Political Theatre Drama Never Ends, contrived or coincident. Media reports to "Us, the American People" a former network chief political analyst claims former President Joe Biden was set up to fail in his June, 2024 debate with, then, presidential candidate Donald J. Trump. Hardly inconceivable. Political hacks are capable of dirty deeds to have elections turn out in their favor. Winning, foremost.

"Nip the shoots of arbitrary power in the bud, is the only maxim which can ever preserve the liberties of any people."

~ John Adams

"Our, the American People's" presidential Election 2024 has been rumored to have been laced with sundry theories on how it was President Joe Biden decided to call it quits and let Vice-President Kamala Harris take on being President Joe's successor. As it turned out, Vice-President Kamala Harris was not up to dealing with presidential candidate Donald J. Or, was not prepared to further Biden policies.

"We hold that each man is the best judge of his own interest."

~ John Adams

"We, the American People" have no was to assure a presidential administration will turn out as advertised in presidential campaigning. Politics, American-style, requires a certain amount of shape-shifting to keep voters and prospective voters from getting an idea legislative office candidates will not legislate, if they gain office, as they promise to legislate. We, oddly, consent to be wooed by deception.

"I can't understand why people are frightened of new ideas. I'm frightened of the old ones."

~ John Cage

President Donald J. Trump, Having Won Election 2024 electoral and majority vote majorities handily, is not having an easy time advancing his MAGA agenda. Perfectly understandable. Not unreasonable to say American legislators have inklings they'd be a better president than whoever beds down at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue. Our, sovereign citizenry, task is to keep them from showing us they can be so.

People Intending To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to infringe upon Americans' 1st Amendment rights or other Bill-of-Rights protections; nor do they allow blame for another person's behavior to be ascribed to their freedom to exercise their rights. America's Trusty Media Tells "Us, the American People" an outfit by bane of Power the Future is taking a close look at eight presidential Executive Orders (EOs) signed by for President Joe Biden. Power the Future is focused on providing reliable energy for America's future needs, according to write-ups. EOs in question are getting scrutinized due lack of public statements on their essence.

"You have rights antecedent to all earthly governments: rights that cannot be repealed or restrained by human laws...."

~ John Adams

Presidential EOs Are Thought By Some to have power equivalent to law. “We, the American People,” if so, would be smart to abolish presidential Executive Orders forthwith. There is no reason why an American chief government executive needs arbitrary power equivalent to force of law. America’s commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions, if anything, restrain executive power.

"There is danger from all men. The only maxim of a free government ought to be to trust no man living with power to endanger the public liberty."

~ John Adams

"Our, the American People's" President Donald J. Trump has been faced with controversy over his EOs since first taking office. There would be no reason for President Donald J. to be facing never-ending litigation over his EOs if, in fact, presidential EOs are equivalent to law. America's presidents, acting lawfully or not, have used EOs since George Washington decided not to be America's King.

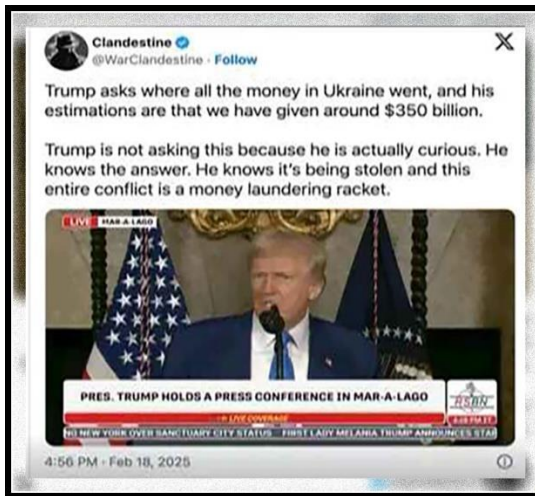

"Corruption, like a cancer ... eats faster and faster every hour."

Harvard Medical School morgue manager admits to stealing ORGANS from bodies and selling them.

Cedric Lodge has pled guilty to interstate transport of human remains after he took organs and sold them on the black market. Thoughts?

Presidential EOs Have Numbered well into thousands since President George Washington first used EOs to get reports from his staff. America's chief government executives have limited authority. They can't order judges around, they can't make legislators make law. Most importantly, they can't tell us, a sovereign citizenry, how we may arrange our potted plants, or, put people of our choice in office.

"There is danger from all men. The only maxim of a free government ought to be to trust no man living with power to endanger the public liberty."

~ John Adams

People Planning To Live In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to cause any citizen to be drawn into an obligation to assume responsibility for public debt for reasons other than to defend these United States. They prohibit government from putting them at financial risk.

Americans know that something, many somethings, are wrong in this nation today. The United States of America is a nation of people who have bragged of freedom, but we are now recognizing that We the People are living under oppression by a tyrannical oligarchy government. We are not free! In many ways, we ourselves are to blame. Little by little we have accepted government assistance here and there, subsidies, mandates, permits, restrictions, inspections, licenses for this or for that, and in doing so, we have become a dependent people, no longer sovereign but owned by the government. Government, of any kind, cannot give the citizens anything unless it first takes it away from others.

“Government is not reason; it is not eloquent; it is force. Like fire, it is a dangerous servant and a fearful master. Experience has taught us that it is much easier to prevent an enemy from posting themselves than it is to dislodge them after they have got possession, and when the freedom of speech is taken away then dumb and silent we may be led, like sheep to the slaughter.” George Washington

I believe it is not only beneficial that we look at our Declaration of Independence, it is our duty to educate ourselves and understand what their “grievances” were, then compare them to today.

I’m just a simple layman, reading, studying and pondering the words of our Founding Fathers. This is not some OLD document to be enshrined, it is a current reminder of our beginning as a nation and our responsibility to be active and mindful members (consent of the governed) of our current government.

In this segment we will look at the sixth and seventh grievances listed in the Declaration of Independence.

Grievance #6

He has refused for a long time, after such Dissolutions, to cause others to be elected; whereby the Legislative Powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exercise; the State remaining in the meantime exposed to all the Dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

As I mentioned in a previous article, the king removed the local government established by the colonists. The king's dissolution of the government prevented the correction of economic problems and left the colonies open for invasion. Rule of law was not a priority of the king, for sure! This removed government structure and left the colonies in chaos.

We have cities in America today that are in utter chaos. Perhaps there is no king removing local laws, but many mayors and prosecutors refuse to enforce law and order, leaving Americans vulnerable. The number of homeless now living on the streets in American cities has risen exponentially. Homelessness encompasses many facets of people which also includes drug addicts and those who suffer from mental illnesses: they need help! For mayors, council members and prosecutors to ignore this problem, is destroying the cities, obstructing businesses and again, placing citizens in danger. ...

Dangers of invasion from without, and convulsions within.

In taking over the government, the king, as stated in the first part of this grievance, made sure that he was the only power and government that the colonists had. He was not going to give up his kingship over the colonies. He was causing great suffering with his "policies."

Today? Well, the Democrat Party has been changing election laws and manipulating districts in order to keep power. The 2020 election was a total fiasco of corruption. Not to cut the Republican Party any slack here, during the 2022 election they assisted the democrats by refusing to recognize the primary choices of citizens in certain states; denying them GOP financial support and there were no GOP endorsements. Those new candidates were left cold in the political water to drown. Honest elections are currently being denied to We the People.

Grievance #7

He has endeavoured to prevent the population of these States; for that purpose obstruction the Laws of Naturalization of Foreigners; refusing to pass others to encourage their migrations hither, and raising the conditions of new Appropriations of the Lands.

This is the opposite problem that we face today. As a new and growing land, the colonists welcomed and encouraged new people into their new land, but the king stopped the colonists from being able to attract new settlers to the colonies, closing down travel. He was concerned about the growing power of the colonies and the popularity of republican ideals among immigrants, in particular, German immigrants. In fact, after the restrictions of the peace settlement of 1763, very few people settled west of the Alleghanies; immigration nearly ceased until the time of the revolution.

(What was the peace settlement of 1763? The Treaty of Paris of 1763 ended the French and Indian War/Seven Years' War between Great Britain and France, as well as their respective allies. In the terms of the treaty, France gave up all its territories in mainland North America, effectively ending any foreign military threat to the British colonies there.) Wikipedia

Today our “government” is ignoring immigration laws to overwhelm the citizenry of this nation. The influx of illegal immigrants today has not only increased crime in our communities, but has also placed a burden on our economic system, education system, health system and on housing and property.

Removing our sovereign borders is denying that the United States of America is even a legitimate nation. It isn't that We the People do not want to allow others to enter our nation, we do however, hold the right to vet such strangers and make sure America is being increased with good and honest people and families that actually want to be American. At this time, we have foreign enemies illegally entering our nation and disappearing into the population; enemies from countries such as Afghanistan, China, Russia, Sudan, Iraq, and Iran to name a few.

It is also apparent that leaders of other nations have agreed with the current administration to send to this nation some of their vilest and most ruthless people. They are emptying their prisons and sending the criminals across our nation's borders.

Going back to the words of Grievance 6... causing, “dangers of invasions from without, and convulsions from within.”

I find it extremely interesting that after nearly 250 years, We the People have once again become oppressed by a totalitarian government. This time it isn't just one king, it is a legion, an oligarchy!

I use this often, it's a line from the movie The Patriot, “Why should I trade one king 3000 miles away for 3000 kings one mile away? An elected legislature can trample a man's rights as easily as a king can.”

We are facing the same oppressions that our Founding Fathers faced. Just recognizing this fact is a step in the right direction.

Restoring our Republic will not be easy, it will take much prayer and wisdom and action. We must learn from the past, then seek, and work, for a better future! For our Posterity, we must Bring America Home®.

"What we have to remember is that not everything is under our control. If people are free in any meaningful sense of the word, that means they are at liberty to foul up their lives as much as make something grand of them. That's a gamble we all take. That's the risk of liberty. Nobody wants others to screw up their lives, but each must be free to do so for themselves."

~ Joel Miller

“Our, the American People’s” media is running an article wherein a district judge is reported comparing President Donald J. Trump’s National Guard troops deployment to California to protect ICE agents carrying out presidential deportation orders to England’s King George deploying English troops to colonial America. No National Guard troops were reported quartered in people’s private homes.

"The voice of the majority is no proof of justice."

~ Johann von Schiller

“We, the American People” would be smart to turn our attention toward how much America’s taxpayers have laid out for legal costs for litigation of President Donald J.’s policy disputes. When government goes to court, America’s taxpayers pay up. They who favor litigation to support dissent against government edicts might be happy. They who prefer to keep their preparty (wealth) not so.

"None are more hopelessly enslaved than those who falsely believe they are free."

~ Johann Wolfgang von Goethe

"A mediator hasn't worked, so I brought in everyone's moms."

Deportation Litigation Looks To Be a nagging problem for “Us, the American People” for some time to come. Deportation and open border camps are likely to be at each other’s throats with no compromise or reconciliation foreseen. Seeking a government solution may be nothing more than making things worse. Government solves socio-economic problems by force of law, not consensus.

"He alone deserves liberty and life who daily must win them anew."

Illegal Immigrant/Migrant/Refugee troubles have roots not easily tilled away. Conflicts born of personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) do not go away merely because someone in power directs them to go away. Faith-based PAVB may be hardest to overcome. Religious tenets and creeds aimed at removing perceived or pronounced evil have plagued people for ages. So, when tomorrow comes.
