"Under a government which imprisons any unjustly, the true place for a just man is also a prison."

~ Henry David Thoreau

Dr. Murray Banks Has It, no matter anything anyone does, there is always a reason. "We, the American People" could conclude America's legislators who are for non-citizens to have voting rights are so for a reason. Altruists might argue such legislators are in favor of everyone having a say in how America's government works. Others, more Constitutionally inclined, would argue Constitutionality prevails.

"Unjust laws exist: shall we be content to obey them, or shall we endeavor to amend them, and obey them until we have succeeded, or shall we transgress them at once?"

~ Henry David Thoreau

It Is No Stretch To Argue legislators say and do as they say and do to get and stay elected. Those who get and stay elected get and stay elected by getting more votes than their opponents. Given “Our, the American People’s” legislators have lawful power to confiscate people’s property (wealth) and give confiscated property (wealth) to those they (legislators) decide shall have it will get recipient votes.

"Government never furthered any enterprise but by the alacrity with which it got out of its way."

~ Henry David Thoreau

Baring Few And Far Between Exceptions, i might occur to “Us, the American People,” non-citizens in America are of meager means. Those of-meager-means-non-citizens would be inclined to vote for legislative office candidates who promise non-citizens of meager means some property (wealth) confiscated from other people. Legislators would, wisely, characterize such subsidies government help.

"Disobedience is the true foundation of liberty."

~ Henry David Thoreau

Arguments For Non-Citizens To Have voting rights come from notions voting is, somehow, a right not to be denied, regardless how legal footings are scant to none. They who strive for non-citizens to vote would, understandably, interpret voting requirements as not absolute; rather, different on a case basis. Courts, if courts be impartial, interpret Constitutional and legal voting requirements as written.

"If I deny the authority of the State when it presents my tax bill, it will soon take and waste all my property, and so harass me and my children without end."

~ Henry David Thoreau

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to offer amnesty to illegal aliens. They protect against intrusion on their homes and homeland.

"All voting is a sort of gaming, like checkers or back gammon, with a slight moral tinge to it, a playing with right and wrong, with moral questions; and betting naturally accompanies it...."

"A wise man will not leave the right to the mercy of chance, nor wish it to prevail through the power of the majority. There is but little virtue in the action of masses of men."

~ Henry David Thoreau

"Our, the American People's" legislators bicker over lots of issues, for lots of reason. There is one issue they ought not bicker over – for any reason. America's safety. America's safety. Not for an instant, nor for any reason. America's Commander-in-Chief and America's Golden State Chief Government Executive (both legislators, therefor, both out to control people by lawful force. Force.

"The fate of the country does not depend on how you vote at the polls — the worst man is as strong as the best at that game; it does not depend on what kind of paper you drop into the ballot-box once a year, but on what kind of man you drop from your chamber into the street every morning."

~ Henry David Thoreau

I'll defeat you with psychic powers

"We, the American People" would be justified to take both President Donald J. Trump and Governor Gavin Newsom to task for their handling of exacerbated deportation demonstrations in California. Once a situation escalates to a point where local law enforcement is insufficiently equipped to handle it, and military level force required, it should be no more than tactics.

"If you see a man approaching you with the obvious intent of doing you good, you should run for your life."

~ Henry David Thoreau

Neither Governor Newsom, Nor President Doanld J. Trump were reported taking riot shield in hand and wading into demonstrator ranks. Nor, should ether be. Their jobs, as command center-level commanders, is to get rid of obstacles in their troops' way, not end up as obstacles. Demonstrations are within Liberty's political landscape; destruction and personal injury are not. Objective is cessation.

"It is not desirable to cultivate a respect for the law, so much as for the right. The only obligation which I have a right to assume is to do at any time what I think right."

~ Henry David Thoreau

It Would Be Smart For "Us, the American People" to spank President Donald J. Trump and Governor Givin Newsom heavy and hard for allowing California deportation riots to get beyond protest level. There is no reason why they could not have done so. Granted, unruly mobs are never predictable. Unruly mobs, though, are people - people who, by-and-large, don't take on firepower with rocks.

"Law never made men a whit more just; and, by means of their respect for it, even the well-disposed are daily made the agents of injustice."

~ Henry David Thoreau

People Prepared To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to public (government) schools to delve into their children's attitudes, values, or beliefs. They school their children to become independent thinking sovereign citizens.

"Any fool can make a rule, and any fool will mind it."

The American Crisis Continues: TYRANNY

Tyranny changes the rules, amends the contract, ignores the rule of law, spreads falsehoods, and sows discord among the people.

HAPPY INDEPENDENCE DAY! (weekend)

I have created a four-part series of shows, which began Thursday, June 29, 2023.

I've titled the series, The American Declaration of Patriotism. I will take us through a timeline of America's Revolutionary War for Independence!

The shows are building up July 4 and will finish that day with a dramatic reading of our Declaration of Independence.

I'm posting here and article I wrote and only shared in part during this series of shows.

Thomas Paine wrote, The American Crisis; I believe The American Crisis Continues, Tyranny!

The American Crisis Continues

TYRANNY

Tyranny is a vicious enemy. Limitless with its tactics to subdue a people and conquer their land. Tyranny is cunning and deceitful, never hiding its face, just its intentions. Disguised as a do-gooder, Tyranny preys on our emotions and uses our own system of governance against us. Tyranny changes the rules, amends the contract, ignores the rule of law, spreads falsehoods, and sows discord among the people.

Tyranny has many names but do not be fooled. Tyranny is a viper set out to control and enslave all people, tyranny cares not about your race, gender or even your political views. Tyranny masquerades as democracy, socialism, communism, Marxism and takes on titles such as congressman or congresswoman, bureaucrat, and journalist. It infiltrates into clubs, schools, universities and non-profit organizations and associations, many of which are supposedly serving the “good of the whole community.” The good they serve, however, is for self-supremacy and dominance.

Tyranny has many soldiers and is well funded. There are many people who fall for the outward beauty of wealth and prestige and who will sell their own grandmother for power.

Tyranny sees sovereignty as an evil creature.

Tyranny is godless seeking only to be a god.

Tyranny produces nothing but destruction, pain, and death.

Americans must awaken and hear this clarion call. Tyranny is not a distant enemy but is here. Tyranny is a parasite, sucking the life from America, canceling our history, and removing liberty from this land and from all the people.

Let it be known Tyranny did not come without an invitation. The door was opened by the apathy and complacency of We the People. We were to guard our Republic, but we did not. Do we now weep for liberty, which we have lost, or do we simply not understand the substance & sacrifice for which we once were made privileged? Our Fathers before us spoke of liberty, fought for liberty, and died for liberty, yet we worry we might be verbally ostracized or labeled a radical if we even speak the word liberty.

We are a people searching and wandering in a wilderness of our own making. Our wilderness is filled with fear and confusion. A nation once built on the Godly principles of Equality, Liberty and Biblical morals is now hidden in an abyss of godlessness and sin. Where once there was light and hope there is now despair and darkness. A Republic “of the people, by the people and for the people” is now a socialist democracy; a mob ruling over We the People.

(Quote: Abraham Lincoln Gettysburg address November 19, 1863)

Tyranny doesn't have to be king-inflicted. Government officials gone rogue and drunk with power will do as much or more damage as the power of a single king. Our own Thomas Jefferson warned us, "The tyranny of the legislature is really the danger most to be feared, and will continue to be so for many years to come."

Tyranny is where we are; now what shall we do?

Thomas Paine wrote in his fourth article, The Crisis, "THOSE who expect to reap the blessings of freedom, must, like men, undergo the fatigues of supporting it."

Glean from our history America; the good, the bad and the ugly. For it is from our past that the future can and will be built. The wrongs we vow never to repeat and the good we accentuate.

When the legislature distorts our rights and excuses our liberty, freedom in America dies...at which time, "It is our right! It is our Duty! To throw off such government!" (From the words of our original Declaration of Independence.)

When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.

Get in the trenches America! Because of the wisdom and great sacrifice of our Founding Fathers, we have a Constitutional Foundation, which lays out all our rights and the important government restrictions. There are certain unalienable rights those who are “in power” are never to abuse. Do you know those rights?

Simple solutions can be the most difficult.

Place God first

Be a person of prayer

Know your rights!

Study the Constitution

Read again the Bill of Rights

Study the Declaration of Independence and concentrate on the grievances laid out by our Founding Fathers

Do not believe all you are told

Run for office

Attend local meetings (School Board, City, County)

Prioritize! Liberty or Security? Convenience or Independence?

God must be first in our lives; Our Family must be second; Our country's health must come third but that doesn't mean last. The health of this nation depends on the first two priorities.

Live above reproach and practice Integrity in your life's walk.

“Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other.” — John Adams

The Democrats are doing their best to remove God from our schools, our churches, and our government! They hate God!

Even if you are not a believer, respecting others and understanding boundaries in humanity is imperative to living free and in peace. The trusted Biblical saying, “Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the law and the prophets.” Matthew 7:12 KJV

Thomas Paine signed each of his writings, Common Sense. Apply commonsense to all your life.

Live as a free man or free woman! Stop living in fear of government and start getting involved. Stop choosing government help and assistance and work toward personal independence.

In our own apathy, our liberty was seized. The opposite of apathy is enthusiasm. “There is a certain enthusiasm in liberty, causing mankind to rise above itself in acts of bravery and heroism.” Alexander Hamilton.

What acts of bravery or heroism are required now to restore Liberty to America?

The battle plan has already been laid out in our most valued documents. Independence was WON... but a constant vigilance of the people, watching and always questioning the motives of our own legislators is imperative to conserving Liberty for the next generations!

“Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction. We didn't pass it to our children in the bloodstream. It must be fought for, protected, and handed on for them to do the same, or one day we will spend our sunset years telling our children and our children's children what it was once like in the United States where men were free.” Ronald Reagan

The same can be said for our eternal salvation, we don't pass it in the bloodstream to our children, we must teach it to them and nurture them in God's Word and demonstrate His love in our daily walk.

The war is here upon our land. It has not been declared but it is here, nonetheless. Land has been seized, rights have been redefined to favor the tyrannous leaders, industries have been crushed, violent crimes have been allowed against Americans, their cities, businesses and homes, trade has been unfairly negotiated, livelihoods destroyed, all for a globalist agenda. No longer are you to take pride in America, for that is deemed an unworthy cause.

It is said there was an insurrection on January 6, 2021. I say to you, there were a few bad actors but there were no patriots armed and ready to kill or overtake our government. The true insurrection of this country and of our government has been from within our own elected officials. It didn't just happen; it has been decades of patient planning and seizing of individual rights and private property.

Theirs was an insurrection, more invasive and more evil than any mob could ever be. With shrewd cunning, patience and corrupt intent, the very ones who supposedly took an oath to the U.S. Constitution and We the People, have been legislating against it for over a century of time.

Their corruption was made evident when an outsider (Donald J. Trump, the 45th President of the United States of America) escalated his way to D.C. by way of We the People.

I tell you now, refuse all conversations claiming “democracy” ~ The United States of America is a Constitutional Republic. A Republic is a form of government in which the people are in charge. Democracy always ends badly for the people of a nation – turning into an oligarchy and ruling over the people, not representative of the people.

Life – Liberty and the Pursuit of happiness are more than just words.

Liberty is always in the hands of the people, but it must be a longing in their hearts to be a free and independent people.

Our Founding Fathers signed a document pledging, their lives – their fortunes and their sacred honors.

Tyranny is a vicious enemy! Does America have any today who will be so brave as to pledge to fight and defeat tyranny, as those 56 Signers did in 1776?

~ Helmuth James

It Would Be Smart For "Us, the American People" to not be unduly impressed by how media reporters choose words. Nor unduly impressed by those who make their way in politics, or, rate how those in politics are adept at dialectics. Being impressed by someone's words does not, necessarily, mean whoever is talking is making sense or being factual. Actors are skilled in oration, in portrayal.

"The spirit of truth and the spirit of freedom -- they are the pillars of society."

~ Henrik Ibsen

"Our, the American People's" media has an article in circulation wherein a governor is praised for putting a Congressional legislator in legislator's place by using words to take away legislator's validity when asking as to governor's priorities in using public money. Governor's response was taken by article writer as praiseworthy and decidedly apropos. Scrutiny reveals nothing notably noteworthy.

"One of the qualities of liberty is that, as long as it is being striven after, it goes on expanding."

~ Henrik Ibsen

"We, the American People" are subjected to routine wordsmithing by legislators and advocates out to get a lion's share of other people's property (wealth) through lawful confiscation. A common argument for confiscating people's property (wealth) is focused on need versus possession. Always a good argument to claim wealthy people have more than they need, while less fortunate way have too little.

"You should never wear your best trousers when you go out to fight for freedom and liberty."

~ Henrik Ibsen

It Would Be Smart for those of us faced with demands for our property (wealth) to inquire of those making demands how they are working to empower those who need with skills to become self-reliant, thus, not having to depend on others for their well-being. Charity is a fine thing. Better we work for as little need for charity as we can. People's wealth can only be taken once. Thereafter, is slavery.

"One of the qualities of liberty is that, as long as it is being striven after, it goes on expanding. Therefore, the man who stands in the midst of the struggle and says, 'I have it,' merely shows by doing so that he has just lost it."

~ Henrik Ibsen
