, he should remove this slush fund and expose the sins of his fellow representatives. The fact that he does not is sad and telling.

Look on this picture and weep over it! and if there yet remains one thoughtless wretch who believes it not, let him suffer it unlamented.

From Spiritual faith to great courage; We the People must rise up and stop this cycle of apathy and complacency, which is harming our children and destroying our nation. We must stand up together and...

“What is freedom? Freedom is the right to choose; the right to create for yourself the alternative of choice. Without the responsibility and exercise of choice a man is not a man but a member, an instrument, a thing.”

Those Of “Us, the American People” who are naive enough to think America’s judicial system is permeated with judicial neutrality are naive enough to believe it. America’s judges are no less driven by their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) than are America’s union members, churchgoers, culinary gourmets, songsters, traffic cops, legislators, or government chief executive officers.

“If the First Amendment means anything, it means that a state has no business telling a man, sitting alone in his own house, what books he may read or what films he may watch.”

on a southern state's district mapping initiative, calling it a shameful debasement of American democracy by, essentially, dismantling America's Voting Rights Act. (VRA). Still, elections go on.

"We, the American People," those of us yet to grip a fundamental truth about laws and adjudication thereof, would be smart to recognize neither laws nor courts are founded in immutable standards. Virtually every guiding principle amounts to someone's expression of their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB), for one or other reasons, adopted by society as fit for all to regulate behavior.

PAVB Are Not Universal. Not by any means. No two people are alike, or think alike, or are ready to be told how they are to be or think alike. Judges, no matter their orientation or training or experience, are different. All judges, like every legislator, sees law from their peculiar PAVB. They are, all things considered, incapable of universal judicial findings or universal public acceptance. Liberty's VRA soul.
