"Government seems to operate on the principle that if even one individual is incapable of using his freedom competently, no one can be allowed to be free."

~ Harry Browne

Authority Resting With – As Opposed to vested in – America's presidency has, according to a media article, been radically altered by America's Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS). Article in question claims SCOTUS has shifted federal a decision-making power from America's Congressional legislators to America's presidency. As such, SCOTUS would appear having law-making power.

"For those looking for security, be forewarned that there's nothing more insecure than a political promise."

~ Harry Browne

Federal Government Authority Is Broken Down by America's federal (U.S./National) Constitution, wherein are created three, co-equal federal government branches – legislative (Congress), executive (Presidency), and judicial (jurisprudence-law enforcement-court system). None having final say. Each branch is, in theory, entrusted with comparable power to keep any branch from being dictatorial.

"Liberty is always dangerous, but it is the safest thing we have."

~ Harry Hoiles

Constitutionally Speaking, America's SCOTUS renders opinions. As such, SCOTUS, much like any court, can render laws Constitutional, or, not. Law enforcement, be it of laws, or, of court decisions, rests with America's Executive Branch(es). Courts, in a manner of speaking, referee between legislative and executive branches. All said and done, sovereign citizenries legitimize government acts.

"There is no such thing as a majority right. Only those who understand and act according to this principle can promote true freedom."

~ Harry Hoiles

Communists hate successful commerce.

"We, the American People," if we expect to live in freedom under principles of Liberty, can not allow presumptuous legislator, chief executive, or magistrate to have supreme lawful power (branch over branches). It is ordinary people, acting as a sovereign citizenry, who forestall President Taft's observation of human urge from gaining lawful power to lay down rules of conduct for everyone else.

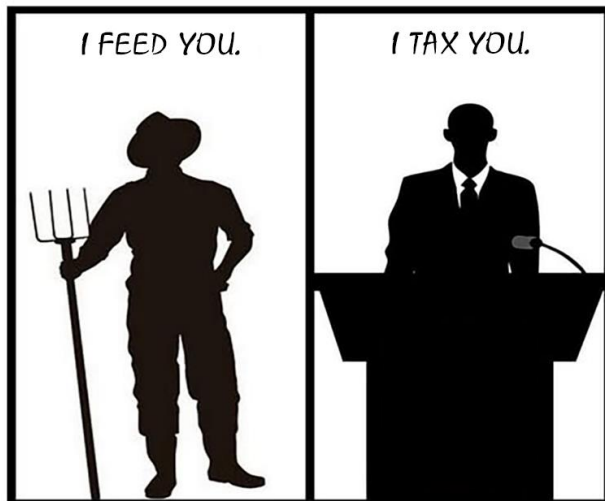

"Once a government is committed to the principle of silencing the voice of opposition, it has only one way to go, and that is down the path of increasingly repressive measures, until it becomes a source of terror to all its citizens and creates a country where everyone lives in fear. "

~ Harry Truman

Happy Killdozer day

because sometimes reasonable men must do unreasonable things.

IS IT REALLY HARD TO DECIDE WHO TO SUPPORT?

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to permit federal authorities or courts to define or limit their 10th Amendment powers beyond specific Constitutional constraint. They protect their lives and property against government intrusion.

"Our, the American People's" government, be it headed by likes of President Donald J. Trump or former President Joe Biden (and their groupies) can't resist exerting government clout to have their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) made lawfully compulsory. Their good intent is moot. Their acts are consequential. Laws are not voluntary, they're compulsory. PAVB laws abrogate choice.

Media Have, Amongst Others, Two examples of how "We, the American People" are subject to impacts of would-be laws. President Donald J. Trump's Administration is proposing a variant on tax-deferred savings accounts. Called "Trump Accounts," proposed accounts would put $1,000 public dollars in newborn savings accounts. At prevailing birth rate, $3.62B of public money per annum.

Two Congressional Legislators Would, were they able, take away choice from Americans by banning media (of all forms) from advertising drugs. Censorship Is Not An Uncommon Tactic used by tyrants and would-be tyrants. Secrecy may be despotism greatest ally; free society's worst enemy. Government are quick to vow their dedication to public safety. Public safety, in a tyrant's view, means ordinary people are kept from having information ordinary citizens might use as justification for dissent and resistance. Especially ending in reform.

The Incident on King Street

This my friends is not just an “incident” happening on the streets of LA, this is an insurrection, paid for by our enemies and promoted by the Democrat Party.

While war seems to be breaking out all around the globe, the Democrat Party, in their refusal to accept the will of We the People, are promoting chaos and violence here at home. One thing you can be assured of, is that when democrats point their fingers at Trump or other republicans, blaming them for the violence, you can be assured they are guilty of their own accusations. Gavin Newsom stated Trump wants a civil war. As governor, Gavin allowed his state to burn with wildfires. When the protests were obviously violent riots, it was Newsom who allowed violence and more burning of the state. Maybe Californians should ask themselves this question, "Why does Governor Newsom want our state to burn?"

This week (beginning with the weekend) has been a violent, chaotic, and dangerous mess in America. As the rioting in California became violent, and the democrats downplayed the violence, I heard one of them use the phrase, "there were a few isolated 'incidents.'" Those words sparked a memory from history.

On the evening of 5 March, 1770: An unruly crowd gathered in Boston outside the custom house on King Street to taunt with jeers and hurl snowballs at the British soldiers standing guard. A few weeks earlier, 11-year-old Christopher Seider had been killed when customs officer Ebenezer Richardson fired his gun through the window of his home as he tried to break up a rock pelting crowd. There were 2,000 British soldiers quartered in Boston, which had a population of only 16,000 colonists. The soldiers were guarding the King's money (taxes confiscated from the colonists), located in the custom house on King Street. The colonists felt threatened, angry and cheated. Let me make this clear, there was nothing "peaceful" happening on either side of these "incidents."

Fast forward to 2025: The democrats are saying that President Trump is acting like a king. Not true, but that doesn't stop them from their propaganda and lies. President Trump was stopping an insurrection being violently played out by illegal aliens (sponsored by enemies of America). The democrats claim these protestors are exercising their "First Amendment" rights... they are not! The Democrat Party is promoting the breaking of federal immigration laws. Governor Newsom declares his state to be a sanctuary state for all illegal aliens. They don't vet any of these illegals now residing in their state; were they criminals while in their own country? Are any of these illegal aliens, now claiming their own "communities," connected to "anti-American" terrorist groups? The sanctuary governors all have a "don't ask don't tell" attitude regarding the illegal aliens they are harboring and protecting. Ignoring the violent crimes being committed by their illegal aliens, these governors sat with stone cold faces before a congressional committee hearing. It is my opinion, that these governors, daring ICE to arrest them, should not only be arrested but held as accessories to the violent crimes being committed by the criminals they are harboring and protecting. Governor Kathy Hochul is an accessory to the crime and, in my opinion, is guilty of burning the sleeping woman alive in the subway.

The elected democrat congressional members pretend they have no accountability here, as they call President Trump a king, a nazi or a dictator. President Trump is acting according to his Constitutional "job description," and enforcing the federal laws. These federal laws were written and passed by Congress. Now the democrat members of congress want these laws to be ignored. It just doesn't work that way; and they know it! However, they assume and are counting on We the People not understanding that Congress (democrats & republicans) makes the laws; therefore, they are responsible for the laws about which they are complaining.

Back to Boston 1770: Reinforcements were called, unordered shots rang out, and when the smoke cleared three locals lay dead and another eight were wounded, two mortally. (The dead included Christmas Atties, a local dock worker, Miss Rachel Heritage, Samuel Gray, a local rope maker who was left with a hole the size of a fist in his head, sailor James Caldwell who was hit twice before dying, and Samuel Maverick and Patrick Karr.) It was not unusual for the British soldiers to “guard” or to be quartered among the civilians; thus the purpose of the Third Amendment “*No soldier shall, in time of peace be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.” That last bolded phrase is important to remember. Trump is using 10-U.S.C. 12406, found within Title 10, which outlines the President's authority to call National Guard members into federal service under specific circumstances. These circumstances include a foreign invasion, a rebellion against the government, or the President's inability to execute laws with regular forces. Essentially, it provides the legal basis for activating the National Guard for federal duty. President Trump issued a memorandum explaining his decision to take action in LA, California. Link to Trump’s memorandum: Department of Defense Security for the Protection of Department of Homeland Security Functions

The British Soldiers had no respect for the colonists in Boston and the tensions were running high. I’ll include a link here to a 2 minute YouTube video for you to watch.

The king's soldiers differ from our police today. The soldiers were there to protect the king's money (which was tax dollars taken from the colonists), while the police in LA and the National Guard are there to protect the people, all the people. They are there to allow peaceful demonstrations and to stop violent behavior. While the protestors are raising signs and shouting, "No King," President Trump is not acting as a king, but is following and enforcing the laws put in place by congress and fulfilling his roll according to the Constitution of the U.S.

Tensions ran high in Boston on the frigid snowy evening of March 5, 1770. The American colonists were bullied, overtaxed, and threatened by the King of Britain and his soldiers. America is now 255 years past the Boston Massacre, but we are experiencing a new threat; illegal aliens, anti-American democrats and anarchist governors, who are all willing to burn the American flag and raise a flag of another country on our soil. Insurrectionists? I say yes, they are! This my friends is not just an “incident” happening on the streets of LA, this is an insurrection, paid for by our enemies and promoted by the Democrat Party.

The incident on King Street sparked a revolution and a new nation was born, The United States of America. These violent riots and the raising foreign flags have worn out the patience of Americans. We are not falling for the disruptors; we cheer when the democrat senator is ushered out of a conference. We the People have grown quite frustrated with the lying media and the lying democrats; their violence will no longer intimidate us; we have a new sheriff in town. He was elected to bring peace, and law and order back to our nation.

Even though President Trump is doing all he can to fulfill the campaign promises, for which he was elected, he is getting punched at every turn. Rogue democrat judges are obstructionists trying to micro-manage the Executive branch, democrat congressional members are promising to be constant disrupters, and their loyal brown-nosing media continue to spread lies and propaganda against our President.

We the People need to let the democrats across this nation know, that we do not see their violence against our government as an “incident on King Street.” We the People, “the consent of the governed,” will no longer tolerate their anarchist behavior. (Love this sheriff: <https://dailycaller.com/2025/06/12/brevard-county-florida-sheriff-rioters/>)

Wars are breaking out all over the globe, We the People must not allow the democrats to force us into a civil war.

It Might Occur To “Us, the American People” tax revenue exacted from commerce funds all government programs and projects, regardless purpose. Given those of us, who are BBB-defined in need by government subsidies accorded us, then such subsidies are underwritten by America’s business economy. Nowhere In America’s Commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), or state Constitutions are “We, the American People,” a sovereign citizenry, obliged to serve arbitrary government. America’s Constitutions, though, accord America’s legislators with power to make laws upholding Constitutionality. Therein lies a fundamental flaw. Legislators legislate as they find is fitting for us.

No Question, It Is Forceful for legislators – or their critics – to argue proposed legislation benefits or harms needy children when arguing for lawful help for needy people. Children are not able to help themselves. So, adults help them till they can. Legislators are in a unique position of having power to decide how much help children get from tax-paying adults. Making legislators arbiters of need.

"Wherever politics intrudes upon economic life, political success is readily attained by saying what people like to hear rather than what is demonstrably true. Instead of safeguarding truth and honesty, the state then tends to become a major source of insincerity and mendacity."
