It's Hard To Tell If Former President Barack Obama will have any influence on how President Donald J. Trump's deportation initiatives go, One can never be certain how political winds will change direction. In any case, former President Barack Obama is reported to have said, of President Donald J.'s deportation policy and moves, "You can't do that," As it happens, President Donald J. is.

"It is natural that citizens of great and powerful nations see themselves, collectively speaking, as immortal and immune to the processes that have brought down other illustrious nations and peoples."

~ James Thornton

President Donald J. Trump's Deportation policy is running into judicial roadblocks, as media have been reporting. "Our, the American People's" Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS), though, has decided President Donald J. can proceed with deportation by removing previous protections for some half-million illegals. SCOTUS must not have checked with former President Barack Obama.

"Even the most Bush-happy, flag suckling jack-arse knows deep-down inside that something is wrong. America is over and everyone knows it. The New World Order has a dying empire odor and changing the channel ain't going to make this go away."

~ Jello Biafra

The new Democrat Party.

"We, the American People" are not likely to see an end to court decisions on deportation for are time to come. America's federal government, with its loosely-coupled three, co-equal branches, none, ostensibly, having singular power over any or both other branches, shows no sign of resolving America's illegal immigrant/migrant/refugee dilemma very soon. Politicians-legislators not unhappy.

Socio-Economic Stability And Tranquility stand to elude "Us, the American People" as long as we allow America's legislators chief government executives, and magistrates to make socio-economic decision for us, a sovereign citizenry, using their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB). And making their PAVB lawfully compulsory. We will be Lemmings till we stand behind our PAVB.

People often say, with pride, 'I'm not interested in politics.' They might as well say, 'I'm not interested in my standard of living, my health, my job, my rights, my freedoms, my future or any future.' ...If we mean to keep any control over our world and lives, we must be interested in politics.

~ Martha Gellhorn – novelist

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators - or other public officials within These United States of America, to interfere in health matters between private citizens and their physicians. They prohibit government from intruding on their privacy.

"Of all the enemies to public liberty, war is perhaps the most to be dreaded, because it comprises and develops the germ of every other. War is the parent of armies; from these proceed debts and taxes; and armies, debts, and taxes are the known instruments for bringing the many under the domination of the few. No nation could preserve its freedom in the midst of continual warfare."

~ James Madison

"Our, the American People's" media have an article in circulation highlighting American history events of June 19th over time. First event mentioned in article header notes public student prayer at school sporting events was unConstitutional. Hard to say how it is article headline happened to be a Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) decision on school prayer sporting events. Curious.

"If Tyranny and Oppression come to this land, it will be in the guise of fighting a foreign enemy."

~ James Madison

Other June 19th Events Included Rosenberg executions, WWII Philippine Sea Naval Battle, and America's Emancipation Proclamation. SCOTUS sorting prayer decisions occurred later in history. Could be why SCOTUS prayer event was in article intro. Significance-wise, article noted Presidential Candidate Barack Obama skirted public financing for his presidential campaign. Public financing.

"The people of the U.S. owe their Independence & their liberty, to the wisdom of desecrating in the minute tax of 3 pence on tea, the magnitude of the evil comprised in the precedent."

~ James Madison

"We, the American People," were we to look further into article event listing, would find SCOTUS sporting event prayer decision was, effectively, overturned two years later when a high school coach's 1st, Amendment rights were deemed violated when said coach was disallowed sporting event public prayer. SCOTUS Justice mix at decisions might invite speculation on political influence on SCOTUS.

"The means of defense against foreign danger historically have become the instruments of tyranny at home."

~ James Madison

Unlike History, SCOTUS Justices have power to turn back previous SCOTUS Justices' decisions. Lending credence to America's courts conducting affairs based on magistrate personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB). It would be smart for us, America's sovereign citizenry, to institute a citizens' SCOTUS review panel (or, panels), of sorts, whereby SCOTUS PAVB decisions are publicly instituted.

"History records that the money changers have used every form of abuse, intrigue, deceit, and violent means possible to maintain their control over governments by controlling the money and its issuance."

"Perhaps it is a universal truth that the loss of liberty at home is to be charged to the provisions against danger, real or pretended, from abroad."

~ James Madison

It's A Rare (Virtually Unheard Of) Day when Media do not carry stories covering controversial decisions made by "Our, the American People's" courts, including Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS) decisions. Our courts have, by hook or crook, found their way into nearly every aspect of our lives. Our sense of necessity so lacks, courts could dictate toilet paper use, wrapping would attest.

"The people of the U.S. owe their Independence & their liberty, to the wisdom of descrying in the minute tax of 3 pence on tea, the magnitude of the evil comprised in the precedent. Let them exert the same wisdom, in watching against every evil lurking under plausible disguises, and growing up from small beginnings."

~ James Madison

After watching people defend Trump over
the last few years,
I will never again question
how Hitler came to power in Germany.

"We, the American People," for having been bestowed by America's commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions with proverbial inalienable (indisputable) rights, act like we've never heard of inalienable rights. Legislatures vote to confiscate our property (wealth), and restrict our choice Liberty), and we, dutifully, bow our submissive heads, and, contritely, plead, "May I?" Plead.

"Democracies have been found incompatible with personal security or the rights of property; and in general been as short in their lives as they have been violent in their death."

~ James Madison

America's Legislators, Chief Government executives, and judges pronounce; from "Us, the American People" comes not a resounding, "You may not. You haven't asked our permission." Rather, if we are bold enough to question legislative, judicial, or executive decrees, we, humbly, beg our rulers to reconsider. When we ought be letting them know they are not parents, nor doctors, nor counselors.

"It is proper to take alarm at the first experiment on our liberties."

~ James Madison

No Question, Societies Need Rules, lest they fall into chaotic ruin. Those rules, are deeply etched in our instincts to survive and develop through cooperation. Government, when legislating, executing, and adjudicating, takes away our choice to find synergism. Instead, government rules by making officials' personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) lawfully compulsory. PAVB err from prejudice.

"There are more instances of the abridgement of the freedom of the people by the gradual and silent encroachment of those in power, than by violent and sudden usurpation."

~ James Madison

People Determined To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to enter into defined-benefit contracts with collective bargaining units. They preclude government from eroding their assets through property confiscation.
