"Our, the American People's" Supreme Court of the United State (SCOTUS is inherently prejudicial. If a media article citing SCOTUS Justice Kalenji Brown Jackson's assertion of textualism disregard is accurate. Media coverage characterizes Justice Jackson on a lonely crusade to rid SCOTUS of majority vote bias rooted in how SCOTUS deliberates cases. So it goes, does interpretation in securing justice.

"The power to tax involves the power to destroy;...the power to destroy may defeat and render useless the power to create...."

~ John Marshall

“We, the American People” would be smart to bear in mind America’s judges are ordinary people armed with extraordinary command of facts and figures enshrined in law-related documentation. We would be utter fools to expect America’s courts to adjudicate free from personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB). Cases are argued and decided based on court officer, magistrate and jury-held PAVB.

"The power to tax is the power to destroy."

~ John Marshall

When Confronted By A Given Court case, some of “Us, the American People” might ponder evidence based on how evidence is comprised. Others of us might ponder evidence based on how it is presented, i.e. interpreted. Yet other of us might have mixed comprised-presented evidence. All three consist of us taking account based on our PAVB. How we see evidence rests with our PAVB-driven perception.

"No nation ancient or modern ever lost the liberty of freely speaking, writing, or publishing their sentiments, but forthwith lost their liberty in general and became slaves."

~ John P. Zenger

It Would Not Be Unreasonable to say Justice Kalenji Brown Jackson arrived at SCOTUS with no small expectation to meet. Justice Jackson was nominated by former President Joe Biden who was categorical by nominating Jackson after having declared he would nominate a black woman to sit on America's highest court. Wouldn't be too far off to argue Justice Jackson was nominated out of bigotry.

"No nation, ancient or modern, ever lost the liberty of speaking freely, writing, or publishing their sentiments, but forthwith lost their liberty in general and became slaves."

For Those Of “Us, the American People,” who are wary of President Donald J. Trump’s inclination to go after matters his own way, media report America’s Congressional Senate Parliamentarian has invoked a reconciliation rule prohibiting reconciliation from dealing with proposed legislation line items outside financial realm. Senate makes its own rules. Senate legislators can ignore such rules.

"The laws of man may bind him in chains or may put him to death, but they never can make him wise, virtuous, or happy."

~ John Quincy Adams

"We, the American People," who are behind President Donald J. Trump's agenda, would be smart to require our legislators to be consistent when deliberating proposed legislation. We would be hypocritical, were we to allow President Donald J. Trump and his Congressional majority legislators to ignore or sway rules, then, tell opposition party majorities they may not change rules as they like.

"Democracy encourages the majority to decide things about which the majority is blissfully ignorant."
~ John Simon

It's Bad Enough "Our, the American People's" legislators can alter America's laws because differing parties have differing views they can codify when they have legislative office positional authority. We, as a passive sovereign citizenry, end up not being able to plan our socio-economic affairs when legislators can make laws forcing us to change our plans in accordance with election whims.

"Enemies are necessary for the wheels of the U.S. military machine to turn."

~ John Stockwell

Government Policies Changed By Ideological majority whim can be purged from our everyday lives, if we determine they be purged. Our two-and-a-half century of bending to legislatures, chief government executive intimidation, and judicial system unpredictability suggests we are unwilling to force America's government to stop meddling in matters affecting our daily lives. We opt to complain.

"Patrick Henry did not say, 'Give me absolute safety or give me death'."

People Committed To Living In Liberty do not allow legislators – or other public officials within These United States of America, to enter into defined-benefit contracts with collective bargaining units. They forbid government from eroding their property rights.

Democrats Have No Defense

There have been hearings this past week delving into the truth of the cognitive incompetence of Joe Biden during his time as president. Auto pen was used on many important documents and Executive Orders, even as early as his fifth day in office. Democrats chose to boycott these hearings and offered zero defense of the apparent cognitive decline of Joe Biden. Democrats are always absent when dealing with pertinent questions regarding truth in Liberty. While they scream to protect democracy, their actions are that which defend an oligarchy; an oligarchy crazed with an “auto-pen.”

Executive Editor of “Occupy Democrats,” Grant Stern stated in an interview on News Max that the American people don’t care whether Joe Biden was in control of his senses (paraphrased) and capable of making decisions. He didn’t think Americans wanted to “go backwards” but that Americans would like to put this issue in the past and “move on.” Grant is not speaking for all Americans, only for political democrats, who would love for us to just “move on.” He continued saying that he thought Americans were more concerned about “Trump’s immigration policies.”

Democrats Want To Move On

Move on, the democrats say, so that their crimes will not be exposed. Yes, the Democrat Party has committed great crimes against our Constitution and especially against the American people. As “they move on” they continue to hide their dastardly deadly deeds, and they continue to commit more crimes and chaos against Americans.

These so-called-expert talkers, like Grant, believe the American people are ignorant and will digest whatever lies they are told. Perhaps some are ignorant or ill-informed, when it comes to understanding our Constitutional Republic and just how it works. However, not all of us are so Constitutionally uneducated and therefore we do not accept the lies of people like Grant Stern. I need to remind Mr. Stern that the immigration policies are actually immigration laws which were established by Congress in accordance with our Constitution. It is then the President’s duty to enforce these laws. Joe Biden was shirking his duty and when he or his oligarchy refused to enforce the laws initiated by Congress, they put Americans in harm’s way, as well as jeopardizing national security. What the democrats did was not done in ignorance, but rather they intentionally plotted and acted out their crimes in complete defiance of Federal Laws, the Constitution and the will of the American people. An Insurrection?

Upgrade to paid

Which brings us to today, as we are watching wars escalate around the globe, with the high probability of enemy sleeper cells waiting to wreak death and destruction right here in American cities and towns. Will America soon suffer an October 7-copycat attack? ...and will our own institutions once again riot to “Free Palestine?”

While it is said that time heals all wounds, accountability and justice heals corruption. There is no doubt in my mind that the political system in America is broken. Our U.S. Constitution is being ignored, while politicians seem to make up their own rules. Is this a Constitutional Crisis?

There Is No Sense In Nonsense; There Is No Sincerity In Corruption

Democrats In Handcuffs

All the world is a stage, and all the democrats are actors, who have learned the lines of their lies very well and are sufficiently ready for their moments in front of the cameras.

In recent months we have seen democrat politicians defying laws, resisting police officers, secret service agents and attacking ICE officers. When the politicians are refused entry into an ICE facility, or told to stop, when “rushing” the podium of a cabinet secretary, they resist and fail to comply to authorities. We discovered judges who are harboring criminals or assisting them as they flee authorities. When these political figures are stopped or arrested, they immediately seek their fame in front of the cameras. Crying is not a good look Senator Padilla. I’m not against men crying, when there is a reason, but President Trump gets shot and shouts Fight-Fight-Fight...You, Senator, get “man-handled” and handcuffed and cry like a baby who had his favorite toy taken away. No wonder the Democrat Party doesn’t relate to real men; let me tell you, you don’t resonate with real women either! Americans want strong leaders, not whimpering leaders who didn’t get their way.

“No King” They Scream.

The democrats know perfectly well that America has no king or dictator. We have a strong leader in President Trump, who is not acting outside the Constitutional boundaries. We do, however, have unelected judges, rogue mayors and governors who are acting outside the Constitution, as they attempt to micromanage and obstruct the President of the United States.

Unmasking The Democrats

While democrat lawmakers are demanding that ICE enforcement troops stop wearing masks, it is the democrat modern day "Hessian" thugs; Antifa and the BLM wearing masks and riot gear, who show up to all their peaceful protests and turn them into violent riots, with intentions of taking over Federal buildings. Insurrectionists? Democrat lawmakers have threatened to doxx ICE agents so that they could intimidate them and their families, and in some cases have successfully exposed personal information of these men; their families, where they live...etc. It is the protestors and rioters who should be exposed; if your cause be noble, let us see who you are!

The democrats know that they are breaking the law; and pulling out the “I’m a senator” card, or I’m a federal judge, or I’m a member of congress, does not impress your constituents.

While you pretend your cause is noble, most Americans know that you are nothing more than thugs with a political title, and you cannot be trusted.

Upgrade to paid

For all who might be confused or simply need to be reminded that We the People have read the Constitution and that contract between us is not complicated. I will break it down now, even though I know that you democrats know, but are willfully ignoring, your responsibilities under our contract.

So that you know We the People are not Constitutionally confused and since you, the Democrat Party, seem to have great anxiety regarding illegal immigration and the federal laws being enforced, let me present to you a simple outline of exactly how illegal immigration came to be and who exactly is responsible.

Federal Laws 101 – More entertaining than I, I suggest you collectively get together, perhaps share some popcorn, and watch School House Rock, “I’m Just A Bill.”

With equal but separate powers: From the House of Representatives to the Senate and to the President.

How it works:

FIRST: Congress (referred to as the legislative branch in the Constitution) writes a new law but it is referred to as a “bill.”

The bill, any bill, will start in the House and then head to the Senate.

The U.S. Immigration bills started out in the House, went to the Senate and then to a President of the United States to be signed, which made them then, officially, Federal Immigration Laws!

The President (referred to as the executive branch in the Constitution) has the duty to enforce the laws, which congress wrote and voted to approve.

NOTE: President Trump is not acting like a king, he is acting like an elected president, the lead executive of the executive branch, according to the Constitution.

If the legislative branch (Congress; meaning the House of Representatives and the Senators) does not want the laws enforced by the executive branch (the President) then it is Congress, (the legislative branch) responsibility to change the laws, by writing a new bill.

Until they, Congress, constitutionally known as the legislative branch, follow the procedure of changing law by writing a new bill, it is the duty of the President to enforce the laws.

Members of Congress have the right and responsibility to write bills and submit them to the executive branch to be signed into laws. They do not have the right to “break the laws,” even if they do not like them!

Dear Democrats

I know the illegal aliens are your “guests” but you have done a terrible job of controlling them and teaching them to be lawful-legal citizens. You have completely failed to teach them the American way of life and how to legally assimilate into the populace and culture of our nation. Your anxiety has caused you to make some very unwise statements which encourage violence, even at the jeopardy of your own party members and even after the assassinations of Americans. Your misplaced anger has caused death and destruction. You have compelled and led your media minions into lying to the American people regarding the rioting (not protests) and together, all of you, falsely tell Americans that President Trump is to blame for the violence, and that he’s acting like a king. You and I both know this is all extremely false and dangerous to America and Americans.

No one is above the law, not even those, or especially those who are writing them!

As America sits and watches members of congress protesting, cursing, misbehaving, encouraging rioting and breaking laws, I think it's important that all the democrats understand, We the People know and understand your responsibilities under the Constitution of the United States of America.

"We, the American People" have cause to pause when America's courts, with more than one sitting judge, render split decisions. Wouldn't hurt if we paused whenever courts with a single magistrate pronounce, as well. Courts render opinions. Courts have no direct enforcement power. America's courts (part of government judicial branches) rely on government executive branches for enforcement.

"Every time that we try to lift a problem from our own shoulders, and shift that problem to the hands of the government, to the same extent we are sacrificing the liberties of our people."

~ John F. Kennedy

"Our, the American People's" Supreme Court of the United States (SCOTUS), in a 6-3 decision, decided America's Federal Communications Commission (FCC) can not bind courts where Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA) interpretation is at hand. One in three SCOTUS Justices, however, disagreed. Proving once again, America's justice system works on majority view, not inherent veracity.

"Truth: the most deadly weapon ever discovered by humanity. Capable of destroying entire perceptual sets, cultures, and realities. Outlawed by all governments everywhere. Possession is normally punishable by death."

~ John Hardwick

Federal Judges Are Presidentially Nominated, congressionally confirmed. It would be supremely naïve for “Us, the American People” to expect politically nominated and seated magistrates are not so nominated and seated because they are expected to reflect political ideals of those who nominate and seat them. Like it or not, personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) weigh heavily in court opinions.

"Don't do drugs because if you do drugs you'll go to prison, and drugs are really expensive in prison."

~ John Hardwick

SCOTUS FCC-TCPA Case Exemplifies how SCOTUS Justice-held PAVB make for SCOTUS decision disagreements. PAVB influence SCOTUS decision-making because there are no incontrovertible standards where law and justice are at hand. Barristers, commonly, refer to previous case outcomes when making arguments. Absent immutable standards, PAVB-driven precedents apply.
