~ Doug Newman

Pope Leo XIV Has, Media Reporting Verifiable, accused world leaders of feeding wars rather than feeding people. Pope Leo is circumspect in such regard. Pope Leo can't be direct, because, at least in "Our, the American People's" case, government produces not a slice of bread, not one tomato, not a solitary hot dog. On order of 0.1% of our federal government budget goes to food availability.

"Do not suppose that abuses are eliminated by destroying the object which is abused. Men can go wrong with wine and women. Shall we then prohibit and abolish women?"

~ Martin Luther

Pope Leo, Like All Popes before him, most likely for all popes to follow him, is obligated to, once his principal purpose of soul-saving is met, call for wealth redistribution to meet needs of those in need. If Pope Leo happens to get his papal feet mired with political slime, so be it. Popes are not bound to be correction practitioners. Popes are bound to carry out their pontifical commitment of service.

“If you feel driven to feed the poor, get your checkbook out and keep your tyrannical mouth shut about it.”

~ Lew Goldberg

Pope Leo, While His Intent To Prompt world leaders to stop fighting and start eradicating hunger and poverty is noble, might use his considerable charisma to improve people’s ability to catch fish, rather than depend on fish given them. It is, all said and done, entrepreneur ability and production whereby needs are met. If “We, the American People” can afford government largesse, people can learn to fish.

It Would Not Be Smart For “Us, the American People” to be caught up in Pope Leo’s admonition for world leaders to beat their swords into plowshares. Not while there are world leaders more than willing to wage war to increase their power to manipulate world economic resources to their advantage. Pope Leo might not recognize their deities as supreme. They care not while their swords are duly honed.

Two Of “Our, the American People’s” Congressional Senate legislators are out to exert their personal attitudes, values, and beliefs (PAVB) on every American (everyone everywhere if they could) through making their PAVB lawfully compulsory. Senate legislators are Elizabeth Warren, who wants hefty taxation on America’s wealthiest, and Bernie Sanders, who wants to seize Artificial Intelligence (AI).

“The compelling issue to both conservatives and liberals is not whether it is legitimate for government to confiscate one’s property to give to another, the debate is over the disposition of the pillage.”

When you need a permit to build a deck, but not to store a boat.

It's Not As Though "We, the American People" are not advised daily how legislator, chief government executive and judge apply their PAVB to their official positions regularly. They do. Our legislative-jurisprudence system, fundamentally, is rooted in PAVB put to documented record. America's commonwealth, federal (U.S./National), and state Constitutions empower legislators to do so legally.

Senator Warren Is After Wealth (property) held by Elon Musk and other comparatively wealthy Americans. Senator Warren says other people, not least children, badly need help, wealthy people have means, thus, wealthy people ought contribute – by law. Senator Sanders aim, media coverage accurate, comes down to a singular objective – Senator Sanders and his ilk making decisions for everyone else.

“Rightful liberty is unobstructed action according to our will within limits drawn around us by the equal rights of others. I do not add “within the law,” because law is often but the tyrant’s will, and always so when it violates the rights of the individual.”

It Would Be Smart For “Us, the American People,” no matter our political leanings, to recognize giving government lawful power to confiscate property(wealth) and restrict choice (Liberty) makes people subjects, not citizens – sovereign citizens in America’s case. It means people who work do so for government’s benefit, not for individual worker benefit. Practically, such is permissible vassalage.

Saturday, January 10, 2026, marked the 250th anniversary of Thomas Paine's pamphlet "Common Sense." You know how I love Thomas Paine's "The Crisis," and it's the one we love to quote; "These are the times that try men's souls..." I am no Thomas Paine, but I do love to read and share his writings. We need such outspoken Common Sense bravery today in America... We need to be reminded... We need to be encouraged... We need to understand that without Common Sense our nation will fall.

According to HISTORY.com

On January 10, 1776, writer Thomas Paine publishes his pamphlet "Common Sense," setting forth his arguments in favor of American independence. Although little used today, pamphlets were an important medium for the spread of ideas in the 16th through 19th centuries.

Originally published anonymously, “Common Sense” advocated independence for the American colonies from Britain and is considered one of the most influential pamphlets in American history. Credited with uniting average citizens and political leaders behind the idea of independence, “Common Sense” played a remarkable role in transforming a colonial squabble into the American Revolution.

At the time Paine wrote “Common Sense,” most colonists considered themselves to be aggrieved Britons. Paine fundamentally changed the tenor of colonists’ argument with the crown when he wrote the following: “Europe, and not England, is the parent country of America. This new world hath been the asylum for the persecuted lovers of civil and religious liberty from every part of Europe. Hither they have fled, not from the tender embraces of the mother, but from the cruelty of the monster; and it is so far true of England, that the same tyranny which drove the first emigrants from home, pursues their descendants still.”

Paine was born in England in 1737 and worked as a corset maker in his teens, and later as a sailor and schoolteacher before becoming a prominent pamphleteer. In 1774, Paine arrived in Philadelphia and soon came to support American independence. Two years later, his 47-page pamphlet sold some 500,000 copies, powerfully influencing American opinion.

Paine went on to serve in the U.S. Army and to work for the Committee of Foreign Affairs before returning to Europe in 1787. Back in England, he continued writing pamphlets in support of revolution. He released “The Rights of Man,” supporting the French Revolution in 1791-92, in answer to Edmund Burke’s famous “Reflections on the Revolution in France” (1790). His sentiments were highly unpopular with the still-monarchal British government, so he fled to France, where he was later arrested for his political opinions. He returned to the United States in 1802 and died in New York in 1809. ■

We Need Common Sense in America Again

Common Sense is not the untruth of saying a man can be a woman, or that men can have babies.

Common Sense is not bowing to the mentally ill or using them as mercenaries or as hired protestors.

Common Sense is not socialism; it is not communism. Common Sense is the opposite of Marxism. Those claiming these ideologies as they take an oath to the Constitution of the United States are lying about their oath and commitment.

Common Sense encourages self-thinking and understands that groupthink leads to a form of servanthood or government slavery.

Common Sense promotes education, not indoctrination. Educated people are able to think and reason.

Common Sense believes in Liberty and Sovereignty for individuals as well as for our nation.

Common Sense doesn't govern by emotions.

Common Sense believes in the rule of law.

Common Sense knows that socialism equals fraud, and that social programs are simply easy avenues to theft and money laundering. Socialism is the redistribution of wealth; your wealth; no matter how rich or poor you might be.

Common Sense knows that a nation must have borders, if not, there is no sovereign nation; just a chaotic, dangerous, inhabitation of unloyal and uncivilized people.

Common Sense cannot be silenced or canceled.

Common Sense relies on Truth and believes in personal responsibility. Truth will always prevail – eventually.

Common Sense acknowledges God! Common Sense will always stand for God, country and family... and in that order.

Common Sense relishes in Life, Liberty and the pursuit of happiness property and prosperity.

Common Sense believes all men and women were created equal... Socialism's equity destroys individuality, which is vital to Liberty.

Common Sense believes in "Consent of the Governed," knowing that governments are instituted by men, deriving or receiving power from those men.

Common Sense is what America was founded on!

I believe the MAGA Movement is the resurrection of Common Sense. Are we perfect? No! But we believe in truth! We believe in Liberty! We believe in Rule of Law, "Consent of the Governed," we believe in God, country and family... and in that order!

Several years Ago... there was an obituary spoof written (I don't know by whom). It was shared and distributed all over the internet.

An Obituary printed in the London Times

Today we mourn the passing of a beloved old friend, Common Sense, who has been with us for many years. No one knows for sure how old he was, since his birth records were long ago lost in bureaucratic red tape. He will be remembered as having cultivated such valuable lessons as:

- Knowing when to come in out of the rain;
- Why the early bird gets the worm;
- Life isn't always fair; and
- Maybe it was my fault.

Common Sense lived by simple, sound financial policies (don't spend more than you can earn) and reliable strategies (adults, not children, are in charge).

His health began to deteriorate rapidly when well-intentioned but overbearing regulations were set in place.

Reports of a 6-year-old boy charged with sexual harassment for kissing a classmate; teens suspended from school for using mouthwash after lunch; and a teacher fired for reprimanding an unruly student, only worsened his condition.

Common Sense lost ground when parents attacked teachers for doing the job that they themselves had failed to do in disciplining their unruly children.

It declined even further when schools were required to get parental consent to administer sun lotion or an aspirin to a student; but could not inform parents when a student became pregnant and wanted to have an abortion.

Common Sense lost the will to live as the churches became businesses; and criminals received better treatment than their victims.

Common Sense took a beating when you couldn't defend yourself from a burglar in your own home and the burglar could sue you for assault.

Common Sense finally gave up the will to live, after a woman failed to realize that a steaming cup of coffee was hot. She spilled a little in her lap and was promptly awarded a huge settlement.

Common Sense was preceded in death, by his parents, Truth and Trust, by his wife, Discretion, by his daughter, Responsibility, and by his son, Reason.

He is survived by his four stepbrothers:

- I Know My Rights
- I Want It Now
- Someone Else Is To Blame

- I'm A Victim

Not many attended his funeral because so few realized he was gone.■

The spoof is cute but unfortunately there are many today that live their lives by their emotions and lack the ability to logic and reason.

We need men (or women) like Thomas Paine. Without Common Sense America is in a crisis. Stay tuned here. I'll be sharing Thomas Paine's writing "The Crisis," as I parallel "These are the times that try men's souls," to our 21st Century and America's 250th Anniversary of Independence!

I believe in the Resurrection, and I believe the MAGA movement is the resurrection of Common Sense in America...

Dear Mr. Llamas, reporters, Mr. Panlilio and Reuters Business Development officers,

Thank you for your kind call this morning and for your willingness to review my business development proposal and bring it to the attention of your superiors.

1. I worked at Thomson Reuters's Lawyers Cooperative Publishing (LCP) as a researcher-writer for ALR Fed (American Law Reports, Federal). I left LCP to attend The University of Michigan Business School, where I earned a Master's in Business Administration. This is a proposal for a business and a venture that can benefit Thomson Reuters, others, me, and millions of insureds.
2. I propose that Reuters Business Development gain access as a sponsor to the 67,325+ subscribers to my website Judicial Discipline Reform at <http://www.Judicial-Discipline-Reform.org> as of 21 June 2026, in exchange for compensation and the granting to me of access to WestLaw services and books.
3. My website subscribers read the articles that I write in long form, that is, consisting of more than 1,000 words...and ask for more. They are interested in the intricacies of the law and the way I discuss them. It is reasonable to expect them to be intellectually demanding and certainly educated, influential, and well-off. They can afford Reuters's products and services as well as those advertised by third-parties, be they law-related or addressed to other needs of affluent people(C infra).
4. Convinced by experience of the substantial usefulness of Reuters's offerings for finding and arguing the law, I have praised them in a series of articles.¹ The latter and similar ones are collected in my three-volume study² exposing abuse of power; collectively demanding compensation; and setting in motion a national movement for transformatively reforming the system of justice.
5. Just as my study exposes abuses of power by the judiciary and other public and private entities, so did Reuters in its series of articles exposing the riskless abuse of power by state judges and the state commissions charged with supervising their conduct(OL3:1825). It described them as intertwined by “hardwired judicial corruption”. It titled the series “The Teflon Robe”.(App:6§C¶491)³

6. This is the most opportune time for us to join forces on behalf of the 70.1 million insureds abused by Medicare and its healthcare insurers. They coordinate their running of an insurance fraud scheme whose modus operandi centers on committing claim evasive “delay, deny, defend” tactics.
7. That word triptych has been made known by Luigi Mangione. He allegedly killed the CEO, Brian Thompson, of United Healthcare on 4 December 2024. His impending trial will attract journalists from NYC, NYS, the rest of the country, and abroad. We can benefit by interesting them in investigating an angle unavailable to Mangione as justification for murder: how Medicare and its insurers abuse their insureds with those tactics because they are old, sick, disabled, and ignorant of the law.
8. The joint venture’s timing is optimal: Mangione’s trial will be held in the federal court where I am prosecuting a civil case⁴ intended to be a test case in the public interest of exposing, not the abuse inflicted on one insured, but rather how those tactics work(^{4>}SDNY:156§L) and abuse millions.
9. The strategy(§A, B infra) aims to turn my website from an informational source into a rallying point where an informed and outraged public organizes to compel primaries and mid-term elections candidates to make this issue a key one of theirs; hold public hearings; and undertake reform. I offer to present it to you and your guests, whether in person if in your NYC offices, or anywhere else if my expenses and fee are covered; otherwise, via video conference.

So, I look forward to hearing from you.⁵

Dare shout “I accuse!”
You may trigger history and even enter it as a Champion of Justice.

Sincerely,
Dr. Richard Cordero, Esq.
