"The right of citizens to bear arms is just one guarantee against arbitrary government, one more safeguard against the tyranny which now appears remote in America but which historically has proven to be always possible."

~ Hubert H. Humphrey

"Our, the American People's" legislators can't seem to get along. Media report them bickering to points of behavior bad enough to warrant arrests. In recent weeks, reports have it democrats are those getting law enforcement intervention, some intervention intense enough to prompt Congressional democrats to write letters demanding explanations for their colleagues having been restrained.

"[I]t is true that [the provisions of the Bill of Rights] were designed to meet ancient evils. But they are the same kind of human evils that have emerged from century to century whenever excessive power is sought by the few at the expense of the many."

~ Hugo Black

"We, the American People," while we have, over some two-and-a-half centuries, not seen fit to have America's legislators' get out of socio-economic matters, have not taken steps to avoid having our tax money cover costs of legislators bickering amongst themselves, rather than attending to public business benefitting all Americans equally. Happens when personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) rule.

"Every government is run by liars and nothing they say should be believed."

~ I.F. Stone

It Might Occur To "Us, the American People," if we take some time and do some clear thinking, government solutions for socio-economic problems are never helpful to everyone. Government solutions make losers and winners. Losers are bent on retribution; winners never win enough. Worse, legislators are always alert to let both sides know they'll make it all better if we keep them in office.

"Liberty is the possibility of doubting, the possibility of making a mistake, the possibility of searching and experimenting, the possibility of saying No to any authority – literary, artistic, philosophic, religious, social, and even political."

~ Ignazio Silone

President Donald J. Trump, Despite his popular and electoral majorities, and, depending on one's view, is working on fulfilling his campaign promises, is far from keeping people satisfied with his policies and efforts. If anything, his progress has created as much uncertainty as it has heightened constituent confidence. President Donald J.'s PAVB are no less controversial than other legislators'

"Freedom is independence of the compulsory will of another, and in so far as it tends to exist with the freedom of all according to a universal law, it is the one sole original inborn right belonging to every man in virtue of his humanity."

"Our, the American People's" commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions are veritable whipping boys for legislators, and anyone who wants to influence how America's government shall operate. Media have an article in circulation wherein a Congressional House of Representatives legislators demands a President Donald J. Trump Cabinet member appear for cause. Misconduct cause.

"While boasting of our noble deeds we're careful to conceal the ugly fact that by an iniquitous money system we have nationalized a system of oppression which, though more refined, is not less cruel than the old system of chattel slavery."

OKLAHOMA PASSES LAW PROTECTING DRIVERS WHO UNINTENTIONALLY KILL, INJURE RIOTERS WHILE FLEEING

It Would Be Smart For “Us, the American People” to take a din vier of how America’s legislators, judges, and chief executives conduct their official affairs, with respect to their positional authority. America’s Constitutions are sufficiently generic in substance to invite interpretation. No legislator would concede to writing unconstitutional laws. Legislators accuse legislators of doing exactly so.

"Politics is the means by which the will of the few becomes the will of the many."

~ Howard Koch

It Would Not Be A Nuisance Argument to hold America's legislators, magistrates, and chief government executives responsible for America's socio-economic discord. We would, similarly, be tilting at windmills to expect government to lessen socio-economic discord. Presuming government is not up to tyrannical no good. We can, as a sovereign citizenry, cull government lawful power to us.

"Keynesianism is not a theory of economics. It is a confidence game, and the question is not whether they can correctly predict the future. The question is, can they gain your confidence and get you to act in such a manner that they can steal your wealth?"

There's an obvious and awkward silence over at the FOX News Network (they call themselves the "conservative" news network...) regarding the censorship and silencing of Newsmax and OAN by AT&T and Direct TV. Perhaps the Fox Network doesn't feel the need to defend FREE SPEECH if it's silencing their competitors...

Censorship and media blackouts remain strong in our ONCE Free America. Whether it be "someone's" laptop, election discrepancies, the contents of "classified documents," a chemical spill in the heartland of Ohio, traveling spy balloons, or the complete censoring of conservative news networks by AT&T and Direct TV, America seems to be on a need-to-know basis; and “they’ll” decide when you need to know or if you ever need to know.

The ignorance of the people is the power of the government.

Our First Amendment reads: "Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances."

Censorship of conservatives has been going on for a long time. Facebook and Twitter both banned President Donald Trump. The banning of a US President was a sign America was under tyranny by the “permanent” government, also known as the deep state. The government “institutions” are controlling nearly all of America’s media outlets.

There’s an obvious and awkward silence coming out of the FOX News Network.

The Fox News Network was quick to ‘STAND BY’ CNN when the Trump administration had to punish Jim Acosta for his arrogant, physical, and disrespectful behavior during a White House press conference. Remember how Acosta slapped and pushed away the young girl’s arm when she tried to retrieve the microphone from him, after President Trump told him he was done? Acosta refused to respect the President of the United States.

Acosta was out of line!

However, Fox News, including Sean Hannity, thought the temporary banning of Acosta from the WH Press Conferences, was a violation of free speech. Personally, I thought he should never have been allowed back in the White House! Freedom of speech does have some responsibilities and the way Acosta and the MSM Press treated President Donald Trump was pathetic and shameful. Disrespecting the elected President of the United States of America was the same as disrespecting all those who voted for him, as well as this nation on the world stage.

Sean Hannity, probably the highest paid opinion talk show host, said, “We stand by CNN.” Sean often speaks out against boycotts. Boycotting is free speech. Hannity is wrong and since he’s into being “graded” lately, I give Sean Hannity a D-minus when it comes to the heart of supported truth in free speech.

In order to keep our freedom of speech, Americans must practice our free speech. Boycotting companies who are WOKE and who continually spend their big corporate dollars against America, is a responsibility of all Americans. It is up to Americans to make their voices heard. Denying our hard-earned money to the WOKE circle of globalists, and putting our money and support behind those companies and institutions that actually value America, is exercising Free Speech! I recently stopped shopping (boycotting) my local Ulta Beauty store because of their WOKE store displays picturing transgenders.

So, when Direct TV and AT&T “censor” and bully OAN and Newsmax... where is FOX NEWS? Where is the freedom of speech talking head, Sean Hannity, maybe they’re all still standing with CNN?

Samuel Adams, political activist and state legislator, spoke out against British efforts to tax the colonists, and pressured merchants to boycott British products. I don’t drink his beer, but I do love his thoughts on Freedom and Liberty!

In conclusion America, maybe our Founding Fathers knew a little something about procuring Liberty and exercising Free Speech... and (figuratively speaking) maybe we should consider boycotting all the WOKE companies and “throwing a little tea” overboard....

...and Bringing America Home©

FRIDAY BONUS:

If you read yesterday's Substack: "Intellectually Speaking, They Is Nuts," I thought you might appreciate a little levity coming from a heartland man as he pondered the nonsense of the "intellectuals," who decided we should no longer use certain terms.

Female or Mother are now to be, "egg donor."

Male or Father should now be referred to as, "sperm donor."

As I was discussing this with my husband, I explained that the problem with their "logic-of-language" was that it was not inclusive of all women, females, mothers. Biologically, scientifically, and commonsensically speaking, an egg-donor does in time, run out of eggs. So, I asked my husband, "When the egg-donor runs out of eggs, what shall she be called?" He answered with a smirk, "A Broiler!"

As CNN's Don Lemon would have said, "Past their prime," for which, and rightfully so, he took much heat from the females around him.

... my husband will recover! 😊

"Our, the American People's" media is carrying news on polls wherefrom President Donald J. Trump's approval rating is just "awful, awful, awful." Pollsters are no dummies.
