How Governor Newsom (Who is reported pursuing a presidential run consideration), as America's president, would move to protect ICE agents encountering hostility is hard to say. Wouldn't be much of a surprise, were a President Newsome to take steps to protect prospective deportees from ICE arrest. Would-be President Newsom has accused President Donald J. There Are, No Doubt, more than a few of "Us, the American People" who would argue there is no IIMR problem. Let people alone; if they want to come to America, let them come. It Would Not Be A Stretch to say “Our, the American People’s” government has shown it is incapable of dealing with IIMR to our, as a society’s, satisfaction. There Is ample evidence to show our diverse stands on IIMR deportation have little, if any, inclination to settle IIMR problem cooperatively. Given our deportation impasse, there is little chance we’ll find a workable solution anytime soon.

~ Henry Hazlitt

America’s Courts, Thus Far, Have Not been able to reach anything close to a consensus on deportation. America’s Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS), while SCOTUS Justices might rule on IIMR, is sure to do nothing more than feed deportation fire. SCOTUS seldom finds unanimously. However SCOTUS rules, SCOTUS has no enforcement power. We do, if we’ll use it.

8-12-2024

For the first time in the history of our nation, America did not have a peaceful transition of power. Think back America to January 20 of 2017. There was nothing peaceful about the transfer of power from Obama to President Trump. When Donald Trump won the presidency in 2016, the democrats in congress refused to attend the inauguration, which means they refused the elective choice of We the People.

Democracy is their cry but a dictatorship is their goal. As President Trump gave his inaugural speech it was said by the media to be a dark speech. I heard nothing dark; Is it a bad thing to say, "We will restore our beautiful republic?" I suppose it is to those who have insurrected our Constitutional form of government, and busied themselves establishing a bureaucratic oligarchy where power is given to the unelected.

Immediately, the democrats joined by some RINOs, started their collusion of conspiracies, which led to two unwarranted impeachments, based on lies. It was a coup then, as it is yet today. Obama knew all about the FAKE Dossier and approved it to go forward. You see, Obama wants to hold power and destroy (fundamentally change) America, and the democrats with the help of RINOs are all for that as well. Liz Cheney is a traitor to this nation, as was John McCain. McCain aided the distribution of the FAKE Dossier. (Remember John McCain treated Sara Palin horribly! He might have served in the military and was a POW, but he was no hero thereafter.) The medias went along with the collusion, they spoke and did exactly as they were told; not unwillingly. Because of this open and blatant coercion, they now have very little credibility among We the People, at least those of us who are paying attention.

There was no peaceful transition in 2017, and they are promising no peaceful transition in 2025. When President Donald John Trump once again wins the votes of We the People, traitorous members of congress, such as Jamie Raskin, promise to block the people's election of President Donald John Trump. They promise, as Liz Cheney, they will not allow Trump back into the White House; no matter what! This means, they will block the will of the American people. They will not bother with screaming of a fraudulent election, they plan to claim Trump is an insurrectionist and congressionally block him from entering the White House. Raskin even mentioned causing a civil war. You see, these elite do not care about democracy, the Constitution or this nation, they care only for power! We the People; will never again hear or see of a thing such as, "Consent of the Governed," as avowed to us all in the Declaration of Independence.

These elites have seized our Constitutional Republic and turned it into an Oligarchy of power for themselves and the bureaucrats, and they will not give up their power without a fight!

They have declared war against We the People and it's time that We the People accommodate them and fight back with all our might! We the People must exercise our rightful authority over this oligarchy and disband it once and for all; Restore our Republic!

The elite neither deserve nor belong in America!

I believe I shared this on air several years ago, however when last evening Mark Levin shared it on his Sunday evening show, I decided to take another look at it to understand better our "enemy."

Thus Always To Bad Elites

Excerpt: American Mind

by Ted McAllister March 16, 2021

<https://americanmind.org/salvo/thus-always-to-bad-elites/>

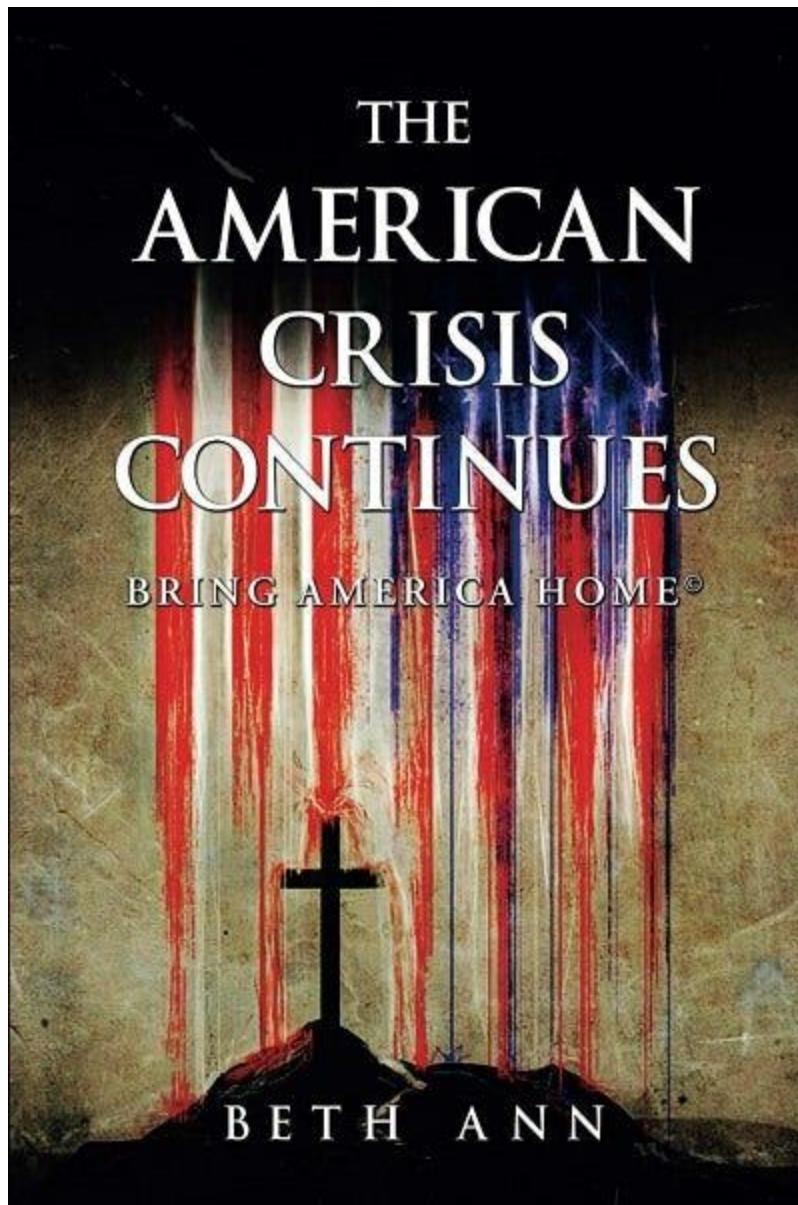

Today, we have a very different elite than America did as recently as the 1980s in terms of their nature, goals, ambitions, style, and ways of exercising power. The deepest fact of our time is that America has a bad elite, a mendacious one whose skills, values, goals, tastes, and types of knowledge are hostile to our nation's inherited cultures and plural people. The new elite that has emerged in the last generation or two has no interest in preserving anything but perhaps their own power. They lack historical knowledge and vision, which they supplant by, or exchange for, the powers of transformation and change. Intoxicated by the power possible with emerging technologies, inspired by visions that only a deracinated globalist perspective could make attractive, this elite thinks of creative destruction as applied to culture.

As winners in what they imagine to be a meritocratic struggle, they can see nothing of an inherited world worth preserving for their very success. The peculiar characteristics of their evolving power have given to our new elite the soul of adolescent art applied to a global canvas. They lack any experiential or historical ballast to weigh them down, to slow them in remaking everything according to their desires. For them, streamlining power is key to creation and the annoying obstacles to their new creations are not really checks to prevent tyranny but, rather, limitations—unnecessary friction in the headlong rush to transform. (end excerpt)

The enemy(elite) will never give up; therefore, we must not give up; EVER! We can defeat our enemy over and over again, yet he will continue to rise in the name of some other ideology, which is nothing more or less than tyranny by some other name. The enemy-elite has some power but want absolute power – the enemy is corrupt and will stop at nothing to keep and increase power. The enemy is ruthless. Tyranny is the enemy.

TYRANNY

by Beth Ann

Tyranny is a vicious enemy. Limitless with its tactics to subdue a people and conquer their land. Tyranny is cunning and deceitful, never hiding its face just its intentions. Disguised as a do-gooder, Tyranny preys on our emotions and uses our own system of governance against us. Tyranny changes the rules, amends the contract, ignores the rule of law, spreads falsehoods, and sows discord among the people.

Tyranny has many names but do not be fooled, tyranny is a viper set out to control and enslave all people; tyranny cares not about your race, gender or even your political views.

Tyranny has many soldiers and is well funded. There are many people who fall for the outward beauty of wealth and prestige and who will sell their own grandmother for power.

Tyranny produces nothing but destruction, pain and death.

Americans must awaken and hear this clarion call. Tyranny is not a distant enemy but is here. Tyranny is a parasite, sucking the life from America; canceling our history and removing Liberty from this land and from all the people.

Thomas Paine wrote in The Crisis, “THOSE who expect to reap the blessings of freedom, must, like men, undergo the fatigues of supporting it.”

Upgrade to paid

There should be no doubt in the minds of any of us that today we need to prepare for a battle, and that battle is for Liberty in America. We do not want, nor seek, to fight this war that is being thrust upon us, but if we are called to this, by golly we will win this war, so that Liberty will belong to our posterity.

When in the Course of human events, it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation.

We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.--That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, --That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness.

Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of happiness are more than just words.

Liberty is always in the hands of the people, but it must be a longing in their hearts to be a free and independent people.

Tyranny is a vicious enemy! Does America have any today who will be so brave, as to pledge to fight and defeat tyranny, as those 56 Signers did in 1776?

Excerpts: Ronald Reagan's inaugural speech, January 20, 1981

“To a few of us here today this is a solemn and most momentous occasion, and yet in the history of our nation it is a commonplace occurrence. The orderly transfer of authority as called for in the Constitution routinely takes place, as it has for almost two centuries, and few of us stop to think how unique we really are. In the eyes of many in the world, this every-4-year ceremony we accept as normal is nothing less than a miracle.

Mr. President, I want our fellow citizens to know how much you did to carry on this tradition. By your gracious cooperation in the transition process, you have shown a watching world that we are a united people pledged to maintaining a political system which guarantees individual liberty to a greater degree than any other, and I thank you and your people for all your help in maintaining the continuity which is the bulwark of our Republic.”

To this I must say; this is not happening now in America; they (the elite) have broken all that we stand for!

Reagan continues; “In this present crisis, government is not the solution to our problem; government is the problem.

We are a nation that has a government -- not the other way around. And this makes us special among the nations of the Earth. Our government has no power except that granted it by the people. It is time to check and reverse the growth of government, which shows signs of having grown beyond the consent of the governed.”

I believe it is fair to surmise that every American crisis is the cause of government.

Reagan continues: “Freedom and the dignity of the individual have been more available and assured here than in any other place on Earth. The price for this freedom at times has been high, but we have never been unwilling to pay that price.

It is no coincidence that our present troubles parallel and are proportionate to the intervention and intrusion in our lives that result from unnecessary and excessive growth of government.

On the eve of our struggle for independence a man who might have been one of the greatest among the Founding Fathers, Dr. Joseph Warren, president of the Massachusetts Congress, said to his fellow Americans, ‘Our country is in danger, but not to be despaired of ...On you depends the fortunes of America. You are to decide the important questions upon which rests the happiness and the Liberty of millions yet unborn. Act worthy of yourselves.’

And as we renew ourselves here in our own land, we will be seen as having greater strength throughout the world. We will again be the exemplar of freedom and a beacon of hope for those who do not now have freedom.

As for the enemies of freedom, those who are potential adversaries, they will be reminded that peace is the highest aspiration of the American people. We will negotiate for it, sacrifice for it; we will not surrender for it, now or ever.

Our forbearance should never be misunderstood. Our reluctance for conflict should not be misjudged as a failure of will. When action is required to preserve our national security, we will act. We will maintain sufficient strength to prevail if need be, knowing that if we do so we have the best chance of never having to use that strength.

Above all, we must realize that no arsenal or no weapon in the arsenals of the world is so formidable as the will and moral courage of free men and women. It is a weapon our adversaries in today's world do not have. It is a weapon that we as Americans do have. Let that be understood by those who practice terrorism and prey upon their neighbors.

Under one such marker lies a young man, Martin Treptow, who left his job in a small town barbershop in 1917 to go to France with the famed Rainbow Division. There, on the western front, he was killed trying to carry a message between battalions under heavy artillery fire.

We're told that on his body was found a diary. On the flyleaf under the heading, 'My Pledge,' he had written these words: 'America must win this war. Therefore, I will work, I will save, I will sacrifice, I will endure, I will fight cheerfully and do my utmost, as if the issue of the whole struggle depended on me alone.'

The crisis we are facing today does not require of us the kind of sacrifice that Martin Treptow and so many thousands of others were called upon to make. It does require, however, our best effort and our willingness to believe in ourselves and to believe in our capacity to perform great deeds, to believe that together with God's help we can and will resolve the problems which now confront us. And after all, why shouldn't we believe that? We are Americans.

God bless you, and thank you."

President Reagan had wisdom and vision not unlike that of our Founding Fathers; the elite of today harbor the extreme opposite. They started this war and We the People must now be the ones to meet the enemy and defeat him or them!

Perhaps like Martin Treptow, we too shall now have the tenacity of his own personal pledge, "America must win this war. Therefore, I will work, I will save, I will sacrifice, I will endure, I will fight cheerfully and do my utmost, as if the issue of the whole struggle depended on me alone."

HOW IT STARTED

HOW IT'S GOING

Select all the squares with peaceful protests.

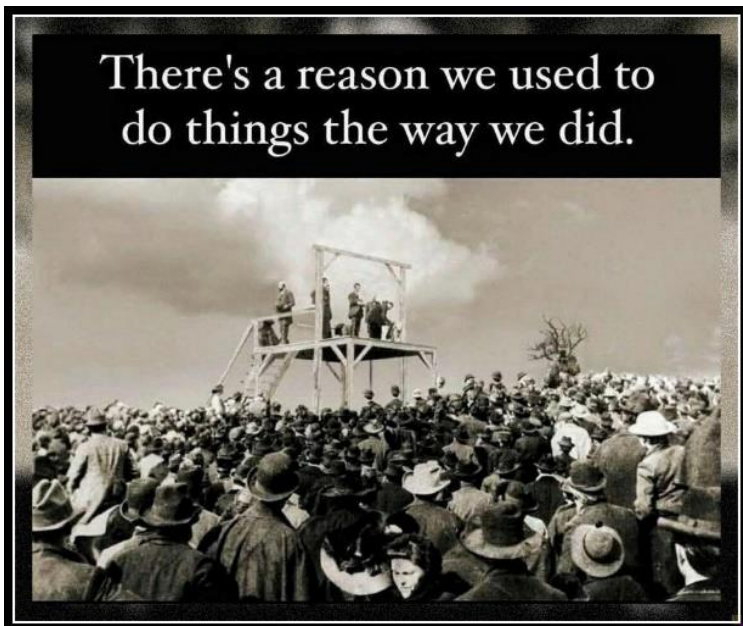

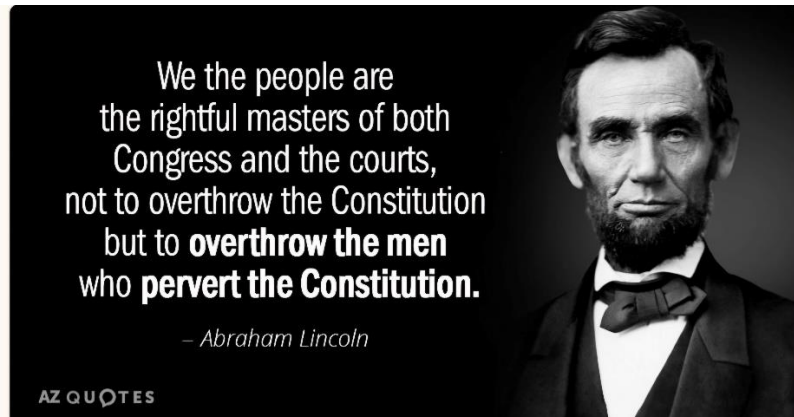

America's Representative Constitutional Republic government system is supposed to hold all people in just regard. America's laws, thusly, are, ostensibly to reflect Constitutionality at every turn. Legislators, however, by interpreting Constitutionality by their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) decide how Constitutionality shall be applied. Our freedom lies in defending our PAVB,

"It is well enough that people of the nation do not understand our banking and monetary system, for if they did, I believe there would be a revolution before tomorrow morning."

~ Henry Ford

"We, the American People," along with people everywhere, are subject to how our government decides to affect our lives with selective, arbitrary, and discriminatory legislation, taxation, and regulation (SADLT&R). America's government's use of SADLT&R is evident in courts overturning courts, executive branches countering predecessors, legislatures altering predecessor laws. Incoherence.

People Determined To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to enter into defined-benefit contracts with collective bargaining units. They preclude government from eroding their assets through property confiscation.

"punish with a tax the man who covers barren fields with ripening grain; we fine him who puts up machinery and him who drains a swamp."

~ Henry George

"I gave my life for freedom -- This I know; For those who bade me fight had told me so."

~ William Norman Ewer

- It's your property, not "State" property.
- Let Freedom Ring – Abolish Direct Taxation
Require Citizen-Controlled Taxation

“Nothing is more difficult, and therefore more precious, than to be able to decide.”

~ Napoleon Bonaparte

“No tendency is quite so strong in human nature as the desire to lay down rules of conduct for other people.”

~ President Taft
