It Would Bepit "Us, the American People" to concede works like Constitutions and their source material, along with their writers' expression skills, were not, are not, will not be, immutable, much less irreversible. People's compulsion to have final say will not allow them so to be. Were they so, America's courts, lowest-highest, would make no incorrect decisions in weighing provable evidence.

“Our, the American People’s” much lauded governmental system underpinned by representative Constitutional republic theory (and supposed philosophy) is up for grabs by persuasive argument based on PAVB held by legislators, chief government executives, judges, and a cavalcade of scholars, activists, clerics, and people looking for good discounts. There is no recipe for ideal government.

America’s 14th Was Consented in 1868, resources resourced accurate. It must not have fulfilled its purpose well enough. Come 1964, America’s federal (U.S./National) Constitution had its twenty-fourth amendment affixed. To guard against America’s 14th Amendment being inviolable by officialdom who decide people would pay to vote. Not allowed. Power seekers will have to be smarter.

“We, the American People” are advised, by a not-ro-also-ran media outlet we are not to summarily dismiss Pope Leo’s warning on Artificial Intelligence (AI). Rather, we are to contemplate how AI might distort truth based on human understanding imperfection. Whereas Bishops of Rome are as near Cosmos Creator’s infallibility as one can ever be. So, heed and abide by His Holiness AI admonition.

(The American Crisis by Thomas Paine, December 23, 1776)

I thank God, that I fear not. I see no real cause for fear. I know our situation well, and can see the way out of it. While our army was collected, Howe dared not risk a battle; and it is no credit to him that he decamped from the White Plains, and waited a mean opportunity to ravage the defenceless Jerseys; but it is great credit to us, that, with a handful of men, we sustained an orderly retreat for near an hundred miles, brought off our ammunition, all our field pieces, the greatest part of our stores, and had four rivers to pass. None can say that our retreat was precipitate, for we were near three weeks in performing it, that the country might have time to come in. Twice we marched back to meet the enemy, and remained out till dark. The sign of fear was not seen in our camp, and had not some of the cowardly and disaffected inhabitants spread false alarms through the country, the Jerseys had never been ravaged. Once more we are again collected and collecting; our new army at both ends of the continent is recruiting fast, and we shall be able to open the next campaign with sixty thousand men, well armed and clothed. This is our situation, and who will may know it. By perseverance and fortitude we have the prospect of a glorious issue; by cowardice and submission, the sad choice of a variety of evils - a ravaged country - a depopulated city - habitations without safety, and slavery without hope - our homes turned into barracks and bawdy-houses for Hessians, and a future race to provide for, whose fathers we shall doubt of. Look on this picture and weep over it! and if there yet remains one thoughtless wretch who believes it not, let him suffer it unlamented.

(The American Crisis Continues by Beth Ann)

I cannot honestly say with a clear conscience that I know “our” situation well. I could not help but notice “fake news” seemed to be a part of the tactics by the Tories back in 1776. We see this same tactic (fake news) today the Democrats, the Republican-RINOs, and our media; all fall into the category of modern-day Tories; they seem to hate America and feel no loyalty to our nation or to We the People.

Fear should not be what drives the people of this nation, for the miracles of our history prove that this nation was most assuredly blessed by God; founded on freedom of religion and established as a Christian nation. However, like other nations before us, it is the nature of man, as we are prone to wander and prone to leave the God we love. Perhaps when life becomes too easy, we get bored and then we chase the pleasures of the world and forget the blessings of God’s righteousness, and neglect to share the miracles for which God allowed this nation to become His. We have those miracles as a part of our history; so many unexplained miraculous wins for Freedom, yet we do not share these with our children as we should.

The enemy of Liberty today is threefold.

Godlessness

Apathy

Ignorance

The ignorance I speak of is not that of the mind but that of the heart. Many choose to not see and to not hear or even listen to the troubles of our day. Many prefer to stay neutral in all things political, while others complain but do nothing to make the necessary changes.

Many refuse to acknowledge that there are persons in prominent positions in our nation who now work to fundamentally change our governance. Why? I simply do not know or understand, except that the governance they tout is that of power over the people, which is the opposite of our Constitutional Republic. So, the only conclusion I can surmise is that their want for change is based solely on their greed for power.

There is also the nature of ignoring the danger that is in front of us. While some (heroic patriots) would work to remove the danger, others, not wanting to get involved, would leave the danger there and simply guide themselves around it, leaving the danger for the next person to deal with.

Godlessness is an obvious problem; we, as a nation, have forgotten that God's Laws come before any laws instituted by man. It has become extremely problematic that our legislators continue to pile on bills and laws; so many that there is no way to know these laws, much less, keep the laws. It is my opinion, and I believe it is an astute opinion, that too many laws create lawlessness; and I believe this is intentionally done by these men and women who were elected to protect our Liberty and preserve our Constitutional Republic. They are failing us badly!

It is the apathy of Americans that allowed the lawlessness and put up with the Godlessness. If we are not ourselves anchored in God's Word and His Laws, and then know and understand our Constitution, we are easy prey for the tyrants that rule in DC and in our State Capitals.

There is a cycle of the rise and fall of nations. Alexander Fraser Tytler wrote it this way:

“A democracy cannot exist as a permanent form of government. It can only exist until the voters discover that they can vote themselves largesse from the public treasury. From that moment on, the majority always votes for the candidates promising the most benefits from the public treasury with the result that a democracy always collapses over loose fiscal policy, always followed by a dictatorship. The average age of the world’s greatest civilizations has been 200 years. These nations have progressed through this sequence: From bondage to spiritual faith; From spiritual faith to great courage; From courage to liberty; From liberty to abundance; From abundance to selfishness; From selfishness to apathy; From apathy to dependence; From dependence back into bondage.”

I cannot help but wonder, with all the warnings given to us by our Founding Fathers, why do today’s politicians scream to save democracy, when it is democracy that is killing our Constitutional Republic?

Spiritual Faith is the Foundation of our Constitutional Republic. We the People must return to the God of our Fathers; the God of Abraham. It was easy to be apathetic and complacent, leaving the governing to others, but we cannot continue to leave them unchecked. We must also refuse the politics and the political rhetoric that glorifies sin and curses righteousness; our children are suffering at the hands of such evilness in America. There was once a law prohibiting sexual predators to be within a certain distance of our public schools, now, they are invited into our schools and libraries to prey upon our innocent children. God will not bless such behavior!

The phrase and meaning, “separation of church and state,” has been intentionally distorted. The State (meaning the government) cannot say we must all be Catholic, or we must all be Methodist, or Baptist, however, We the People are free to practice our faith, display our nativity scenes, pray at school events, or on the street corner, and our President is allowed to read scripture publicly...There is only one reason the Marxist-democrat party repeats this lie over and over again; they deny the very existence of God in our nation! Without Him to answer to, they can (or so they believe) perpetrate any tyranny upon us that they desire. By removing God, in their twisted minds, they will be the ones who decide what privileges (rights) you are allowed to enjoy. The Marxist-democrats do not believe in your Inalienable rights from God.

John Adams said it, “Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.”

If our Constitution isn't working, (Is that why they keep piling on laws?) perhaps we should look at the moral character of our leaders; our legislators. They are apparently morally bankrupt, and that is the reason they have a slush fund to “pay their way” out of their sins. Again, my opinion... House Speaker Mike Johnson claims to be a strong Christian, if so, he should remove this slush fund and expose the sins of his fellow representatives. The fact that he does not is sad and telling.

Look on this picture and weep over it! and if there yet remains one thoughtless wretch who believes it not, let him suffer it unlamented.

From Spiritual faith to great courage; We the People must rise up and stop this cycle of apathy and complacency, which is harming our children and destroying our nation. We must stand up together and...

Simple Question, Not So Simple answer. “Can’t we all just get along?” asked one Rodney King in last century decade Las Angeles riots wherein more 63 people stopped breathing, another 2,000 were injured. Provided, not-to-be-trusted AI sources are to be trusted. Notorious AI figures accurate, and calculator entries right, some 731 million people have been killed by wars or other intended violence.

“Control’s real name is bondage. The logical conclusion would be, if giving up some rights produces a better society, then by giving up all our rights we could produce a perfect society.”

731M People Killed Over Some 25 Centuries compared to Earth's 8.3B population nowadays, we're working on one person in a hundred getting killed because someone else wanted them dead - or intended they die. Even if they happened to be bystanders when munitions fell true. "We, the American People" could shrug it off as chump change paid to pursue freedom - or tyranny. Poison to be picked.

"The poorest man may, in his cottage, bid defiance to all the forces of the Crown. It may be frail, its roof may shake; the wind may blow though it; the storm may enter; the rain may enter; but the King of England may not enter; all his force dares not cross the threshold of the ruined tenement."

Answer To Rodney King's Simple Question might be simple after all. We haven't, we don't, historical odds and current state of human affairs suggest we won't. Not until, as a glaring example now, Iran is reduced to dust by "Our, the American People's" military might, complemented by military might from other nations waging war on Iran. Not to say Iran's leaders haven't been out to subdue people.

Media Has An Article Floating Around on how Christianity and Islam could, if Christianity and Islam would, dedicate Christianity and Islam to peaceful coexistence. Tall order. Fair to say all Faiths find their faith supremely true. Fair to say all Faiths are a little edgy other Faiths will take up residence and chip away at truth – and, as a result – their unmitigated duty to defend and proselytize their certainty.

“The Ten “Cannots” of Political Economy: You cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift ...strengthen the weak by weakening the strong ...help small men by tearing down big men ... help the wage-earner by tearing down the wage-payer ...further the brotherhood of mankind by encouraging class hatred ...help the poor by destroying the rich ...establish sound security on borrowed money ...keep out of trouble by spending more than you earn ...build character and courage by taking away man’s initiative ...help man permanently by doing for them what they could do and should do for themselves.”
