"In our age there is no such thing as 'keeping out of politics.' All issues are political issues, and politics itself is a mass of lies, evasions, folly, hatred and schizophrenia."

~ George Orwell

"Our, the American People's" media have some disconcerting news for democrat party loyalists. Reportedly, support for America's democrat party is lower than it's been since for more than two decades. It's near impossible to know how it is people change their support for political parties. Odds are voters are skeptical party legislative candidates can deliver on promises. Hardly a surprise.

"In our time political speech and writing are largely the defense of the indefensible."

~ George Orwell

Taxation Is Never Far From A Major Reason why people don't trust politicians-legislators. Government tax managers are ever-alert for new ways to confiscate property (wealth). One way might find favor with "Us. The American People" who are big on wealth redistribution. Officially, it's known as Section 899. Affectionally, it's known as 'Revenge Tax.' Revenge for attempts at avoiding taxation.

"Power is not a means; it is an end."

~ George Orwell

Revenge Taxes Are Aimed At Foreign-Controlled investments where profits are transferred off shore to avoid taxes. Why there needs to be a tax levied as a remedy is questionable. Logic would have it monetary transfers could be completely controlled where accounts are held, and tax deductions applied as a matter of course. However, government-to-government negotiations tend to favor complexity.

"Live free or die; death is not the worst of evils."

~ George Stark

"We, the American People," as a sovereign citizenry, in no way need to be bothered by taxation nuisance – at any level for any reason. We would need only to require all taxation to be a tax on commerce, with tax rates applied at points of sale. No other taxes. Oddly, tariffs (trade taxes) work so. Tariffs to government, recouped when consumers ante up for sale prices. Skinning elusive cats.

"The saddest epitaph which can be carved in memory of a vanished liberty is that it was lost because its possessors failed to stretch forth a saving hand while yet there was time."

~ George Sutherland

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to enter into contracts with collective bargaining units. They preclude government from eroding their assets through property confiscation.

"Our, the American People's" President Donald J. Trump's war with America's press is a matter of record. For anyone who cares to dig. How far media reporting should go to protect reporting sources is a matter of one's perspective, and one's notions about how truth needs to be exposed. Or, not exposed, when, say, protecting national security, personal privacy, or law enforcement is at hand.

"All men are created equally free and independent, and have certain inherent rights, of which they cannot, by any compact, deprive or divest their posterity; among which are the enjoyment of life and liberty, with the means of acquiring and possessing property, and pursuing the obtaining of happiness and safety."

~ George Mason

There Is A Profound Difference between an idea and a law. Both an idea and a law can be worded identically, punctuated identically. An idea has no inherent consequences. Unless people decide to act on it. A law is inherently consequential, because laws force people to act – or, not to act. Irony at its core. If STOP signs were not backed by lawful force, they would be nothing more than suggestions.

"We, the American People" are put upon by volumes of laws. Federal U.S. laws number over 300,000, depending on reference referenced. On top of federal laws are, surprising or not, supposedly thousands of commonwealth/state/local laws created on an annual basis. How we are to be aware of obeying or disobeying hundreds of thousands of laws is incomprehensible. Small wonder, societal dissonance.

Government Power To Suppress or extract information is ominous. Journalistic source confidentiality can be inordinately controversial. America's Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS), historically, has ruled to or not to. Whether SCOTUS opinions matter, essentially, comes down to SCOTUS decision upheld, not enforced, regarded, or disregarded by people is perplexing free societies.

"If large numbers of people believe in freedom of speech, there will be freedom of speech even if the law forbids it. But if public opinion is sluggish, inconvenient minorities will be persecuted, even if laws exist to protect them."

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to cause any citizen to be drawn into an obligation to assume responsibility for public debt for reasons other than to defend these United States. They forbid government from putting them at financial risk.

When Once A Republic Is Corrupted!

How long has the corruption been the plague that stole American Liberty?

I'm a little melancholy today. As I was reading through the news and realizing just how deep the corruption in America's government actually is... well, I also realized that all the topics and scandals we chase are merely symptoms of a nation consumed with a disease. "Corruption" is the disease, and all other things are symptoms. So, when we talk show hosts chase this and that scandal, we are missing the proverbial mark.

Thomas Jefferson wrote: "When once a Republic is corrupted, there is no possibility of remedying any of the growing evils but by removing the corruption and restoring its lost principles; every other correction is either useless or a new evil."

You cannot legislate away the symptoms and believe you're removing the corruption, as you are only adding more confusion to the already chaotic laws.

You cannot legislate morality. (...every other correction is either useless or a new evil.)

According to Thomas Jefferson, the symptoms we are experiencing in America cannot be fixed, unless we restore the lost principles of this nation.

I have written a lengthy article regarding our Founding Principles, which is in two parts here on Substack. (see links below)

The American Crisis Continues: The Lost Principles

https://bethanncsctalkradio.substack.com/p/the-american-crisis-continues?utm_source=profile&utm_medium=reader2

https://bethanncsctalkradio.substack.com/p/the-american-crisis-continues-f40?utm_source=profile&utm_medium=reader2

So, why my melancholy? The testimony of a whistleblower was quite telling, as to how long the corruption of the Biden cartel has been going on in this nation. Whistleblower Gal Luft: ‘ I May Have to Live on the Run For the rest of My Life’ For Informing U.S. Gov. About Biden’s Influence Peddling: <https://amgreatness.com/2023/07/06/whistleblower-gal-luft-i-may-have-to-live-on-the-run-for-the-rest-of-my-life-for-informing-u-s-gov-about-bidens-influence-peddling/>

The fact that so many in U.S. bureaucratic departments and institutions have worked to hide the corruption and joined in the manipulation of our elections, is very concerning. The fact that it is not just one party doing their best to hide this is also very telling. How long has the corruption been the plague that stole American Liberty? While we have suspected there was more to the assassination of an American President, JFK, the powers that control “classified and historical documents” refuse to release that information after 60 years. Why? Perhaps because the institutions (bureaucratic departments) that are now going after President Trump while playing coverup for all the Biden family corruption are the same ones responsible for that attack on America. (The assassination of an elected president is an attack on America!) The people in the offices and departments have changed, but the institutions have not. They continue to grow in power and authority, which is completely unconstitutional.

We the People have been lulled asleep for too long. We've lived in a state of denial. None of us want to believe our nation is no longer a nation Of the People by the People and for the People.

It seems our Republic has been seized by those we trusted to keep watch. Instead of keeping watch they decided to ignore the Constitution and work to detour around it. Congress continues to create and pass "Pretend Legislation," as they bypass the unalienable rights of We the People. For years, they have been seizing authority that is not theirs, for the purpose of controlling We the People, our land, our food, our families, our jobs, our children, our education, and our money. Politicians have ignored the rule of law, they are allowing crime and violence in the streets, they grew government to remove our Independence and make us dependent on government. We the People were like the frog in the water that was slowly brought to a boil. We the People accepted the social programs and willingly turned over our money (taxes) to provide entitlements.

The nature of mankind is to want power and "absolute power corrupts absolutely." While government elected officials and government appointed bureaucrats are to blame for the evil taking, the truth is that We the People were the ones who should have been standing watch and guard over our Liberty and Independence.

We the People are the ones who must remove the corruption. We the People must demand the restoration of our "Lost Principles." Then and only then will we be able to Bring America Home.©

Hard To Believe As It May Be, “Our, the American People’s” President Donald J. Trump is, yet again, under attack for his bombastic approach to dealing with America’s presidential office undertakings. President Donald J.’s haphazard way of conducting presidential business will bring about unintended – because they are unanticipated – consequences. Or, as media say a prominent Donald J., Critic says.

"He knows nothing and thinks he knows everything. That points clearly to a political career."

~ George Bernard Shaw

Unintended Consequences. “We, the American People,” if we are to give credence to President Donald J. Trump critics, are headed for Trump-induced mayhem. An example cited to show President Donald J.’s inability – or, unwillingness – to deal with dynamic matters is Donald J.s’ Administration dealing with deportation due process. See-Saw approach to tariffs would be another principal example.

"It is not in the nature of politics that the best men should be elected. The best men do not want to govern their fellowmen."

~ George E. MacDonald

It Would Be Smart For “Us, the American people” to not be lulled into thinking pre-President Donald J. Trump Administrations have forestalled unintended consequences. Virtually every presidential administration claims its financial policies will get America out of debt. National dent history tells a different story. And every presidential administration will claim unforeseen forces obstructed success.

"An election is coming. Universal peace is declared, and the foxes have a sincere interest in prolonging the lives of the poultry."

~ George Eliot

No Stretch To Say We, a sovereign citizenry, are at least as much to blame for government-induced unintended consequences. Similarly, no stretch to say we, a sovereign citizenry, have, by decision, not forced our government to deal with socio-economic matters apolitically. We’ve allowed government to confiscate [property (wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty). Unintended consequences thrive so.

"One sword keeps another in the sheath."

~ George Herbert

People Determined To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to infringe upon Americans' Bill-of-Rights protections; nor do they allow culpability for another person's behavior to be ascribed to their freedom to exercise their rights.
